The 2009-2010 University Undergraduate Catalog

This catalog was prepared in the Fall of 2009. The material presented is for informational purposes only and should not be construed as the basis of a contract between a student and this institution.

While the provisions of this catalog will ordinarily be applied as stated, Kennesaw State University reserves the right to change any provision listed in this catalog, including but not limited to academic requirements for graduation, without actual notice to individual students.

Every effort will be made to keep students advised of any new information and/or changes in provisions listed in this catalog. The Schedule of Credit Courses is considered an extension of this catalog. Both the online catalog and the Schedule of Credit Courses (<http://www.kennesaw.edu/registrar>) are always the most current, and printed copies are available in the Office of Admissions and the Registrar, respectively.

It is incumbent on students to keep apprised of the graduation requirements for the degree they are pursuing.

Students have the responsibility to read this catalog, official announcements, notices posted on bulletin boards and otherwise to be informed completely in regard to the programs of studies, credits, degree requirements, quality points and other facts relating to life at this university. KSU has established a free student account email system and will periodically email students with important messages. The university will use this email system exclusively to communicate with students.

In the event that an administrative hearing officer or a court of record determines that “publications” issued by the university create a contractual or quasi-contractual relationship with any person, the amount of damages recoverable by the parties shall be limited to the amount of consideration paid by the person for the privilege of admission, enrollment, continued enrollment or other service rendered by the institution to such person.

As used herein, the term “publications” (without limiting the generality of the normal meaning of the term) shall be deemed to include any and all written forms or other documents issued by the institution concerning applications for admission, enrollment or continued enrollment, waivers of liability, consents to medical treatment and any and all other written forms, documents, letters or other materials issued by the university in furtherance of its educational mission.

Equal Opportunity/ Affirmative Action

Kennesaw State University is an affirmative action/equal educational and employment opportunity institution and does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, age, disability, national origin, or sexual orientation.

Welcome from the President

Dear Students:

Welcome to Kennesaw State University! You are attending a fine university, and during the course of this and upcoming years, it will become even better. KSU's faculty, staff, and administration are committed to excellence in everything we do, and I am sure that you, as a student, are also committed to excellence.

Over the years, Kennesaw State has grown from a small two-year institution to what it is today—a comprehensive university with more than 20,000 students offering bachelors, masters, and doctoral degrees, and a host of programs centered on students, student life, and student learning. KSU is now a destination campus, and an exciting place to be.

At both the undergraduate and graduate levels, KSU is first and foremost a learning community, a diverse body of people of all ages, each of whom is striving to learn and to understand more about himself or herself, the world, and the many activities and endeavors that humans pursue. During your time here at Kennesaw State, you will discover many things about yourself and your world, and you will grow in ways you never imagined as you improve your capabilities and skills. I wish you well in your journey of discovery and growth.

KSU has also long prided itself, and rightfully so, on being an engaged learning community. Kennesaw State's students, faculty, staff, and administration are engaged with each other, learn from each other, and help each other learn. Members of the KSU family are also engaged with the world beyond the campus, playing a large and growing role in business and industry, government and public affairs, and the service and support sectors, both as leaders and as active participants.

Again, welcome to Kennesaw State! I am pleased that you have chosen KSU as your university, and we all look forward to helping you learn, and to learning from you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Daniel S. Papp".

About Kennesaw State

KSU Today

Kennesaw State University, one of the fastest-growing members of the University System of Georgia, offers high-quality education to students throughout metro-Atlanta and northwest Georgia.

To meet the needs of today's students, Kennesaw State offers day, evening and weekend classes on its spacious suburban campus. Both traditional and nontraditional students will find programs of study to fit their lifestyles and interests.

Kennesaw State's mission of education and service will grow with northwest Georgia. Providing the leadership in this mission is President Daniel S. Papp, former senior vice chancellor for the University System of Georgia.

Accreditation

Kennesaw State University is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award bachelor's, master's, specialist and doctoral degrees. Inquiries related to the university's accreditation by the Commission may be directed to COC/SACS, 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097, telephone 404-679-4500, Web site: <http://www.sacscoc.org>. Questions related to admissions and the policies, programs, and practices of KSU should be directed to the university's offices, catalogs, publications, or Web sites.

The Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS/COC) is the recognized regional accrediting body in eleven U.S. Southern states and in Latin America for institutions of higher education that award associate, baccalaureate, master's or doctoral degrees.

The bachelor's and master's degree programs in business are fully accredited by The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB International). <http://www.aacsb.edu>.

The undergraduate and graduate degrees in accounting also have separate AACSB accreditation.

The undergraduate and graduate professional education programs are approved by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission for state certification, are nationally recognized by specialized professional associations (SPA's), and are fully accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE).

The undergraduate music programs are fully accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM). The bachelor's program in theatre is fully accredited by the National Association of Schools of Theatre (NAST). The undergraduate programs in visual arts are fully accredited by the National Association of Schools of Art and Design (NASAD).

The baccalaureate program in nursing is approved by the Georgia Board of Nursing, and both the baccalaureate and master's nursing programs are fully accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE), the accrediting body of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing (AACN) at One Dupont Circle, NW, Suite 530, Washington, DC 20036-8476. www.aacn.nche.edu.

The undergraduate computer science and information systems programs are fully accredited by the Accreditation Board for Engineering & Technology (ABET). The undergraduate chemistry and biochemistry programs are nationally approved by the American Chemical Society (ACS).

Institutional Mission

Kennesaw State University Vision

Kennesaw State University is among the best learning-centered comprehensive universities in the country and is expanding its programs of distinction to meet state and national needs. KSU provides excellent and accessible education, promotes research and scholarship, fosters community engagement, supports intellectual inquiry, and contributes to economic development. KSU alumni are well educated in the liberal arts, leaders in their chosen professions, and engaged citizens whose global awareness and lifelong learning make them visionary leaders for Georgia, the nation, and the world.

Kennesaw State University Mission

Kennesaw State University is a comprehensive public university that serves primarily northwest Georgia and Atlanta. With nationally recognized liberal arts, professional, and continuing education programs, KSU offers exemplary disciplinary and interdisciplinary education at the baccalaureate, master's, specialist, and professional doctoral levels. KSU's students prosper in a supportive environment with faculty, staff, and administrators who are vitally engaged in student life. KSU's academic programs are collaborative and creative, emphasizing both the development and application of knowledge. The KSU community values and promotes integrity, global awareness, technological literacy, diversity, and lifelong learning.

Kennesaw State University Goals

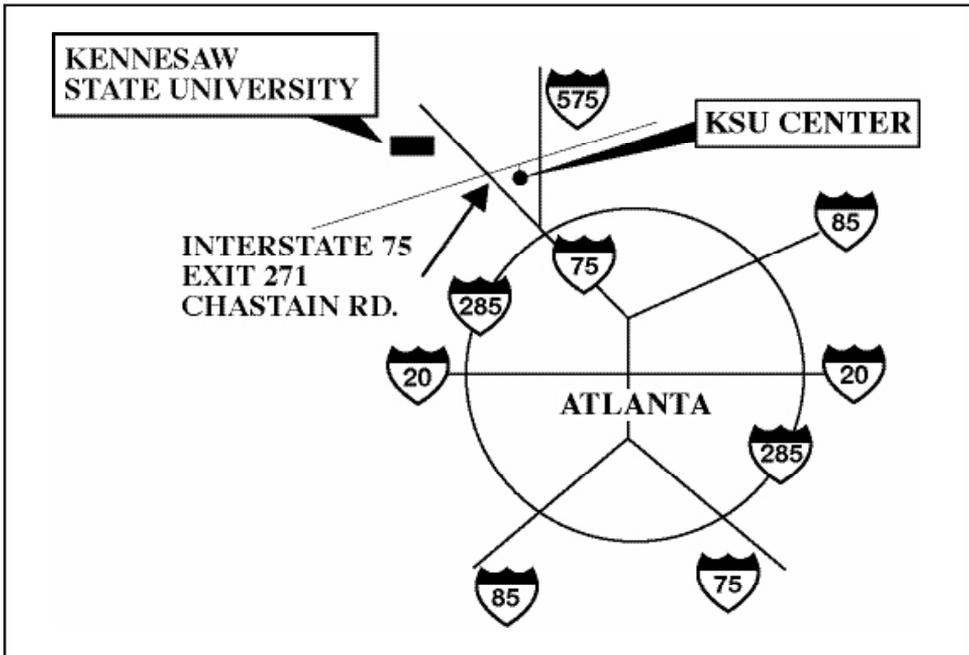

KSU's 2007-2012 Strategic Plan identifies the following as the University's five leading goals:

- Goal 1: To enhance and expand academic programs and delivery.
- Goal 2: To improve retention, progression, and graduation rates while maintaining high quality.
- Goal 3: To expand campus resources and enhance campus infrastructure.
- Goal 4: To enhance student life activities and prepare students to be leaders.
- Goal 5: To improve service, strengthen accountability, and establish a stronger sense of community.

The Campus

Kennesaw State University is convenient to the greater Atlanta area and Northwest Georgia. To visit the main campus, take I-75 to Chastain Road, Exit 271, and go west on Chastain Road, about one-quarter mile. See a campus map at <http://www.kennesaw.edu/maps>. Additionally, a KSU campus map is included in the back of this catalog.

Admission

Undergraduate Admission Policies

Kennesaw State University welcomes applications from all qualified students regardless of race, sex, religion, disability, or cultural background. Admission to Kennesaw is based on a number of factors depending upon your category of entry and previous educational experience. The university's admission requirements have been developed in accordance with the rules and regulations of the KSU faculty, and the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia.

Applicant credentials must indicate a reasonable chance of successful completion of academic work at Kennesaw State University. Admission decisions are based on your previous record of appropriate academic preparation, academic performance, test scores, personal qualities and experience. It is the responsibility of the potential applicant to review admission standards in advance to determine the likelihood of eligibility.

With appropriate administrative concurrence, the University Admissions Office reserves the right to make other exceptions on a limited basis to specific requirements when, in the professional judgment of the director of admissions, the special circumstances and offsetting strengths of a particular application file warrant such exceptions.

It may become necessary to request additional testing for a more accurate assessment of your ability to succeed or to qualify for study at the university level or for placement. If your file is not completed in time for such testing to be scheduled prior to registration, it may be necessary to update your application to a future semester.

Admission is a selective process and meeting deadlines or minimum requirements will not necessarily guarantee acceptance. It is the responsibility of the applicant to review admission standards in advance to understand the likelihood of eligibility. If an applicant fails to enroll for the term of application, a new application and fee must be submitted. After twelve months, all documents are purged and destroyed and the entire application process including credentials must be repeated.

Approval for admission is valid only for the term specified at the time of acceptance and does not imply that approval will be granted for a term not specified. Any changes in your record due to completion of additional course work prior to enrollment or a change in semester of entry for which approval has not been given will necessitate a new review of your application file. Changing the semester of entry requires submission of a new application processing fee and after one year new supporting credentials.

Admission Sequence

Admission to the university is primary and is a sequential prerequisite to any other program admission or departmental scholarship award.

Admission to Kennesaw State University as an undergraduate student does not automatically admit the individual to teacher education, nursing, business or other programs with internal admission gates. However, admission to the university is primary and is a sequential prerequisite to any other program admission or departmental scholarship award. Separate application processes are required for formal admission to such professional programs, and such admission decisions are typically made after a prescribed amount of course work has been completed with satisfactory grades by the applicant. Details of such program level admission requirements can be found in the section of this catalog which outlines degree program requirements.

Application and Document Deadline Procedures

Applications for admission and all required credentials (such as transcripts and test scores) must be submitted by established deadlines. New applications received after the deadline dates listed below will be processed for the following term. The following dates are tentative until final decisions are established regarding confirmed registration dates for each term.

APPLICATION DEADLINES*

	First Year - Freshmen	Transfer & All Others	Classes Start
SPG 09	11/14/08	11/14/08	TBA
SUM 09	4/19/09	4/19/09	TBA
FALL 09	5/15/09	6/26/09	TBA
(Joint Enrollment)
FALL 09	1/30/09	-----	TBA

* New first year students and transfer freshmen applications for fall semester must be received by the May deadline. Fall semesters are the only semesters where the new and transfer freshmen deadlines will be different than for other applicants.

Unless otherwise noted for a specific category of applicant, the application file for admission is complete and ready for review when the Office of University Admissions (Kennesaw State University, 1000 Chastain Road, Mailbox # 0115, Kennesaw, GA 30144-5591) has received the following:

- A completed Undergraduate Application for Admission to Kennesaw State University submitted online with a nonrefundable fee;
- Official scores on all required college entrance tests (typically SAT or ACT; some applicants may also be required to have SAT II subject test scores, TOEFL scores, or placement test scores). All test scores must be sent from the testing service to KSU;
- Official high school and college transcripts mailed directly from those institutions to KSU;
- The GED is not acceptable for the traditional first year freshman.

At any time during the application or enrollment process, the University may require any applicant to appear for a personal interview and/or to take standardized achievement, assessment, placement, and psychological tests which it deems appropriate in arriving at a decision regarding the applicant's general qualifications for admission.

The University reserves the right to withdraw admission prior to or following enrollment if the student has falsified application materials or otherwise demonstrated ineligibility as determined by the standards of the University or Board of Regents.

University Admission's Web site may be used by applicants 24 hours a day to check on the status of application and documents.

Additional admission information, online applications and application status check as well as electronic undergraduate and graduate university catalogs are available at: <http://www.kennesaw.edu>

Upon acceptance and prior to enrollment, any student with a documented disability or special need must notify the University of any particular accommodations required. Please contact the assistant director for Disabled Student Services in the Student Development Center at (770) 423-6443.

Requirements for Admission from High School

Applicants are again reminded that university admission is a selective process and that meeting minimum requirements does not guarantee acceptance. Applicants with the strongest credentials for admission will typically be given preference when acceptances are restricted due to space and resource limitations and to a larger number of qualified applicants than can be reasonably accommodated by the university.

College Preparatory Requirements

The College Preparatory Curriculum (CPC) is a key factor considered in freshman admissions decisions. Completion of the University System of Georgia's College Preparatory Curriculum requirements at a regionally accredited or University system recognized high school is expected of most successful traditional freshman applicants. A minimum of 16 CPC units (Carnegie units which equate to four years of completed high school study) are required in the following subject areas:

Areas (Units)	Required Course Emphases
*English (4)	Grammar and Usage American & World Literature Advanced Composition Skills *ESL courses are not recognized to satisfy CPC English unless documented by the high school.
Mathematics (4)	Algebra I Geometry Algebra II Advanced Math
Science (3)	Laboratory courses in Life Science Laboratory courses in Physical Science
Social Science (3)	American Studies World Studies Economics & Government (or appropriate substitution)
Foreign Language (2)	Must be in the same language

Freshman Index

The freshman standards at KSU meet the Board of Regent Freshman Index (FI) requirement for our institution. The index is a weighted formula which adds 1) the applicant's highest SAT Critical Reading / Verbal score, 2) the highest SAT-Math score, and 3) the college recalculated high school grade point average (HSGPA) multiplied by 500. The University Admissions Office recalculates your academic HSGPA and includes only acceptable academic units (CPC) while excluding other high school courses such as physical education, vocational courses, ROTC, driver's education, etc. from the recalculation. (All repeated CPC courses are calculated in the GPA.)

Regular First Year Admission Standards - (Full Admission)

Regular freshmen are typically applicants who will be first-time college students and who apply 6-12 months before completing high school graduation.

KSU's minimum requirements for admission

12 Admission

as a regular first year freshman include the following:

- 1) Graduation from a regionally accredited high school or a high school accredited by the Georgia Accreditation Commission (GAC), or Accrediting Commission on Independent Schools (ACIS), or from a public school under the authority of the state department of education.
- 2) Completion of at least the 16 required units in the University System's College Preparatory Curriculum.
- 3) Have a combined Critical Reading and Math total of 950 on the SAT (20 ACT Composite), Freshman Index of at least 1940, with a SAT-Critical Reading/ Verbal of at least 490 (ACT 20) and a SAT-Math of at least 460 (ACT 19), and an academic HSGPA of at least 2.5 in the College Preparatory Curriculum as calculated by KSU. (Beginning fall 2006 the new SAT essay portion must be submitted, but will not be used in the decision.)

Learning Support Program (LSP) First Year Freshman Admission Standards

The University System permits KSU to admit a limited number of traditional first year freshmen each year who do not meet all of the minimum requirements listed above, but whose records are sufficiently strong to show promise for success at the university. The minimum requirements to be considered for limited freshman admission in 2009-2010 include the following:

- 1) Graduation from a regionally accredited high school or a high school accredited by the Georgia Accreditation Commission (GAC) or Accrediting Commission on Independent Schools (ACIS) or from a public school under the authority of the state department of education.
- 2) Completion of the 16 required University System CPC units.
- 3) Have a combined Critical Reading and Math total of 950 on the SAT (20 ACT Composite) Freshman Index of at least 1940, with a SAT Critical Reading/ Verbal of at least 430 (ACT English 17), SAT Math of at least 400, (ACT Math 17) and a High School GPA of 2.5 in the College Preparatory Curriculum as calculated by KSU.

- 4) Take standardized placement exams in writing and mathematics for applicants with SAT- Critical Reading/ Verbal scores less than 490 (ACT 20), SAT-Math scores less than 460 (ACT 19). Based on placement exam results, successful completion of additional academic assistance course requirements may be required, which do not count toward a degree.

Transfer students with 30 semester hours of transferable college credit, satisfying CPC requirements elsewhere in the University System will be recognized as having met those requirements at Kennesaw State University upon admission and evaluation of transcripts.

Alternatives for Home School Applicants and Others

Kennesaw State recognizes the choice and rights of a family to home educate their children. However, some home educated applicants bear the burden of demonstrating through proper documentation that they meet all of the standard requirements for regular or limited freshman admission.

Home school applicants are defined as completing a high school program of study that is not from a regionally accredited or University System recognized high school and those who have not satisfactorily completed the prescribed Carnegie units of the College Preparatory Curriculum in a manner acceptable to the University System.

Nevertheless, the University System of Georgia permits home educated applicants to be considered if they demonstrate sufficient CPC preparedness on appropriate standardized subject matter tests (specific SAT II subject exams or through a portfolio review process) and meet or exceed the required minimum freshmen average scores on the SAT I or ACT. Refer to the Web site: www.kennesaw.edu/admissions for the current accepted freshman average test scores and for information regarding portfolio procedures and standardized test options..

The portfolio review approach for handling exceptions for home school students waives the high school graduation requirement, the academic HSGPA requirement, the Freshman Index requirement, and the Carnegie unit requirements of the CPC. These waivers are in exchange for satisfactory performance on additional standardized testing, which validates college preparedness, and demonstration of a satisfactory comprehensive high school academic experience.

Prospective home school applicants are encouraged to contact the Office of University Admissions at least six months prior to the planned date of entry to obtain information and direction as to how to pursue these alternatives and exceptions for admission. Refer to the Web site: www.kennesaw.edu/admissions, home school link, for the most current admission criteria.

High school graduates who did not complete all of the required College Preparatory Curriculum units may also be granted an exception to that requirement if they validate their college preparedness in their deficient subject areas with satisfactory scores on the appropriate standardized tests (SAT II subject exams).

With appropriate administrative concurrence, the University Admissions Office reserves the right to make other exceptions on a limited basis to specific requirements when, in the professional judgment of the director of University Admissions, the special circumstances and offsetting strengths of a particular application file warrant such exceptions.

Early Entry Options

High School Joint Enrollment/ Honors Program (JEHP)

The JEHP gives outstanding high school seniors the opportunity to earn high school and college credits concurrently, as well as participate in enrichment activities reserved exclusively for Honors students. (Eligible high school juniors may participate in JEHP on a restricted basis.) In addition, qualified JEHP students attending accredited public or private high schools may have their University tuition covered by the ACCEL program. (JEHP students may be fully or partially responsible for mandatory fees and purchasing of textbooks.) The ACCEL funding is at the discretion of the Georgia legislature and may or may not be renewed annually.

All applicants must have their high school counselor's approval before they seek to fulfill high school graduation requirements by enrolling in freshmen college courses at Kennesaw State University. To be admitted to the JEHP, students must have a completed application file for admission, earned at least a 3.0 academic grade point average in high school and have a minimum combined score of 1100 on the Critical Reading and Math sections of the Scholastic Assessment Test (SAT), with subpart minimum of 530 on the Critical Reading/verbal section and 530 on the math section of the test; or a composite score of 24 on the American College Test (ACT), with subpart minimum scores of 23 English and 22 Math, and be on track to graduate with a college prep diploma. Students must also submit a completed Consent Form before admission is granted.

In addition, each student involved will be expected to satisfy the following requirements at Kennesaw State University:

1. Students lacking a fourth year of English will complete English 1101 and 1102. Some students may be required to take an additional literature course to satisfy high school unit requirements;
2. Students lacking the high school's American Government requirement will complete Political Science 1101 (American Government);
3. Students lacking the high school's economics requirement will complete Economics 1100;
4. Each applicant must be recommended by the high school guidance counselor, who will also verify that the courses completed at Kennesaw State will satisfy the remaining requirements for high school graduation;
5. Complete a Joint Enrollment Consent Form showing parent, counselor, and student and KSU agreement to proceed;
6. Joint enrollment applicants should contact their high school Guidance Office to learn how to qualify for "ACCEL" benefits;
7. For JEHP deadlines, visit the Admissions Web site or contact the Office of Admissions.

Exceptional Test Scores

With the permission of their parents and high school principal or guidance counselor, applicants who demonstrate high academic performance through exceptional test scores may be considered for limited Joint Enrollment admission by submitting scores on the SAT of 700 Critical Reading/verbal (ACT 31) or 700 mathematics (ACT 31). Students who meet these requirements may enroll in any course that the respective SAT score(s) support. However, parental and high school approvals and an interview are required.

Early Admission with Outstanding Test Scores

Students with a combined SAT of 1370 on the Critical Reading and Math sections or 95th percentile (ACT 31) and a 3.5 minimum academic GPA may be considered for enrollment in any appropriate level course and be exempted from high school graduation. Students must satisfy any CPC deficiencies in areas other than English or mathematics. Such students are eligible for full standing freshmen admission, however, parental and high school written approvals and an interview are required.

This option allows exceptionally qualified students to be considered for admission to their first year of college without having graduated from high school. Students seeking to participate in this program are encouraged to make arrangements, if possible, with their local high school to receive a diploma with their graduating class. (Students not receiving a high school diploma or GED may be ineligible to participate in government financial assistance programs, selected scholarships or certain employment.)

Advance Placement Opportunities

Kennesaw State University welcomes students who have pursued accelerated academic course work while in high school or through recognized national standardized programs. Such programs include College Board's Advance Placement (AP), International Baccalaureate (IB), College Level Subject Examination Program (CLEP), and Defense Activity for Nontraditional Educational Support (DANTES).

CLEP exams are administered nationally through Educational Testing Service (ETS) testing centers, or through the University's CAPS Center for currently enrolled students only. AP tests are given at many high schools throughout the country and qualified applicants are advised to take these tests in the spring of their senior year in high school. CLEP and AP credits do not count toward the KSU residency requirement or grade-point average.

In addition, students who have pursued advanced and rigorous college preparatory course work in high school and who have performed well in those courses may be exempted from equivalent prerequisite courses at KSU and continue their studies at more advanced levels. Approvals for such waivers may be secured from the dean of undergraduate and university studies or the appropriate academic department chair.

Admission From Other Colleges

Transfer applicants for admission are students who have earned college credit elsewhere at collegiate institutions accredited in a manner acceptable to KSU, and wish to transfer to KSU in order to continue their collegiate studies.

KSU's Office of the Registrar conducts transfer evaluations and accepts transfer credit only from such approved institutions, only in courses comparable to KSU courses or in subject fields appropriate for KSU degrees, only when the grades earned are sufficiently high for the transfer courses to meet KSU degree requirements, and only when the grades on all acceptable credit for transfer average 2.0 or better. Course work completed more than 10 years prior to admission to Kennesaw State University may not be accepted for transfer unless its currency is validated by the appropriate university officials.

Students planning to transfer from another college must make arrangements for each college previously attended to forward a complete official transcript to the Office of Admissions at Kennesaw State University.

Official transcripts are required, regardless of the applicant's wishes concerning transfer credit, or financial holds, and must be mailed directly from the sending institution to the Office of University Admissions.

Transfer students' records will be evaluated in the same manner as Kennesaw State University resident students. Transfer students must have completed 30 semester hours of transferable credit with a 2.0 GPA or above. A limited number of transfer applicants who are eligible to reenroll at their last college or university attended and have cumulative grade point averages less than 2.0 will be admitted and placed automatically on academic probation at KSU. Probationary admission is not typical and may only be extended in limited situations. Transfer students admitted on academic probation must complete 12 semester hours at KSU with at least a 2.0 grade point average before probationary status is removed. Failure to maintain a 2.0 average in any semester while on academic probation will result in academic dismissal from the University. Refer to the section labeled "Academic Policies" for a more complete discussion of the Academic Probation/Dismissal Policy. Dismissed students must reapply to KSU, meeting appropriate deadlines.

Transfer applicants who have been academically dismissed from their previous institution may not enter Kennesaw State until they are fully eligible to return to their former institution and have attained a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0.

Students transferring from another institution in the University System of Georgia must have satisfied any and all learning support requirements before being admitted to KSU. Transferring students taking physical education hours at one institution will not be required to duplicate these hours at KSU. However, students taking an orientation course at another institution may be required to take the KSU 1101 orientation course. All admission application deadlines cited earlier apply to transfer applicants. All of the documents cited earlier and required for a complete application file apply to transfer applicants with the following exceptions:

- a) High school transcripts are not required for applicants with 30 or more earned semester hours of acceptable transfer credit. (All college and university transcripts are required, however);
- b) SAT I or ACT scores are not required for applicants with 30 or more earned semester hours of acceptable transfer credit;
- c) Freshman transfer applicants (less than 30 semester hours of transferable credit) may be required to take the College Placement Examinations (CPE) or COMPASS in English and/or math depending upon SAT/ACT scores.

Transfer Freshman Admission Standards

Applicants with fewer than 30 semester hours of acceptable transfer credit must meet the same admissions requirements identified earlier for freshmen admitted from high school. Freshman transfer applicants may be required to take the COMPASS in English and/or math depending upon SAT/ACT scores. Transfer freshmen must be in good standing at previous institutions.

Transfer Admission Standards for Sophomores and Upperclassmen

Transfer applicants with sufficient transferable hours to be classified as a sophomore, junior or senior at KSU must have completed any and all learning support requirements prior to admission and have a cumulative GPA of at least 2.0 in the previous institutions attended.

Special Admission Categories

KSU has a number of special admission categories other than those for freshmen and transfer applicants.

Nontraditional-Adult Learners-Freshmen Admission Standards

First year adult learners are those students who have not attended high school within the previous five years (graduated or should have graduated five or more years ago) and have earned fewer than 30 transferable semester hours of college credit, and who hold a high school diploma or have satisfactorily completed the GED.

16 Admission

Applicants eligible for review in this category are exempt from the SAT/ACT and College Preparatory Curriculum requirements. However, nontraditional students admitted in this category will be required to take at no charge the University System of Georgia's Collegiate Placement Exam or COMPASS examination. Test results may place the applicant in the Learning Support program for extra non-degree course work in reading, writing and mathematics skills. Adult nontraditional applicants may choose to qualify as regular or limited freshmen by meeting the appropriate criteria as described earlier.

International Student Admission Standards

International students should apply through the Institute for Global Initiatives. Application processing and other campus INS procedures will be handled from this office.

Kennesaw State University supports international education and the philosophy that cross-cultural understanding is vital for creating mutual respect, appreciation and understanding of diversity. The presence of international students fosters cultural exchanges, which are beneficial to the student body and to the community at large.

International students may enroll in any program of study offered at Kennesaw State University. In addition, there are on campus apartment complexes where an international student can make arrangements for living accommodations. For information, visit our housing Web site at <http://www.kennesaw.edu/housing>

Students are responsible for their own transportation needs. There is limited county bus service to the campus.

KSU has no designated financial assistance for international students. All international applicants must pay nonresident fees unless the individual receives one of the nonresident fee waivers available to international students through the Institute for Global Initiatives. International applicants must present documented evidence that they have sufficient funds to meet their educational and living expenses.

All international students requesting admission to Kennesaw State University must submit the following credentials at least two semesters prior to the semester of enrollment:

1. A completed Undergraduate Application for Admission to Kennesaw State University submitted online with a nonrefundable fee;
2. Sworn affidavit of support from the applicant's financial sponsor;
3. A letter from the sponsor's bank showing that funds (in U.S. dollars) are available for one year of support;
4. Official or certified true copies of all high school and/or college/university records with a certified English translation.

International students are required to have an official evaluation of credentials done by an outside agency at the student's expense.

You may contact: 1) World Education Svcs., Inc., P.O. Box 01-5060, Miami, FL 33101. (800) 937-3899; south@wes.org 2) Educational Credential Evaluators, Inc., P.O. Box 92970, Milwaukee, WI 53202. (414) 289-3400; eval@ece.org; or a service accredited by N.A.C.E.S., <http://www.naces.org/members.htm>. Official transcripts must be mailed directly from the sending institution or hand delivered in sealed college envelop. A KSU evaluation of credits will not occur until satisfactory documents are on file. It is up to the academic department as to which credits will actually apply to your degree program;

5. An official score of 75 or more on the Internet based TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) exam or 527 on the paper exam, or 197 on the computer based exam. Satisfactory scores on the TOEFL exam does not waive the mathematics portion of the SAT).
6. Official scores on the Scholastic Assessment Test (SAT), or American College Test (ACT).
7. A valid Certificate of Immunization required upon enrollment, must be submitted to the KSU Health Clinic. Requirements are listed on their Web site at http://www.kennesaw.edu/col_hhs/hc.

*The TOEFL requirement may be waived if the applicant:

- has completed and transferred the English composition courses (I and II from an accredited American institution) for the core requirement at the college level;

- has satisfactory scores on the SAT II test of English usage;
- has a SAT I Critical Reading/Verbal score of at least 490 (ACT 20).

To be eligible to register and remain in compliance with the Student Exchange and Visitor Information System (SEVIS), international students must have a current valid F1 visa status. An I-20 Form will be issued only upon the student's full acceptance into the University.

International students with a student visa are required to be full-time students (at least 12 semester hours) for spring and fall semesters, excluding summer term of the academic year in order to maintain F-1 status with the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). The University is required to notify the USCIS whenever a student's load drops below 12 semester hours.

Also, upon arriving at Kennesaw State University, all international students are required to visit the Center for Global Initiatives Office and have their passports, I-20 ID, and Arrival-Departure Record copied and placed in their student files.

This procedure facilitates the replacement of a lost Arrival-Departure Record and is required by the USCIS. International transfer students applying to Kennesaw State University from other educational institutions in the United States are also required to have their passports, I-20 ID copy and Arrival-Departure Record copied before enrollment.

Transient Students

A student who has been enrolled in another college or university and who expects to return to that college or university may apply for temporary (one term) admission and registration at Kennesaw State University as a transient student. Transients must have all documents filed by the deadline to be considered for admission. In fairness to its degree seeking students and because of limitations on available space, KSU must give its regular students higher priority for registration than transient students. Transient students have no guarantee that space will be available in the classes they seek. Additionally, the May session is not intended for transient enrollment.

In addition to completing an online application for admission which includes paying the non-refundable application fee, a prospective transient student must present a written statement from the registrar, dean or other academic officer of the institution last attended recommending his/her admission as a transient student and stating that the student is academically eligible to continue college study at the institution. A student who is ineligible to return to the institution formerly attended will not be admitted as a transient at KSU.

Enrollment at KSU as a transient student ordinarily is limited to one semester, unless special permission is granted in advance by the Director of Admissions. Transient students wishing to continue at KSU beyond the initial semester of entry must reapply for admission and present a new written statement of permission from the previous institution's registrar. Transient students desiring to continue as transfer students must reapply for admission in that category through the Office of Admissions and furnish all required documents and transcripts by the published deadline. Transient status is not intended as an alternative to meeting admission standards as a degree seeking student. Credits earned at KSU will not be considered when a transient student applies to become a transfer student to Kennesaw State University. For purpose of admission or readmission as a transient student, the summer term will be treated as a semester.

Non-Degree Students

The non-degree category exists for those students who have previously earned a baccalaureate degree from an institution accredited in a manner acceptable to KSU, and who wish to enroll in undergraduate courses for which they are eligible, for personal or professional reasons instead of degree completion. Students applying for non-degree status must submit an online application for admission which includes payment of the non-refundable application processing fee, and an official transcript from the institution that awarded the initial degree (meeting all deadlines). Non-degree students who later wish to pursue another undergraduate degree at KSU must meet all pertinent transfer admission requirements and deadlines and complete an application for readmission to change status from non-degree to degree seeking.

18 Admission

Auditors

Auditors attend classes and may participate in course assignments but are not graded and do not receive degree credit for completing the audited courses. To be admitted as an auditor, the individual must complete an online application for admission, which includes payment of the nonrefundable application processing fee; and produce an acceptable high school (or college) transcript which reflects a minimum of high school graduation or equivalency.

Students are not permitted to receive retroactive credit at any future date for their participation in a course as an auditor nor change from an audit to a credit status while enrolled in a course. Audited courses are counted at full value in computing the student's load for fee purposes. A student wishing to change his/her classification from an auditor to a degree-seeking student must reapply for admission in the appropriate category and meet all pertinent requirements and deadlines.

Audited courses do not qualify for educational benefits or financial assistance under the social security laws, veterans and other federal and state programs.

Immunizations

Prior to registration, a valid Certificate of Immunization is required to be on file in the KSU Health Clinic upon enrollment. All students who matriculate before 1/1/05 must have written documentation of immunity or be immunized for: Measles, Mumps and Rubella. As of 1/1/05, all students must have the immunizations above plus Varicella (chicken pox), Tetanus, and Hepatitis B. Students residing in university housing must show proof of one dose of meningitis vaccine. Contact the KSU Health Clinic for details regarding immunizations. Visit http://www.kennesaw.edu/col_hhs/hc/ Mail immunizations to the KSU Health Clinic at 1000 Chastain Road House #52 Kennesaw, GA 30144-5591 or fax to 678-797-2224.

Readmission

Students who must apply for readmission include: academically dismissed, transients and students who have not been enrolled for 24 consecutive months (6 terms) as well as students changing classification. If you do not enroll, the process must be repeated. The application for readmission is available online at the following Web site: http://www.kennesaw.edu/admissions/online_applications_forms.html. The readmission application must be submitted along with the non-refundable processing fee and any required supporting credentials fee by the deadline for the term you wish to reenroll.

Appeals

Formal appeals of the University's admission decision may be filed with the Office of University Admissions to the attention of the Appeals Committee. If an appeal is approved the student will have a probation status and must complete any prescribed conditions as specified by the Committee. Students on probation may not register in priority registration until probation has been satisfactorily removed. Additional information regarding probation status may be found in the Academic Advisement and Academic Policies section. Contact the Office of University Admissions for additional instruction on the appeals process.

Tuition, Expenses, & Financial Aid

Tuition and Fees

2009-2010 Expenses/Fees

Expenses include in-state tuition, out-of-state tuition, mandatory student fees, and other special fees. All fees are due and payable at the time of registration, and registration is not complete until all fees have been paid. To view current tuition and fees by semester, please go to the Bursar's Office website at <https://financialservices.kennesaw.edu/bursar/tuition>

Mandatory Student Health Insurance

A mandatory insurance plan is in effect for the following student categories:

- All graduate students receiving a tuition waiver as a result of a GRA, GTA, or GSA assistantship award.
- All undergraduate, graduate, and ESL international students holding F or J visas.
- All undergraduate and graduate students enrolled in programs that require proof of health insurance.
- All graduate students receiving fellowships that fully fund their tuition.

Students will be billed at the time of registration. The mandatory health insurance fee for the 2009-2010 academic year for undergraduate students is $379 for fall semester and $501 for spring and summer semesters. Graduate students will be charged $432 for the fall semester and $571 for the spring and summer terms.

A waiver of the health insurance fee may be applied for directly with the insurer. For insurance plan and waiver information, please go to https://financialservices.kennesaw.edu/bursar/mandatory_health. This plan is optional for all other students.

Special Fees

Additional Lab, Specialized Course Fees: These fees are charged where applicable.

Applied Music Fee: The registration fee for one 50-minute private lesson per week is $150 per semester. Applied music fees are nonrefundable and may not be transferred to subsequent semesters.

Laboratory Breakage: Students in the laboratory sciences are required to reimburse the university on a cost basis for broken glassware and equipment.

22 Tuition, Expenses, & Financial Aid

Late Payment Fee: A $50 late payment fee will be assessed for tuition and fee payments received after the end of late registration and drop/add. This fee may apply at other times as well. For specifics, contact the Bursar's Office.

Late Registration Fee: Students requesting a late registration or add/drop after all official registration periods have ended will pay a late hand registration fee of $30.00 per transaction.

Nursing Expenses: Mandatory uniforms costs $200-$250. A good stethoscope, watch, shoes, and other supplies costs approximately $100-$150. The initial testing fee is $325. Mandatory health insurance is charged to nursing students who do not have proper coverage.

Textbooks and Supplies: Textbooks and supplies are available in the university bookstore. Although the exact cost of books and supplies will vary with courses, an estimate is $500 per semester.

Housing Fees

Housing at Kennesaw State University is privately owned and managed, and all leasing and financial matters are handled by the KSU Foundation Housing Management, LLC. Housing fees for 2009-2010 range from $395-$610 per month, depending on the community and housing unit selected, paid in twelve monthly installments. For more specific information, please go to <http://www.ksuhousing.com> or call 770-426-0668.

Other Administrative Fees

Advanced Standing Examination Fee: A fee of $60 is required for each institutional advanced standing examination attempted; no course may be attempted more than once.

Diploma Fee: A diploma fee of $30 is required of all degree candidates and is payable at the time a petition to graduate is presented to the registrar. The fee is nontransferable and nonrefundable. It entitles the student to one diploma.

FAX Fee: Priority fee for electronic transmission (FAX) of unofficial transcripts or certifications forms/letters, of $10.00 per document.

Penalty Fee For Returned Check: A penalty fee of $25 will be assessed for each check returned by the bank.

Withdrawal/Refund of Student Fees

To withdraw from one or more classes, students must complete an official withdrawal form in the Office of the Registrar.

Students withdrawing from classes before the end of late registration and drop/add are entitled to a 100% refund. After that date, students will be granted a percentage refund of tuition and fees only if they withdraw completely from the university. Lab, specialized course/major, and insurance fees are not refundable if withdrawal from course(s) is made after the end of late registration and drop/add.

KSU Institutional Refund Policy:

The refund amount for students withdrawing from the institution shall be based on a pro rata percentage determined by dividing the number of calendar days in the semester that the student completed by the total calendar days in the semester. The total calendar days in a semester includes weekends, but excludes scheduled breaks of five or more days and days that a student was on an approved leave of absence. The unearned portion shall be refunded up to the point in time that the amount earned equals 60%.

Students that withdraw from the institution when the calculated percentage of completion is greater than 60% are not entitled to a refund of any portion of institutional charges.

Students enrolled summer term who withdraw from second-session courses on the first day of those classes will receive a 100% refund. After the first day, no refunds will be processed.

Students should refer to the Schedule of Credit Courses for specific dates of each refund period.

Students who do not formally withdraw, those suspended for disciplinary reasons, and those who leave the university when disciplinary action is pending are not eligible for a refund on any portion of any fee.

A refund of all tuition and other mandatory fees shall be made in the event of the death of a student at any time during an academic semester / summer term.

Refunds will be disbursed by the university's internet bank partner. Students may use their KSU Debit Card to select a refund payment method: electronic fund transfer or paper check. Details are available at:

<http://www.ksuone.com>

Registration Fee Waiver for Senior Citizens

Pursuant to the provisions of an amendment to the Georgia Constitution, legal residents of Georgia who are 62 years of age or older at the time of registration for courses may have their semester (including summer term) tuition and fees waived (with the exception of supplies, laboratory fees, and special course fees). A driver's license or birth certificate must be presented to the Admissions Office at the time of application for admission or to the Registrar's Office once the individual turns 62 to qualify for this waiver of registration fees.

Military Service Refunds & Re-enrollment

Subject to institutional policies, full refunds of tuition and mandatory fees and pro rata refunds of electives fees are hereby authorized for students who are:

- Military reservists (including members of the National Guard) and who receive emergency orders to active duty after having enrolled in a University System institution and paid tuition and fees;
- Active duty military personnel and who receive an emergency reassignment after having enrolled in a University System institution and paid tuition and fees;
- Otherwise unusually and detrimentally affected by the emergency activation of members of the reserve components or the emergency deployment of active duty personnel of the Armed Forces of the United States and who demonstrate a need for exceptional equitable relief;
- Students who are members of the Georgia National Guard or other reserve components of the U.S. Armed Forces who are reenrolling after having been summoned to active duty in an emergency situation are to be accorded special consideration regarding class registration, financial aid processing, payment of fees, etc., so as to expedite their re-enrollment;

- Military personnel on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces who, before the end of their present station assignment, receive emergency orders for a temporary or permanent change of duty location who later wish to resume their education are to be accorded special consideration regarding class registration, financial aid processing, payment of fees, etc., so as to expedite their re-enrollment.

Tuition and fees awarded by scholarship or grant from an agency or authority of the State of Georgia on behalf of a student receiving a refund under this policy shall be reimbursed to such agency or authority.

The Chancellor is authorized and empowered to take or cause to be taken any and all such other and further action as, in the judgment of the Chancellor, may be necessary, proper, convenient or required in connection with the execution of this policy. Such authority may be further delegated to the President of the institution.

Definition of Legal Residents

Individuals who enter the institution as out-of-state students but who wish to later qualify as legal residents must fill out a Petition for Georgia Residence Classification form, which can be obtained in the Office of the Registrar, on-line at http://www.kennesaw.edu/businessservices/international_ga_residency.shtml, or by contacting the Residency Officer for Kennesaw State University at 770-499-3536. A student's resident status is not changed automatically, and the burden of proof that the student qualifies as a legal resident under the regulations of the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia rests with the student. A student is responsible for registering under the proper residency classification. A student classified as out-of-state who believes that he or she is entitled to be reclassified as a legal resident may petition the Residence Committee for a change in status. The petition must be filed no later than 60 days after the semester begins in order for the student to be considered for reclassification for that semester. If the petition is granted, reclassification will not be retroactive to prior semesters.

If there is any question in the mind of the student concerning his/her resident status, application for clarification should be made immediately or not later than two weeks prior to the registration date in order to avoid delay and inconvenience of registration.

Applications should be addressed to Kennesaw State University Attn: Residency Committee, 1000 Chastain Road, Mailbox # 0102, Kennesaw, Georgia 30144.

Regents' Policies Governing the Classification of Students for Tuition Purposes

The following policies have been adopted by the Board of Regents for the purpose of determining the tuition status of students:

403.02 CLASSIFICATION OF STUDENTS FOR TUITION PURPOSES

A. United States Citizens

- (1) a. An independent student who has established and maintained a domicile in the State of Georgia for a period of at least 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the first day of classes for the term shall be classified as "in-state" for tuition purposes. It is presumed that no student shall have gained or acquired in-state classification while attending any post-secondary educational institution in this state without clear evidence of having established domicile in Georgia for purposes other than attending a postsecondary educational institution in this state.
- b. A dependent student shall be classified as "in-state" for tuition purposes if either i) the dependent student's parent has established and maintained domicile in the State of Georgia for at least 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the first day of classes for the term and the student has graduated from a Georgia high school or ii) the dependent student's parent has established and maintained domicile in the State of Georgia for at least 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the first day of classes for the term and the parent claimed the student as a dependent on the parent's most recent federal income tax return.

- c. A dependent student shall be classified as "in-state" for tuition purposes if a U.S. court-appointed legal guardian has established and maintained domicile in the State of Georgia for at least 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the first day of classes for the term, provided that appointment was not made to avoid payment of out-of-state tuition and the U.S. court-appointed legal guardian can provide clear evidence of having established and maintained domicile in the State of Georgia for a period of at least 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the first day of classes for the term.

- (2) a. If an independent student classified as "in-state" relocates temporarily but returns to the State of Georgia within 12 months, the student shall be entitled to retain in-state tuition classification.
- b. If the parent or U.S. court-appointed legal guardian of a dependent student currently classified as "in-state" for tuition purposes establishes domicile outside of Georgia after having established and maintained domicile in the State of Georgia, the student may retain in-state tuition classification as long as the student remains continuously enrolled in a public postsecondary educational institution in the state, regardless of the domicile of the parent or U.S. court-appointed legal guardian.

B. Noncitizens

Noncitizens initially shall not be classified as "in-state" for tuition purposes unless there is evidence to warrant consideration of in-state classification. Lawful permanent residents, refugees, asylees, or other eligible noncitizens as defined by federal Title IV regulations may be extended the same consideration as citizens of the United States in determining whether they qualify for in-state classification. International students who reside in the United States under nonimmigrant status conditioned at least in part upon intent not to abandon a foreign domicile are not eligible for in-state classification.

704.041 OUT-OF-STATE TUITION WAIVERS

An institution may award out-of-state tuition differential waivers and assess in-state tuition certain nonresidents of Georgia for the following reasons (under the following conditions):

- a. Academic Common Market. Students selected to participate in a program offered through the Academic Common Market.
- b. International and Superior Out-of-State Students. International students and superior out-of-state students selected by the institutional president or an authorized representative, provided that the number of such waivers in effect does not exceed two percent of the equivalent full-time students enrolled at the institution in the fall term immediately preceding the term for which the out-of-state tuition is to be waived.
- c. University System Employees and Dependents. Full-time employees of the University System, their spouses, and their dependent children.
- d. Medical/Dental Students and Interns. Medical and dental residents and medical and dental in-terms at the Medical College of Georgia. (BR, 1986-87, p. 340).
- e. Full-Time School Employees. Full-time employees in the public schools of Georgia or of the Department of Technical and Adult Education, their spouses, and their dependent children. Teachers employed full-time on military bases in Georgia shall also qualify for this waiver. (BR Minutes, 1988-89, p. 43).
- f. Career Consular Officials. Career consular officers, their spouses, and their dependent children who are citizens of the foreign nation that their consular office represents and who are stationed and living in Georgia under orders of their respective governments.
- g. Military Personnel. Military personnel, their spouses, and their dependent children stationed in or assigned to Georgia and on active duty. The waiver can be retained by the military personnel, their spouses, and their dependent children if a) the military sponsor is reassigned outside of Georgia and the student(s) remain(s) continuously enrolled and the military sponsor remains on active military status; b) the military sponsor is reassigned out-of-state and the spouse and dependent children remain in Georgia and the sponsor remains on active military duty; or c) active military personnel and their spouse and dependent children who are stationed in a state contiguous to the Georgia border and who live in Georgia. (BR Minutes, February 2009).
- h. Research University Graduate Students. Students attending the University of Georgia, the Georgia Institute of Technology, Georgia State University, and the Medical College of Georgia, which shall be authorized to waive the out-of-state tuition differential for a limited number of graduate students each year, with the understanding that the number of students at each of these institutions to whom such waivers are granted shall not exceed the number assigned below at any one point in time:

University of Georgia	80
Georgia Institute of Technology	60
Georgia State University	80
Medical College of Georgia	20
- i. Border County Residents. Students domiciled in an out-of-state county bordering Georgia, enrolling in a program offered at a location approved by the Board of Regents and for which the offering institution has been granted permission to award Border County waivers (BR Minutes, October 2008).
- j. Georgia National Guard and U.S. Military Reservists. Active members of the Georgia National Guard, stationed or assigned to Georgia or active members of a unit of the

26 Tuition, Expenses, & Financial Aid

U.S. Military Reserves based in Georgia, and their spouses and their dependent children (BR Minutes, October 2008).

- k. Students enrolled in University System institutions as part of Competitive Economic Development Projects. Students who are certified by the Commissioner of the Georgia Department of Industry, Tourism and Trade as being part of a competitive economic development project.
- l. Students in Georgia-Based Corporations. Students who are employees of Georgia-based corporations or organizations that have contracted with the Board of Regents through University System institutions to provide out-of-state tuition differential waivers.
- m. Students in ICAPP Advantage programs. Any student participating in an ICAAP Advantage program.
- n. International and Domestic Exchange Programs. Any student who enrolls in a University System institution as a participant in an international or domestic direct exchange program that provides reciprocal benefits to University System students. (BR Minutes, October 2008).
- o. Economic Advantage. As of the first day of classes for the term, and economic advantage waiver may be granted to a U.S. citizen or U.S. legal permanent resident who is a dependent or independent student and can provide clear evidence that the student or the student's parent, spouse, or U.S. court appointed legal guardian has relocated to the State of Georgia to accept full-time, self-sustaining employment and has established domicile in the State of Georgia. Relocation to the state must be for reasons other than enrolling in an institution of higher education. For U.S. citizens or U.S. legal permanent residents, this waiver will expire 12 months from the date the waiver was granted. (BR Minutes, October 2008).

As of the first day of classes for the term, an economic advantage waiver may be granted to an independent non-citizen possessing a valid employment-related visa status who can provide clear evidence of having relocated to the State of Georgia to accept full-time, self-sustaining employment. Relocation to the state must be for employment reasons and not for the purpose of enrolling in an institution of higher education. These individuals would be required to show clear evidence of having taken legally permissible steps toward establishing legal permanent residence in the United States and the establishment of legal domicile in the State of Georgia. Independent non-citizen students may continue to receive this waiver as long as they maintain a valid employment-related visa status and can demonstrate continued efforts to establish U.S. legal permanent residence and legal domicile in the State of Georgia. (BR Minutes, October 2008).

- p. A dependent non-citizen student who can provide clear evidence that the student's parent, spouse, or U.S. Court-appointed legal guardian possesses a valid employment-related visa status and can provide clear evidence of having relocated to the State of Georgia to accept full-time, self-sustaining employment is also eligible to receive this waiver. Relocation to the state must be for employment reasons and not for the purpose of enrolling in an institution of higher education. These individuals must be able to show clear evidence of having taken legally permissible steps toward establishing legal permanent residence in the United States and the establishment of legal domicile in the State of Georgia. Non-citizen students currently receiving a waiver who are dependents of a parent, spouse, or U.S. court-appointed legal guardian possessing a valid employment-related visa status may continue to receive this waiver as long as they can demonstrate that their parent, spouse, or U.S. court appointed legal guardian is maintaining full-time, self-sustaining employment in Georgia and is continuing efforts to pursue an adjustment of status to U.S. legal permanent resident and the establishment of legal domicile in the State of Georgia. (BR Minutes, October 2008).

- q. Recently Separated Military Service Personnel. Members of a uniformed military service of the United States who, within 12 months of separation from such service, enroll in an academic program and demonstrate an intent to become a permanent resident of Georgia. This waiver may also be granted to their spouses and dependent children. This waiver may be granted for not more than one year. (BR Minutes, October 2008).
- r. Nonresident Student. As of the first day of classes for the term, a nonresident student can be considered for this waiver under the following conditions:
 - Dependent Student. If the parent, or U.S. court-appointed legal guardian has maintained domicile in Georgia for at least 12 consecutive months and the student can provide clear and legal evidence showing the relationship to the parent or U.S. court-appointed legal guardian has existed for at least 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the first day of classes for the term. Under Georgia code legal guardianship must be established prior to the student's 18th birthday. (BR Minutes, October 2008).
 - Independent Student. If the student can provide clear and legal evidence showing relations to the spouse and the spouse has maintained domicile in Georgia for at least 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the first day of classes for the term. This waiver can remain in effect as long as the student remains continuously enrolled. (BR Minutes, October 2008). If the parent, spouse, or U.S. court-appointed legal guardian of a continuously enrolled nonresident student establishes domicile in another state after having maintained domicile in the State of Georgia for the required period, the nonresident student may continue to receive this waiver as long as the student remains continuously enrolled in a public post-secondary educational institution in the state, regardless of the domicile of the parent, spouse, or U.S. court-appointed legal guardian. (BR Minutes, June 2006).
- s. Vocational Rehabilitation Waiver. Students enrolled in a University System of Georgia institution based on a referral by the Vocational Rehabilitation Program of the Georgia Department of Labor. (BR Minutes, October 2008).

Institutions shall exercise the greatest care in selecting students who are to receive waivers of the tuition differential. Such non-resident graduate students shall pay all tuition and fees required of residents of Georgia. Waiver forms must be filed within 60 days of the first day of class of the semester in order for the student to be considered for the waiver.

Financial Aid

Kennesaw State University is committed to ensuring that a postsecondary education is accessible to qualified students. In order to accomplish this commitment, the Office of Student Financial Aid subscribes to the following goals to assist students in paying for their educational investment:

- Evaluate the family's financial ability to pay for educational costs
- Distribute limited resources in an equitable manner
- Provide a balance of gift aid and self-help aid

A wide variety of financial aid programs from scholarships, grants, employment, and loans are available to help students with educational costs. Most awards are based on financial need while some are awarded in recognition of merit or achievement. Financial Aid is awarded based on full-time enrollment status (12 hrs). Financial Aid packages for students enrolled less than full-time may require adjustments. Eligibility for awards varies with enrollment status.

If you have any questions, feel free to visit our office in Kennesaw Hall, view our Web site at http://www.kennesaw.edu/financial_aid, contact our automated telephone system at (770) 423-6074, fax at (770) 423-6708, email at finaid@kennesaw.edu, or write to:

Determination of Need-Based Awards

Awards based on need are determined by a process called financial need analysis. The analysis is standardized by the U. S. Department of Education (USDE) using a financial formula called Federal Methodology. The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is the application that is required to begin this process. The electronic FAFSA is the easiest and quickest way to apply. The processing time for USDE is approximately four days. The electronic FAFSA may be accessed on our web site at www.kennesaw.edu/financial_aid or www.fafsa.ed.gov. Prior to completing the electronic FAFSA, students and parents of dependent students should obtain a PIN at <http://www.pin.ed.gov>.

When completing the electronic FAFSA for KSU attendance, use the federal Title IV Code of 001577. KSU will receive your FAFSA information electronically. Students must reapply annually to qualify each academic year.

Need-Based Award Application Procedures

Need-based awards include grants, employment, loans, and some scholarships. It is advisable to complete the FAFSA early. The FAFSA is available on January 1 for the award year that starts each fall semester. The priority date for receipt of the FAFSA at KSU is April 1 of each year. FAFSAs received by the priority date with all requested documents submitted by the student and reviewed by the Financial Aid Office will be awarded first. New applicants must also apply for admissions through the Office of Admissions for a degree or certificate program.

When the FAFSA is analyzed by the U. S. Department of Education, the result is called the Expected Family Contribution (EFC). The EFC is the amount that the family should be able to contribute to the student's cost of attendance (COA). COA is the amount of direct cost (e.g., tuition, fees, room, board, and books) and indirect cost (e.g., transportation and personal expenses). Need-based financial aid is awarded to help the student with need (i.e., COA minus EFC).

Federal Pell Grant

This is a federally funded program that provides need-based grants to undergraduate students. The application is the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Eligibility is based on the Estimated Family Contribution (EFC) and the Cost of Attendance (COA). Students receive their EFC on the Student Report (SAR) after submitting the FAFSA. The EFC range for Federal Pell Grant eligibility is 0 to 4617. The awards range from a maximum of $5,350 per year (0 EFC) to a minimum of $976 (4617 EFC) per year for full-time enrollment. Pell Grant is prorated according to enrollment by each term. Part-time enrollment is prorated. Students receiving the Federal Pell Grant may also be eligible for other types of financial aid.

Federal Supplemental Education Opportunity Grant

This federally funded program is designed for undergraduate students without a degree with exceptional need seeking their initial degree. A student must have been awarded the Federal Pell Grant in order to receive this grant. Maximum awards in this program are $800 per academic year. Early FAFSA application is encouraged. Awards are generally made on a first come, first serve basis.

Academic Competitiveness Grant

First year and second year (with a 3.0 college cumulative grade point average) undergraduate students are eligible to receive this award. They must be a U. S. citizen, a Federal Pell Grant recipient, enrolled full-time, and have completed a rigorous secondary school program. Awards in this program are $750 for first year students and $1,300 for second year students.

National Science and Mathematics Access to Retain Talent (SMART) Grant

Third year and fourth year students with a 3.0 cumulative grade point average majoring in physical, life or computer science, engineering, mathematics, technology, or a critical foreign language are eligible to receive this award. They must be a U. S. citizen, a Federal Pell Grant recipient, and enrolled full-time. Awards in this program are $4,000 for each of the third and fourth academic year of study.

Student Employment

Federal Work Study (FWS) Program

The program provides part-time jobs for undergraduate and graduate students who demonstrate financial need based on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). FWS gives the student an opportunity to earn money to help pay for educational expenses while working on campus or in community service work. Early application with the FAFSA is recommended. Awards are generally made on a first come, first serve basis.

Institutional Employment

There are a limited number of part-time jobs available in each division of the university. Funds for these jobs are provided by the department or college that employs the student. Interested persons should contact the particular division or department of the university or the KSU Career Services Center for information.

Career Services

The Career Services Center maintains a listing of full-time and part-time off-campus jobs for students who need assistance in locating off-campus employment. Regular listings are posted on the on-line job postings at: <http://careerctr.kennesaw.edu>. For more information, contact the director of career services.

Student Loan Awards

Federal Perkins Loans

This is a federally funded and need-based student loan that is administered by Kennesaw State University. Interest on these loans is 5% per year. The federal government pays the interest while the student is in school. Awards in this program range from $500 to $1,000 for the term. Students may apply for this loan by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Awards are generally made on a first-come first-serve basis in the following order: graduating seniors, seniors, juniors, etc., until funds are exhausted. When awarded, the student must complete a promissory note and entrance loan counseling with a student accounts representative in the Bursars office.

Obligation for interest and repayment begins nine months after the student ceases to be enrolled at least halftime. Deferment from repayment may be requested for any of the following reasons:

1. Enrolled at least halftime in a post secondary institution
2. Pursuing graduate fellowship or rehabilitation training program for the disabled approved by the U. S. Secretary of Education
3. Unemployment (up to 3 years)
4. Economic hardship (up to 3 years)
5. Performing service qualifying for cancellation (e.g., full-time teaching)

Federal Stafford Loan—Subsidized

The Federal Government guarantees low-interest loans made to qualified students. Students may apply for this loan by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Students are allowed to select their lender and loan amount up to their award maximums. Eligible freshman may borrow up to $3,500 per year, while sophomores (30+ earned hours) may borrow up to $4,500 per year. Juniors (60+ earned hours) and seniors (90+ earned hours) may borrow up to $5,500 per year. The student must be enrolled in at least 6 hours each term to receive a Federal Subsidized Stafford Loan.

Subsidized indicates that the federal government will pay the loan interest while the student is enrolled in school, six months after enrollment (grace), or deferment periods. The current rate (2009-2010) of interest is fixed at 5.6%. The rate of interest may not exceed 8.25%. Students may be assessed an origination fee up to 3% and a federal default fee of 1% which is deducted from each loan amount. Funds are disbursed to the student through the university in two installments. Repayment begins six months after the student ceases to be enrolled at least halftime. Students are allowed 10 years to repay the loan.

Federal Stafford Loan—Unsubsidized

This loan is available to dependent students up to $2,000 per year (above the amount of eligibility for the Subsidized Stafford Loan). This loan is also available to independent students who choose to borrow above their Subsidized Stafford eligibility or for dependent students who are not eligible for a Subsidized Stafford Loan. Students borrowing through the Unsubsidized Stafford Loan Program are responsible for the interest on the loan. The current rate of interest is fixed at 6.8%. The rate of interest may not exceed 8.25%. Students may be assessed an origination fee up to 3% and a federal default fee of 1% which is deducted from each loan amount. Funds are disbursed to the student through the university in two installments. The amount of eligibility is based on the dependent or independent status of the student and the student's need. The application procedures, interest rates, and fees are the same as the Subsidized Stafford Loan Program. The student must be enrolled in at least 6 hours each term to receive a Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan.

Federal PLUS Loan

This program is available to parents of dependent students. Parent borrowers may borrow up to the cost of attendance (at KSU) minus other aid. The rate of interest is fixed at 8.5%. Parents are allowed to select their lender and loan amount. However, the lender will conduct a credit check. The student will be allowed to borrow under the Unsubsidized Stafford Loan Program if the parents cannot borrow under the PLUS Loan Program.

Service Cancellable Student Loans

The Georgia Student Finance Authority offers loans to qualified students who plan to work in the field of nursing in the State of Georgia, based on funds available each year. At KSU, both graduate and undergraduate students accepted into the nursing program may apply. The amount is determined by the student's need. The loan may be canceled through one year of service in nursing in the state of Georgia for each year that assistance is provided. If assistance is received and the student does not enter nursing, repayment of the loan will be required. Early completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Assistance (FAFSA) is recommended in applying for this loan because funds are limited. These loans are processed through the Nursing Department once it is determined that funds are available.

The Office of Student Financial Aid reserved the right to adjust funds based on availability and regulatory requirements. Financial Aid is subject to change and may be adjusted at any time during the academic year due to corrections and/or changes in federal and state appropriations.

Emergency Loan Program

Tuition and Fees and Personal Loans

The Emergency Loan Program is designed to provide temporary assistance to students during their matriculation at KSU. An emergency loan for in-state tuition and fees or an emergency personal loan for mitigating circumstances that produces a hardship may be available to currently enrolled students. The student must be currently enrolled and be in good academic standing (2.0 gpa). A maximum of three tuition and fees and personal loans are allowed while a student is enrolled at KSU. A KSU student is allowed only one such loan per academic year. (An academic year is defined as the first day of class in August through the last day of finals in July.) A student is ineligible to receive an additional emergency loan if the student received such a loan the last semester attended. Students may not request both a tuition and fees and a personal loan in the same term. Students who need emergency funds for in-state tuition and fees or for personal circumstances should complete an application available in the Office of Student Financial Aid. Applications are available in the office only and must be applied for in person. Funds for emergency loans are limited. Loans are made on a first come, first serve basis.

A service charge of $10 will be added to the tuition and fees and/or the personal loan. The loan must be repaid within 45 days. If it is not repaid, a $25 late charge will be added to the emergency loan. If a student is late paying an emergency loan, the student is considered delinquent in payment and is no longer eligible for any emergency loans during their academic career at KSU. Students will not be allowed to register for the following semester if they have not repaid their emergency loan.

Monies for this fund have been received from the following sources:

Alternative Loan Program

A number of lender partners provide private loans directly from the lender that are not associated with federal student loans. Loan approval, interest rates, and repayment requirements are prescribed by the lender. Additional information and application procedures are available from the Office of Student Financial Aid or the lender. Student must maintain satisfactory academic progress, and must complete a FAFSA for our office to certify an alternative loan.

Merit-Based Awards

HOPE Scholarship Program:

The Georgia HOPE Scholarship is a state-funded scholarship program from the Georgia Lottery for Education. Its purpose is to assist Georgia students in attending eligible Georgia postsecondary institutions to increase academic achievement, to keep the best and brightest students in Georgia, and to expand educational opportunities beyond high school to all Georgians.

Qualifications for the HOPE Scholarship:

- Legal resident of Georgia for 12 months
- U.S. citizen or permanent resident
- Recognized as a scholarship recipient by the state of Georgia after high school graduation
- Georgia high school graduate with a 3.0 cumulative grade point average (GPA) in the college preparatory core curriculum subjects or 3.2 cumulative GPA in the career/technology curriculum
- Enrolled in a University System of Georgia institution
- Registered, if required, with Selective Service
- 3.0 college cumulative GPA after each spring semester and at the 30th, 60th, or 90th attempted semester hour. Attempted means all course work including W's and developmental courses taken after high school graduation. Eligibility continues to the 127th attempted hour.
- Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or the HOPE/GSFAPP application at http://www.kennesaw.edu/financial_aid.
- Submit any documents requested by the Office of Student Financial Aid
- Any number of enrolled hours

PROMISE Teacher Scholarship Loan

The Promise Teacher Scholarship Loan is a forgivable loan funded by the Georgia Lottery for Education. It is awarded to high-achieving students who aspire to be teachers in Georgia public schools. The maximum award for a student enrolled six or more hours will be $3,000 for the junior year and $3,000 for the senior year. If a student is enrolled less than halftime (5 or less hours), the maximum award is $1,500. Maximum commitment is $6,000 over two years.

Application Process: The student must apply through the Bagwell College of Education. Eligibility information and an application are obtained from the Bagwell College of Education who will forward the completed applications to the Office of Student Financial Aid. After processing, the Office of Student Financial Aid will forward the completed applications to the Georgia Student Finance Commission for consideration. Additional information and requirements may be obtained at <http://www.gsfc.org> or www.GACollege411.org.

HOPE For GED Recipients

Legal residents of Georgia who earned a General Education Development (high school equivalency) diploma awarded by the Georgia Department of Technical and Adult Education after June 30, 1993 may receive a one-time $500 HOPE award. This award can be used toward tuition, books, and other educational costs at an eligible public technical institute or public or private college/university in a degree, diploma, or certificate program.

Full-time enrollment is not required. Students must use their GED HOPE eligibility within 24 months of the date of the GED diploma. Military personnel have 52 months to exercise eligibility. Students receiving this award may also qualify for other HOPE programs.

Institutional Scholarship Awards

Several privately supported scholarships for undergraduate students and fellowships for graduate students are available at Kennesaw State University. These awards are normally merit-based but some are need-based. A complete list of available scholarships and fellowships is located at www.kennesaw.edu/scholarships. The application deadline is March 6.

Disbursement Procedure

After completing the FAFSA or the GSFAPPS application, financial aid funds will be disbursed to registered students in the following procedure:

Step One: Students will receive a notification of a financial aid award letter through the school-assigned email address. Students must then access Owl Express to view their award letter. Any awarded grants or scholarships (including HOPE scholarships) are automatically accepted for the student. New students who want to accept an offered student loan must complete an online Loan Request Form. The online link is located on the student award letter in Owl Express. Students with loans at KSU from the previous year (2007-2008) will only need to accept or decline their loan on the award letter in OWL Express.

Step Two: Financial aid funds (Pell, SEOG, HOPE, Scholarships, and Loans) are applied to the students' account on the dates indicated at www.kennesaw.edu/financial_aid. Students receiving other types of assistance or external assistance should check with the cashier in the Bursars Office to determine the availability of such funds. Funds earned from employment are disbursed to student accounts bi-weekly.

Step Three: At the conclusion of late registration and the drop/add period, students will receive the balance of the semester award after tuition, fees, books and supplies are deducted. Students must indicate their choice through their Higher One Account. Students can select one of the following: a check from Higher One, have funds deposited to the students Higher One debit card, or have funds transferred to the student's designated bank.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Standards

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS POLICY

The Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, mandates institutions of higher education to establish a standard of satisfactory academic progress for students who receive financial aid. This standard must apply to the student's entire academic history, whether Title

34 Tuition, Expenses, & Financial Aid

IV financial aid was received or not. In order to remain eligible to receive aid at Kennesaw State University, students must meet the standards specified for acceptable academic performance and for satisfactory progress toward the completion of their program of study. The standards are established within the framework of applicable federal regulations specifically for the purpose of determining the eligibility of students to receive aid under the generally funded Title IV programs, including Federal Pell Grant, Federal Perkins Loan, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant, ACG, SMART, Federal Work-Study, Georgia's HOPE Scholarship, and Federal Family Education Stafford Loan Programs (Subsidized and Unsubsidized), and the Federal PLUS Loan Program. They should not be confused with Probation or Good Standing as defined by academic regulations.

Students must meet the requirements in each of the three areas listed below in order to be making Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP). SAP is reviewed after every Spring Semester.

1. Students must maintain a 2.0 or above cumulative grade point average. Learning support classes are included in the GPA calculation for financial aid purposes. Any student who fails to make progress (all "F"s) in any given semester will lose eligibility for financial aid regardless of the student's AGPA. A student who receives all "F"s may have to return a portion of their financial aid. If a student makes all "W"s in any given semester, the student will be placed on probation (or warning) for financial aid.

2. Students must complete at least 67% of courses attempted. The system does not "round-up" completed hours. If a student attempts 12 hours but only completes 8, the completion rate is 66.6%. That student would not be meeting the SAP policy. Learning support classes are included in the completion ratio calculation for financial aid purposes.

The following will be considered as hours successfully completed:

1. "A" through "D" grades
2. "S" satisfactory
3. "K" credit
4. "IC" institutional credit

The following shall not be considered as semester hours completed:

1. "F" grade
2. "I" incomplete
3. "W" withdraw
4. "U" unsatisfactory
5. "V" audit
6. "WF" withdrew failing
7. "IP" used in Learning Support Services

3. Students must complete their program of study in a reasonable time frame. The maximum time frame allowed for a student to complete their program of study is 150% of the total credit hours required for the program. For example, if your academic program requires 123 semester hours for graduation, you may receive aid for up to 185 semester hours. All transfer credit hours accepted by KSU are included in the total credit hours regardless of whether the courses are required for the student's course of study.

FINANCIAL AID PROBATION

A student will automatically be placed on financial aid probation in the event that the student fails to meet the institutional GPA and/or SAP progress requirements. A student in this category may receive financial aid for the next academic year, but by the end of that academic year, that student must be making satisfactory academic progress. If the student does not make up the deficiencies and remove himself/herself from financial aid probation, the student is NO LONGER eligible for Financial Aid. The student will remain in this status until he/she has returned to a satisfactory academic progress standing. A student who does not meet the time frame requirement will, without warning, become ineligible for financial aid.

APPEAL PROCESS

If there are extenuating circumstances that prevented a student from meeting the SAP policy, a written financial aid appeal may be submitted to the SAP appeals committee. Students cannot appeal if they have exceeded the maximum time frame for their program of study (#3). You may appeal only once. While completing the appeals process, you are responsible for payment of current fees that are due by the published fee payment deadline.

Appeals can be submitted in person, by mail, or by email (Finaid@kennesaw.edu). In the appeal, the student must address both of the following items:

1. The extenuating circumstances that contributed to the student not meeting the Satisfactory Academic Progress policy.
2. The actions that have been taken to change the circumstances and to improve academic status.

All supporting documentation must be attached to the appeal. All appeals are reviewed within 3 weeks of their submission. Once the review is complete, the student will be notified by email and by mail.

APPROVED APPEALS

If the appeal is approved, all students must adhere to the conditions stated in their appeal approval letter. There will be no exceptions. The appeal will carry until the next SAP review period after spring semester. If the student is still not meeting SAP requirements at that time, he/she will no longer be eligible for aid.

Students who violate their appeal will have their financial aid cancelled, and the appeal will be revoked. These students will not be eligible to receive financial aid again until all terms of the Standards of Academic Progress (SAP) Policy are being met.

DENIED OR REVOKED APPEALS

If the appeal is denied or revoked, students are not eligible to receive financial aid until all terms of the Standards of Academic Progress (SAP) Policy are being met.

Learning Support Programs, Regents' Remediation & College Preparatory Curriculum

If accepted for enrollment in a program leading to a degree or certificate, students may receive financial aid for learning support programs, Regents' remediation and College Preparatory Curriculum. Eligibility is limited to 30 credit hours of these courses combined.

Audit Courses

Students are not eligible to receive financial aid for audited courses. Audited courses are not included in the number of hours attempted or earned for SAP consideration.

Summer Term Courses

All hours attempted and completed in the summer terms are treated as any other semester hours in determining SAP.

Incomplete Courses

Any course with "I" is counted in hours attempted (quantitative). When the "I" is changed to an actual grade, the course will be considered completed.

Withdrawals:

Any course with a "W" or "WF" is considered as hours attempted. Students should be aware that excessive withdrawals from classes could result in the loss of financial aid at some point in future semesters due to the 67% quantitative standard for SAP.

Repeating Courses:

When courses with grades of "D", "F", or "WF" are repeated with a "C" or higher grade, the unsatisfactory grades and course attempts will not be included in the calculation of the AGPA (qualitative). However, courses with grades of "D", "F", or "WF" that are later repeated are counted in total number of hours attempted (quantitative).

Academic Fresh Start

For students who are approved for the Academic Fresh Start Program, the quantitative standard of satisfactory academic progress will be determined on total attempted hours which will include the "fresh start" hours.

Dismissal and Return

Students who are dismissed academically for one or two semesters and return on probation will be eligible for financial aid upon their return provided students have completed 67% of attempted hours (quantitative). Academic retention will be determined after one semester of enrollment. Full eligibility or good standing will be regained when the AGPA is 2.0.

Appeals

Any student on SAP failure may appeal to the SAP Appeals Committee. An appeal must be based on extenuating circumstances. Examples may include but are not limited to health reasons, family reasons, or personal reasons. The appeal statement of the student should explain the extenuating circumstances. Documentation supporting the extenuating circumstances must be submitted. In addition, it is recommended that letters of support from an academic advisor/faculty member and a relative, clergy, supervisor, or other associate be submitted. The appeal form and procedures may be obtained at www.kennesaw.edu/financial_aid.

Other Financial Services

Veterans' Benefits

The university is on the approved list of the Georgia State Approving Agency for the training of veterans, disabled veterans, and the children and widows of deceased veterans who are eligible for benefits under the G.I. Bill.

Students in training under the G.I. Bill are required to pay all fees as regular students, since they are paid benefits directly through the Veterans Administration. Each VA beneficiary should make financial preparation for at least one semester because benefit checks are sometimes delayed. Students in training under the G.I. Vocational Rehabilitation program should check with the university Business Services Office regarding the handling of their account for fees, supplies, etc.

Eligible veterans, children and widows of veterans must make application to their regional Veterans Administration Office. Application forms are available at Kennesaw State University in the Office of the Registrar. It is the student's responsibility to contact the registrar's office at the time of acceptance to the university. Certain requirements must be met before students may be certified for noncredit remedial courses for VA payment purposes.

Students attending on the G.I. Bill are certified for VA benefits only for those courses required in their particular programs of study. Courses taken for audit are not payable by the VA. Such students must maintain Kennesaw State University standards for academic performance. Those students who are academically dismissed from school will have their benefits interrupted. Upon readmission and recertification of benefits at Kennesaw State University, the VA will decide if further benefits may be paid for continuation of the program in which the academic deficiency occurred.

Current VA standards require that students attend class and that benefits be terminated when the student has been suspended for academic or disciplinary reasons. (Since VA regulations are subject to periodic change, it is the student's responsibility to keep up to date on requirements for VA benefits while in attendance at Kennesaw State University.)

Vocational Rehabilitation

Students who attend the university and whose fees are to be paid by the State Department of Education's Division of Vocational Rehabilitation must make arrangements prior to registration with the Bursar's Office regarding the handling of their account. In addition, it is the student's responsibility to request the Office of the Registrar to send copies of his/her grades to the Vocational Rehabilitation Office each semester.

Academic Advisement & Academic Policies

Academic Advisement

The mission of academic advising at Kennesaw State University is to facilitate student success, development, and retention by supporting the design and implementation of educational and career plans.

Goals of Academic Advising

Academic advising is conducted via a decentralized structure. Students who know their intended major are advised in their college and school's academic department and undeclared students are advised in the Student Success and Enrollment Services division (CAPS). The Undergraduate Advising Council, represented by advisors from both the divisions of Student Success and Academic Affairs, oversees and coordinates the campus-wide advising efforts.

Recognizing that effective advising is a partnership between advisors and advisees and that each has its own role and responsibility, it is expected that, regardless of where the advising occurs, the academic advisor's roles is to:

1. Help the advisee to understand the academic and administrative processes of the university.
2. Help the advisee to understand the expected standards of achievement and likelihood of success in certain areas of study.
3. Discuss the educational and career objectives suited to the advisee's demonstrated abilities and expressed interests. The advisors help the advisee to understand the relationships among the courses, programs, undergraduate research opportunities, internships, study abroad programs, other academic and personal development experiences provided by the university.
4. Help the advisee plan a course of study and give advice about courses and the adjustment of course loads. The advisor will inform the advisee about the prerequisites for subsequent courses in the advisee's program and evaluate their progress.
5. To familiarize advisees with, and direct advisees to, appropriate campus resources.
6. Participate in the advisor training sessions provided by the university and each college and department to keep informed and current.

7. Encourage students to utilize available resources in the development of effective study skills.
8. Provide necessary mentorship and career development support.

The advisee's role in the academic advising process is to:

1. Acquire the information needed to assume final responsibility for course scheduling, program planning, and the successful completion of all graduation requirements.
2. Seek the academic, personal development and career information needed to develop and meet educational and personal goals.
3. Become knowledgeable about the relevant policies, procedures, and rules of the university, college, and academic program.
4. Be prepared with accurate information and relevant materials when contacting the advisor.
5. Consult with the advisor at least once per semester to decide on courses, review the accuracy of the audit, check progress towards graduation, and discuss the suitability of other educational opportunities provided by the university.
6. Take personal responsibility for his or her own actions and behavior.

Declared Students

Students who have declared majors are assigned to trained faculty advisers in the department of their major or to the college advising center. These advisors can advise students on General Education requirements, major requirements, job possibilities, internships, research with faculty, applied community/campus experiences, grants, and scholarships in addition to knowing campus resources for referrals. Students should connect with their advisor each semester to register for appropriate courses and also to develop a mentoring relationship that will facilitate career development throughout college and after graduation. Each of the colleges and departments organize their advisement procedures differently; therefore, students should contact their faculty advisers or the departmental secretaries for specific information. We encourage you to declare your major as soon as possible so that you can be assigned an academic advisor.

Undeclared Students

Students who have not declared a major and those required to take Learning Support classes are assigned to the Counseling and Advising Services Center (CAPS) to be advised by selected faculty, staff and peer advisers. (See Counseling and Advising Program Services, in Student Services & Activities section of the undergraduate catalog.) These advisers are trained and available to help students select courses that meet the General Education requirements, identify career and vocational goals, adjust to the university, and choose a program of study. Counseling and Advising Program Services (CAPS) also refer students to other campus resources. Undeclared students are expected to meet with the CAPS Center every semester. Honors faculty members through the Honors Program Office in the Department of University Studies advise joint Enrollment Honors Program students.

Academic Policies

Registration

The Office of the Registrar, located in Kennesaw Hall, is the central administrative office responsible for registering students, maintaining the permanent academic records, administering the Regents' Testing Program Policies and test registration, performing degree audits, enforcing the academic policies of the university and generally ensuring that students' academic issues are dealt with accurately and professionally. In addition, the Registrar's staff handles transfer evaluations and Veteran's Affairs. This office approves requests for data from the computerized student record system.

All registration at Kennesaw State University is conducted over the web. The registration process consists of three different phases:

- Priority Registration—open to currently enrolled students who are not on probation.
- Final Registration—open to new students, students who are on academic probation but eligible to return and readmitted students.

- Late Registration- add / drop period— open to all students eligible to enroll for the given semester.

NOTE: Specific dates can be found under the university calendar sections in the semester schedule of classes (a hard copy and on the web).

Auditing

Auditing of courses will be permitted for regularly enrolled students who have obtained the approval of their adviser. Proper paperwork obtained in the Office of the Registrar must be filed before the end of late registration drop/add. Such courses count at full value in computing the student's course and fees load, and the students' name should appear on the official class rolls of the courses audited. The courses being audited should also appear on the student's approved schedule of courses. No credit is granted for courses scheduled on an auditing basis, and students are not permitted to change to or from an auditing status except through the regular procedures for schedule changes. The grade for auditing is "V" (visitor), and this grade should at no time be changed to a "W" on the basis of the auditor's attendance in the course. The grade of "V" will have no effect upon the student's grade-point average, and students will not be permitted to have the audit grade changed at any future date.

Full-Time Load

The basic unit of all college work is the "semester credit hour." For undergraduate students, twelve (12) semester hours is a full-time load in determining such things as veteran status, financial aid, and insurance eligibility. However, the usual load for a full-time undergraduate student is at least 15 semester credit hours in both fall and spring semesters. Since summer term is approximately half the length of these semesters and the workload, therefore, twice as heavy, KSU strongly recommends that students not attempt more than 12 hours of credit during that term. For graduate students, 9 semester hours is considered full-time.

Holds on Registration

Holds may be placed on a student's registration in order to satisfy an obligation owed to the university. Holds are communicated to the student on the registration reminder card mailed prior to registration and on the registration systems. The most frequent holds are for a debt due to a parking ticket or library fine, an unsatisfied Regents' testing requirement or a College Preparatory Curriculum (CPC) deficiency. Failure to return equipment or lab supplies may also result in a registration hold. Registration, transcript requests and graduation cannot proceed unless a hold is removed.

Internships

Up to 12 semester hours of internship may be applied to degree requirements and may be used to satisfy general or free electives, as determined by the individual departments. Minimum requirements for participation in internships for academic credit vary by academic departments, but the following regulations generally apply to all departments, and colleges :

1. The content of the internship will not substantially overlap an existing course in the curriculum.
 2. A student may not carry more than 12 credit hours in internship per semester.
 3. A student must gain approval by the department where credit is being sought before registering for the internship course.
 4. A student must follow the procedures set by the department where credit is being sought plus those required by the university for registration into the course.
 5. A student must complete all requirements specified by the academic department for successful completion of the internship.
- Students interested in pursuing an academic internship should check with the coordinator of cooperative education and internships in the Career Services Center, or the chair of the department where credit is being sought, for specific enrollment procedures.

Directed Study

The following institutional regulations apply to directed study. Additional departmental requirements may exist.

General restrictions:

- Content in the directed study will not substantially overlap an existing course in the curriculum.
- A student may not carry more than three semester hours in a directed study per semester.
- A maximum of ten semester hours of directed study may be used to satisfy degree requirements with a maximum of three hours used as related studies electives and a maximum of three hours used as free electives. The department shall determine the maximum number of hours allowed within the major.
- A student must have an overall adjusted GPA of at least 3.0 and a cumulative GPA in the major of at least 3.0 in order to be eligible for a directed study.

Any student wishing to do a directed study must obtain an approval form from his/her advisor and complete a Directed Study Form, which goes to the Registrar's office.

Maximum Loads

Only students in good standing (which includes students on academic probation but excludes students under academic dismissal or exclusion) may register for classes.

During the fall and spring semesters, the maximum number of credit hours allowed for students with a cumulative grade point average under 3.5 is eighteen credit hours; and the maximum number of credit hours allowed for students with a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or higher is twenty-one credit hours. While these restrictions apply also to the summer term, KSU strongly recommends that students not attempt more than 12 hours of credit during that term.

The Registrar must approve all exceptions to the above restrictions.

Prerequisites

Students should attempt to schedule courses that serve as prerequisites for advanced study early in their academic career. Lower division courses are designed to serve as preparatory for upper division requirements.

KSU 1101 or Learning Community Requirement

All first-year full-time students entering Kennesaw State University with fewer than 15 semester hours are required to take KSU 1101 or enroll in a Learning Community. This requirement must be satisfied during the students' first term of enrollment at Kennesaw State University. Students with 30 or more credit hours are not eligible to enroll in KSU 1101 or a Learning Community.

Atlanta Regional Consortium for Higher Education (ARCHE)

Kennesaw State University is a member of the Atlanta Regional Consortium for Higher Education, an association of colleges and universities in the Atlanta area offering a combination of reciprocal academic services, such as cross registration, interlibrary loans and visiting scholars program.

The cross registration program is available to students officially enrolled in Atlanta Regional Consortium Institutions. This program is distinct from transient status in that it is possible for a student to register for an approved course at any of the 19 consortium schools and receive credit, while paying tuition costs to the home institution. The intent is to allow qualified students to take course work in their area of study that is not available on their own campus.

To be eligible to participate, the student must be in good standing and must have the recommendation of the faculty adviser or department chair at the home institution. Cross registration may be pursued only for courses not offered at the home institution for the given term and is not recommended for students in their last semester before graduation.

Students who wish to enroll in courses at member institutions of the Atlanta Regional Consortium should obtain a Cross-Registration form from the cross registration coordinator in the Office of the Registrar. Check with the coordinator for individual member college cross registration deadlines.

Student Records

Change of Status/Record Verification

The Office of the Registrar provides a list of other services including: change of address, change of name, letters of verification, removal of certain holds, early grade letters, transient grade letters and a variety of other services. Call the Office of the Registrar at (770) 423-6200 for additional information.

Changing or Declaring Majors

To declare a major for the first time, students must contact the departmental office of their desired major. Students will complete a form in that department and have a major assigned. If students change their preferences and desire to select another major, they need to go to the department of the newly desired major. Some students may wish to change from a major to undeclared status. In this case, they must contact the CAPS Center. These services are also available on the web. Students should note that when changing majors, there is a possibility that additional hours of course work beyond those required for the completion of the original program may need to be taken. Students should declare a major as soon as possible so that they can be assigned an advisor to help them expedite their progress toward a degree and to help them in preparing for a career.

Credit by Exam

A student may receive up to 30 semester hours of credit by CLEP, AP, IB, institutional or other such examinations.

Institutional Examination for Advanced Standing

Students who offer satisfactory evidence may receive credit for a course by an examination for advanced standing. If the examination is passed, the students will receive the appropriate college credit, which will not be included in the calculation of the grade point average.

Requests for institutional advanced standing examinations should be initiated with the department chair responsible for the course in question and must be approved by the registrar. Forms are available in the Office of the Registrar. Approval of these requests will be subject to the following criteria:

- a. Authorization will not be given for a course under any of the following circumstances:
 1. If the student has previously audited the course.
 2. If the student has previously scheduled and failed the course.
 3. If the student has previously scheduled the course, but has withdrawn after the first two calendar weeks from the day the semester begins.
 4. If the student is currently enrolled in the course.
 5. If the course is either a prerequisite or an introduction to a course already completed. (This provision does not apply to skill courses such as physical education or music, for example.)

- b. Credit earned by institutional advanced standing examination may be used neither to satisfy residency requirements nor to satisfy more than one-half of the major-field or minor-field requirements in a program of study.
- c. A passing grade for institutional advanced standing examination is a grade of 75 percent or higher for a lower-division course and a grade of 80 percent or higher for an upper-division course.
- d. A fee of $60 will be assessed for each institutional advanced standing examination attempted; no course may be attempted more than once.
- e. A student must be admitted to the university at the time of application for advanced standing and must be enrolled in the university to receive credit for a course by advanced standing examination.

College Level Examination Program (CLEP) for Advanced Standing

Students with business, military or professional experience are eligible to take standardized examinations in a number of areas to earn credit for certain specific courses, provided a minimum score is attained on the tests. Credit earned will be recorded on the student's permanent record. For specific information concerning subject areas in which tests are available, the cost and minimum score required for credit and dates tests will be given, contact Counseling and Advising Program Services (CAPS).

Advance Placement (AP)

Kennesaw State University honors Advance Placement (AP) credit for certain classes in which an equivalent is offered and for which the required grade is achieved. For details on the scores required and course equivalencies, contact the Office of the Registrar.

International Baccalaureate (IB)

Kennesaw State University honors International Baccalaureate (IB) credit for certain classes in which an equivalent is offered and for which the required grade is achieved. A maximum of 24 semester hours of credit may be awarded for International Baccalaureate classes. For details on the scores required and course equivalencies, contact the Office of the Registrar.

Degree Audits

Students may petition to graduate two semesters before the anticipated graduation date but must petition no later than the end of the first week of her/his final semester or summer term.

Grade Reports

Official grade reports are no longer mailed. They are available on the web. All grades reflected are those submitted by the faculty members at the time of posting. Grade reports, in addition to the official grades for that semester, contain a semester grade point average, an adjusted grade point average when required, and a cumulative grade point average. For graduate students, a semester GPA and a cumulative GPA are issued.

Transcripts

Official and unofficial transcripts are issued to students upon their written request to the Office of the Registrar. The written request may be filed with the Office of the Registrar in person or by letter or fax. All transcript requests must be accompanied by the students' signed release. Both official and unofficial transcripts take approximately three to five working days to complete.

Transfer Evaluations

Once a student has been admitted to KSU, a transfer evaluation is completed by the Office of the Registrar and mailed to the student in approximately three to five weeks. The time of mailing may vary semester to semester depending on volume. It is very important that all students have a transfer evaluation as early as possible in order to facilitate the registration process. Any questions concerning transfer evaluations, including a request for reevaluation, should be directed to the Registrar's Office.

Courses & Registration

Withdrawal from Courses

Students may withdraw from one or more courses anytime before the last three weeks of the semester. However, as of fall 2004, students will be allowed a maximum of eight total withdrawals if they enter KSU as a freshman. Transfer students will be allowed one withdrawal per fifteen credit hours attempted, for a maximum of eight. Students who choose to pursue a second degree at KSU will be allowed two additional withdrawals. Students who entered KSU before the fall of 2004 will be allowed one withdrawal per fifteen credit hours attempted for a maximum of eight after the institution of this policy. To completely or partially withdraw from classes at KSU, a student must withdraw online at www.kennesaw.edu, under Owl Express, Registration and Student Records. Students who officially withdraw from courses before mid-semester will receive a “W” in those courses and receive no credit. They will not however suffer any academic penalty. Students who officially withdraw after mid-semester (and before the last three weeks of the semester) will receive a “WF,” which will be counted as an “F” in the calculation of their grade point average.

The only exceptions to these withdrawal regulations will be for instances involving unusual circumstances, which are fully documented. Students may appeal to the academic standing committee for consideration of unusual circumstances.

Exact withdrawal dates will be published in the official academic calendar. Students who simply stop attending classes without officially withdrawing usually are assigned failing grades.

Students will receive refunds only when they withdraw from all their classes and only by the schedule outlined in the University System refund policy.

Grading Policies

Grading System

Kennesaw State University complies with the University System of Georgia uniform grading system. The final grades and their definitions are as follows:

Final Grades		Quality Points per Credit Hour *
A	excellent	4
B	good	3
C	satisfactory	2
D	passing, but less than satisfactory	1
F	failing	0
WF	late withdrawal, failing	0

* Quality points are not awarded in learning support courses. These courses give institutional credit only, not graduation credit. The following symbols will be used in the cases indicated:

I—Indicates an incomplete grade for the course, and will be awarded only when the student has done satisfactory work up to the last two weeks of the semester, but for nonacademic reasons beyond his/her control is unable to meet the full requirements of the course.

A grade of “I” must be removed (by completing the course requirements) within one calendar year from the end of the semester or summer term in which the “I” was originally assigned. In addition, should the student enroll in classes at KSU during the calendar year, the grade of “I” must be removed by the end of the first semester or term of enrollment during that calendar year.

Upon completion of the course requirements within the specified time limits, a final grade will be assigned on the basis of the student’s total performance. If the course requirements are not completed within the specified time limits, then the “I” will be changed to an “F” (for a course which awards letter grades of “A”, “B”, “C”, “D”, or “F”) and the cumulative and adjusted grade point average will be recalculated accordingly or, the “I” will be changed to a “U” (for a pass/fail course which awards a grade of “S” or “U”). An “I” cannot be removed by reenrolling in the course.

W—indicates that the student was permitted to withdraw from the course without penalty with the approval of the registrar before the withdrawal date listed in the Semester Schedule of Classes. Withdrawals without penalty may be permitted after the official withdrawal period in hardship cases only with the approval of the registrar. A course in which a grade of “W” has been assigned will not be included in the calculation of the student’s grade point average.

WF—indicates that the student was permitted to withdraw from a course with the approval of the registrar after the withdrawal date listed in the Semester Schedule of Classes. The grade of “WF” is counted as an F in the calculation of the student’s grade point average.

S—indicates satisfactory completion of a credit course and is not included in the calculation of the grade point average. It also indicates satisfactory completion of certain credit laboratory-type internships, or co-op courses specifically designated by overall faculty action.

U—indicates unsatisfactory completion of a credit course and is not included in the calculation of the grade point average. It also indicates unsatisfactory completion of certain credit laboratory-type courses specifically designated by overall faculty action.

IP—indicates progress in a learning support credit course, but not sufficient to meet the prerequisite requirements for the succeeding course. It is not included in the calculation of the grade point average.

V—indicates that the student was given permission to audit the course. It is not included in the calculation of the grade point average. Students may not transfer from audit to credit status or vice versa.

Grade Changes

Errors in grades must be reported to the Office of the Registrar immediately. In general, no grade changes will be made after the end of the next semester after the grade was assigned, except with the approval of the Academic Standing Committee. In general, the Academic Standing Committee will not consider requests for grade changes beyond one year from the end of the semester in which the grade was assigned. A petition for a grade change will not be accepted after the date of graduation.

Deficiencies

A student who has received a grade of “I”, “IP”, “F” or “WF” in a course has a deficiency in the course. A student whose final grade is “F” or “WF” has a failure in that course. The student should repeat and pass the course in residence at Kennesaw State University before credit will be allowed. Repeating the course does not remove the “F” or “WF” from the total cumulative average.

A student who has otherwise completed all of the requirements for graduation and who has earned an incomplete in a course scheduled during the final semester in residence may remove the incomplete at the convenience of the department of instruction concerned.

Repeating Courses

When undergraduate courses with earned grades of “D”, “F”, or “WF” are repeated with a “C” or higher grade, the unsatisfactory grades and course attempts will not be included in the calculation of the adjusted grade point average (AGPA). The student’s permanent record and cumulative grade point average will retain all course attempts and grades.

Grade Point Averages

Kennesaw State calculates a cumulative grade point average (CGPA) for each student. The CGPA is the total number of quality points earned, divided by the total number of semester credit hours in which a final grade has been assigned, excluding courses in learning support (0097, 0098, 0099) or Regents’ Remediation (0020). This average is inclusive of all courses attempted through KSU and does not include transfer credits.

A semester grade point average (SGPA) is calculated similarly each semester for courses attempted that semester. This SGPA becomes particularly significant for students on academic probation who must maintain a 2.0 SGPA to avoid academic dismissal.

The adjusted grade point average (AGPA) is calculated like the CGPA, but excludes unsatisfactory grades (“D”, “F”, “WF”) in repeated courses. The AGPA may be restarted for returning non-traditional students who petition the Registrar for an “academic fresh start” or the KSU students who return to work on a second degree and who petition the Registrar. The AGPA will be used to determine academic standing (probation or dismissal) and eligibility for program admission. The AGPA will also be used to determine eligibility for graduation and eligibility for honors, but with some restrictions. To graduate, students must have at least a 2.0 AGPA and at least 30 earned hours of credit for KSU course work not excluded because of repeated courses or “fresh start” status. If the student has fewer than 30 earned hours of credit for non-excluded KSU course work, he/she must have a 2.0 cumulative grade point average. To receive honors at graduation, “second degree” and “fresh start” students must have at least 60 earned hours of credit at KSU after the “second degree” or “fresh start” status was granted. In addition, for honors, students who have repeated courses must have at least 60 earned hours of credit at KSU after the hours for the repeated courses have been excluded.

GPA For Second Degree

A student who returns to KSU for a second KSU undergraduate degree may have his/her Adjusted GPA restarted at the time of re-entry. In order to restart the AGPA, students must petition the Office of the Registrar.

Grade Appeal Procedure

Any student has the right in any course of instruction to appeal a final grade in a course for either, or both (if both reasons are to be raised then the student must assert both from the initiation of the grade appeal) of the following reasons. (1) The student believes that the faculty member has violated his/her stated grading policy. (2) The student believes that his/her final grade in a course is unfair because of the faculty member’s discriminatory practice(s) or harassment on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, sexual orientation, disability, age, or national origin, or retaliation because of the student’s prior report of discrimination or harassment, or because of the student’s cooperation in any investigation. In such cases the following procedures will be applied. Each faculty member must specify his/her grading policy at the first of the semester. He/she may change his/her grading policy for cause after that time, but he/she must do so uniformly, with ample notification to students, if at all possible.

If a student intends to pursue a grade appeal based on the faculty member’s discriminatory practice(s)/harassment/retaliation but also wants to claim as an alternative that the faculty member violated his/her grading policy even if there may be no finding made of discriminatory practice/harassment/retaliation, then he/she should follow the procedure outlined in section II of these grade appeal procedures. This is called a combined grade appeal.

It is the student’s responsibility to prove his/her allegation. Any student grade appeal under these procedures will be successful only if the student provides sufficient evidence that the faculty member violated his/her stated grading policy or that the faculty member’s discriminatory/harassment/retaliatory practices occurred and affected the student’s final grade.

I. GRADE APPEAL PROCEDURE WHEN THERE IS AN ALLEGATION OF A VIOLATION OF STATED GRADING POLICY, BUT NO ALLEGATION OF DISCRIMINATORY OR RETALIATORY ACTION.

A. If a student believes that his/her final grade in a course violates the faculty member’s stated grading policy, he/she should first discuss the matter with the faculty member. If the student remains dissatisfied with his/her final course grade, he/

- she may immediately appeal to the faculty member's immediate supervisor (usually the department chair) for discussion and possible resolution. If the faculty member is a chair then the immediate supervisor is the dean of the college. If the faculty member is a dean, then the immediate supervisor is the associate vpaa or dean of the graduate college (based on the undergraduate/graduate student status of the person who initiated the appeal).
- B. If the student remains dissatisfied with his/her final course grade, he/she may file a written appeal (including supporting evidence or documents) with the immediate supervisor of the faculty member's immediate supervisor (usually the dean of the appropriate college) within sixty days from the end of the semester in which the final course grade was assigned. If the faculty member is a chair then this would be the associate vpaa or dean of the graduate college (based on the undergraduate/graduate student status of the person who initiated the appeal). If the faculty member is a dean then this would be the provost/vpaa.
- C. If the immediate supervisor of the faculty member's immediate supervisor (see B. above) or his/her designee believes that the student has not shown that the faculty member violated his/her stated grading policies then he/she must so inform the student in writing within thirty days of his/her receipt of the student's written appeal.
- D. Alternatively, if the immediate supervisor of the faculty member's immediate supervisor (see B. above) or his/her designee believes that the student may have reasonable cause for an appeal based on the issue of a violation of stated grading policies, then he/she must appoint a hearing committee consisting of three faculty/administrative faculty members and two students. The intent of the committee is to engage in fact-finding in order to resolve the issue. The committee selection process must begin within thirty days of his/her receipt of the student's written appeal. The members of the committee should be selected in a manner determined by the immediate supervisor of the faculty member's immediate supervisor (see B. above) or his/her designee.
- E. The committee should meet and elect a chair from among the five members. The chair will conduct the committee meeting(s). The chair may participate in all deliberations, but will not vote except in the case of a tie.
- F. The committee may draw up its own rules or procedure, and the committee is not bound by any formal rules of legal proceedings and may hear any information that may be of value in determining the issues involved.
- G. Each party has the right to obtain a non-attorney advisor to assist him/her in the preparation and presentation of his/her case to the committee. The committee shall determine whether it meets with the parties, their respective advisers, and any witnesses in one meeting or in a series of meetings. The members of the committee shall decide who shall be present in any meeting of the committee with the understanding that whenever the student or faculty member is present his/her adviser has the right to be present also.
- H. A hearing committee has the right to decline to make a decision in a case that a student presents to the committee, when it regards the complaint as frivolous and irresponsible on the basis of evidence that the student presents to the committee. Such a decision must be communicated in writing to both parties in the case, the immediate supervisor of the faculty member's immediate supervisor (usually the dean, see B. above) or his/her designee and the immediate supervisor of the faculty member (usually the department chair, see A. above) within five business days from the committee's decision. The chair of the hearing committee shall act to make certain the written report is delivered to the proper persons. In such circumstances, the committee may want to recommend that the student talk to one of the university counselors.

- I. All decisions will be based only on the issue of whether the faculty member violated his/her grading policy (see A. above), be based on a majority vote, and be rendered according to the principle of the preponderance of evidence.
- J. The hearing committee will be expected to produce a written report summarizing the testimony, indicating and explaining its decision, and making recommendations, if desirable, to either or both parties. Copies of the written report will be submitted to both parties in the case, the immediate supervisor of the faculty member's immediate supervisor (usually the dean, see B. above) or his/her designee and the immediate supervisor of the faculty member (usually the department chair, see A. above) within five business days from the completion of the meeting(s). The chair of the hearing committee shall act to make certain the written report is delivered to the proper persons.
- K. If, after the receipt of the committee's report, or when no hearing committee is appointed, after the student receives the written decision of the immediate supervisor of the faculty member's supervisor or his/her designee (usually the dean, see B. above), and the student remains dissatisfied with his/her final course grade, the student may file a final written appeal to the person at the next higher level of supervisory rank (usually the associate vpaa or dean of the graduate college or his/her designee based on the undergraduate/graduate status of the student who initiated the appeal). If the involved faculty member is a chair of the department then the next higher level of supervision is the provost/vpaa or his/her designee. If the involved faculty member is a dean then the next higher level of supervision is the president or his/her designee. The appeal must be made in writing within ten business days of the student's receipt of the decision of the committee's report, or when no hearing committee is appointed, after the student receives the written decision of the immediate supervisor of the faculty member's immediate supervisor (see C. above). This is not a new hearing and the person at the next higher level of supervisory rank or his/her designee will issue a written decision based only on the written record to both parties in the case, the immediate supervisor of the faculty member's supervisor, and the faculty member's immediate supervisor within thirty days. His/her decision is final. No further appeals are available.

- L. Nothing in this grade appeal process prohibits the parties from settling this matter at any stage with the assistance of mediation through the Office of University Ombuds (770-423-6112). Mediation may also address issues other than violation of stated grading policy. However, any attempt to settle the matter through mediation does not affect time deadlines for this grade appeal process.

II. GRADE APPEAL PROCEDURE WHEN THERE IS AN ALLEGATION OF DISCRIMINATORY PRACTICE(S)/RETTALIATION, OR A COMBINED GRADE APPEAL.

- A. If the student believes that his/her final grade in a course is detrimentally affected because of (1) discriminatory or harassing practice(s) on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, sexual orientation, disability, age, or national origin, or (2) retaliation by a faculty member because of the student's prior report of discrimination or harassment, or because of the student's cooperation in any investigation, he/she should first discuss the matter with the faculty member's immediate supervisor (usually the chair of the faculty member's department). If the faculty member is a chair then the immediate supervisor is the dean of the college, if the faculty member is a dean then the immediate supervisor is the associate vpaa or dean of the graduate college (based on the undergraduate/graduate student status of the person who initiated the appeal). The student should contact the Office of the University Ombuds (770-423-6112) to arrange a facilitated discussion (a neutral party would be present) if the student is not comfortable discussing the allegation with the faculty member's immediate supervisor by himself/herself. The faculty member's supervisor should notify the faculty member of the student's allegation(s). The faculty member's supervisor will render a decision concerning the grade and the discrimination/retaliation allegations. If this grade appeal also includes an allegation of a violation of stated grading policy, the faculty member's immediate supervisor must address that issue as well.

- B. If a student remains dissatisfied with his/her final course grade, he/she may file a written appeal (including supporting evidence or documents) within sixty days from the end of the semester in which the final course grade was assigned with the immediate supervisor of the faculty member's immediate supervisor (usually the dean of the appropriate college). If the faculty member is a chair then this would be the associate vpaa or dean of the graduate college (based on the undergraduate/graduate student status of the person who initiated the appeal). If the faculty member is a dean then this would be the provost/vpaa.
- C. The immediate supervisor of the faculty member's immediate supervisor or his/her designee (usually the dean of the appropriate college, but see B. above) must then contact the KSU chief diversity officer (CDO) (678-797-2614) as soon as possible and share the student's written grade appeal based on discrimination/harassment/retaliation with that office. The immediate supervisor of the faculty member's immediate supervisor (usually the dean of the appropriate college, but see B. above) must then notify within one week of receiving the complaint in writing the faculty member and the faculty member's immediate supervisor (usually the department chair, but see A. above) of the allegation of the grade appeal based on discrimination/harassment/retaliation and of the pending investigation.
- D. The immediate supervisor of the faculty member's immediate supervisor or designee (usually the dean of the appropriate college, but see B. above), in consultation with the chief diversity officer or designee, will conduct an investigation of the student's allegation that his/her final grade in the course is unfair because of (1) discriminatory practice(s) or harassment based on race, religion, color, sex, sexual orientation, disability, age, or national origin, or (2) retaliation by a faculty member because of the student's prior report of discrimination or harassment, or because of the student's cooperation in any investigation.

- E. If after investigation, the immediate supervisor of the faculty member's immediate supervisor or designee (usually the dean of the appropriate college, but see B. above) in consultation with the chief diversity officer or designee finds that the student does not have reasonable grounds for the complaint based on discriminatory (including harassing) or retaliatory conduct of the faculty member as reflected in the student's final course grade, then he/she shall so notify the student, the faculty member, and the faculty member's immediate supervisor in writing within sixty days of the receipt of the student's written allegation. In that case, if the student is dissatisfied with the decision, he/she may choose to file a written appeal to the provost/vpaa or his/her designee. However, if the involved faculty member is a dean then the immediate supervisor of the faculty member's immediate supervisor is the provost/vpaa and so in that case only, the final written appeal is to the president or his/her designee. The appeal must be made in writing within ten business days of the student's receipt of the decision of the immediate supervisor of the faculty member's immediate supervisor (usually the dean, but see B. above). This is not a new hearing and the provost/vpaa (or president when appropriate or his/her designee) will issue a written decision based only on the written record to both parties in the case, the immediate supervisor of the faculty member's immediate supervisor, and the faculty member's immediate supervisor within thirty days. If the grade appeal also includes an allegation of a violation of stated grading policy, the provost/vpaa (or president when appropriate) or designee must address that issue as well. The Office of Diversity shall retain all records associated with the complaint and the investigation for such length as required by the law.

- F. If, after investigation and consultation with the chief diversity officer or designee, the immediate supervisor of the faculty member's immediate supervisor or designee (usually the dean of the appropriate college, but see B. above) finds that the student may have reasonable cause for the complaint based on the claim of discriminatory (including harassing) or retaliatory conduct of the faculty member as reflected in the student's course grade, he/she shall so notify the student, the faculty member, and the faculty member's immediate supervisor in writing within sixty days of the receipt of the student's written allegation. Additionally, the immediate supervisor of the immediate supervisor will contact the EEO Officer and provide the EEO's office with a copy of his/her written decision and all other relevant evidence and materials. The EEO Officer will follow-up with further investigation if warranted and within one week of receiving the dean's (but see B. above) written decision and all other relevant evidence and materials from the CDO's office will contact the chair of the university council.
- G. The chair of the council will be responsible for establishing an ad hoc committee of three faculty / administrative faculty and two students to hear the grade and discrimination/harassment/retaliation complaint and make recommendations. The names and contact information of the five members of the ad hoc committee shall be communicated by the chair of the university council to the EEO Officer or designee. If, as part of his/her complaint, the student also alleges that the faculty member has violated his/her stated grading policy, the ad hoc committee must hear and make recommendations on that issue concurrently.
- H. Prior to the hearing the EEO officer or designee will arrange that the ad hoc committee shall meet and elect a chair from among the five members. The chair will conduct the hearing. The chair may participate in all deliberations, but will not vote except in the case of a tie.
- I. The hearing committee may draw up its own rules of procedure, and the committee is not bound by any formal rules of legal proceedings and may hear any information that may be of value in determining the issues involved. But minimum due process shall include the right of both parties and the immediate supervisor of the faculty member to be notified in writing at least ten business days in advance of the date, time and place of the hearing; the right of the faculty member to be informed in writing of the specific nature of the complaint against him/her and of the evidence and/or witnesses on which it is based; and the right of both parties to present evidence and witnesses on their behalf and to question witnesses. The EEO Officer or designee shall act to make certain these due processes rights are met. The EEO Officer or designee will attend the hearing and may present any report created or evidence or information obtained during the investigation if requested to do so by either party or by the committee. The EEO Office shall retain all records associated with the complaint, the investigation, the hearing, the committee's written report, and the president's written decision for such length as required by the law.
- J. Both the faculty member and the student have the right to a non-attorney adviser to assist in preparing and presenting his/her case before the committee. Those present during the hearing will be the members of the ad hoc committee, the EEO officer or designee, the parties to the complaint, one non-attorney adviser for each party, and such witnesses as are necessary. Each witness shall be present only when his/her presence is necessary to present information and/or answer questions. No other persons shall be present unless agreed upon in writing by the chair of the committee, both parties, and the EEO officer or designee.
- K. All decisions and recommendations will be based on a majority vote, and be rendered according to the principle of the preponderance of evidence. Only the five members of the ad hoc committee should be present during deliberation. During deliberations should committee members require clarification related to policies and/or procedures, questions may be directed to any necessary person or office.

- L. The hearing committee will be expected to produce a written report summarizing the information presented, indicating and explaining its decision, and making recommendations, if desirable, to either or both parties. Copies of the written report will be submitted to both parties in the case (student and faculty member), the faculty member's immediate supervisor, the chief diversity officer, the EEO officer, the chief legal officer for the university, and the president of the university within five business days from the completion of the hearing. The chair of the hearing committee shall act to make certain the written report is delivered to the proper persons. The opinions and recommendations of the ad hoc committee are advisory and in no way bind the president to the recommended actions.
- M. After consideration of the ad hoc committee's written report, the president shall make a decision and communicate it in writing within five business days to the student, the faculty member, the faculty member's immediate supervisor, the chief diversity officer, the EEO officer, the chief legal officer of the university, and the chair of the faculty member's department. If the faculty member is the chair of the department it shall be communicated to the dean of the appropriate college. If the faculty member is a dean it shall be communicated to the provost/vpaa.
- N. Should the aggrieved student remain dissatisfied with the president's decision, further redress may be sought through internal channels by applying to the Board of Regents for a review of the decision, pursuant to the Bylaws of the Board of Regents, Article VIII. and section 407 of the BOR Policy Manual.
- O. If the student has also included a grade appeal based on an allegation that the faculty member has violated his/her stated grading policies then the immediate supervisor of the faculty member's immediate supervisor or designee (usually the dean of the appropriate college, but see B. above) may find that the student has reasonable cause for such an appeal even if the student does not have reasonable grounds for the complaint based on discrimination/harassment or retaliatory conduct of the faculty member (see F. above). If so, rather than the EEO officer or designee contacting the chair of the university council to establish an ad hoc committee, the immediate supervisor of the faculty member's supervisor shall notify the student, the faculty member, and the faculty member's immediate supervisor in writing within sixty days of the receipt of the student's written allegation of reasonable cause for a violation of stated grading policy. Then the immediate supervisor of the faculty member's supervisor shall follow the hearing committee process as set out in section I.D. through L. of the Grade Appeal Procedures guidelines (section I.) if the student does not choose to appeal the decision that he/she (the student) does not have reasonable grounds for the complaint based on discrimination/harassment or retaliatory conduct of the faculty member as reflected in the student's final course grade to the vpaa/provost or his/her designee (or president if appropriate) within ten business days of the student's receipt of the decision. If, instead, the student appeals the decision that he/she (the student) does not have reasonable grounds for the complaint based on discrimination/harassment or retaliatory conduct of the faculty member as reflected in the student's final course grade to the vpaa/provost or designee (or president if appropriate), then the vpaa/provost or designee (or president if appropriate) must decide the appeal of both the discrimination/harassment/retaliation allegations and at the same time whether there was a violation of the stated grading policy. This is not a new hearing and the decision will be based only on the written record.

- P. If any university administrator involved in resolving a grade appeal at any point in these Grade Appeal Procedures comes to believe that the student undertaking a grade appeal may have been subject to discriminatory action (including harassment) or retaliation, even though there was no impact on the student's grade, then the administrator shall inform the student of the Student Grievance Procedures for Discrimination and/or Retaliation found under the heading of Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities in the KSU catalog. The grievance procedures outline the process for resolving a student allegation of discrimination (including harassment) and/or retaliation when the issue of a grade is not involved.

Q.Nothing in this grade appeal process prohibits the parties from settling this matter at any stage with the assistance of mediation through the Office of the University Ombuds (770-423-6112, if appropriate). However, any attempt to settle the matter through mediation does not affect time deadlines for this grade appeal process.

President's List and Dean's Lists

The president's list and the dean's list are announced after each semester or summer term. These lists apply only to undergraduate students not under academic or disciplinary probation. The president's list includes the names of all students who, for the semester or summer term in question, (1) were enrolled in at least 9 credit hours of courses awarding letter grades, and (2) earned a grade point average of 4.0. The deans' lists includes the names of all students who, for the semester or summer term in question, (1) were enrolled in at least 9 credit hours of courses awarding letter grades, and (2) earned a grade point average of at least 3.5 (but less than 4.0). Please note that learning support courses are not included in the above calculations.

Academic Fresh Start

If a current student who was previously enrolled at KSU discontinued her/his college studies for at least five years, that individual may petition in the Office of the Registrar for a onetime "academic fresh start". The student's adjusted grade point average will be readjusted after the end of the semester in which the petition was approved retroactive to the term he/she was readmitted. The student's transcript and cumulative GPA will retain all previous course attempts and grades.

Academic Probation

A student will be placed on academic probation at the end of any semester or summer term in which his/her adjusted grade point average (AGPA) falls below 2.0. Students may remove themselves from academic probation by raising their AGPA to at least 2.0. Priority registration is only open to currently enrolled students who are not on probation.

Academic Dismissal

Students on academic probation will be dismissed for any one of the following reasons:

1. They fail to maintain a 2.0 grade point average for courses attempted in any semester or summer term.
2. They fail to remove themselves from academic probation after completing three consecutive terms of attendance.
3. They fail to remove themselves from academic probation after attempting 30 semester hours.

For counting semesters and terms of enrollment, audits, withdrawals and incompletes will be used.

Students who are dismissed are not in good academic standing at KSU and are not eligible for immediate readmission.

After the first dismissal, a student may be considered for readmission after an absence of one semester or summer term. Dismissed students must reapply for admission prior to posted deadlines. After the second dismissal, a student may be considered for readmission after an absence of one calendar year from the end of the semester or summer term in which the second dismissal occurred. After the third dismissal, the student will not be eligible for readmission. Any exceptions to this policy must be appealed and approved by the Academic Standing Committee.

Learning Support Standing

Grades received in learning support courses (0097, 0098, 0099) are not included in the calculation of a student's grade point average (adjusted or cumulative). Failing grades in these courses will be considered for the purpose of determining satisfactory progress. Exclusion - A student who does not complete a learning support area in two (2) attempts shall be placed on exclusion.

A student who has been excluded from the university because of learning support attempts is not eligible for readmission in learning support studies. Completion of learning support requirements elsewhere may restore a student's eligibility for readmission to Kennesaw State's undergraduate program.

Students engaged in degree-credit courses before the completion of their learning support requirements will be subject to the requirements of satisfactory scholarship in both types of courses simultaneously. Once the learning support requirements are met, a student's academic standing will be judged solely on the basis of his or her adjusted grade point average for degree credit courses.

Transient Status (for KSU Students) at Another College/ Institution

Students wishing to be transient students at another institution must submit a request to the registrar. Once the registrar has determined that the student is either currently enrolled or has been enrolled in KSU during the past calendar year, and the student is not on academic probation, dismissal or exclusion, then the registrar will issue the appropriate transient letter for the student. The department chair in the student's major must approve major courses taken as a transient student. Students on disciplinary suspension or expulsion will not be issued transient letters.

Attendance Policy

Attendance in classes, laboratories and lectures is important. All students are expected to attend these activities in accordance with their schedule of courses. The instructor determines the attendance policy for each course. All instructors will provide the students, at the beginning of each semester, a clear statement regarding their policies in handling absences. Instructors will also be responsible for counseling their students regarding the academic consequences of absences.

Students must not be absent from announced quizzes, laboratory periods or final examinations unless the reasons for the absences are acceptable to the instructors concerned. Students should also understand that they are responsible for all material covered during their absences and that they are responsible for the academic consequences of the absences.

Students who are absent because of their participation in university-approved activities such as field trips and extracurricular events will be permitted to make up the work missed during their absences.

KSU Telecommunication Policies

The rules for use of all telecommunications equipment, including telephones, computers and FAX equipment, are found the KSU Web site at:

<http://www.kennesaw.edu/infosec/issp.html>

or they can be reached from the KSU Intranet Home Page by choosing the topic Issue Specific System Policies from the Computing Resources section.

Use of any of these facilities implies an understanding of and compliance with these policies.

Military Science Programs—Army and Airforce ROTC

Army ROTC (Reserve Officer Training Corps) is offered through cooperation with the Georgia Institute of Technology to provide students with career options that lead to commissions as second lieutenants in the Active Army, Army National Guard or Army Reserves.

Air Force ROTC is offered through the Department of Air Force and Aerospace Studies on the campus of Georgia Institute of Technology. AFROTC is available to Kennesaw State University students through cross registration. The academic program is comprised of two phases. The first two years constitute the General Military Course (G.M.C.) and the last two years, the Professional Officer Course (P.O.C.)

Refer to Minors and :Military Science Program section of this catalog for detailed information on the Military Science program opportunities.

Graduate College

An Office of Graduate Studies was created in 1984 by the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia. Kennesaw State University was granted full accreditation for graduate-level programs by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools on December 18, 1986. In fall of 2006, the Office of Graduate Studies became the Graduate College.

The Graduate College at Kennesaw State University offers well-qualified students the opportunity to obtain a master's degree, to increase their skills for their professions and to become involved in scholarship and research, which can broaden their professional and cultural backgrounds.

The degrees offered include the Doctor of Education in Leadership for Learning, Educational Specialist in Leadership for Learning, Doctor in Business Administration, Master of Accounting, Coles MBA, Coles Executive MBA, Master of Public Administration, Master of Science in Applied Computer Science, Master of Science in Conflict Management, Master of Science in Information Systems, Master of Science in Nursing with majors in Advanced Care Management and Leadership and Wellstar Primary Care Nurse Practitioner, Master of Art in Professional Writing, Master of Arts in American Studies, Master of Social Work, Master of Science in Applied Statistics, and the Master of Education with majors in elementary education (P-5), adolescent education (4-8), inclusive education, and educational leadership. In addition, the Bagwell College of Education offers numerous teacher endorsement, recertification and renewal programs.

Georgia WebMBA

The Georgia WebMBA provides highly self-disciplined individuals an opportunity to complete an MBA degree on-line (distance learning). It is a time intensive “lock-step” program whereby each student takes two courses a semester until completion of MBA requirements. Students attend a weekend orientation and then totally work on-line, in a virtual learning community, until degree completion. Currently there are five institutions from the State of Georgia participating in this innovative and collaborative approach.

Accelerated Bachelor’s-Master’s Degree Option

The Accelerated Bachelor’s Degree Option provides qualified KSU undergraduate students the opportunity to begin graduate studies at KSU in their senior year and to simultaneously satisfy some remaining requirements for the bachelor’s degree and the beginning requirements of an advanced degree.

A student may use up to nine credit hours of graduate-level courses offered within a single degree program in meeting the requirements of both a bachelor’s degree and a master’s degree. Students applying for this program must:

- (1) Have completed at least 18 hours of coursework at Kennesaw State.

- (2) Have a KSU GPA of 3.5 or better.
- (3) Be within 21 semester hours of graduation.
- (4) Have written permission of the chair of the department of the undergraduate major to use the graduate level courses as acceptable substitutes to fulfill related requirements of the bachelor’s degree (students must satisfy all prerequisites for those graduate courses).
- (5) Meet all requirements for admission into the specified graduate program (except for receipt of the undergraduate degree); and
- (6) Submit an application for admission to the Accelerated Bachelor’s-Master’s Degree Program, along with all necessary admissions documentation to the Dean of the Graduate College by the deadline dates listed below.

No more than nine semester hours of graduate credit may be completed prior to the completion of the baccalaureate degree and admission to a graduate degree program. An undergraduate student enrolled in graduate classes is limited to six semester hours of graduate course work per term and a total academic course load of 12 semester hours per semester.

For students who work closely with their advisors in planning their course of study at KSU, this option offers the opportunity of simultaneously satisfying partial degree requirements for a bachelor’s and a master’s degree in an accelerated program of study. Upon completion of the undergraduate degree, with a satisfactory undergraduate grade point average, and a grade of “B” or better in all graduate courses completed, the student may move to full graduate status in the same graduate program, and the courses taken as an undergraduate can be applied toward the graduate degree.

Many combinations of undergraduate and graduate programs are possible and are not restricted to the confines of a single discipline or major. For example, integrated undergraduate/graduate programs have been developed for a Bachelor of Science in Psychology leading to a Master’s Degree in Business Administration and a Bachelor of Arts in English leading to a Master of Arts in Professional Writing. Students interested in this option must meet with the department chair responsible for the undergraduate major.

56 Programs of Study

For application materials, contact the Dean of the Graduate College at 770-423-6738 or www.kennesaw.edu/graduate/programs. Students may not apply online for this program. Submit applications materials to the Dean of the Graduate College no later than the following dates:

July 15	for Fall term admission
November 15	for Spring term admission
April 15	for Summer term admission

The accelerated option is not available for students wishing to take courses in the MSN program. It is also not available for those wishing to take courses in the M.Ed. program unless the student has the required certification for admission to that program. Contact the Bagwell College of Education for more information at 770-423-6043 or <http://www.kennesaw.edu/education/grad>

University-Wide Degree Requirements

General Education Program

The General Education program offers a solid, comprehensive foundational academic experience for all Kennesaw State University students. In a series of interrelated courses in the liberal arts and sciences, it provides the opportunity for them to acquire the intellectual skills and knowledge characteristic of educated persons in a diverse, global community. Thus, it forms the basis for success in academic, professional, and personal arenas.

Whereas the major program contributes depth to a college education in a designated specialization, the general education core program provides breadth of understanding by providing an introduction, connection, and integration to a variety of disciplines needed by educated persons. At KSU, the General Education program consists of interrelated classes that develop skills for an informed, engaged, and capable citizenry.

General Education at KSU is a campus-wide effort. With faculty representatives from every college and school, the General Education Council, headed by the Dean of University College, oversees the continued development and refinement of this important, core program.

The General Education Council also oversees assessment activities and works with related programs (e.g., Learning Communities, First Year Experience Programs, and Honors Programs) in an effort to develop continuity for students. The general education program at KSU has four overall goals. While each individual course does not address every goal, over the course of the program, students should acquire the ability to do the following:

- Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of general education disciplines.
- Demonstrate proficiency in communication.
- Demonstrate skills in inquiry, critical thinking, analysis, and problem solving through scholarly and/or creative activity across the general education disciplines.
- Demonstrate an understanding of ethics, diversity, and a global perspective.

Throughout the university system, the core curriculum consists of 60 semester credit hours of which a minimum of 42 are in general education and 18 in major-related courses.

GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS AT KSU

AREA A: ESSENTIAL SKILLS - 9 CREDITS

- English 1101 Composition I¹ 3 credits
- English 1102 Composition II² 3 credits
- Math 1101^{3,4,5} or MATH 1111^{3,4,5} or Math 1112^{3,4,5} or Math 1113^{3,4,5} Mathematical Modeling, or College Algebra, or College Trigonometry or Pre-calculus 3 credits

¹Prerequisites: ENGL 0099 & READ 0099, if required

²Prerequisite: ENGL 1101 with "C" or better

³Prerequisites: MATH 0098 or MATH 0099, if required

⁴Mathematics, biology, chemistry, computer science, secondary math education, and secondary science education majors should take MATH 1112 or MATH 1113 and should see an advisor. (Students who plan to take MATH 1112 may need to take MATH 1111 as a prerequisite). Most other students should take MATH 1101. Students who are well prepared in mathematics may begin in MATH 1190 with the approval of the Mathematics Department Chair.

⁵Business majors must take MATH 1111 or MATH 1113 and must also take MATH 1106 or MATH 1190.

AREA B: SOCIAL ISSUES (INSTITUTIONAL OPTION) - 5 CREDITS

- ANTH 2105^{1,2,3} or GEOG 2105^{1,2,3} or PSYC 2105^{1,2,3} or SOCI 2105^{1,2,3} Social Issues in Anthropology, Geography, Psychology, or Sociology 2 credits
- COM 1109^{4,5,6,7} or FL 1002^{4,5,6,7} or PHIL 2200^{4,5,6,7} Human Communication or Foreign Language II or Ways of Knowing 3 credits

²Psychology and Sociology Majors should not take the course in their major discipline.

³Nursing Majors must take Sociology

⁴Students seeking a B.A. degree must complete FL 2001 AND FL 2002. FL 1002 is a prerequisite for FL 2001; therefore, FL 1002 may be the preferred option for these students.

⁵ FL 1002 has a prerequisite of one year of foreign language in high school or FL 1001

⁷Communication majors should take FL 1002 or PHIL 2200 to satisfy this requirement.

AREA C: HUMANITIES/FINE ARTS - 6 CREDITS

- ENGL 2110¹ World Literature 3 credits
- ART 1107² or MUSI 1107² or TPS 1107² Arts in Society (Visual Arts, Music, or Theatre) 3 credits

¹(Prerequisite: ENGL 1102 with "C" or better)

²Art and Theatre Performance Studies majors should not take the course in their major discipline. Music majors are required to take MUSI 1107, World Music section.

AREA D: SCIENCE, MATHEMATICS, AND TECHNOLOGY – 10 to 11 CREDITS

- SCI 1101¹ Science, Society and the Environment I (includes a lab) 4 credits

or

CHEM 1211 / CHEM 1211L² General Chemistry I (including lab) 4 credits

or

CHEM 1151/1151L ³ Survey of Chemistry I (including lab) 4 credits

or

PHYS 1111 ⁴ Introductory Physics I (includes a lab) 4 credits

or

PHYS 2211 ⁵ Principles of Physics I (includes a lab) 4 credits

- SCI 1102 ⁶ Science, Society and the Environment II 3 credits

or

CHEM 1212/1212L ⁷ General Chemistry II ((including lab) 4 credits

or

CHEM 1152/1152L ⁸ Survey of Chemistry II ((including lab) 4 credits

or

PHYS 1112 ⁹ Introductory Physics II 4 credits

PHYS 2212 ¹⁰ Principles of Physics II 4 credits

- MATH 1106 ^{11,12} Elementary Applied Calculus - 3 credits or MATH 1107 ^{11,12} Elementary Statistics - 3 credits or STAT 3125 Biostatistics ^{11,12} - 3 credits or MATH 2207 ^{11,12} Data Analysis and Probability for Teachers - 3 credits or MATH 1190 ^{11,12} Calculus - 4 credits

NOTE: Math and science requirements depend on majors. Students should see an advisor to determine which courses are most appropriate and to ensure that all prerequisites and major requirements are met.

1. Students majoring in mathematics, biology, chemistry, computer science, and secondary mathematics education are advised to take MATH 1190. Nursing majors are advised to take MATH 1107. Business and information system majors are advised to take MATH 1106 or MATH 1190. Elementary and middle grades education majors are advised to take MATH 2207. Secondary biology education majors are advised to take Math 2107. Most other students take MATH 1107.
2. Students majoring in mathematics, biology, chemistry, and secondary biology education are advised to take CHEM 1211 & 1212 or PHYS 1111 & 1112 or PHYS 2211 & 2212 and their labs, if separate. Students majoring in computer science are advised to take one of the PHYS sequences. Students majoring in nursing are advised to take CHEM 1151 & CHEM 1152 and their labs. All other students (non-math/science majors) should take SCI 1101 & SCI 1102. However, any science courses meeting the criteria are acceptable except Anatomy & Physiology, and Microbiology.

FITNESS FOR LIVING REQUIREMENT

All students entering Kennesaw State University are required to take the Fitness for Living Course (HPS 1000). The University wants students to understand the importance of physical activity, nutrition, stress and weight management, and health-related fitness components. Students will have an opportunity to assess selected fitness, nutritional and activity patterns, and to develop and participate in a personalized physical activity program.

University-Wide Academic Information

KSU 1101 OR LEARNING COMMUNITIES REQUIREMENT

All first-year full-time students entering Kennesaw State University with fewer than 15 semester hours are required to take KSU 1101 or enroll in a Learning Community. This requirement must be satisfied during the students first term of enrollment at Kennesaw State University. Students with 30 or more credit hours are not eligible to enroll in KSU 1101 or a Learning Community.

REGENTS CLASS REQUIREMENT

All students earning a baccalaureate degree from KSU will be required to complete two Regents' classes—RGTR 0198 (Regents' Reading Skills) and RGTE 0199 (Regents' Writing Skills)—unless they have exempted these classes by passing both portions of the Regents' Exam. For more detailed information about this requirement, see the subsection of this catalog chapter entitled “Regents' Testing Program Requirements.”

Prerequisites

Students should attempt to schedule courses that serve as prerequisites for advanced study early in their academic career. Lower division courses are designed to serve as preparatory for upper division requirements.

Substitutions

Students with advanced standing credits or transfer credits for courses similar to those required in the general education program may be permitted to satisfy KSU's requirements through approved course substitutions. Students seeking such substitutions should contact the office of the Dean of University College.

Mathematics Advisement and Placement Test (MAPT)

Students who are not required to take the mathematics COMPASS test for the Learning Support Program should take the Mathematics Advisement and Placement Test (MAPT). The MAPT helps students decide which credit mathematics course to take first. This is an online test that students should take before orientation and advisement. Details are at <http://placement.kennesaw.edu>.

Transferring Core Credits to KSU

Students with transfer credits from one University System of Georgia (USG) institution to another are guaranteed the transferability of their General Education courses if they meet two conditions. If students have satisfied all General Education requirements at one USG institution, they have satisfied all requirements at another—even if the requirements are different. Second, if students have completed any of the five areas specified by the Board of Regents (A through E) at one USG institution, they have completed that area at another, even if the requirements are different. Please note, however, that additional courses may be required if they are prerequisites to major courses. The Area F courses require a grade of "C" or better. To certify the completion of one or more areas, students should request a Core (General Education) Evaluation in the Registrar's Office.

Transferring Core Credits to Another USG Institution

Students transferring from KSU to another USG institution may take advantage of this policy by completing the general education program. To certify the completion of one or more areas, students should request a Core (General Education) Evaluation in the Registrar's Office.

Hours Required for an Undergraduate Degree

A baccalaureate degree consists of a minimum of 123 semester hours. Exceptions to the maximum degree length requirements have been made with the approval of the Board of Regents.

A baccalaureate degree program requires at least 24 semester hours of upper division courses in the major field and at least 39 semester hours of upper division work overall.

Regents' Testing Program Requirements

Board of Regents' Procedure for the Regents' Test

Kennesaw State University has established its policies on the Regents' Test based on Board of Regents Policy 307. The text of that policy follows.

The formulation and administration of the Regents' Test and the Regents' Writing and Reading Skills requirement shall be as determined by the Chancellor and prescribed in the Academic Affairs Handbook. (BR Minutes, August 2004).

Each institution of the University System of Georgia shall ensure that students obtaining a degree from a System institution possess certain minimum skills of reading and writing, hereinafter called Regents' Writing and Reading Skills. The Regents' Writing and Reading Skills requirement has been developed to help attain this goal. The Regents' Writing and Reading Skills requirement will ensure students have competence, at a minimum Systemwide level, in reading and writing.

Students enrolled in undergraduate degree programs leading to the baccalaureate degree will be required to complete the Regents' Writing and Reading Skills requirement as a requirement for graduation.

The Regents' Writing and Reading Skills requirement is not a requirement for an associate of applied science degree or an associate of science degree in an allied health field, although institutions may choose to require it for these degrees. (BR Minutes, 1986-87, p. 371, 1987-88, pp. 129-130).

62 University-Wide Degree Requirements

A student holding a baccalaureate or higher degree from a regionally accredited institution of higher education will not be required to complete the Regents' Writing and Reading Skills requirement in order to receive a degree from a University System institution (BR Minutes, 1987-88, pp. 129-130). The Board of Regents may allow waivers of the Regents' Skills Requirement in very rare circumstances (estimated at no more than 1-2 a year, Systemwide) when, after enrollment, students develop documentable medical conditions that make all testing methods inapplicable. Guidelines for implementing this waiver will be issued by the Chancellor. (BR Minutes, March 2007.)

There shall be two System-mandated courses in writing and in reading that represent a vehicle for meeting the Regents' Writing and Reading Skills requirement.

There will be Systemwide tests administered in reading and in writing. These tests will be referred to collectively as the Regents' Test. The Regents' Test is designed to provide an additional method for satisfying the Regents' Writing and Reading Skills requirement.

The formulation and administration of the Regents' Test and the Regents' Writing and Reading Skills requirement shall be as determined by the Chancellor and prescribed in the Academic Affairs Handbook. (BR Minutes, August 2004.)

Other pertinent Board of Regents' policies:

1. The Regents' Test will be administered during one testing period each fall and spring semester after approximately ten to twelve weeks of instruction. The test will be administered on a flexible schedule during the summer.
2. Each institution shall develop special procedures, in accordance with the description of procedures and requirements for examining and exempting students with disabilities. A written description of the institutional procedures shall be submitted to the Chancellor. Such procedures shall include provision for Regents' courses if needed and formal examination prior to exemption or passing the courses. Such examination shall equal the standards of the Regents' Tests.

3. A student may request a formal review of his or her Regents' Essay Test if that student's essay received at least one passing score among the three scores awarded.
4. Regents' Reading and Writing Skills Courses as required under Board of Regents policy shall be in keeping with regulations in satisfaction of federal and state student financial assistance and such other eligibility programs.

For all Board of Regents' policies regarding the Regents' Testing Program, please refer to their website: (<http://www2.gsu.edu/~wwwrtp/>)

KSU Recommendations Regarding the Regents' Test

The following information about the Regents' Test is applicable to all KSU students enrolled in undergraduate programs leading to the baccalaureate degree. Registration for the Regents' Test is available online during the normal registration periods through Owl Express.

1. All students must take the test in the first term enrolled. To assure compliance with this requirement, a hold will be placed on the registration of all students and will not be removed until they have registered for the test.
2. Students who transfer into KSU must take the test during their first term of enrollment. These students, as well, will have a hold placed on their registration to assure that they register.
3. Students who have not passed the Regents' Test must take the appropriate Regents' skill course(s) each term of enrollment until they have passed both parts. If they have failed the writing portion of the test, they must register for RGTE 0199; if they have failed the reading portion, they must register for RGTR 0198.
4. Students whose native language is not English and who fail either portion of the test are eligible for an English as a Second Language (ESL) version designed specifically to accommodate their language difficulties. Information about this test can be obtained from the ESL Study Center Coordinator in University Studies.

5. Students with documented learning disabilities may be eligible for a special administration of the test. Students should contact the Office of Disabled Student Support Services in the Student Center. Students with severe test anxiety may be eligible for a special test administration. Further information is available in the Department of University Studies.
6. Students must be enrolled in KSU to be eligible to take the test or receive tutoring.
7. Students taking the test must present a picture identification card in order to be admitted to the testing site. Students should bring a black ink pen as well as a #2 pencil to the test. They will be permitted to use an English dictionary during the final 15 minutes of the essay portion of the test.
8. BE ON TIME. Students will not be admitted to the testing site late.
9. Students wishing to appeal the results of the essay portion of the test should follow the procedure outlined in the following section.

Regents' Test Appeals

Students wishing to appeal the results of the essay portion of the test should contact the Director of the Writing Center who will determine their eligibility for appeal. (At least one of the three original scorers must have given the essay a passing grade.) The appeal will then follow this procedure.

1. Three (3) faculty members, designated by the institution as a review panel, will conduct an on-campus review.
2. The on-campus review panel may (1) sustain, by majority opinion, the essay's failing score, thus terminating the review process, or (2) recommend, by majority opinion, the re-scoring of the essay by the Regents' Testing Program central office. The student will be notified concerning the results of the on-campus review.
3. If the on-campus panel recommends re-scoring of the essay, that recommendation will be transmitted in writing, along with a copy of the essay, to the office of the system's director of the Regents' Testing Program. The director will utilize the services of three (3) experienced Regents' essay scorers other than those involved in the original scoring of the essay to review the essay, following normal scoring procedures for the essay component of the Regents' Test. The decision of this panel on the merits of the essay will be final, thus terminating the review process. The student will be notified, through the institution, concerning the results of the review.

Classification of Students

Undergraduate students are classified into levels on the basis of the number of credit hours they have earned as follows:

Level	Number of Credit Hours Earned
Freshman	0-29
Sophomore	30-59
Senior	90 and above.

Classification of Courses

The courses of instruction for degree credit in the curriculum of the university are divided into three categories: lower division, upper division and graduate. Lower division courses (typically regarded as freshman and sophomore level courses) are numbered 1000-2999; upper division courses (typically regarded as junior and senior level courses) are numbered 3000-4999; and graduate courses are numbered 5000 and above. Graduate courses are open only to students accepted to graduate study. (Courses numbered below 1000 do not count for degree credit but do count for determining fees and enrollment status.)

ENGL 1101 and 1102: The Campus Writing Requirement

At Kennesaw State University English 1101 and 1102 (English Composition I & II) are required for all undergraduate degrees. A grade of "C" or better is required for English 1101 and 1102.

Graduation Requirements

To be considered for admission to candidacy for a degree, students must make formal petition to the faculty for the degree. The chart below indicates the earliest and latest times that students may petition to graduate. Petition forms are available in the Office of the Registrar. To be eligible to receive a baccalaureate degree, a student must meet the following requirements:

Term of Graduation	Earliest Time to Petition	Latest Time to Petition
FALL	April 1	July 1
SPRING	August 1 of previous year	November 1 of previous year
SUMMER	January 1	April 10

1. Complete the required General Education courses, with a grade of "C" or better in ENGL 1101 and ENGL 1102 (or equivalents, if a transfer student).
2. Complete the chosen program of study with the grade of "C" or better in all courses listed under the major, including those listed as Lower Division Major Requirements.
3. Complete a minimum of 123 semester hours with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0 on all course work attempted at KSU. No course may be counted more than one time in meeting the total credit hours required for the degree.
4. Have at least a 2.0 adjusted grade point average (AGPA) and at least 30 earned hours of credit for KSU coursework not excluded because of repeated courses or "fresh start" status. If the student has fewer than 30 earned hours of credit for non-excluded KSU coursework, he/she must have a 2.0 cumulative grade point average.
5. Complete at least 39 semester hours of upper division (courses numbered 3000 or higher) work overall.

6. Complete at least 30 semester hours in residence at Kennesaw State (Coles College of Business requires 33 hours). At least 20 of the last 30 semester hours preceding graduation must be earned in residence. In addition, 24 semester hours of the upper level major requirements must be earned in residence at KSU.
7. Complete satisfactorily the University System of Georgia Regents' Testing Program (required of all persons receiving a degree from any institution in the University System of Georgia).
8. Complete successfully History 2112 and Political Science 1101 or pass examinations in these fields (to satisfy the Georgia General Assembly's requirement that all graduates of units of the University System of Georgia demonstrate competency in United States and Georgia history and the constitutions of the United States and Georgia).
9. In all instances, meeting the requirement for graduation is the responsibility of the student.

It should be noted that program and course requirements and university policies are subject to change without advanced notice. Changes in policy and requirements enacted by the Board of Regents take precedence over existing university policies and requirements. The University will make reasonable efforts to accommodate students affected by such changes, but reserves the right to determine where and to what extent it will grant exceptions to new policies and requirements. In such cases, program requirements that were published in University catalogs that are more than 10 years old will not be honored without specific approval of the department chair responsible for the program.

The University may elect to apply the policies or program requirements of an earlier catalog if the student was enrolled at the time that the earlier catalog was in effect. Students will not be permitted to mix or split requirements for graduation from more than one catalog.

While students may elect to graduate under degree requirements found in any catalog from the semester they matriculate until the semester they graduate, they are required to follow the most recent catalog requirements regarding prerequisites, corequisites, or other faculty approved changes in courses. In cases where courses are deleted, students must substitute courses deemed acceptable by the faculty or chair responsible for the degree program in question.

Graduation Ceremonies

Graduation ceremonies are held at the end of fall semester, spring semester, and summer semester.

Graduation with Honors

An overall adjusted grade point average of at least 3.5 is required for students to graduate cum laude, 3.7 to graduate magna cum laude and 3.9 to graduate summa cum laude from a baccalaureate program. Graduation with honor requires that students earn at least 60 semester credit hours in residence at Kennesaw State University for the bachelor’s degree.

To receive honors at graduation, “second degree” and “fresh start” students must have at least 60 earned hours of credit at KSU after the “second degree” or “fresh start” status was granted. In addition, for honors, students who have repeated courses must have at least 60 earned hours of credit at KSU after the hours for the repeated courses have been excluded.

Double Majors

An undergraduate student is eligible to have a double major recorded on the transcript and to graduate with two majors under the following conditions:

- 1) all of the requirements for two KSU degree programs are satisfied, including all residency and institutional requirements for each major; and
- 2) the second major contains at least 21 semester hours of upper division course work beyond the courses required for the students first major and general education requirements.

Second Degrees

Students who have earned a baccalaureate degree from an institution regionally accredited by the Commission on Colleges may obtain a second baccalaureate degree from KSU by satisfying the following requirements:

- Meet all major requirements listed for the chosen program of study.
- Complete the Georgia Legislative history and Constitution requirements.
- Students earn at least 30 semester hours in residence at Kennesaw State University. If the first baccalaureate degree was earned at Kennesaw State University, this 30 hours must be in excess of any hours used towards the first baccalaureate degree.
- Complete (for students with majors in the Bagwell College of Education) the lower division major requirement courses in Education.

College of The Arts

The College of the Arts maintains an exceptional faculty whose accomplishments are recognized locally, regionally, nationally and internationally. Students command high professional regard. The disciplines that make up the College of the Arts place the teaching of students as their central mission. The College of the Arts provides a professional environment conducive to artistic growth that prepares students for the aesthetic challenges facing musicians, artists, performers, scholars, and teachers in the 21st century. The College recognizes and embraces important influences on the arts which cross national borders.

The College of the Arts provides the region with a stimulating community of creative scholars and teachers who apply aesthetic and intellectual vision to the expression of complex ideas; who value both artistic tradition and experimentation in the search for creative solutions; who connect global perspectives to professional education; who integrate technical skills with theoretical understandings; and who care about the impact of their work on people.

The College of the Arts annually hosts a number of guest artists who provide students with rich professional training experiences. These artists appear as part of the major exhibitions in the Fine Arts Gallery, the Sturgis Library Gallery, and performances in the Premiere Series, the Musical Arts Series, and Theatre and Performance Studies Mainstage and Studio Seasons. The College offers the Starlight Summer Series at the Legacy Gazebo Amphitheatre featuring local and international jazz artists. These unique experiences provide exceptional opportunities for the College's talented students.

The College of the Arts offers academic and professional programs of study that prepare students for careers in the visual and performing arts. Undergraduate programs are built upon a strong common liberal arts component. Through its departments, the college offers the Bachelor of Arts degrees in Music, Dance, and Theatre and Performance Studies, the Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Art, the Bachelor of Music degrees in Music Education, Performance, and the Bachelor of Science degree in Art Education.

Special units in the College of the Arts include:

The University Box Office - services audience development, ticketing, and event information needs of the university.

The Stillwell Theater - theatrical, musical, and other university events are held in the University's Stillwell Theater.

Dance Studio - a state-of-the-art studio facility that is fully equipped with a multifunctional AV system, studio seating for 75 and a double-sprung professional quality marley floor.

The Dr. Bobbie Bailey and Family Performance Center - built in 2007, the Bailey Performance Center boasts an acoustically superb 624-seat performance hall, designed by John Abbott of Stevens & Wilkinson Stang & Newdow Inc., with acoustic design by David Kahn of Acoustic Dimensions Inc. Home to the Kennesaw State University School of Music, the center also features the Eric and Gwendolyn Brooker Rehearsal Hall and the Don Russell Clayton Gallery. The Bailey Center presents the Premiere Series, the flagship concert series of the KSU College of the Arts. Now entering its 15th season, the Premiere Series consistently showcases the finest performers of our time.

The Performing Arts Library - this library serves the curricular needs of students and faculty in the School of Music and the Department of Theatre and Performance Studies. The library houses musical scores, plays, sound recordings, video recordings, reference materials, historical music collections, other musicological materials as well as the theatre collection.

Visual Arts Resource Center - this facility houses an extensive collection of digital and analog images as well as periodicals and other print resources in art.

Technology Labs - the arts labs provide faculty and staff with state-of-the-art computer labs for artistic creation.

Art Galleries - the Visual Arts Department maintains three visual art galleries that show exhibitions of works by students, faculty, and alumni; works from the Permanent Collection of Art; and nationally and internationally touring shows.

University Museum - the Clayton Art Gallery is home to an important collection of works by Athos Menaboni, and periodically hosts other exhibitions.

Accreditations

The School and departments in the College of the Arts are nationally accredited. In addition, the teacher education programs in the arts have state approval for K-12 teacher certification in Georgia.

For full accreditation/approval information see academic department listings below.

Academic Departments/ Schools

The College of the Arts houses two academic departments and one academic school:

- The School of Music (B.A., B.M.)
- Department of Theatre and Performance Studies (B.A.)
- Department of Visual Arts (B.F.A., B.S.)

Minors*

- Art History
- Dance
- Music

* See section on Minors for policy on and additional information regarding minors.

Programs of Study

The College of the Arts offers the following undergraduate degrees:

- Bachelor of Fine Arts in Art
- Bachelor of Science in Art Education

- Bachelor of Arts in Dance
- Bachelor of Arts in Music
- Bachelor of Music in Music Education
- Bachelor of Music in Performance
- Bachelor of Arts in Theatre and Performance Studies

School of Music (770) 423-6151

The School of Music provides a variety of services to the university through its commitment to the liberal arts tradition, core curriculum and its maintenance of professional degree programs. Among the objectives of the department are training performers and music teachers in the areas of piano, voice, string, brass, woodwinds, guitar and percussion instruments; providing suitable background for advanced study by graduates; and offering leadership in the community through making available recitals, concerts, musicals and operas.

The School of Music offers programs of study leading to the Bachelor of Arts in music, the Bachelor of Music in Music Education (choral, instrumental and general (P-12), and the Bachelor of Music in Performance (piano, voice, strings, winds, percussion and guitar).

Each of these music programs is fully accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM).

Department of Theatre and Performance Studies (770) 499-3123

The Department of Theatre and Performance Studies offers a Bachelor of Arts in Theatre and Performance Studies, with concentrations in acting, performance studies, musical theatre, and design/technology. The major provides student artists with a foundation in theatre as an historic, global, and aesthetic form, through the study of a variety of performance texts and styles, from classical and modern drama to musical theatre, folk and literary narratives, performance art, and classical and contemporary poetry. Emphasizing the interrelationship between theory and praxis, the major prepares students for entry into the profession or for graduate study in theatre or other related fields.

The Theatre and Performance Studies program is fully accredited by NAST (the National Association of Schools of Theatre). Accreditation follows a rigorous evaluation process that includes self study and peer review.

Students in other degree programs with interests in theatre and performance studies can complete the "Related Studies" component of their degree by completing four upper-division classes in the department. A formal minor in dance is offered through the theatre and performance studies department.

In addition, the Department of Theatre and Performance Studies offers a Bachelor of Arts in Dance.

Department of Visual Arts (770) 423-6139

The Department of Visual Arts offers programs of study in studio art, graphic communication and art education (P-12). In addition to a professional emphasis, the program is grounded in the liberal arts tradition. That students should be knowledgeable in a variety of disciplines, including the visual arts, is a key rationale for the activities and programs of the department. General department goals are to assist students in the acquisition of a broad understanding of the visual arts and to recognize artistic quality in their own personal expressions as well as in the work of others; to provide direct experiences in the visual arts for students, faculty, and the community through quality art exhibitions, lectures, and publications; and to provide professional training for individuals seeking careers in the visual arts.

Both the studio art and art education programs are fully accredited by the National Association of Schools of Art and Design. Cooperative study and internship programs are available through the department for students to gain work experience in conjunction with their academic training. Students are encouraged to expand their educational experience through participation in Visions, The student art guild, and by attending the numerous art exhibitions and lectures held throughout the academic year.

Major in Art, B.F.A.

Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree College of the Arts Department of Visual Arts (770) 423-6139

The Department of Visual Arts has two comprehensive undergraduate degree programs, the Bachelor of Fine Arts in Art and the Bachelor of Science in Art Education..

Bachelor of Fine Arts in Art

The Bachelor of Fine Arts in Art is a highly competitive professional degree program. The BFA prepares students for a variety of art and art-related careers or graduate school by providing a thorough grounding in fundamental principles and techniques with opportunities for emphasis in one or more studio art areas. This degree focuses on intensive work in art or design supported by a program of general studies. The BFA degree offers concentrations in (1) graphic communications, (2) drawing and painting, (3) photography and printmaking, or (4) sculpture and ceramics.

Bachelor of Science in Art Education

The Bachelor of Science in Art Education leads to teacher certification in grades pre-kindergarten through grade 12. This program is based on the Comprehensive Arts Education model with a curriculum that includes study in studio, art history, aesthetics and art criticism. The art education program is aligned with the National Standards in Visual Arts, the Fine Arts Georgia Performance Standards, and the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards. The program provides students with a broad foundation in general education, extensive study in art, and professional education and field experiences. All art and art education majors are required to take art and art history foundation course work in lower-division major requirements before taking upper-division art or art education courses. This degree is listed as Major in Art Education by the Bagwell College of Education and the Professional Teacher Education Unit.

Each program of study is a sequentially based curriculum beginning the first semester of the freshman year. Students who delay entering the major until completion of the General Education Core Curriculum may prolong their academic careers.

DEPARTMENT OF VISUAL ARTS ADMITTANCE REQUIREMENTS

Admission to the Department of Visual Arts

Study in visual arts studio courses may not be initiated until the student has been fully accepted by Kennesaw State University and the Department of Visual Arts as an art major or art interest major. All prospective art majors are required to complete an application form and submit a portfolio of their artwork. Admission to degree programs in the Department of Visual Arts is contingent upon portfolio review and acceptance by the department. See the Department of Visual Arts admission application, portfolio content requirements and portfolio review deadline dates on the KSU Department of Visual Arts web site, www.kennesaw.edu/visual_arts. Applications and portfolios are sent to the College of the Arts Admissions and Enrollment Office. Direct any additional questions about admission requirements to this office by calling 770-423-6614.

Students who do not have portfolios or students whose portfolios are not accepted can begin their art studies as an art interest student. They may take introductory art courses based on available space and resubmit their portfolios for review.

Transfer Admission

Students who wish to transfer into the Department of Visual Arts from another institution follow the same admissions procedure as all new students. Transfer credit for courses in studio art is evaluated by portfolio review. Students enrolling at KSU for a second degree in art must also apply and submit a portfolio for review.

Upper-Level Concentration Second Portfolio Acceptance Process

Students must be admitted by an upper-level second portfolio review to a BFA concentration area or the BS Art Education program to continue their Visual Arts degree program at KSU. Students are admitted to a BFA concentration or the Art Education Program based on available concentration openings and the quality of the student's submitted portfolio work.

Change of Concentration

Students who wish to change their studio concentrations must resubmit a portfolio to the desired area of concentration and be accepted by that concentration area.

Change of Degree Program

Students who wish to change degree programs in art must reapply and gain admission status to the new degree program.

Placement

The Department of Visual Arts holds the exclusive authority to determine appropriate admission level placement, credit evaluation of art courses in studio, art history, and art education.

A lapse of two or more semesters will require reapplication to the Department of Visual Arts.

ART 3000 At the conclusion of this course, students select an area of concentration and submit a portfolio to that area for review. Student must take at least two middle division studio courses before taking this course, and at the conclusion of the course may choose to submit their application to their chosen concentration area. Students who are not accepted to their area of choice may apply to another concentration area or reapply two more times to the first chosen concentration after strengthening their portfolio, including the first submission. Students who are not accepted after their third portfolio review submission to that concentration will not be able to complete their visual art degree at KSU.

Major in Art Education, B.S.

Bachelor of Science in Art Education Degree
Leading to Certification for Grades P-12
College of the Arts
Department of Visual Arts
(770) 423-6139

This single field program is designed to prepare art teachers at all grade levels (pre-kindergarten through grade 12). It leads to P-12 teacher certification in the teaching field of art in Georgia. Candidates must meet Department of Visual Arts portfolio admittance requirements. Candidates complete the equivalent of a major in art and a second degree in pedagogical studies with an emphasis on teaching art. The program is based on the Comprehensive Arts Education, and the curriculum in the teaching Field includes study in studio, art history, aesthetics and art criticism.

The specific requirements for admission, retention, degree completion and teacher certification in this degree program are listed with all other teacher education programs. See Bagwell College of Education & PTEU.

Major in Dance, B.A.

Bachelor of Arts Degree
College of the Arts
Department of Theatre and Performance Studies
(770) 499-3123

This liberal arts degree in dance is designed to provide students with a diverse and comprehensive curricular experience, preparing them for a variety of career options in dance and other related fields. Students audition to be accepted into the program and have the option of pursuing a concentrated study in modern, ballet or jazz dance forms. The core curriculum prepares students with a theoretical and practical experience of dance, while the 15-hour concentration allows students to develop technical proficiency in the area selected.

The 3-credit applied professionals skills requirement allows students to receive academic credit for professional internships and practical experience in the field. The senior seminar and senior project requirements ensure that graduates gain a creative and scholarly understanding of the art form, emphasizing a scholar-artist approach that is central to the Department's educational mission.

Audition Requirements

All students entering the program must demonstrate technical and artistic aptitude capable of successfully completing the program of study. The audition process will consist of a 30-minute ballet barre warm-up, followed by a short center-floor modern/ jazz combination, and a final across-the-floor ballet, modern or jazz combination. Students must bring appropriate footwear to the audition. Students are not required to prepare a solo combination for the audition. Following the audition class, students will meet individually with faculty to discuss goals and receive program information. Students will be notified about acceptance into the program within a week following the audition. To register for an audition, receive audition information or schedule a special audition (for students who are unable to attend the regularly scheduled audition due to unavoidable circumstances), please view the dance Website under the College of the Arts (www.kennesaw.edu/theatre/dance) or contact 770-423-6789.

Transfer Auditions

Students who wish to transfer to the Program in Dance at KSU from another institution or from another department follow the same audition procedures as new students. A special audition may be scheduled for students who wish to enter the program at a time when regular auditions are not scheduled.

Course Placement

At the time of acceptance into the program, students will be advised about course scheduling and technical level placement. The individual course instructor reserves the right to request a student to take a lower level technique course if the student is not technically at the level required for the course.

Applied Professional Sequence (Internship)

Students are encouraged to complete the above requirement only at the junior and/or senior academic levels. Every student will be assigned a faculty internship advisor, and will be required to obtain approval from the advisor prior to pursuing an internship or professional opportunities in the field. Students may substitute a DANC 4490 course for this requirement.

Musical Theatre

Students interested in musical theatre may pursue a concentration through the Bachelor of Arts in Theatre and Performance Studies degree. The program in Dance offers musical theatre dance courses that are part of this curriculum.

Degrees and Degree Requirements in Music

Bachelor of Music in Performance

The Bachelor of Music in Performance degree is offered with applied concentrations in piano, voice, flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, saxophone, trumpet, horn, trombone, euphonium, tuba, percussion, harp, guitar, violin, viola, cello, and double bass.

Bachelor of Arts in Music

The Bachelor of Arts in Music degree is offered with applied concentrations in piano, voice, flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, saxophone, trumpet, horn, trombone, euphonium, tuba, percussion, harp, guitar, violin, viola, cello, and double bass.

Bachelor of Music in Music Education

The Bachelor of Music in Music Education degree is offered with applied concentrations in piano, voice, flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, saxophone, trumpet, horn, trombone, euphonium, tuba, percussion, harp, guitar, violin, viola, cello, and double bass. The Bachelor of Music in Music Education degree is listed as Major in Music Education under Education/P-12 Programs.

Admission to the School of Music

Admission to all degree programs in the School of Music is contingent upon both admission to Kennesaw State University and the completion of a supplemental application and successful audition with the School of Music. All prospective music majors and minors are required to audition for the faculty on their principal instrument or voice.

Applied music study may not be initiated until the student has been fully accepted as a major or minor by the School of Music. All students enrolling at KSU for a second degree in music must meet the same departmental audition requirements required of all incoming students. Prior to admission to a music degree program, the prospective music major/minor is required to complete an application form to the College of the Arts and present an audition in the principal area of applied concentration. Applicants may also elect to audition on more than one instrument and/or an instrument and voice. Auditions are conducted by the music faculty on specific dates here on the Kennesaw State University campus. Applicants schedule auditions by making arrangements with the College of the Arts Office of Admissions and Student Services. (Degree Requirements in Music - cont'd)

Audition Dates and Requirements

Auditions are held on specific dates prior to the term a student begins study as a music student. A description of the audition process, including specific dates and requirements, is detailed in the Supplemental Application for the School of Music and on the College of the Arts website (www.kennesaw.edu/arts). The supplemental application is also available on the College of the Arts website. Questions regarding the audition process, audition dates, or requirements can be directed to the College of the Arts Office of Admissions and Student Services, 770.423.6614; COTA-Admissions@kennesaw.edu.

Transfer Admissions

Students who wish to transfer into the School of Music from another institution follow the same admissions procedure as all new students. Transfer students are placed at an academic level in their principal area of applied concentration based upon the transferable amount of study earned at other institutions and the performance level demonstrated at the audition. Transfer credit for all course work is evaluated as quickly as possible after a student has been admitted to KSU. Students who transfer completed baccalaureate applied performance credit to KSU will be required to take additional applied performance study and additional ensemble credit so as to parallel remaining semesters of their designated degree program of study at KSU.

The School of Music accepts students from other schools and colleges at Kennesaw State University on the same basis as new students and/or transfer students from other institutions. Interested and qualified students are encouraged to transfer into the program.

Change of Concentration

Students who wish to change their applied performance concentration must re-audition and be accepted for applied studio instruction in the new concentration.

Change of Degree Program

Students who wish to change degree programs in music must re-audition and gain admission status to the new degree program.

Placement

The School of Music holds the exclusive authority to determine appropriate admission level placement in the applied concentration, music theory, music history, piano proficiency, and continuity of study. Continuous study in the area of the applied concentration is a requisite. A lapse of two or more semesters of applied study will require an audition for re-admittance to the School of Music.

General Requirements

A variety of department regulations and policies affect music majors and minors. Included are requirements for recital participation, ensemble participation, recital and concert attendance, piano proficiency, departmental assessment procedures, and applied juries.

Enrollment in an applied area of concentration is required of all music majors as specified in the degree program. Further, music students must be enrolled in an appropriate large ensemble every semester in which the student is enrolled in applied music. Placement of students in all large ensembles is determined by the ensemble director.

To earn academic credit toward their degree Music students must earn a grade of "C" or higher in all music courses in their chosen course of study.

Major in Theatre and Performance Studies, B.A.

Bachelor of Arts Degree College of the Arts Department of Theatre and Performance Studies (770) 499-3123

Theatre and performance studies majors take 18 hours of lower-division foundational courses, which introduces them to our program of study.

At the 3000- and 4000-level, students take a core of classes including acting, visual imagination, play analysis, and theatre and performance history. Additionally, students select a three-course concentration choosing from emphases in acting, performance studies (including storytelling, performance art, directing, adaptation of texts for the stage, and dramaturgy), design/technology, or musical theatre.

The theatre and performance studies major culminates in a senior seminar and six (6) hours of an applied/professional sequence. The applied/professional sequence, which is individually designed in cooperation with the student's advisor, may include combinations of internships, co-ops, directed studies, international study, and/or service learning components.

All theatre and performance studies majors must demonstrate competence in foreign languages up through the level of FL 2002. Students interested in a minor in theatre and performance studies should complete 12 hours of upper-division courses.

Students benefit from these alliances, which enable the College to achieve its goals of continuous improvement and targeted program development.

The Coles College of Business enjoys national recognition in a number of areas. The Cox Family Business Center was cited by Family Business Review as “the nation’s premier model of college-based educational programs for family businesses.” Nation’s Business listed the center as one of the top college-based, family-business programs in the nation.

The College’s Entrepreneurship Program was recognized by Business Week and Success as one of the outstanding entrepreneurship programs in the nation. In addition, the Coles College has been highlighted in many publications as one that moves quickly and aggressively to meet the needs of its customers — students, the corporate world and the community.

Coles College Accounting graduates have some of the highest CPA pass rates of all public and private business school graduates in the state. The BBA in Professional Sales has garnered national attention as it is one of only a few such programs in the United States. Since 1990, the Tetley Distinguished Leader Lecture Series has featured over 70 CEOs, entrepreneurs and leaders from industry. The Econometric Center is the business and economic research arm of the Coles College. Its monthly Business Conditions Survey parallels the National Association of Purchasing Managers Survey and aggregates data from purchasing professionals in metropolitan Atlanta and northwest Georgia. The Econometric Center also conducts a quarterly Consumer Confidence Index for metropolitan Atlanta in conjunction with the Greater Atlanta Home Builders Association.

Students are attracted to the Coles College of Business for its innovative programs, career services, and co-ops and internships, as well as the faculty's commitment to preparing students for professional success. Embracing evolving topics like the globalization of business, the management of technology, productivity, quality and information systems, the Coles College is committed to developing programs relevant to the ever-changing needs of society.

Accreditations

All degree programs in the Coles College of Business are nationally accredited by AACSB International—The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business. The Coles College of Business was the first business school in Georgia to earn this recognition under the AACSB's new mission-driven, continuous-improvement criteria.

Vision Statement - Michael J. Coles College of Business

The Coles College of Business aspires to be the preferred provider of flexible business education and relevant research and practice valued by the marketplace.

Mission Statement - Michael J. Coles College of Business

The Coles College of Business provides high quality, applied business education and knowledge creation in a collegial, stimulating, and supportive learning-centered environment. Predominantly serving residents and the business community of metropolitan Atlanta and the Northwest Georgia region, we strive to develop our students into highly effective and ethical business leaders who are prepared for an increasingly complex, technologically sophisticated and interdependent world. We offer innovative and flexible programs through a diverse and talented pool of faculty and staff who contribute to the professional and ethical standards of their respective disciplines. In all our activities, we treat individuals with integrity and respect and we are focused on the continuing development of our students, faculty, staff, and communities.

Undergraduate Advising Center

Advising for all business majors is coordinated by the Office for Undergraduate Business Programs, located in the Burruss Building. The Mission of the Undergraduate Advising Center is to help students understand what is required to earn a BBA (Bachelor of Business Administration degree) at Kennesaw State University. The Advising Center uses a team approach rather than assigning individual advisors. The Team approach provides better information in a more efficient manner. The Advisory Team is made up of both staff and faculty advisors who are committed to helping students succeed. Students can expect the Advising Team to provide information on the following topics:

- Which courses you should take to meet your KSU General Education requirements.
- The Coles College Sophomore GPA Requirement and requirements for admission to the Coles Professional Program.
- Required Business Core courses for all business majors.
- Required and Elective courses within your Major field.
- Options for your Business Electives, including co-ops, internships, and minors.
- Options for your Non-business Electives.
- How to sequence the courses in the B.B.A. program.
- General KSU policies, such as the number of course withdrawals allowed, residency requirements, and graduation requirements.
- Where to go for KSU procedures, such as petitioning to graduate.

Bank of America Career Services Lab

The Bank of America Career Services Lab is located in the heart of the Coles College of Business, on the first floor of the Burruss Building. It provides hands-on career management tools and resources. Coles career services are provided to you as part of our commitment to helping you achieve your personal and professional goals.

Tutoring Services

The Coles College provides free one-on-one and group tutoring services for most of the required Business Core courses, including accounting, economics, statistics, and finance.

Student Clubs and Organizations

For further enhancement of student life on campus, a variety of clubs and organizations are available. Students can enrich their college experience by seeking clubs or organizations based on community service, academic achievement, fraternity, sorority, sports, politics, religion, etc. Examples of business organizations are:

- Beta Alpha Psi
- Kennesaw Marketing Association
- Omicron Delta Epsilon
- SHRM - Society for Human Resources Management
- SIFE - Students in Free Enterprise
- Student Managed Investment Fund
- Beta Gamma Sigma

Academic Departments

The Coles College of Business houses five academic departments:

- The School of Accountancy
- The Department of Economics, Finance & Quantitative Analysis
- The Department of Management & Entrepreneurship
- The Department of Marketing & Professional Sales

School of Accountancy (770) 423-6084

The School of Accountancy offers an Accounting major that prepares students for careers in the field of Accounting. Graduate programs are also offered (described in the KSU Graduate Catalog). The State of Georgia requires everyone who wishes to be licensed as a CPA to have five years of education (150 semester hours), including a baccalaureate degree. 123 hours are required to earn the bachelors degree, hence 27 additional hours are needed. While these can be undergraduate hours, the faculty recommend that prospective CPAs earn a Masters degree to satisfy the five year requirement.

The primary objective of Accounting is to provide useful information for economic decisions. It involves measurement, communication and analysis of financial data. Accounting provides the system for collecting and interpreting the information and reporting it to those who need it, whether inside or outside of the organization.

Upon graduation, Accounting majors have a wide range of job opportunities. Many go into public practice (CPA firms), which involves independent auditing, accounting, consulting and tax services provided to clients. This is the traditional path for becoming a Certified Public Accountant. Others choose private accounting, becoming financial, tax, systems or managerial accountants or internal auditors in business and industry. Still others enter the specialized field of not-for-profit or governmental accounting. Accounting also serves as a solid background for graduate work in any business area or law. Many find rewarding lifetime careers in Accounting; others use it as a stepping stone to high-level management positions.

All business majors at Kennesaw State University take two accounting courses, which provide the basic understanding of accounting necessary to support any business program of study. Success in business requires an understanding of accounting. Non-business majors also benefit from taking introductory accounting courses because they learn basic concepts useful in running a business, investing and so forth.

The Coles College business law and business information systems faculty are also housed in the School of Accountancy. All business majors must take one business law class. Elective courses are offered in areas such as consumer law, real estate law, and negotiation. All business majors take two courses in business information systems. Basic computer skills are expected of incoming students. These classes further develop these skills as well as address the management of business information systems. Elective courses in business information systems are also available.

Department of Economics, Finance & Quantitative Analysis
(770) 423-6091

The Department of Economics, Finance & Quantitative Analysis offers curricula designed to prepare students for careers in the fields of economics and finance. Economics is the study of how households and businesses decide what to produce, how to produce it and how to distribute it. It examines how individual households and firms within the economy operate. The emphasis in Economics is on using analytical methods to determine the most efficient means to reach various goals.

Economics graduates have been successful in securing positions in management, sales, financial research, economic planning, and personnel with employers in industry, trade, banking and government. They are also prepared for graduate study in economics, law and business. Within the Economics major there is a broad range of intellectual challenges. Branches of economics overlap such diverse areas as politics, mathematics, finance, sociology, history, international business, management and psychology.

Finance has evolved into an analytical discipline dealing with the acquisition and disbursement of funds. The field of Finance shares common borders with at least three other disciplines. Imports include financial analysis from Accounting, risk quantification and valuation theory from Economics and financing techniques and market savvy from Investments.

Many financial executives rise to the top of the organizational chart. Those with an aptitude for finance include bankers, stockbrokers, financial analysts, portfolio managers, financial consultants, investment bankers and personal financial planners.

Department of Management & Entrepreneurship
(770) 423-6552

The Department of Management & Entrepreneurship curriculum is designed to prepare students for leadership roles in the field of management. Management is the process of planning, organizing, staffing, directing and controlling activities in an organization which will result in the achievement of a common goal. Managers make decisions and direct resources so that organizational goals and objectives are achieved.

Within the Management major, students may choose a general program of study or choose to specialize in a particular area of management such as: Human Resource Management and Development, International Management, Entrepreneurship, or Operations Management.

Department of Marketing & Professional Sales
(770) 423-6060

The Department of Marketing and Professional Sales curriculum is designed to prepare students for a career in the dynamic and exciting field of marketing and sales. Marketing is concerned with the development, delivery, promotion and exchange of a company's goods and services. As a result, marketing is the pivotal function within the firm that generates income for the business and delivers a standard of living.

The term "marketing" in a broad sense includes individuals' or organizations' activities which encourage and facilitate exchanges of values. This includes many non-promotional activities such as research, physical distribution and pricing as applied to goods and services, in both profit and nonprofit contexts.

Career opportunities include such diverse areas as retail store management, industrial selling, marketing research, advertising and others. In addition to a general marketing program, the department has designed three specialized tracks or areas of concentration which focus on Professional Selling, Promotional Communication and Retail Management.

The Professional Sales degree program can lead to a personally satisfying and financially rewarding career in sales, sales management and marketing. Professional Sales is the most common entry-level position in many companies for college students. Further, there are more job openings in professional sales than in any other marketing area. Thus, the Professional Sales degree program provides an avenue of entry into corporations and positions in other marketing functions.

The focus of the Professional Sales Program is on business-to-business or organizational marketing. In addition, the program addresses relationship selling, establishing long term mutually satisfying business relationships. The foundation for this is providing creative and cost effective solutions to the customer's important problems.

Programs of Study

The Coles College of Business offers the following undergraduate degrees:

- Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting
- Bachelor of Business Administration in Economics
- Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance
- Bachelor of Business Administration in International Business
- Bachelor of Business Administration in Management
- Bachelor of Business Administration in Marketing
- Bachelor of Business Administration in Professional Sales

These programs include foundation courses in the humanities, natural and behavioral sciences, and mathematics before advanced courses in the major-field areas are undertaken. The Coles College offers upper division courses in the business disciplines of accounting, economics, finance, management and marketing, in addition to specialized courses in the areas of business law, business information systems, entrepreneurship and family business, insurance, international business, operations management, quality, real estate, sales and strategy.

Requirements for BBA Degree

Business majors should take the following courses as part of their KSU General Education requirements:

MATH 1111	College Algebra (or Math 1113 - Precalculus)
MATH 1106	Elementary Applied Calculus (or MATH 1190-Analytic Geometry and Calculus I)
ECON 2100	Principles of Microeconomics

All business majors must take a calculus course, which is part of the Coles College Sophomore GPA requirement and also a prerequisite to several business courses. Most students will take the MATH 1111 and 1106 sequence. Students with stronger math aptitudes or backgrounds, or students considering graduate school, should take MATH 1113 and 1190. All students must take ECON 2300 (Business Statistics) and not MATH 1107.

Sophomore GPA Requirement

Before a business major can be admitted to the Coles Professional Program and enroll in any upper-division business courses (3000-4000), she or he must meet the Coles Sophomore GPA Requirement. This involves earning an adjusted GPA of 3.00 or greater for the following eight courses:

MATH 1106	Elementary Calculus with Applications (or MATH 1190-Analytic Geometry and Calculus I)
ACCT 2100	Introduction to Financial Accounting

ACCT 2200	Introduction to Managerial Accounting
ECON 2100	Principles of Microeconomics
ECON 2200	Principles of Macroeconomics
ECON 2300	Business Statistics
BISM 2100	Business Information Systems & Communications
BLAW 2200	Legal and Ethical Environment of Business

Regardless of whether the courses are taken at Kennesaw State University or at another acceptable accredited institution, the grades earned will be used to check this GPA requirement. A course may be repeated if necessary.

Admission to the Coles Professional Program

Admission to the Coles College Professional Program is separate from admission to Kennesaw State University. The Sophomore GPA Requirement must be met prior to application for admission. Application forms and details about admission requirements may be obtained from the Undergraduate Advising Center. Business majors must apply for and be accepted for admission into the Coles College of Business Professional Program prior to registering for any 4000-level business courses. A non-refundable application fee is required.

The BBA degree will not be awarded to anyone who has not met the Sophomore GPA Requirement and been admitted to the Coles Professional Program.

Other KSU Requirements

In order to receive a degree from Kennesaw State University, a student must meet KSU's residency, grade, and graduation requirements. Some of those requirements are summarized here. Students are encouraged to check the KSU Undergraduate Catalog for a complete listing of KSU requirements.

Students must earn a minimum of 51 hours of credit in upper division business courses. At least 33 hours of business courses must be taken in residence at KSU. At least 12 hours of the Major Field Requirements and Major Field Electives must be taken at KSU. At least 20 of the last 30 semester hours preceding graduation must be taken at KSU.

Credit for courses taken at other colleges and universities will be given only:

- 1) if the institution has an acceptable accreditation,
- 2) if those courses were taken at the same or higher level than comparable courses offered at Kennesaw State University, and
- 3) if the courses are not too old.

If the courses are taken at a lower level than offered by Kennesaw State University, students may possibly earn credit for a course by passing an Advanced Standing Examination.

Students must earn a grade of "C" or better in the major field courses that constitute the Lower Division Major Requirements (the lower division business core courses) and the Upper Division Major Requirements (including the upper division business core courses, the information technology requirement, the major field requirements, and the major field electives).

Students must always meet current course prerequisites, regardless of when they first started at KSU. Check the most recent KSU Undergraduate Catalog for current course prerequisites.

Timeliness of Degree Completion

Business majors must successfully complete the BBA degree requirements within no more than six (6) calendar years after first being admitted to the Coles Professional Program.

Major in Accounting, B.B.A.

Bachelor of Business Administration Degree Coles College of Business School of Accountancy (770) 423-6084

The faculty of the School of Accountancy strives to be a team of creative, highly qualified professionals dedicated to preparing students for entry-level opportunities and long-term career success. The faculty also makes meaningful contributions to the professional and academic accounting communities.

Accounting provides the tools to measure, interpret and communicate economic information for decision-making. A basic understanding of financial and managerial accounting information is necessary for all business majors. Accounting majors develop their knowledge of accounting within the framework of accounting information systems. The development of a student's technical, communication, computer, critical-thinking, problem-solving, teamwork, and leadership skills are critical consequences of the program.

Upon graduation, Accounting majors have a wide range of job opportunities. Many go into public practice (CPA firms), which involves independent auditing, accounting, consulting and tax services provided to clients. This is the traditional path for becoming a Certified Public Accountant. Others choose private accounting, becoming financial, tax, systems or managerial accountants or internal auditors in business and industry. Major in Marketing, B.B.A.

Bachelor of Business Administration Degree Coles College of Business Department of Marketing & Professional Sales (770) 423-6060

Marketing affects us every day of our lives. A field devoted to promoting an organization's goods and services to potential customers, marketing helps deliver to average consumers a standard of living that would have been inconceivable to previous generations.

Majoring in marketing can lead to a personally satisfying and financially rewarding career in the fields of marketing, sales, or sales management. The marketing curriculum merges marketing theory with real-world practice to prepare students for working with either for-profit or nonprofit organizations. Students may choose a general program of study or one of the specialized marketing tracks including marketing communications, retail management, or professional selling.

Business majors must meet the Coles College Sophomore GPA Requirement and be admitted to the Coles College Professional Program. Bagwell College of Education & PTEU

Kennesaw State University is one of the largest and strongest teacher preparation units in the University System of Georgia. One out of five undergraduate students at KSU is enrolled in a professional degree program that prepares teachers for the P-12, elementary, middle and secondary schools.

KSU's conceptual framework for teacher education is the Collaborative Development of Expertise in Teaching, Learning and Leadership. The Professional Teacher Education Unit (PTEU) at Kennesaw State University is committed to developing expertise among candidates in initial and advanced programs as teachers and leaders who possess the capability, intent and expertise to facilitate high levels of learning in all of their students through effective, research-based practices in classroom instruction, and who enhance the structures that support all learning. To that end, the PTEU fosters the development of candidates as they progress through stages of growth from novice to proficient to expert and leader. Within the PTEU conceptual framework, expertise is viewed as a process of continued development, not an end-state. To become effective, teachers and educational leaders must embrace the notion that teaching and learning are entwined and that only through the implementation of validated practices can all P-12 students construct meaning and reach high levels of learning. In that way, candidates are facilitators of the teaching and learning process. Finally, the PTEU recognizes, values, and demonstrates collaborative practices across the college and university and extends collaboration to the community-at-large. Through this collaboration with university professionals, the public and private schools, parents and other professional partners, the PTEU meets the ultimate goal of assisting Georgia schools in bringing all students to high levels of learning.

Teacher education programs at KSU have high expectations for content knowledge in the teaching field, effective pedagogical skills, multiple field experiences, multicultural perspectives, use of educational technology, performance-based assessments, and attention to student learning outcomes.

Accreditations

The university's teacher preparation programs are accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) and approved by Georgia's Professional Standards Commission (PSC). Successful completion of one of KSU's approved undergraduate programs in teacher education leads to initial teacher certification in Georgia (P-5 for elementary; 4-8 for middle; 6-12 for secondary; and P-12 for all grades).

Graduates of KSU's teacher education programs typically perform well on examinations for professional certification. Candidates for teacher certification in Georgia must pass the Gace Basic and Gace Content tests. In Georgia, the Professional Standards Commission provides the Gace II pass rates for all teacher preparation units in the state to the U.S. Secretary of Education as mandated by Title II of the Higher Education Amendments of 1998. The pass rate which is published as part of the Title II Teacher Report Card, was 96% for all KSU program completers for the 2007-2008 academic year.

The PTEU

Teacher education at KSU is a highly collaborative and all-campus responsibility. The Professional Teacher Education Unit (PTEU) is the umbrella organization under which approximately 100 teaching faculty and academic administrators representing over twelve different instructional departments and five colleges come together to collaborate on the design, delivery, approval and accreditation of all teacher preparation programs. The Dean of the Leland & Clarice C. Bagwell College of Education leads the PTEU and provides university-wide coordination for teacher education, working in partnership with the other deans of the university.

Within the PTEU, the following functions are centralized in the Bagwell College of Education in support of all teacher education programs at KSU:

- Formal Admission to Teacher Education—Impey Teacher Education Advisement Center
- General Program Advisement—Impey Teacher Education Advisement Center and specific program areas
- Admission to Student Teaching—Center for Education Placements and Partnerships (CEPP)
- Recommendations for Teacher Certification—Impey Teacher Education Advisement Center
- Final Appeals of Teacher Education Admission & Retention Decisions—Teacher Education Appeals Board and Associate Dean of the Bagwell College of Education
- Teacher Induction and Professional Development Activities—Center for Education Placements and Partnerships (CEPP)
- Teaching Resources—Teacher Resource and Activity Center (TRAC)
- Educational Technology Resources—Learning Technology Center in TRAC and the Educational Technology Training Center
- Coordination of Field Experiences—Center for Education Placements and Partnerships
- Coordination for Program Accreditation—Associate Dean for Assessment and Accreditation of the Bagwell College of Education
- Coordination of the PTEU and Program Coordinators—Dean of the Bagwell College of Education
- Oversight of the Teacher Education Council (TEC), College Level Policy and Curriculum Committee for all Teacher Education Programs—Dean of the Bagwell College of Education

Within the PTEU, most of the responsibilities for designing and implementing, and administering individual degree programs in teacher education are decentralized and assigned to different colleges and instructional departments. Each program has a KSU faculty member who serves as the program coordinator in the department responsible for that program. The collaborating colleges and departments responsible for KSU's eleven bachelor's degree programs and one current endorsement in teacher education are as follows:

- Bagwell College of Education
 - P-5 Elementary and Early Childhood Education (Department of Elementary & Early Childhood Education)
 - 4-8 Middle Grades Education (Department of Secondary & Middle Grades Education)
- College of Health & Human Services
 - P-12 Health & Physical Education (Department of Health, Physical Education & Sport Science)
- College of Humanities & Social Sciences
 - 6-12 English Education (Department of English)
 - 6-12 History Education (Department of History & Philosophy)
 - P-12 Teacher Certification in Foreign Language Education Concentration (Department of Foreign Language)
- College of Science and Mathematics
 - 6-12 Biology Education (Department of Biology and Physics)
 - 6-12 Mathematics Education (Department of Mathematics and Statistics)
 - 6-12 Chemistry Education Track (Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry)
 - Computer Science Endorsement (Department of Computer Science and Information Systems)*
- College of the Arts
 - P-12 Art Education (Department of Visual Arts)
 - P-12 Music Education (Department of Music)

*The computer science endorsement is a concurrent endorsement that leads to 6-12 certification.

At KSU, content specialists in the arts and sciences work collaboratively with pedagogy specialists in those same disciplines and often in the same departments to prepare teachers. Bachelor's degree programs in teacher education require the equivalent of a major in the content studies of the teaching field and the equivalent of a second major in pedagogical studies, with an emphasis on teaching that is discipline-specific and age-appropriate.

Bagwell College of Education

Even though the responsibility for administering professional teacher preparation programs is distributed broadly across many colleges and departments at KSU, the overall coordination and primary leadership for teacher education resides with the Leland & Clarice C. Bagwell College of Education and the Dean of Education. The Bagwell College is organized into four instructional departments that support particular degree programs in teacher education and a number of academic support units that provide services to all teacher education programs in the PTEU.

Academic Departments

Department of Elementary and Early Childhood Education (770) 423-6121

The foundation for learning and for subsequent academic success is laid during the formative stages. The faculty in this department specialize in the opportunities and challenges of early childhood education. The Department of Elementary and Early Childhood Education offers a program of study leading to the Bachelor of Science degree and broad-field certification in Early Childhood Education (pre-kindergarten to grade five). The Department also offers an M.Ed. in Early Childhood Education. See the Graduate Catalog for more information. The department Web site is www.kennesaw.edu/education/eece.

Department of Secondary and Middle Grades Education (770) 423-6314

Early adolescence represents a period of great transition for young people. The faculty in this department specialize in the opportunities and challenges of middle grades and secondary education. The Department of Secondary and Middle Grades Education offers a program of study leading to the Bachelor of Science degree and certification in middle grades education (4-8). The department also offers the M.Ed. in Adolescent Education. See Graduate Catalog for more information. The department Web site is: www.kennesaw.edu/education/mge.

Department of Inclusive Education (770) 423-6577

There is a growing awareness that effective education must address the diverse and special needs of all students through instructional strategies of inclusion. The faculty in this department specialize in advanced programs for exceptional learners which are inclusive. The Department of Inclusive Education also offers the state-mandated special education course for most undergraduate education programs, INED 3304 Education of Exceptional Students. This course prepares teachers to identify students with diverse learning needs and to accommodate their needs in regular education programs in collaboration with parents, educators and other professionals. Candidates interested in additional experience in programs for learners with diverse needs (Reading Endorsement, English for Speakers of Other Languages, Preschool/Inclusive Education programs) should contact the Department office for information.

The Department also offers graduate add-on certificate programs in English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL), Inclusive Education, and Reading.

See the Graduate Catalog for more information. The department Web site is www.kennesaw.edu/education/specialed.

Department of Educational Leadership (770) 423-6888

The Department offers an endorsement in Educational Leadership and an M.Ed. See the graduate catalog for more information. The department Web site is www.kennesaw.edu/education/edleadership.

William D. Impey Teacher Education Advisement Center (TEAC) provides guidance to Elementary and Early Childhood, Middle Grades, and Secondary History

Education candidates in the PTEU as they complete requirements for full admission to the Teacher Education program, complete program requirements in their major, prepare for participation in major field experiences, and seek teacher certification.

The Teacher Resource and Activity Center (TRAC) serves teacher candidates and in-service candidates and teachers with a curriculum and textbook library and a media resource center for the design and development of instructional materials.

The Educational Technology Training Center at Kennesaw State University serves the Metropolitan Atlanta and North Georgia region with hundreds of workshops for pre-service and in-service educators on the principles of integrating technology into the curriculum to enhance student learning.

Under the leadership of the Associate Dean for Assessment and Accreditation, the Research and Assessment in Teacher Education unit coordinates the PTEU's data collection, institutional research and assessment functions for reporting and program improvement purposes.

The Center for Field Experiences and Partnerships develops and promotes partnerships and collaborative efforts with the university, the community, and schools to advance public P-12 education. The director and center personnel, working with teacher education faculty and appropriate school personnel, plan and implement the selection of school sites and classrooms appropriate to the needs of Kennesaw State University candidates and the goals of the Professional Teacher Education Unit. The Center supports teacher development from pre-service education to teacher induction through mentoring programs, staff development, and other initiatives.

Admission to Teacher Education

Kennesaw State University is committed through its admission and monitoring processes to recruit and prepare diverse, highly qualified and capable prospective teachers. In order to enroll in a professional level education course at the upper level (3000-4000), the candidate must be formally admitted to teacher education at Kennesaw State University.

Admission to teacher education is separate from admission to Kennesaw State University. Candidates typically apply for admission to teacher education as sophomores after having completed most of their general education requirements. Applications for admission to teacher education are available in the William D. Impey Teacher Education Advisement Center.

A criminal history background check will be performed prior to admission to teacher education. In addition, if determined by the background check that a student is a multi-state offender, the student will be required to pay a fee and be fingerprinted. Results of either the criminal history background check and/or fingerprinting may preclude admission to teacher education.

In order to meet the minimum requirements for admission to teacher education programs, candidates must also have:

1. Completed at least 45 semester hours of accredited college coursework.
2. Achieved a cumulative GPA of 2.75 for all attempted hours in the system core curriculum and lower division courses as required for teacher preparation programs.
3. Achieved an adjusted or cumulative GPA of 2.75 for all completed coursework at Kennesaw State University.
4. Completed English 1101 and English 1102 with grades of "C" or higher.
5. Passed or exempted the Regents' Examination.
6. Passed or exempted the state of Georgia required GACE Basic Skills Assessment, regardless of matriculation date.
7. Completed EDUC 2110* with grade of "C" or higher. In addition to the preceding, the Department of Elementary and Early Childhood Education requires that all additional coursework completed in Lower Division Major and Teaching Field at the time of application for admission must consist of a grade of "C" or higher.
8. Received a positive faculty recommendation from EDUC 2110.

9. Received a positive evaluation in the EDUC field experience.
 10. Exhibited responsible, professional behavior in all classes, the field experience, and interactions with peers and faculty.
 11. Exhibited potential for success in the program.
 12. Been approved for admission by the Admission and Academic Standing Committee of the applicant's proposed degree program.
 13. Note: Some degree programs in teacher education have additional admissions requirements. Consult those departments and program coordinators.
- * Or approved Teacher Cadet or Teacher Apprenticeship Program

To be considered for admission, applications and all supporting documents must be submitted to the William D. Impey Teacher Education Advisement Center on or before the following deadlines:

Admission to Teacher Education Program for	Application Deadline*
Fall Semester	April 15th
Spring Semester	September 15th
Summer Term	February 15th

* See note below on teacher education admission fee

Candidates will be informed of their admission status by email to their Kennesaw State University Student email account.

Candidates who have been denied admission must remove deficiencies within three semesters of the initial application for admission in order to be eligible for reconsideration for entry into a teacher education program.

Teacher Education Admission Fee

Any student submitting an application for admission to Teacher Education after February 15, 2006 must pay a $20.00 application fee. This fee is nonrefundable and nontransferable.

Retention in Teacher Education

Once admitted to teacher education, a candidate will not be eligible to continue in teacher education if:

1. Responsible, professional behavior is not exhibited in all classes, field experiences and interactions with peers and faculty, as judged by the program faculty and/or collaborating teachers and school personnel.
2. The candidate is found guilty of a major violation of the student code of conduct or civil law.
3. Two or more "D" or "F" grades are earned in required lower and upper division courses in the candidate's teacher education program. A review may be triggered if the candidate's adjusted or cumulative GPA falls below 2.75 at KSU.
4. The individual fails to observe or meet the required course and program prerequisites, including field-based teaching methods courses and student teaching.
5. Teaching skills and effectiveness are judged by two or more faculty instructors and/or collaborating teachers to be unsatisfactory.
6. Student teaching is not completed satisfactorily.

One or more of these deficiencies will trigger a review by the Admissions and Academic Standing Committee of the appropriate program area, which will determine whether the candidate will be permitted to continue in the teacher education program under an individualized remediation plan. Decisions to remove a candidate from the teacher education program will be recommended by that committee and approved by the program coordinator, department chair, and the Associate Dean for Undergraduate Studies of the Bagwell College of Education.

A student teacher may be removed from a field experience when any of the following occurs:

1. The appropriate school authority states that the teacher preparation candidate's presence in the classroom is not in the best interest of the public school's students and/or requests that the teacher preparation candidate be removed;
2. The joint decision of the appropriate teacher education program coordinator and department chair in consultation with the director of the Center for Education Placements and Partnerships (CEPP), student teacher coordinator, supervising master teacher, and/or university supervisor states that the circumstances are such as to prevent either the development and/or maintenance of a satisfactory learning environment;
3. Unprofessional/unethical behavior has been exhibited by the teacher education candidate;
4. A decision has been reached that the teacher education candidate cannot receive a satisfactory grade.

Major Field Experiences

The purpose of educational field experiences is to provide each teacher education candidate with multiple opportunities to engage in the practical aspects of teaching in real classroom settings. The teacher education faculty, the Director of the Center for Field Experiences and Partnerships and appropriate school personnel collaborate to plan and implement the selection of school sites, classrooms and teaching/learning major field experiences and environments appropriate to the needs of the candidates and the goals of the Professional Teacher Education Unit. Emphasis is given to balancing each candidate's experiences between urban, suburban and rural environments, as well as among the multicultural and diverse populations of learners served within the Kennesaw State University service area. Each candidate is expected to be engaged in the full range of the respective program's teacher certification requirements as prescribed by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission.

The introductory course to the major includes a field component, as do several other courses in the professional education sequence. Two major field experiences form the capstone of all undergraduate teacher education programs: 1) the Teaching of Specific Subjects (TOSS) experience; and 2) the Student Teaching experience.

Teaching of Specific Subjects (TOSS) and Instructional Design and Applications (IDA)

While candidate progress will be monitored throughout the program, a formal progress check will occur when candidates submit the TOSS application for the appropriate program area. This form must be signed by the student’s advisor and submitted to the program’s coordinator.

A criminal history background check will be performed prior to Admission to the Teaching of Specific Subjects (TOSS) or equivalent and may preclude continuation in the program. Teacher candidates must pay a fee for this service. Information regarding the criminal history check can be obtained from the Center for Education Placements and Partnerships. Minimum requirements for continuation in the program are:

1. Completion of teaching field and professional sequence coursework with a 2.75 minimum adjusted or cumulative GPA.
2. Grades of “C” or better in all required courses in the candidate’s teacher education program.
3. Positive evaluations in all field experiences.
4. Responsible behavior in all classes, field experiences, and interactions with peers and faculty.
5. Approval by the Admissions and Academic Standing Committee of the appropriate program area.

Individual programs/departments may have additional criteria for continuation in the program.

The form must be submitted to the appropriate program coordinator on or before the following specified deadline dates.

Admission to TOSS for	Application Deadline
Fall Semester	April 15th
Spring Semester	September 15th

Admission to Student Teaching

Student teaching normally is the last requirement completed in teacher education programs. Student teaching requires a full-time academic and professional commitment; therefore, no other courses should be taken during the semester of student teaching. Since student teaching is based in the field, the typical school-day hours for teachers at the placement site will be observed by the teacher candidate. The teacher candidate is expected to follow the direction of the collaborating teacher, the school principal, the KSU university supervisor, and the KSU Director of the Center for Education Placements and Partnerships.

A criminal history background check will be performed prior to admission to Teaching of Specific Subjects (TOSS) or equivalent. In addition, if determined by the background check that a student is a multi-state offender, the student will be required to pay a fee and be fingerprinted. Results of either the criminal history background check and/or fingerprinting may preclude continuation in the program.

Formal application to student teach must be completed and submitted to the Center for Education Placements and Partnerships. Candidates become eligible to student teach by meeting the following requirements:

1. Grades of “C” or higher in all Lower Division Major Requirements (Area F) teaching field and professional education coursework.
2. A 2.75 adjusted or cumulative GPA in all coursework at Kennesaw State University.
3. Positive evaluations in field experiences.
4. Responsible professional behavior in all classes, field experiences, and interactions with peers and faculty.
5. Positive recommendation from the instructor(s) of Teaching of Specific Subjects (TOSS) and Instructional Design and Application (IDA) course(s).
6. Approval by the Center for Education Placements and Partnerships, and the Admissions and Academic Standing Committee of the appropriate program area.

Individual programs/ departments may have additional criteria for admission to student teaching.

Applications for student teaching must be submitted to the Center for Education Placements and Partnerships on or before the deadline dates specified below:

Admission to Student Teaching for	Application Deadline
Fall Semester (previous Spring)	January 30
Spring Semester (previous Fall)	August 30

Applications are due a semester in advance. For example, candidates wishing to student teach Spring 2010 must submit completed applications by August 30, 2009. Candidates wishing to student teach Fall 2010 must submit completed applications by January 30, 2010.

Applications will not be accepted after the deadline.

Completion of Student Teaching

Criteria for the successful completion of student teaching are detailed in the Outcomes and Proficiencies outlined in the PTEU Candidate Performance Instrument (CPI) and embodied in the PTEU Conceptual Framework (CF). Candidates demonstrate their achievement of the Outcomes and Proficiencies through successful completion of the following:

- Entire semester of student teaching including eight to ten continuous weeks of full-time teaching (during one semester), unless otherwise stated by the program area
- Candidate Performance Instrument (CPI)
- Portfolio Narrative
- Impact on Student Learning Analysis Assignment
- Program area criteria and requirements
- End-of-semester student teaching surveys

The CF Outcomes and Proficiencies are available on the Center for Education Placements and Partnerships Web site. Refer to the Field Experiences Handbook to review reasons for removal from the student teaching experience.

Grading Policies for Student Teaching

The final grades and their definitions for student teaching are as follows:

I – indicates an incomplete grade for the Student Teaching experience and will be awarded only when the candidate is progressing successfully in the Student Teaching experience, but for non-academic reasons beyond his/her control is unable to meet the full requirements of the student teaching semester experience. An “Incomplete Grade Documentation” form is required that stipulates the conditions for successful completion of student teaching and signed by the university supervisor, collaborating teacher, department chair/program coordinator, and candidate.

If a candidate receives a grade of “I”, the candidate must satisfactorily complete the requirements for Student Teaching as recommended by the program area, in compliance with the time frame stated under “Grading Policies” in the current KSU Catalog. The candidate will be assigned the grade of “U” if the grade of “I” is not removed within the time frame stated under “Grading Policies” in the current KSU Catalog. If the candidate receives a grade of “U” and wishes to enroll for student teaching in a subsequent semester, the candidate must reapply for student teaching. If accepted to the program, the candidate must complete the entire student teaching semester experience.

W – is awarded when a candidate withdraws without penalty from student teaching with the approval of the registrar before the withdrawal date listed in the Semester Schedule of Classes. Withdrawals without penalty may be permitted after the official withdrawal period in hardship cases only with the approval of the department chair and the registrar. A remediation plan stipulating the conditions for successful completion of student teaching and signed by the university supervisor, collaborating teacher, department chair/program coordinator, and candidate is required. If a candidate receives a grade of “W” and wishes to enroll in student teaching in a subsequent semester, the candidate must reapply for student teaching once the remediation plan is successfully completed and documented by the program area using the “Student Teacher Remediation Follow-up Report.” If accepted to the program, the candidate must complete the entire student teaching semester experience.

WF – indicates that the student was permitted to withdraw from a course with the approval of the registrar after the withdrawal date listed in the Semester Schedule of Classes. If a candidate earns a grade of “WF”, the conditions indicated under “U” below will apply.

S – indicates satisfactory completion of the student teaching experience.

U – indicates unsatisfactory completion of the student teaching experience. If a candidate earns a grade of “U”, a remediation plan stipulating the conditions for successful completion of student teaching and signed by the university supervisor, collaborating teacher, department chair/program coordinator, and candidate is required. If a candidate receives a grade of “U” and wishes to enroll in student teaching in a subsequent semester, the candidate must reapply for student teaching once the remediation plan is successfully completed and documented by the program area using the “Student Teacher Remediation Follow-up Report.” If accepted to the program, the candidate must complete the entire student teaching semester experience.

Appeals of Admission & Retention Decisions

A formal appeal of a decision to deny admission or retention in student teaching or the teacher education program may be made to the Teacher Education Appeals Board. Instructions and forms for such appeals are available in the Office of the Dean of the Bagwell College of Education. An appeal must be based on exceptional and extenuating circumstances and/or other pertinent information not previously available or considered. A formal appeal must be submitted in writing to the Dean of the Bagwell College of Education within 30 days of being notified of admission or retention status.

In all cases, the candidate may initiate an appeal after seeking resolution with the appropriate degree program’s Admissions and Academic Standing Committee or department chair or both.

The Dean will transmit the appeal to the Teacher Education Appeals Board. The decision of the Teacher Education Appeals Board may be appealed in writing within 30 days to the Dean of the Bagwell College of Education. The decision of the Dean of the Bagwell College of Education is final.

Teacher Certification

Teacher certification is granted by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission. KSU’s degree programs in teacher education have been approved by the Professional Standards Commission, but their completion satisfies only one of the requirements for teacher certification in Georgia. Candidates completing an approved program will prepare the necessary paperwork for certification prior to Student Teaching. Candidates desiring certification in another state should contact the Department of Education in that state for specific requirements.

For Kennesaw State University to recommend a candidate for certification in the state of Georgia, candidates must have received a degree in their field of education with a GPA of at least 2.75 from Kennesaw State University, pass the GACE Basic examination or show proof of exemption (see below), pass the GACE Content test for that field, and submit a copy of the GACE Content score report for all passed examinations to the Certification Officer. The Certification Officer is responsible for verifying that all information is correct before any paperwork can be submitted to the Georgia Professional Standards Commission.

GACE Basic is a comprehensive test covering reading, writing, and mathematics. Regardless of matriculation date, GACE Basic is a requirement for entrance into the Teacher Education Program at Kennesaw State University. Candidates should plan to take the test prior to applying to the Teacher Education Program. Students with the following minimum scores on Collegiate SAT, ACT, or GRE examinations may exempt GACE I test by submitting proof of scores to the Certification Officer located in the William D. Impey Teacher Education Advisement Center:

SAT: at least 1000 (Critical Reading and Mathematics)

ACT: at least 43 (English and Mathematics)

GRE: at least 1030 (Verbal and Quantitative)

Candidates who believe they qualify for this exemption should see the Certification Officer in the William D. Impey Teacher Education Advisement Center to establish and record the exemption. The center can also provide further information concerning GACE Basic and GACE Content at (770) 423-6105.

Programs of Study

The following degree programs are offered through the collaborating colleges and departments of the PTEU:

Elementary and Early Childhood and Elementary Education Teacher Certification Program

- Bachelor of Science in Elementary and Early Childhood Education

Middle Grades Teacher Certification Program

- Bachelor of Science in Middle Grades Education

Secondary Teacher Certification Programs

- Bachelor of Science in Biology Education
- Bachelor of Science in English Education
- Bachelor of Science in Mathematics Education
- Bachelor of Science in Chemistry (Chemistry Education Track)
- Bachelor of Science in History Education

P-12 Teacher Education Certification Programs

- Bachelor of Science in Art Education
- Bachelor of Science in Health and Physical Education
- Bachelor of Music in Music Education
- Bachelor of Art in Modern Language and Culture (Teacher Certification in Foreign Language Education Concentration)

Endorsement

The following concurrent endorsement is offered through the collaborating colleges and departments of the PTEU.

This broad-field program is designed to prepare teachers of young children and leads to certification for pre-kindergarten to grade five in Georgia. The cross-disciplinary nature of the program's course requirements, with special emphasis on content studies in mathematics and reading, corresponds to the broad and integrated nature of teaching in the elementary grades and the fundamental importance of developing the reading and mathematical skills of young learners. The program provides candidates with an understanding of developmentally appropriate practices and an awareness of and sensitivity to cultural diversity and individual differences among young learners.

Leading to Certification for Grades 4 - 8
Bagwell College of Education
Department of Secondary and Middle Grades Education
(770) 423-6314
<http://www.kennesaw.edu/education/mge/>

The middle grades program is designed to prepare teachers of children and young adolescents in the middle grades (grades 4 through 8). It leads to 4-8 teacher certification in Georgia. Candidates prepare in two of the four teaching fields of the middle grades curriculum (mathematics, science, social studies, or language arts). Preparation in these two teaching fields is more in-depth than the content requirements of the program for early childhood educators, but less extensive and less specialized than the requirements of programs for secondary educators. The integrated nature of the curriculum and the importance of team teaching strategies for the different teaching field programs with 4-8 certification are emphasized.

<http://csis.kennesaw.edu/>

This Add-On Endorsement program is intended to prepare computer science teachers of adolescents, largely at the secondary school level (grades 6 through 12). It leads to a teacher certification in the teaching field of computer science in Georgia. As an endorsement, the teaching candidate must already have or simultaneously obtain a teaching certification in another field. This program of study is fully approved by Georgia's Professional Standards Commission for 6-12 teacher certification.

ADVISING

Students who are interested in this program should seek advising as early as possible. Additional advising will be provided upon entry to the pedagogical course CSED 4416. This advising will help the students coordinate their courses in this program with the courses in their primary program. It will also help in scheduling student teaching at an appropriate school.

PROGRAM TOTAL 131

- ¹ Art education majors are required to apply for admission into the Teacher Education Program. Please refer to the TEAC Web site for further information and forms. Please see the Coordinator of Art Education in the Department of Visual Arts for additional information.
- ² The upper level studio courses are basic requirements. Art education students may elect to take additional course work in specific studio areas such as drawing, painting, photography, printmaking, ceramics, sculpture, and graphic communications. Additional studio work is highly recommended for students planning to do graduate study.
- ³ Declared art education majors must take ART 3000 after completion of lower division major requirements and after the completion of 6 hours of upper division studio art courses. ART 3000 may not be taken until at least two of the six studio art courses have been successfully completed. All transfer students will be required to present a portfolio for transfer admission and credit evaluation. All transfer students must have transfer credit in all lower division major requirements (Area F) and six hours of upper division major requirements to enroll in ART 3000. Students are admitted to the art education program based on available openings and the quality of the student's work.
- ⁴ The senior seminar and exhibition must be arranged at least two semesters in advance. Contact the Art Gallery Office for specific details and for an application.

Major in Modern Language and Culture, B.A. (Teacher Certification in Foreign Language Concentration)

Bachelor of Arts Degree
Leading to Certification for Grades P-12
College of Humanities and Social Sciences
Department of Foreign Languages
(770) 423-6366 www.kennesaw.edu/foreignlanguage

The Teacher Certification in Foreign Language concentration under the B.A. in Modern Language and Culture program is designed to prepare Foreign Language Education teachers at all grade levels (pre-kindergarten through grade 12). It leads to P-12 teacher certification in the teaching field of (French or Spanish) in Georgia. Candidates complete a major in Modern Language and Culture (primary language: French or Spanish) and the equivalent of a second major in pedagogical studies with an emphasis on teaching a foreign language.

For specific concentration and full major requirements, see College of Humanities and Social Sciences, Major in Modern Language and Culture.

The specific requirements for admission, retention, degree completion and teacher certification in this degree program are listed with all other teacher education programs. See Bagwell College of Education & PTEU.

Major in Health and Physical Education, B.S.

Bachelor of Science Degree
Leading to Certification for Grades P-12
College of Health and Human Services
Department of Health, Physical Education & Sport Science (770) 423-6216
www.kennesaw.edu/col_hhs/hps/

The B.S. in Health & Physical Education is fully accredited by NCATE, National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, fully approved by Georgia's Professional Standards Commission for P-12 teacher certification, nationally recognized by AAHPERD, the American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation & Dance, and nationally recognized by NASPE, the National Association for Sport & Physical Education.

This single field program is designed to prepare health and physical education teachers at all grade levels (pre-kindergarten through grade 12). It leads to P-12 teacher certification in the teaching field of health and physical education in Georgia. Candidates complete the equivalent of a major in health and physical education and a second major in pedagogical studies with an emphasis on teaching health and physical education.

Teacher preparation students in addition to applying for Admission to Teacher Education and Student Teaching must demonstrate eligibility for practicum (HPS 4410 and 4430). This process is a part of the Department's periodic assessment of the teacher preparation students. Practicum forms, a detailed description of the eligibility requirements and submission deadlines are available from the departmental office (CC 3003).

Transfer Students:

To ensure HPE candidates meet the standards required by the Professional Teacher Education Unit (PTEU), National Association of Sport and Physical Education (NASPE), and the Georgia Professional Standards Commission (PSC), all transfer students will be required to take all courses in the Professional Education sequence (HPS 3450, 3550, 3650, 3750, 4250, 4410, 4430 and 4850) at Kennesaw State University. Exceptions will be made only for those who took a course that in the past was considered a substitution for one of the Professional Education courses and can document their compliance with these standards through portfolio presentations of their work.

Wellstar College of Health and Human Services

The WellStar College of Health and Human Services is a dynamic academic unit that consists of the Department of Social Work and Human Services, the Department of Health, Physical Education and Sport Science, and the School of Nursing. Additionally, the college includes the campus-wide Wellness Center, Student Health Clinic, Center for Health Services, and Center for Community Partnerships and the Center for Global Women's Leadership and Sport Development.

The WellStar College Office of Research actively pursues the development of faculty scholarship and grants. This initiative was designed to develop a comprehensive approach to the interrelated academic roles of teaching, scholarship, and service.

Accreditations

All nursing degree programs and the teacher education program in this college are nationally accredited. In addition, the nursing programs are state-approved and the teacher education program is nationally recognized and has state approval for P-12 teacher certification in Georgia. Human Services graduates will be eligible in the near future to earn certification as a Human Services Board Certified Practitioner (HS-BCP) established by the Center for Credentialing and Education in collaboration with the National Organization for Human Services (NOHS) and the Council for Standards in Human Service Education (CSHSE).

Members of each of the college units are actively engaged in the pursuit of excellence in undergraduate and graduate education.

The Social Work and Human Services Department offers an undergraduate degree in Human Services and, in association with the national American Humanics Program, offers a certificate in nonprofit leadership. A master's degree in clinical social work is now available to interested, qualified students. Faculty members in human services are taking leadership roles in community partnerships, with more than 100 community agencies. The department has study abroad initiatives in Germany, Uganda, Thailand, and Argentina.

The Department of Health, Physical Education and Sport Science offers degrees in three areas: health promotion; teacher education; and sport science.

The B.S. in Health & Physical Education has secured the following national accreditations and state approvals:

- fully accredited by NCATE, National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education
- fully approved by Georgia's Professional Standards Commission for P-12 teacher certification
- nationally recognized by AAHPERD, the American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance
- nationally recognized by NASPE, the National Association for Sport & Physical Education.

The department's faculty expands knowledge in several areas, such as recognizing and stressing the benefits of exercise in older adults. Additionally, the department offers the Physical and Leisure Activities for Youth (PLAY) Program that provides social and physical experiences for disabled children and the Seniors Participating in Activities Related to Health at Kennesaw State (SPARHKS) Program that provides outreach to older adults. It also manages an aquatics program that offers outreach to the community. Faculty has developed a close working relationship with colleagues at the University of Catarina, located in Florianopolis, Brazil. This collaboration helps in supporting the international underpinning of the college, resulting in student and faculty exchanges, as well as international scholarship opportunities for both universities.

The WellStar School of Nursing offers both undergraduate and graduate programs in nursing that are accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) and are also fully approved by the Georgia Board of Nursing.

The school is one of the largest and most well respected programs in the Southeast, with consistently high passing rates on the RN licensing examination and nurse practitioner certification examinations. The School of Nursing programs include a generic BSN program, an accelerated BSN program for individuals holding other degrees, and a MSN program in care management and leadership. The school offers an international experience for students that provides the opportunity to work in hospitals and clinics in Oaxaca, Mexico. Additionally, the School of Nursing has responsibility for the Center for Community Health Services, operating three clinics and serving more than 2,500 at-risk persons annually. These clinics have increasingly served the working poor and recent immigrants to the U.S. Through the efforts of the school's faculty, and the Office of Research, the college was awarded a $200,000 grant from the Georgia Health Care Foundation to develop a culturally specific response to the management of diabetes in the growing Hispanic/Latino community in the state. School of Nursing faculty is actively researching areas such as end-of-life issues, ethics, and barriers to prenatal care for immigrants and health disparities.

Academic Departments

The WellStar College of Health and Human Services houses three academic departments:

- The Department of Health, Physical Education and Sport Science
- The Department of Social Work and Human Services
- The WellStar School of Nursing

In addition to the academic departments the WellStar College of Health and Human Services, provides service to the students, faculty and staff through support of:

- University Health Clinic
- The Center for Health Promotion and Wellness
- Employee Fitness Center

Department of Health, Physical Education & Sport Science (HPS) (770) 423-6216

<http://www.kennesaw.edu/hps>

The Department of Health, Physical Education & Sport Science provides: (a) an elective physical education activity program, (b) the required general education core course HPS 1000 Fitness for Living, and, Health, Physical Education, and Sport Science and, (c) the health, physical education and sport science major programs of study. The program of study includes three majors: (a) exercise and health science major; (b) health and physical education (P-12) major which is found in the Bagwell College of Education teacher education program and (c) sport management major. In addition, the department offers a minor in coaching. Students interested in one of the majors or the minor should contact the office of the department chair in the Convocation Center, room 3015 for further information and appropriate advisement forms. Student should seek HPS faculty advisement early when planning their program of study and continue interacting with their advisor each semester during their study at Kennesaw State University.

Department of Social Work and Human Services

(770) 423-6630

The Department of Human Services offers an undergraduate degree program in Human Services. The Human Services degree (HS) is designed to prepare students to begin working as generalist practitioners in a variety of private, nonprofit or governmental human service organizations. In addition, the Department offers the American Humanics Certificate in Non-profit Management. The Department also offers a graduate degree in Social Work.

WellStar School of Nursing Program

(770) 423-6061

www.kennesaw.edu/chhs/schoolof-nursing/

The WellStar School of Nursing offers a program of study in nursing leading to a Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree. This program leads to eligibility for initial licensure as a registered nurse and consists of a traditional curriculum plan and an accelerated option for students holding a bachelors degree in another field. A BSN completion option is also available for persons who are already registered nurses. Both programs combine nursing courses with general education courses. The curriculum includes courses in the humanities and the biological and social sciences as well as the theoretical and clinical practice background necessary for the practice of professional nursing.

The BSN completion option is based on the statewide articulation plan formulated by nursing programs in the State of Georgia. Nursing courses for the RN-BSN Program are offered in both online and onground formats. Upon completion of a bridge course and other prerequisites, registered nurse students receive credit for 25 semester hours of sophomore and junior-level nursing courses and enter the senior-level courses. This program admits students once a year and is planned to provide flexible options for the working nurse. Emphasis at the senior level is on community and family nursing, career development and professional growth. Learning experiences in health care settings are individually tailored to meet student needs.

Cooperative study and internship programs are available through the baccalaureate nursing program for students to gain work experience in conjunction with their academic and clinical education.

Programs of Study

The WellStar College of Health and Human Services offers the following undergraduate degrees:

- Bachelor of Science in Exercise and Health Science
- Bachelor of Science in Health and Physical Education P-12 (with PTEU)
- Bachelor of Science in Human Services
- Bachelor of Science in Nursing
- Bachelor of Science in Sport Management

Certificate Programs

The WellStar College of Health and Human Services offers the following certificate program:

The Exercise and Health Science major program is designed for students seeking academic preparation in the exercise, fitness and/or health areas. This program of study prepares students to become leaders in the fitness profession, and to organize and deliver health promotion programs in private, public, or corporate wellness environments. The capstone to the program is a one academic semester internship experience working in an exercise and health science setting, or students can select pre-professional elective coursework to prepare for advanced or graduate studies, e.g., physical therapy, exercise physiology. For admission to the program and further information, see the department office (CC 3003).

The B.S. in Health & Physical Education is fully accredited by NCATE, National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, fully approved by Georgia’s Professional Standards Commission for P-12 teacher certification and nationally recognized by NASPE, the National Association for Sport & Physical Education.

This single field program is designed to prepare health and physical education teachers at all grade levels (pre-kindergarten through grade 12). Candidates complete the equivalent of a major in health and physical education and a second major in pedagogical studies with an emphasis on teaching health and physical education.

Teacher preparation students in addition to applying for Admission to Teacher Education and Student Teaching must demonstrate eligibility for practicum (HPS 4410 and 4430). This process is a part of the Department’s periodic assessment of the teacher preparation students. Practicum forms, a detailed description of the eligibility requirements and submission deadlines are available from the departmental office (CC 3003).

The specific requirements for admission, retention, degree completion and teacher certification in this degree program are listed with all other teacher education programs. See Bagwell College of Education & PTEU.

Transfer Students:

To ensure HPE candidates meet the standards required by the Professional Teacher Education Unit (PTEU), National Association of Sport and Physical Education (NASPE), and the Georgia Professional Standards Commission (PSC), all transfer students will be required to take all courses in the Professional Education sequence (HPS 3450, 3550, 3650, 3750, 4250, 4410, 4430 and 4850) at Kennesaw State University. Exceptions will be made only for those who took a course that in the past was considered a substitution for one of the Professional Education courses and can document their compliance with these standards through portfolio presentations of their work.

The Human Services (HS) program prepares students to pursue careers in the field of human services in a variety of public, nonprofit, and private human service organizations. Students may choose either a concentration in clinical case management that provides the skills and knowledge needed for direct service provision, or a concentration in human service administration that prepares for a career in program development and management. All students are required to take a common core, which includes two internship experiences.

HS majors also have the opportunity to qualify for the American Humanics Certificate in Non-profit Management by taking courses in nonprofit management and leadership. American Humanics, Inc. (AH) is a national organization that collaborates with affiliated universities and major nonprofit organizations recruiting, preparing, and placing students in meaningful careers with youth and human service agencies. Students pursuing the certificate must acquire the required competencies of the program including: board committee development, human resource development, nonprofit financial management, fund-raising principles and practices, program planning, and nonprofit marketing. Students demonstrate these competencies through completion of appropriate course work, participation in the American Humanics student organization, and attendance at the yearly Management Training Institute sponsored by AH.

Nursing Program Admission Requirements

The WellStar College of Health and Human Services offers a program of study in nursing leading to a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) degree. This program is fully accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE). In addition, this program leads to eligibility for initial licensure as a registered nurse and consists of a traditional curriculum plan and an accelerated option for students holding a bachelors degree in another field. A BSN completion option is also available for persons who are already registered nurses. All three program options combine nursing courses with general education courses. The general education courses provide a broad scope of liberal education for the nursing program and serve as a foundation for functioning in a civil society and learning nursing concepts. Students may declare nursing as a major and begin taking the general education component of either program, at any time.

The baccalaureate degree sequence for prelicensure students is offered every semester. Since there are a limited number of spaces in the program, prospective students must apply to the BSN program for admission with a cohort for each clinical sequence of the program.

The four semester Accelerated Program provides an excellent career migration for those with previous baccalaureate or higher degrees. The curriculum includes a combination of on-campus and several online courses, which incorporate both theoretical and clinical nursing classes. Accelerated program students are admitted each semester as full-time students. Sections of the accelerated classes are taught at our main KSU campus and at the Rome and Jasper satellite locations. These satellite programs, established to serve the needs of Northwest Georgia residents, gives priority to those students living in the Northwest Crescent of Georgia.

Nursing Program Admission Requirements

Requirements for students include:

1. Annual health history and physical exam
2. Initial proof of immunity to specified communicable diseases
3. Annual tuberculosis screening (more frequently for some clinical agencies)
4. Health Insurance
5. Certification in health care provider cardiopulmonary resuscitation by the American Heart Association
6. Uniforms (must be purchased from designated School of Nursing vendor), stethoscope, and a suitable watch.
7. An initial fee of approximately $320 to cover the cost of achievement exams taken during the program, $15 for professional liability insurance, and $35 per semester for clinical lab fee.
8. Attend mandatory all day nursing orientation session prior to entry to the nursing program.
9. Criminal background check and drug screen (cost incurred by student) must be conducted by vendor designated by the School of Nursing. Dismissal from the program may result if student is not capable of meeting clinical agency requirements for criminal background check and/or is found to have a positive drug screen.
10. Students health records will be released to clinical agencies if requested. Students enrolled in clinical nursing courses who have not met the above requirements may be administratively withdrawn from the course.

Baccalaureate Program Admission Criteria

1. Must have met Kennesaw State University admission requirements.
2. All nursing students must complete developmental studies requirements prior to application to the nursing sequence.

3. All nursing students must complete the Regent's requirements prior to admission to the nursing program.
4. The following prerequisite courses must be completed prior to beginning the clinical sequence: ENGL 1101, 1102; MATH 1101, 1107; CHEM 1151/1151L, 1152/1152L; BIOL 2221/2221L, 2222/2222L, 2261/2261L; PSYC 2201, 3305; and SOCI 2105.
5. Applicants must complete seven of the prerequisite requirements to be considered for admission, and five of the seven must be math and natural science courses. Note: courses with a lab component will be considered one prerequisite. Students will receive one calculated grade for the class and lab (weighting the course grade 75% and lab grade 25%)
6. Applicants must have a 2.7 cumulative grade point average with a minimum grade of "C" in each required science and mathematics course. In addition, an applicant who repeats two different natural science courses or repeats the same natural science course twice because of grades below "C" within the past 5 years will not be considered for admission to the program.
7. To be considered for admission, applicants must not have more than two withdrawals per course from any prerequisite nursing courses on their academic transcripts.
8. Admission will be based on a combination of grades received in prerequisite courses required in the program of study, the total number of required prerequisite courses completed and the total number of college credits completed. Personal qualities important to nursing and longevity at Kennesaw State University may also be considered.
9. Applications for entry into the baccalaureate nursing sequence must be completed by published deadlines.
10. Decisions regarding admission into the nursing sequence and progression in the program will be made by a nursing admissions committee.
11. All applicants must complete a pre-entrance admission exam (limited to two attempts) as designated by the School of Nursing for admission consideration. Cost for the exam is incurred by the student.
12. Finalists for admission will be notified and must attend a mandatory interview session as the final step in the admissions process.
13. Students who were previously enrolled in a nursing program and not eligible to return to the former nursing program will not be eligible for admission to the KSU Nursing Program.
14. All applicants must be aware that the state examining board has the right to refuse to grant a registered nurse license to any individual regardless of educational credentials under circumstances of (1) falsification of application for licensure (2) conviction of a felony or crime of moral turpitude; other moral and legal violations specified in the Georgia law.

Advanced Placement for RNs

The Baccalaureate Nursing Program ascribes to the Georgia RN-BSN Articulation Model. Copies of the model are available in the WellStar School of Nursing Office. Advanced placement for registered nurses is available in the baccalaureate program. Successful completion of NURS 3320 - Concepts of Professional Nursing, a 3-hour non-degree credit course, allows these students to receive 27 hours of sophomore, junior, and NURS 4414 credits and enter the clinical sequence at the senior level. This course can be taken only once. In the event that the student does not successfully complete NURS 3320, no validation credits will be granted, and the student must complete the sophomore and junior levels of the nursing sequence. All required courses for completion of the BSN must be completed within 5 years. Criteria for progression are the same as the baccalaureate degree program.

The requirements for entry into NURS 3320 are:

1. Must have met Kennesaw State University admission requirements.
2. Must have met Kennesaw State University baccalaureate nursing program admission criteria and the testing requirements of the Georgia RN-BSN Articulation Model.

3. Must have successfully completed the following prerequisite courses: ENGL 1101, 1102; MATH 1101, 1107; CHEM 1151/1151L, 1152/1152L; BIOL 2221/2221L, 2222/2222L, 2261/2261L; PSYC 2201, 3305; SOCI 2105; BIOL 3317; NURS 3303; and corequisite course NURS 3309.
4. A student with a grade less than “C” in nursing courses, (including BIOL 3317 – Human Pathophysiology), limited to two attempts per course, will not be eligible for admission to the Advanced Placement Program for R.N.s.
5. Must present a current, valid Georgia RN license.
6. Must apply by published deadlines.

Transfer Credit for Nursing Courses

In order for any course to be considered for transfer credit, the nursing course must be from an accredited nursing program within the past two years and a grade of “B” or better, received in the course. Nursing courses older than two years will be considered only if the student has been out of the former program for two terms or less and was continuously enrolled in the former nursing program. A letter must be obtained from the School of Nursing Chair/Department Head stating that the student is eligible to return to the nursing program and is in good academic standing. Students who are not eligible to return to their former nursing program will not be able to apply to the nursing program. In addition, students will need to successfully complete a medication calculation test at 90% or better (limited to two attempts) and a nursing skills checkoff (limited to three attempts) before beginning a clinical nursing course.

Progression and Readmission within the Baccalaureate Nursing Program

Criteria for progression to the junior and senior year and graduation from the baccalaureate degree program are as follows:

1. Receive at least a “C” in all nursing, natural science and mathematics courses.
2. Maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.7.
3. A student may repeat only one nursing course (including BIO 3317, Human Pathophysiology). A grade less than “C” in any two nursing courses will result in being dropped from the program. Students who are dropped are not eligible to reapply. Students must earn a minimum of “C” in each nursing course and Biology 3317 (Human Pathophysiology) to progress.
4. Successful completion of a nursing exit exam administered in final semester of nursing program (limited to two attempts). A remediation plan will be developed for a student not successful on the first attempt. Failure to successfully complete the exit exam will prevent the student from graduating from the baccalaureate nursing program.

If a student leaves the program temporarily, whether by choice or because of failure, readmission to the nursing sequence is not guaranteed. Eligible students who drop out of the nursing sequence for any reason will be readmitted to the sequence on a space-available basis. Students will be accommodated in rank order according to their GPA. Students interested in reentry must notify the chair in writing of their interest. A student who has a cumulative GPA of less than 2.7 or less than a “C” in all completed natural science and mathematics courses will not be considered for readmission. If a student has been on a leave from the nursing program for more than two calendar years the student will need to reapply for admission to the program and repeat the entire sequence of required nursing courses.

Admission, Progression, and Retention Decision Appeals

A formal appeal of a decision to deny admission, to delay progression, or to dismiss a student from the WellStar School of Nursing may be made to the Admissions, Progression and Retention Committee within 30 days of notification. Instructions and forms for such appeals are available in the School Office. An appeal must be on exceptional and extenuating circumstances or other pertinent information not previously available or considered or both. The committee will review the student appeal and notify the student of its decision in writing. If a student wishes to appeal the decision of the Admissions, Progression and Retention Committee, a formal appeal must be submitted in writing to the dean of the WellStar College of Health and Human Services or designee within 30 days of receipt of notification of the Committee’s decision. The decision of the dean is final

Program of Study in Nursing

The program of study in nursing offers the opportunity to obtain a Baccalaureate of Science in Nursing degree. After completion of the degree, and upon the recommendation of the chair, graduates who are not already licensed will be eligible to apply to take the National Council Licensure Examination for Registered Nurses (NCLEX) to practice as a registered nurse (R.N.). All applicants must be aware that the state examining board has the right to refuse to grant a registered nurse license to any individual regardless of educational credentials under circumstances of (1) falsification of application for licensure (2) conviction of a felony or crime of moral turpitude; other moral and legal violations specified in the Georgia law.

Courses in the program include a strong foundation in the liberal arts and the sciences. At the upper division, emphasis is on the art and science of nursing and students may select electives to provide an interdisciplinary perspective. Registered nurse students may bypass sophomore and junior level clinical courses and NURS 4414 according to the provisions of the RN-BSN articulation model for the State of Georgia. The nursing courses for the RN-BSN program are offered in both online (internet-based) and on-ground formats. Every online course is not offered every semester. Online or on-ground classes or both may be cancelled due to low enrollment.

Core Performance Standards

The WellStar College of Health and Human Services has adopted core performance standards for admission and progression within the nursing major. These standards identify the abilities and skills necessary to perform in an independent manner. If a student admitted to the program believes that he or she cannot meet one or more of the standards without accommodations or modifications, then the student should notify the Chair of the School of Nursing in writing. The nursing program will determine, on an individual basis, whether or not necessary accommodations or modifications can reasonably be made. Core performance standards for admission and progression are contained in the program application, which is available online or from the WellStar School of Nursing.

The Sport Management major program is designed for students seeking an interdisciplinary approach to the fields of Sport/Exercise Marketing, Management and Communications. Within Sport Management students will choose to concentrate in either Fitness Management, Sport Journalism, Sport Marketing, or Recreation Management. Fitness Management prepares the student for careers in managerial positions in fitness facilities or health clubs. Sport Journalism prepares students for careers as sport information directors and in the sport print or broadcast media. Sport Marketing prepares students for the marketing of goods and services within various segments of the sport industry. Recreation Management prepares students for careers in managerial positions with YMCA, YWCA, County recreational programs, or governmental/private agencies with recreational components.

Admission to the program and retention criteria

An AGPA of 2.75 is required for admission to the program. Once admitted to the program, students must maintain an AGPA of 2.75 throughout their coursework in the program.

College of Humanities and Social Sciences

The College of Humanities and Social Sciences offers career-sensitive liberal arts programs leading to baccalaureate and masters degrees, as well as specialized certificate programs. Bachelor degrees are offered in African and African Diaspora Studies, Anthropology, Communication, Criminal Justice, English, History, Geographic Information Science, Geography, International Affairs, Modern Language and Culture, Political Science, Psychology, and Sociology. Bachelor degrees are also offered in English Education and History Education. Certificate programs provide training in alternative dispute resolution, professional politics, European Union studies, public history, geographic information system and Latin American studies. The college also offers a Master of Arts in Professional Writing, a Master of Science in Conflict Management, a Master of Public Administration, a Master of Arts in American Studies, and a Master of Arts in Teaching (in English, and in Foreign Language—Chinese and Spanish).

In addition to these programs of study, the college offers a wide range of elective courses in Chinese, German, Italian, Japanese, Russian, Spanish, film, philosophy, and writing.

The College of Humanities and Social Sciences supports the Institutional Mission of Kennesaw State University with programs and policies that foster teaching and learning; professional service responsive to campus, academic profession, and community needs; and scholarship and creative activity in support of instruction, service, and the advancement of human understanding. The faculty, staff, and students of the college strive for excellence in undergraduate and graduate instruction with the goal of understanding human interaction across world cultures over time. Career-sensitive liberal arts programs emphasizing effective communication, critical thinking, problem solving, and global perspectives provide our students the knowledge, skills, and versatility to succeed personally and professionally in an ever-changing society. In addition, our students are provided a variety of learning opportunities that foster an appreciation of the richness of human experience and promote a balance between individual achievement and community responsibility.

The faculty and staff of the College of Humanities and Social Sciences are engaged in scholarship and service-focused professional initiatives that promote collaboration across disciplines, address both local and global problems, and enhance the quality of life of the diverse communities we serve. The College also serves all students at the university by providing instruction in the general education curriculum. The College also serves all students at the university by providing instruction in the general education curriculum. The College provides services to the region through the Center for Regional History and Culture, the Center for Conflict Management, the Center for the Study of the Civil War Era, the Center for Sustainable Journalism, the Intensive English Program Center, and the Writing Center. The College also offers a wide variety of educational and cultural enrichment programs.

Accreditations

All degree programs in teacher education in the College of Humanities and Social Sciences are nationally accredited. In addition, the teacher education programs are nationally recognized and have state approval for 6-12 teacher certification in Georgia.

The Master of Public Administration (MPA) program is formally accredited by the National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and Administration (NASPA).

Academic Departments

The College of Humanities and Social Sciences houses eight academic departments:

- Department of Communication
- Department of English
- Department of Foreign Language
- Department of Geography and Anthropology
- Department of History and Philosophy
- Department of Political Science and International Affairs
- Department of Psychology
- Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice

Department of Communication (770) 423-6298

The Department of Communication offers a B.S. in Communication and gives students the opportunity to concentrate in one of four areas: organizational communication, public relations, media studies, or journalism and citizen media — emphasizing their applied, theoretical and aesthetic dimensions within culturally diverse settings. The study of communication helps prepare students to meet the challenges of today's information age. Emphasis is placed on critical thinking as well as professional and technical abilities required to meet the demand of communication industries such as research, analytical, written, organizational and presentation skills.

The Department of English offers students exciting opportunities in critical thinking, research, and analysis; commanding professional and creative writing and speaking; and the informed appreciation and understanding of written and presented cultures from traditional and current world literatures. Faculty within the department encourage students to engage distant and contemporary voices and to discover and train their own. Award-winning and experienced faculty committed to excellent teaching, scholarship and dedicated service prepare students for lifelong learning and immediate employment, or toward professional careers in journalism, law, the ministry, arts administration, museum and archival work, public relations, teaching, editing, advertising, publishing, and other possibilities. Senior seminars, service learning, internships, study abroad, and integrated studies enrich bachelor's degrees in English and English Education.

The department also offers a Master of Arts degree in Professional Writing. Many faculty members in English also teach in the Master of Arts in American Studies program.

The Department of Foreign Languages offers students the opportunity to “speak to the world” by providing authentic experiences with other cultures which enable them to begin or to continue developing their linguistic and cultural proficiency. Students are encouraged to explore new approaches to learning languages through the “Critical Languages Program” and to experience another culture directly by studying abroad, or by participating in an internship or other applied learning experiences, either at home or abroad. Students may also incorporate a non-English language component into their regular course work through participation in the Foreign Languages Across the Curriculum (FLAC) program, or by joining one of the weekly conversation groups, or simply getting to know the culturally and linguistically diverse staff of the Foreign Language Resource Center (FLRC). The Department’s various programs and courses all strive to increase students’ linguistic and cultural competence and to help them use this knowledge for the personal enrichment or for the acquisition of the knowledge, skills, and versatility to prepare them for careers in many different fields, from the arts to business.

To accomplish its mission in teaching, service, and scholarship, the Department combines a firm academic foundation in the discipline with a practical preparation for life. For example, German students regularly participate in summer internships in a German-speaking country; students of French, Italian, Chinese, and Spanish have numerous possibilities for study and work abroad. The Department’s “Internship Coordinator” also works actively with students to provide real-world work opportunities. In short, the Department contributes significantly to the mission of the College of Humanities and Social Sciences and to the University by facilitating an understanding of human interaction across world cultures and time, enhancing awareness of global perspectives, and encouraging multilingualism and multiculturalism.

Department of Geography and Anthropology (678) 797-2373

The Department of Geography & Anthropology prepares students for better global citizenship by educating them about the world and its peoples. Critical thinking about cultures, environments, space, and place is central to this mission. As the pace of globalization increases in the 21st century, these elements are vital in fostering an awareness, understanding, and ability to conceptualize, articulate, and influence the forces that are changing the Earth’s human and environmental landscapes. The Department of Geography & Anthropology offers courses that contribute to baccalaureate degrees in Geographic Information Science, Anthropology, and Geography. The Department offers a wide range of specialties including geographic information systems and remote sensing, cultural anthropology and geography, physical anthropology, archaeology, regional area studies, and urban/economic geography. Graduates from this Department’s programs acquire a variety of theoretical and practical skills that prepare them well for a competitive job market or entry into graduate level programs in the social science tradition.

Department of History & Philosophy (770) 423-6294

The Department of History & Philosophy offers a variety of courses in both history and philosophy. The history courses include United States and European history as well as courses pertaining to other areas of the world. The philosophy courses include an introductory course and courses in world religions, ethics, logic, Asian philosophy, feminist philosophy, and western philosophy.

The department offers programs of study leading to the Bachelor of Arts in History and the Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education with a major in History Education. In the BA History program, all majors take several “general requirements” (including a 3-hour Senior Seminar) which provide needed background in research and writing, in the theory of the discipline, and in the various fields of history. In addition, the program allows selection of one of three concentrations: World History and Cultures; American History and Culture; and History of Ideas. Each concentration includes complementary interdisciplinary electives which students can tailor to suit their own interests. The History of Ideas concentration provides interdisciplinary study in both history and philosophy. Each concentration provides an opportunity for an internship or other applied experience to help students make the transition from undergraduate work into a career or graduate study.

A degree in history is useful to all students interested in careers involving research and writing. It serves as a prerequisite for graduate study in a number of fields, including history or many other social science disciplines, law, and theology. The concentration in American History and Culture can equip students for careers in public history, especially if students complete the department’s Certificate in Public History. The World History and Cultures concentration can prepare students for careers in the international arena, as well as for many positions in the government or for graduate study. The concentration in History of Ideas should be especially useful as preparation for graduate study in history, philosophy, law, or theology. In addition to the Certificate in Public History, the department also offers a Certificate in European Union Studies and minors in History, Philosophy, African and African American Studies, and Asian Studies.

Department of Political Science and International Affairs (770) 423-6227

The Department of Political Science and International Affairs offers courses that contribute to baccalaureate degree programs in political science and international affairs, a graduate program of study in Conflict Management, a certificate program in Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), a Master of Public Administration, and a certificate in Professional Politics. The degree programs provide students the opportunity to prepare for a number of career options or for graduate and professional study. The certificate programs focus on skills development with a broad academic base. Students also build upon a common core of liberal arts courses to develop the intellectual and social interaction skills to promote personal growth. The department coordinates the pre-law, pre-professional program. A wide range of courses in United States and international politics, offer support for other college or university programs. The degree and certificate programs allow students the opportunity to take an internship or practicum in their field of interest, or to participate in the university’s co-op program.

The department encourages student learning through extra- and co-curricular activities such as the Society for Legal Studies, Political Science Club, Global Society and Pi Sigma Alpha, the national political science honorary. Students are given opportunities to develop and demonstrate their skills through participation in Mock Trial, Model United Nations and Model Arab League simulation competitions.

The Department of Psychology offers a program that provides students with opportunities for personal and intellectual development, preparation for a wide range of employment opportunities with a bachelor’s degree, as well as the necessary prerequisites for graduate education in psychology or for professional training in related fields such as law, medicine, business, management, education or social work.

Courses in the psychology curriculum give students a strong background in both the scientific and applied areas of the field. All majors complete the introductory course in psychology and a course on careers in psychology. A two semester research sequence follows which emphasizes statistics, methodology, and experimental psychology. Students then select courses concerning the foundations of behavior and advanced topics in psychology. Upper division electives in the major furnish students with additional background in an area of interest related to the discipline. The Senior Capstone Seminar provides closure to a student's undergraduate education.

Learning experiences in the classroom and laboratory are the foundation from which students can extend their undergraduate education in psychology to a variety of settings, such as practicum experiences in community-based agencies, collaboration on research with psychology faculty members, and individualized directed studies on topics of particular interest to students. In addition, extracurricular activities sponsored by Psi Chi (the National Psychology Honor Society) and the Psychology Club provide avenues for enhancing an individual's personal growth and identity as a psychology major.

This Department offers courses that lead to baccalaureate degrees in Sociology and Criminal Justice. The courses and specializations offered by the department prepare students to understand and deal with our contemporary world in terms of diversity, change, societal concerns for stability, and their implications locally and globally. The core competencies of its graduates enable them to enter careers requiring technological facility, communication skills, data gathering and analysis, community awareness and involvement, problem-solving, critical thinking, an understanding of the structure and functioning of groups and organizations, greater awareness of their environments, critical self-reflection, and interpersonal and intercultural skills.

The faculty of the Sociology and Criminal Justice Department strives to mentor students in a process of professional socialization in which students develop practical, marketable, applicable skills and take responsibility for their own lifelong learning. Students will understand our degree programs as social sciences that strive to provide an understanding of our complex social world, and also have practical implications for career and personal success.

Major in African and African Diaspora Studies, B.A.

Bachelor of Arts Degree
College of Humanities and Social Sciences
Office of the Dean
(770) 423-6124

The Bachelor of Arts degree in African and African Diaspora Studies offers students an interdisciplinary educational experience that fosters an understanding of the global experiences of African and African-descended peoples in Asia, Europe, the Oceania, and the Americas. In particular, students will gain an appreciation for the diverse character of humanity, explore the complex historical and cultural relations between Africans on the continent and African-descended peoples in the Diaspora, and engage in a comparative study of issues affecting Africans in the continent and the Diasporas.

Students in the major will complete 33 hours of common requirements, including African language, Senior Seminar, and study abroad or internship. In addition, students choose one of three concentrations: Literature; History; and Social, Cultural and Political Issues.

Major in Communication, B.S.

Bachelor of Science Degree
College of Humanities and Social Sciences
Department of Communication
(770) 423-6298

The program of study in communication offers a Bachelor of Science degree with an emphasis in one of four academic concentrations: (1) Journalism and Citizen Media, (2) Media Studies, (3) Organizational Communication, and (4) Public Relations.

The major requires 18 credit hours of lower division course work (1000-2000 level) comprising various offerings, both inside and outside of the communication discipline, that serve as important groundwork leading to advanced studies. Lower division offerings include basic courses in human communication, visual communication, public speaking, writing, and information systems, and an introductory course relevant to the student's selected concentration as well as four courses outside of Communication that will support his/her studies within the major.

Students must complete 36 credit hours of upper division course work (3000-4000 level) in Communication to fulfill their major program requirements, which include six hours of upper division required course work for all majors, 18 hours within one of the four concentrations indicated above, and 12 hours of upper division communication elective credit. Studies within the concentrations are designed to include course offerings that address both the applied and theoretical dimensions of communication.

Upper Division Major Elective Courses: Choose four courses from any COM course not previously taken. Each concentration provides students a recommended list of electives for that concentration.

RELATED STUDIES 12

Select 12 hours of upper division course work (3000-4000 level) outside of communication. These hours do not have to be taken in a single discipline, but should relate to a particular interest or career goal. Students should determine prerequisites for upper-division elective courses and take them as electives in lower division major requirement or free electives. Completion of Formal Minor or Certificate Program would also satisfy the Related Studies requirement.

FREE ELECTIVES 12

PROGRAM TOTAL: 123

Major in Criminal Justice, B.S.

Bachelor of Science Degree
College of Humanities and Social Sciences
Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice
(770) 423-6739

The Criminal Justice system is an institution that is at the crux of societal concern. People not only want to have a better understanding of these problems; many also want to become a part of the solution. The program of study infuses knowledge about criminal justice systems and process, communication skills, multicultural issues, crime context research, moral and ethical considerations, management concerns, and technological applications into the coursework. The program is geared toward two student groups: traditional and non-traditional age students who are interested in pursuing a degree and a career in the field, and criminal justice professionals who are seeking credentialing through a bachelor's degree. Following a core of required courses that includes cultural diversity, ethics, and foreign language, the student selects one of three major concentrations tied to his or her intellectual interests and career status and goals:

- Criminal Justice Administration
- Forensic Behavioral Sciences
- Technology and Crime

Major in English Education, B.S.

Bachelor of Science Degree
Leading to Certification for Grades 6-12
College of Humanities and Social Sciences
Department of English
(770) 423-6297

This single field program is designed to prepare English teachers of adolescents, largely at the secondary school level (grades 6 through 12). It leads to 6-12 teacher certification in the teaching field of English/Language Arts in Georgia. Candidates complete the equivalent of a major in English/Language Arts and a second major in pedagogical studies with an emphasis on teaching English/Language Arts. The English education program aims to prepare teachers who have a broad, rich knowledge of the discipline of English (including courses in British, American, and world literature; language theory; and writing) and who enact an integrated, reflective, and theoretically informed pedagogy for English/Language Arts. This program is fully accredited by NCATE (National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education), is nationally recognized by NCTE, (National Council of Teachers of English), and is fully approved by Georgia's Professional Standards Commission for teacher certification.

The specific requirements for admission, retention, degree completion and teacher certification in this degree program are listed with all other teacher education programs. See Bagwell College of Education & PTEU.

Major in Geographic Information Science, B.S.

Bachelor of Science Degree
College of Humanities and Social Sciences
Department of Geography and Anthropology
(770) 423-6739

The Bachelor of Science degree program in Geographic Information Science (GISc) integrates Geographic Information Systems (GIS) technology with applied research domains. The principal objective of the proposed program is to produce high caliber graduates who are well trained in the technology, theory, and usage of GIS, computer science and information systems (CSIS), and basic geography. This knowledge will then be applied to one of three content areas: business systems, environmental systems, or urban systems. These three systems represent the largest and most common areas in which GIS is used in our society. Where GIS provides students with the technological tools, the specific content areas cited above provide the requisite theory and context.

PROGRAM TOTAL: 123

Major in History, B.A.

Bachelor of Arts Degree
College of Humanities and Social Sciences
Department of History and Philosophy
(770) 423-6294

The program of study in history offers a Bachelor of Arts degree. All majors take several “general requirements” (including a 3-hour Senior Seminar) which provide needed background in research and writing, in the theory of the discipline, and in the various fields of history. In addition, the program allows selection of one of three concentrations: World History and Cultures; American History and Culture; and History of Ideas. Each concentration includes complementary interdisciplinary electives which students can tailor to suit their own interests. The History of Ideas concentration provides interdisciplinary study in both history and philosophy. Each concentration provides an opportunity for an internship or other applied experience to help students make the transition from undergraduate work into a career or graduate study.

A degree in history is useful to all students interested in careers involving research and writing. It serves as a prerequisite for graduate study in a number of fields, including history or many other social science disciplines, law, and theology. The concentration in American History and Culture can equip students for careers in public history, especially if students complete an appropriate internship, or for graduate study. The World History and Cultures concentration can prepare students for careers in the international arena, as well as for many positions in the government or for graduate study. The concentration in History of Ideas should be especially useful as preparation for graduate study in history, philosophy, law, or theology. The History Department also offers a “Certificate in Public History”. The six course sequence is designed to enhance a student’s ability to find employment in historic preservation, archival management, museum administration, or heritage tourism.

Major in History Education, B.S.

Bachelor of Science DegreeLeading to Certification for Grades 6-12*College of Humanities and Social Sciences*Department of History and Philosophy*(770) 423-6294

This program is designed to prepare teachers of adolescents, largely at the secondary school level. It leads to 6-12 teacher certification in the teaching field of history in Georgia. Candidates complete the equivalent of a major in history and a second major in pedagogical studies. Candidates concentrate in history as this is the principal social science discipline in the secondary education curriculum, and take additional course work in several other social science disciplines as part of their cross-disciplinary teaching field preparation.

The B.S. in History Education is fully accredited by NCATE, National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, is fully approved by Georgia's Professional Standards Commission for teacher certification, and is nationally recognized by NCSS, the National Council for the Social Studies.

The specific requirements for admission, retention, degree completion and teacher certification in this degree program are listed with all other teacher education programs. See Bagwell College of Education & PTEU.

Major in International Affairs, B.A.

Bachelor of Arts DegreeCollege of Humanities and Social Sciences*Department of Political Science and International Affairs*(770) 423-6227

The program of study in International Affairs leads to a Bachelor of Arts degree. The degree plays an integral role in the Department of Political Science and International Affairs and draws upon disciplines such as political science, economics, history, foreign language, geography and anthropology. In this interdisciplinary major, the student must complete five required upper division major courses including the senior seminar followed by five courses in one of the four major concentrations.

Firsthand international experiences can be acquired through a coop/internship option or study abroad programs. This degree prepares graduates for careers in business, nonprofit organizations, law or government service.

Major in Modern Language and Culture, B.A.

Bachelor of Arts DegreeCollege of Humanities and Social Sciences*Department of Foreign Languages*(770) 423-6366

Speaking a second language and understanding other cultures are of strategic importance in a world in which international collaboration is not only necessary for political survival, but also indispensable for economic success. The B.A. in Modern Language and Culture prepares graduates who are able to communicate effectively in one or more foreign languages and have a keen understanding of how humans interact across world cultures. Graduates will be familiar with current global issues and possess the knowledge, skills, and versatility needed to succeed academically and professionally in an ever-changing society.

The B.A. in Modern Language and Culture is designed to develop students' communication skills and understanding of other cultures and to foster respect for difference and diversity in a global society. Students choose one of three primary languages—French or German or Spanish—in which they develop and refine language proficiency as well as cross-cultural competence. In the course of their studies, Modern Language and Culture majors acquire and practice the communication skills and cultural competence necessary to function effectively in a global society. The curriculum prepares degree candidates for future academic programs and professional careers in which foreign language proficiency and cultural knowledge are desirable or required or both.

The B.A. in Modern Language and Culture is fully accredited by NCATE (National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education) and nationally recognized by ACTFL (American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages).

All majors must take an official Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI). In addition, majors choosing the "Teacher Certification in a Foreign Language" concentration must receive a minimum rating of "Advanced Low" to graduate and to receive a recommendation for certification. For information about the OPI, see <http://www.actfl.org>.

Major in Political Science, B.S.

Bachelor of Science Degree

College of Humanities and Social Sciences

Department of Political Science and International Affairs

(770) 423-6227

Political Science is the study of the formal institutions of government and the actual behavior of people in public life. It examines both the institutions and processes of government using both empirical and normative research methodologies. A degree in political science is of value to all persons who take the responsibilities and opportunities of membership in a democratic society seriously. Specifically, political science is the undergraduate major of a majority of persons who attend law school; serves as prerequisite for graduate study in a number of social science disciplines; and is an ideal liberal arts major for careers in business, journalism, public and international affairs, the federal government, state and local government, teaching, interest groups, campaign management, communications, and many others.

Political Science has four concentrations: 1) Legal Studies, 2) Government and Professional Politics, 3) Public Service and Public Policy, and 4) Global Studies. Majors are required to choose one concentration and take 12 hours from that concentration.

Supervised internships and cooperative study programs at sites in business, industry and government are available and students are strongly urged to participate.

Certificate in Alternative Dispute Resolution

Department of Political Science and International Affairs (770) 423-6227

Conflict occurs in many different situations: between and among members of a family; between labor and management; in political parties, religious groups, formal organizations and nations; and even within a single mind. The actors in a conflict can be individuals, social groups, formal organizations, or political and social institutions. Consequently, the development of skills for peaceful and nonlegal conflict resolution or management should be an essential element of a person's formal education.

A certificate in Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) will offer fully-admitted KSU students the opportunity to develop skills that are helpful no matter what major they pursue or which line of work they choose. Students are required to receive at least a "C" in these five courses totalling 15 credit hours in order to receive the certificate. Applications for admission to the Program are available in the office of the Department of Political Science and International Affairs.

Certificate in European Union Studies

Department of History and Philosophy (770) 423-6294

The European Union Studies Certificate provides students with in depth multi-disciplinary knowledge of the European Union. The program is also designed to provide applied knowledge of the EU in a professional context outside the classroom. Students enrolled in the certificate program choose from a menu of courses available at KSU from a variety of disciplines, as well as on-line classes team taught by faculty from the Georgia University system and the University of Munich. The program is directed towards preparing students to move into business/professional occupations and/or graduate study related to the European Union.

To earn the certificate, students must take a total of six courses including the Introduction to the European Union (HIST 3307), four courses from an extensive menu of EU courses either on-line or in the classroom, and a capstone seminar. Students must maintain a GPA of 3.0 in required courses. In addition, students must complete a practicum: a visit to an EU country or an internship with an EU company.

Certificate in Geographic Information Systems

Department of Anthropology and Geography
(770) 423-6739

A Geographic Information System is a computer-based system which provides information using geographically-referenced data. Computerized maps of various data (e.g. demographics, statistics, soils, vegetation) are overlaid to produce useful geographic information to decision makers. GIS can provide valuable locational information used for planning. It is an essential tool in urban and regional design, marketing and industrial location, and in providing government services.

Certificate in Latin American Studies

Department of Foreign Languages (770) 423-6366

A collaborative program of the University System of Georgia and the Americas Council, the Certificate in Latin American Studies offers a common curriculum open to all university system institutions. The course of study is designed to be interdisciplinary and complementary to existing undergraduate programs. Students from all majors who hold a 2.80 GPA are eligible to participate. A student may formally apply to enroll in the program after successful completion of thirty hours of academic credit.

Language Area Credit Hours 6

Six hours of Spanish or French at the 3000-level or above with a minimum grade of "C". These hours may be taken as part of an approved study abroad program as long as the course is beyond the intermediate level.

OR

Demonstration of written and oral proficiency in Spanish, Portuguese, French, Haitian Creole, or Quechua. Demonstration of language proficiency above the intermediate level as defined by ACTFL standards through examination, or successful completion of an oral and written examination evaluated by a qualified University System of Georgia faculty member (for Haitian Creole and Quechua)

Latin American Area (students must complete the following course work) 12

One 3 (three) hour course which focuses on contemporary Latin America or a three-hour course on Latin American Culture and Civilization.

Three courses (nine hours) in Latin American Studies, two of which must be outside the student's major, from the following options:

- Any Latin American upper division courses offered in the University System of Georgia
- Six hours may come from courses that have a minimum 25% Latin American component
- No more than 6 (six) hours from study abroad or internships.

NOTE: All courses, study abroad programs and internships must be approved by the Campus Certificate in Latin American Studies Coordinator. All courses require a grade of C (2.0) or better. No more than one course may be taken at the 1000-2000 level.

PROGRAM TOTAL: 18

Certificate in Professional Politics

Department of Political Science and International Affairs (770) 423-6227

Courses in the program focus on applied skills and settings: campaign management, media and politics, polling, public policy, and lobbying.

Students receiving the certificate must complete 15 semester hours, as outlined below. The internship serves as a capstone experience for the program, and is limited to professional political settings. Credit hours for the internship may range from 3 to 12 semester hours, depending on the number of hours worked per week.

Certificate in Public History

Department of History & Philosophy (770) 423-6294

Kennesaw State University's public history certificate program trains students to think critically about the public presentation of history and culture and helps students develop tangible skills that will enable them to pursue graduate study in a number of fields as well as professional or avocational work at historic and cultural sites. Classroom and fieldwork combine to deliver both theoretical understanding of memory and history and practical experience in historic preservation, community documentation, museums, and cultural program development.

To be awarded the Certificate in Public History students must maintain a GPA of 3.0 in certificate requirements. The certificate is awarded with the completion of a bachelor's degree or, if the student already has a bachelor's degree, after the successful completion of the certificate program. Program requirements include the completion of HIST 2275 (Local History Research) and six (6) public history courses.

(Certificate in Public History - cont'd)

*Public history certificate students will use HIST 3325 as a prerequisite for these courses. See public history program coordinator for a permit to register.

College of Science and Mathematics

The College of Science & Mathematics is home to the departments of Biology and Physics, Chemistry and Biochemistry, Computer Science and Information Systems and Mathematics & Statistics. Staffed by faculty with exceptional teaching skills and varied research interests, these departments have gained nationwide recognition for the success of their faculty and graduates. The college's degree programs offer curricula that are state-of-the-art and challenging. Opportunities abound for students to develop a strong identity with their respective departments through student organizations and mentoring relations with the faculty.

The college offers baccalaureate degree programs in biology, biochemistry, biotechnology, chemistry, computer science, information security and assurance, information systems, and mathematics. It offers master's degrees in information systems, applied computer science, and applied statistics. Certificate programs are offered in applied statistics & data analysis, information technology, e-business systems, and information security and assurance. Collaborative relationships exist between the departments and the Bagwell College of Education. These collaborations are reflected in the strong content areas in Biology and Mathematics Education programs. Biology and mathematics education majors receive the same in-depth course work in the disciplines of science and mathematics as do students majoring in these fields.

Students with career interests in the sciences, mathematics, computer science or information systems will find degree programs in these areas in the College of Science & Mathematics. Those students with interests in medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, veterinary medicine, engineering, or related fields most frequently choose to pursue the pre-professional requirements in the Biology and Physics or the Chemistry and Biochemistry Department. While degree programs are not offered in these pre-professional areas, students with appropriate course selection can meet the entrance requirements of most professional schools with a biology, biochemistry, biotechnology, or chemistry degree from the College of Science & Mathematics.

Students have numerous opportunities to gain practical experience in their field. Through co-ops and internships available to students in all degree programs, they can obtain direct experience in the workplace with companies or government agencies. Our Mentor-Protégé Scholarship Program enables students to work one-on-one with faculty in undergraduate research projects in areas of mutual interest. Our industry-based programs give students career-related experiences that often lead directly to job offers upon graduation.

Accreditations

The programs in computer science, information systems, professional chemistry & biochemistry, and teacher education degree programs in the sciences and mathematics are nationally accredited. In addition, the teacher education programs are nationally recognized and have state approval for 6-12 teacher certification in Georgia.

Academic Departments

The College of Science and Mathematics houses four academic departments:

- The Department of Biology and Physics
- The Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry
- The Department of Computer Science and Information Systems
- The Department of Mathematics and Statistics

Department of Biology & Physics (770) 423-6158

biol@kennesaw.edu

<http://science.kennesaw.edu/biophys/>

The Department of Biology and Physics offers a wide variety of courses that introduce students to the important fields of Biology, Biotechnology, and Physics. Instruction in biology and physics is well balanced by contemporary approaches to the teaching of science. The department takes great pride in its multidisciplinary approach to cell and molecular biology, organismal, field and population biology, and in its commitment to the student's understanding of how these disciplines contribute to the indispensable role of science in society.

On-campus academic courses and independent research activities, as well as off-campus co-op and internship experiences, support the department's philosophy of a "hands-on" approach to the study of science. Through these practical experiences, students are prepared for a diverse number of exciting careers in the biological sciences. By maintaining high academic standards, the Department of Biology and Physics has not only been an important educator of students destined for graduate school, medical, dental and other health-related professional schools, but, in addition, has successfully prepared well-trained graduates who can immediately enter the job market.

Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry

chem@kennesaw.edu

<http://science.kennesaw.edu/chem>

The Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry offers class and laboratory instruction in all areas of chemistry including computational chemistry. The chemistry courses utilize modern instructional techniques to help students become knowledgeable of many abstract concepts in modern chemistry. The department has two degree programs which offer the students a range of options so that they will be prepared for jobs in the chemical industry; for beginning graduate studies in many areas of chemistry and biochemistry; for entrance into medical, dental, pharmacy, or other professional schools; for teaching high school chemistry; for jobs in the business end of the chemical industry; or for other possible employment areas related to chemistry. Internships and cooperative employment opportunities which give the students valuable field-related work experience are available for chemistry majors. Many students are involved in research projects with faculty which emphasizes the department's attitude that one learns best by doing. Financial aid opportunities include three scholarships, and employment as either laboratory or research assistants.

Department of Computer Science and Information Systems
(770) 423-6005

csis@kennesaw.edu

<http://science.kennesaw.edu/csis>

The Department of Computer Science and Information Systems offers five degree programs: (1) a masters of science in information systems—a 36-hour applied graduate program which prepares graduates for employment within niches of the IT profession experiencing critical shortages of employees.; (2) a masters of science in applied computer science designed for experienced computing professionals who want to advance their knowledge of computing without disrupting their careers; (3) a bachelor of science in information security and assurance; (4) a bachelor of science in information systems; and, (5) a bachelor of science in computer science. All three baccalaureate degree programs lead to careers in the field of information technology. Although different in emphasis, each undergraduate program is based on a strong technical foundation including programming principles, systems analysis, systems architecture, data communications, and database design. Each program includes an emphasis on data communications and systems development.

A certificate program in information technology is also offered through the CSIS department. This certificate is ideal for students who enjoy working with computers but do not wish to seek a degree in either computer science or information systems. It is also ideal for students who have already completed a bachelor's degree and seek the latest information technology expertise.

A certificate program in e-business systems prepares students for careers in the online world of business-to-consumer and business-to-business computing.

The certificate in Information Security Assurance prepares students to protect the information and technology assets of organizations.

The department serves both traditional and nontraditional students. Many of our students work full or part-time, often in the computing field. Many are returning to school in order to finish work started many years earlier. To serve this diverse group, the department offers a full program at night as well as during the day. The department also has an active co-op/internship program with flexible scheduling and competitive salaries in the IT field. The CSIS Department awards 30 scholarships each year, through the NSF CSEMS grant program.

Department of Mathematics and Statistics

(770) 423-6327

math@kennesaw.edu

<http://science.kennesaw.edu/math>

Mathematical skills encompass many areas, especially in today's modern culture. The Department of Mathematics and Statistics offers courses which introduce students to this broad area of knowledge and teaches them how to use quantitative skills to solve real-world problems.

The Department of Mathematics and Statistics offers programs of study leading to the Bachelor of Science in Mathematics and the Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education with a major in Mathematics Education. Certificate programs in Applied Mathematics, and Applied Statistics and Data Analysis are also offered. Additionally, formal minors may be declared in either area. The Department is one of the largest in the state in terms of undergraduate majors in both mathematics and mathematics education. Also, the Department offers a Masters of Science Degree in Applied Statistics.

Many employment opportunities exist for mathematics majors. Recently, University graduates who have majored in mathematics received the fourth highest average starting salaries, nationwide, of new and recent college graduates entering the job market and ranked by major. The three highest ranked degrees all require mathematics. Employment prospects upon graduation are further enhanced with the choice of appropriate interdisciplinary electives. Among these are courses in computer science, biology, chemistry or any of the business areas. A mathematics degree is also excellent preparation for graduate and professional school entrance examinations such as the GMAT (Graduate Management Admissions Test), GRE (Graduate Record Examination), LSAT (Law School Admissions Test) and the MCAT (Medical College Aptitude Test).

Minors*

- Applied Mathematics
- Applied Statistics & Data Analysis
- Chemistry
- Environmental Studies
- Information Security and Assurance

* See section on Minors for policy on and additional information regarding minors. The College of Science and Mathematics offers the following undergraduate degrees:

- Bachelor of Science in Biology
- Bachelor of Science in Biology Education
- Bachelor of Science in Biotechnology
- Bachelor of Science in Biochemistry
- Bachelor of Science in Chemistry

Programs of Study

- Bachelor of Science in Computer Science
- Bachelor of Science in Information Security and Assurance
- Bachelor of Science in Information Systems
- Bachelor of Science in Mathematics
- Bachelor of Science in Mathematics Education

Certificate Programs

The College of Science and Mathematics offers the following certificate programs:

- Certificate in Applied Mathematics
- Certificate in Applied Statistics and Data Analysis
- Certificate in e-Business Systems
- Certificate in Forensic Chemistry
- Certificate in Information Security and Assurance
- Certificate in Information Technology
- Certificate in Regulatory Affairs and Clinical Trials

Major in Biology, B.S.

Bachelor of Science Degree
College of Science and Mathematics
Department of Biology and Physics
(770) 423-6158
<http://science.kennesaw.edu/biophys/>

The program of study in biology leading to a Bachelor of Science degree provides students with the opportunity to pursue a major field of concentration in biology with a background in the liberal arts. The breadth and depth of the course offerings combined with high academic standards provide students with the flexibility to concentrate on any of the many career opportunities in biology. The biology degree program will prepare students for graduate school, for professional schools in a number of health-related fields including medical, dental, pharmacy and veterinary schools, for teacher certification in biology secondary education, and for technical positions in a large number of science laboratories.

Bachelor of Science Degree
Leading to Certification for Grades 6-12
College of Science and Mathematics
Department of Biology and Physics
(770) 423-6158, <http://science.kennesaw.edu/biophys/>

This single field program is designed to prepare biology teachers of adolescents, largely at the secondary school level (grades 6 through 12). It leads to 6-12 teacher certification in the teaching field of biology in Georgia. Candidates complete the equivalent of a major in biology and a second major in pedagogical studies with an emphasis on teaching science.

The B.S. in Secondary Biology Education is fully accredited by NCATE, National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, is fully approved by Georgia's Professional Standards Commission for 6-12 teacher certification, and is nationally recognized by NSTA, the National Science Teachers Association.

The specific requirements for admission, retention, degree completion and teacher certification in this degree program are listed with all other teacher education programs. See Bagwell College of Education & PTEU.

Major in Biochemistry and Chemistry, B.S.

The American Chemical Society (ACS) has continually certified the Department since 1987. The programs of study in the department lead to a Bachelor of Science degree in either Biochemistry or Chemistry. The ACS, nationally approves both of these programs. In addition, the Bachelor of Science in Secondary Chemistry Education (track) is fully accredited by NCATE, National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, fully approved by Georgia's Professional Standards Commission for 6-12 teacher certification, is nationally recognized by NSTA, the National Science Teacher Association and has pending approval by the ACS.

Biochemistry is the study of the structure, composition, and chemical reactions of substances in living systems. This program is an excellent choice for pre-medical students. Biochemistry is a discipline that is applied to medicine, dentistry, and veterinary medicine. Biochemistry spills over into pharmacology, physiology, microbiology, and clinical chemistry. In these areas, a biochemist may investigate the mechanism of a drug action; engage in viral research; conduct research pertaining to organ function; or use chemical concepts, procedures, and techniques to study the diagnosis and therapy of disease and the assessment of health. To receive the ACS certificate for the Biochemistry degree requires discussion with an appropriate advisor in the department.

Within the Chemistry degree program there are several options, depending upon the student's career goals. Completion of the Professional Chemistry track automatically earns the student a certificate from the ACS, which recognizes them as having completed an ACS approved program. The Professional Chemistry track prepares the student for graduate school in chemistry or biochemistry and for employment in industry, government, or other agencies doing research and development, quality control, environmental studies, or other applications of chemistry and/or biochemistry. The General Chemistry track was designed to have more electives and to allow the student to prepare for professional schools (medical, dental, veterinary, pharmacy, or optometry), for a career in high school teaching, for law school (patent law), or for a position in sales or management in some chemical or biochemical industry.

Students also have the option of taking either Forensic Chemistry or Chemistry Education curriculum under the General Chemistry track. Because of the wide range of possibilities for curricula modification in the General Chemistry track, it is very important to receive advice from an advisor during the first semester at KSU.

The B.S. in computer science program is fully accredited by ABET, the Accreditation Board for Engineers & Technology.

The program in computer science (CS) provides a blend of the foundations of CS and applications in the information technology (IT) industry. The CS program emphasizes the study of computer systems architecture, software development, and data communications. Core technology areas include programming, computer architecture, operating systems, data communication, database systems, and systems analysis. This is supported by a strong foundation in computing principles such as the design of programming languages, data structures, and operating system principles. The program includes a significant mathematics component and mathematics concepts are incorporated into many of the major courses. A certificate in Mathematical Foundations of Computing is also available. CS majors are strongly advised to take advantage of this new option for credentialing their academic accomplishments.

Graduates of the CS program are prepared for a variety of careers in CS and IT, especially in software design and application architecture. Example job titles from KSU graduates of the CS program include information technology specialist, programmer analyst, software engineer, network administrator, and software consultant. This program also prepares students for graduate studies in IT-related fields.

The purpose of the Bachelor of Science in Information Security and Assurance (BS-ISA) program is to create technologically proficient, business-savvy information security professionals capable of applying policy, education & training, and technology solutions to protect information assets from all aspects of threats, and to manage the risks associated with modern information usage. Information security is the protection of the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of information while in transmission, storage or processing, through the application of policy, technology, and education and awareness. Information assurance concerns information operations that protect and defend information and information systems by ensuring availability, (Major in Information Security and Assurance - cont'd) integrity, authentication, confidentiality, and nonrepudiation. This program spans both areas in its approach to the protection of information in the organization.

The Committee on National Security Systems and the National Security Agency have certified that Kennesaw State University offers a set of courseware that has been reviewed by National Level Information Assurance Subject Matter Experts and determined to meet National Training Standard for Information Systems Security Professionals (NSTISSI 4011, 4012, 4013, 4014). KSU is also designated as a National Center of Academic Excellence in Information Assurance as recognized by the National Security Agency and the Department of Homeland Security.

Major in Information Systems, B.S.

Bachelor of Science Degree
College of Science and Mathematics
Department of Computer Science and Information Systems
(770) 423-6005
<http://science.kennesaw.edu/csis>

The B.S. in information systems program is fully accredited by ABET, the Accreditation Board for Engineers & Technology.

The program in information systems (IS) provides a sound foundation in information technology (IT) principles and practice. The emphasis is on applications of information technology rather than the computer itself. Core information systems courses include computer and your world, web development, systems analysis, data management, application development, IT infrastructure, project management, and systems design. In the core courses students learn to develop information systems using the .NET development framework. The program of study also includes practical statistics and a significant general business courses, as business topics are integrated into many IS courses.

The information systems program is organized under two tracks: business intelligence analyst and internet systems developer. The two tracks share three courses including enterprise systems, web systems development, and advanced databases. Each track has two unique courses including data warehouse & business intelligence and data mining for the business intelligence analyst track and XML services and e-business systems for the internet systems developer track.

The business intelligence analyst track (also referred to as the database analyst track) prepares students for analyzing source systems and data warehouses. Students learn advanced data mining and statistical analysis to deliver actionable business intelligence. The internet systems developer track (also referred to as the e-business systems track) prepares students for developing internet based systems. Students learn eXtended Markup Language (XML) for exchanging data across different platforms and e-business systems to understand strategic applications in e-commerce.

The information systems program prepares the student for graduate studies in IT, business, and related fields and for employment in industry, government, or other agencies. Graduates of the IS program are prepared for a variety of courses in IS and IT, especially in the design, implementation, and management of IT projects. Example job titles include application developer, application support, business analyst, business intelligence manager, client services analyst, database administrator, database analyst, information resource manager, IT consultant, programmer/analyst, project manager, quality assurance analyst, systems analyst, user support analyst, web developer, web page designer, and webmaster.

The program of study leading to the Bachelor of Science degree in Mathematics provides a solid foundation in the application of analytical, geometrical, and numerical methods in problem solving and logical deduction. In addition to a core set of mathematics courses, the program also includes concentrations of courses in mathematics and mathematics-related disciplines that prepare the student for employment or for further study at the graduate level in various mathematics-related fields such as—actuarial, financial, pre-engineering, secondary mathematics teacher certification, and applied statistics. During the junior or senior year, students complete a capstone experience which might be an internship, a faculty-directed research project, or a special topics course.

² The capstone experience might be an internship, faculty-directed research project, or special topics course. All Capstone experiences require pre-approval by the department curriculum committee. This approval process must be initiated by the student (through his or her advisor) at least one semester before the capstone experience is to be undertaken.

Major in Mathematics Education, B.S.

Bachelor of Science Degree
Leading to Certification for Grades 6-12
College of Science & Mathematics
Department of Biological and Physical Sciences
(770) 423-6158
<http://math.kennesaw.edu>

This single field program is designed to prepare mathematics teachers of adolescents, largely at the secondary school level (grades 6 through 12). It leads to 6-12 teacher certification in the teaching field of mathematics in Georgia. Candidates complete the equivalent of a major in mathematics and a second major in pedagogical studies with an emphasis on teaching mathematics.

The B.S. in Secondary Mathematics Education is fully accredited by NCATE, National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, is fully approved by Georgia's Professional Standards Commission for 6-12 teacher certification, and is nationally recognized by NCTM, the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics.

The specific requirements for admission, retention, degree completion and teacher certification in this degree program are listed with all other teacher education programs. See Bagwell College of Education & PTEU.

Endorsement in Computer Science Education

Endorsement in Computer Science Education
College of Science and Mathematics
Department of Computer Science and Information Systems

This Add-On Endorsement program is intended to prepare computer science teachers of adolescents, largely at the secondary school level (grades 6 through 12). It leads to a teacher certification in the teaching field of computer science in Georgia. As an endorsement, the teaching candidate must already have or simultaneously obtain a teaching certification in another field. This program of study is fully approved by Georgia's Professional Standards Commission for 6-12 teacher certification.

ADVISING

Students who are interested in this program should seek advising as early as possible. Additional advising will be provided upon entry to the pedagogical course CSED 4416. This advising will help the students coordinate their courses in this program with the courses in their primary program. It will also help in scheduling student teaching at an appropriate school.

Certificate in Applied Mathematics

Department of Mathematics and Statistics

(770) 423-6327

<http://math.kennesaw.edu>

Applied Mathematics is an inherently interdisciplinary topic. All professional disciplines encounter mathematics in different forms. The Certificate In Applied Mathematics is designed to train students to utilize mathematical skills correctly and to apply these skills in their discipline in order to solve problems in the real world. A Certificate in Applied Mathematics will help differentiate the student from others with the same degree when competing for positions after graduation. This Certificate is intended to enhance the value of a student's degree from any department in any institution, whether a student chooses to enter private industry or graduate school.

The certificate in Forensic Chemistry is designed to give students the credentials to function in a forensic science laboratory as part of a team to solve legal problems requiring specific training in chemistry. With the proper choice of electives, the certificate can be earned by someone pursuing a degree in chemistry, biochemistry, or biology. The field of Forensic Chemistry is an exciting application of chemistry that helps serve the judicial system of our country. Modern developments in chemical instrumentation allow for detection of trace amounts of chemical evidence and people completing this certificate will be well trained to use these techniques.

Information technology (IT) is rapidly becoming as important to career entry and advancement as oral and written communication. In fact, recruiting experts believe that even a small amount of technology savvy and knowledge opens doors for anyone entering today’s work place. This certificate is ideal for students who enjoy working with computers but do not wish to seek a degree in either computer science or information systems. It is also ideal for students who have already completed a bachelor’s degree and seek the latest IT expertise. Students with degrees in fields such as accounting, biology, foreign language, English, and sociology will find that the addition of these important IT skills will make them far more marketable.

The IT certificate offers KSU students knowledge and experience with the latest tools and technologies. Topics include web technologies, database technologies, and electronic commerce. Students are required to receive at least a “C” in courses in order to receive the certificate.

University College

University College provides university-wide academic and administrative support and leadership in matters involving certain undergraduate programs, courses and academic support services. The college also provides assistance and support to the Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs in a variety of university-wide curricular concerns and administrative activities. The college serves as the academic home for exploratory students who have not yet declared an academic major. The Dean of University College provides leadership in the administration of university-wide scholarships, guidance on transfer credit, decisions regarding substitutions for the general education program, and works with other campus offices regarding advanced placement. The Dean of University College works closely with the General Education Council and the Council on Undergraduate Academic Advising. The Dean of University College, jointly with the Vice President for Student Success and Enrollment Services, oversees the activities of the Center for Student Leadership.

Programs of Study

Along with other campus departments, colleges, and schools, the Dean of University College works to maintain the high quality programs that have long characterized Kennesaw State University. Together with the solid faculty of KSU, University College focuses on student academic excellence and success.

Additionally, University College maintains a central role in advancing certain interdisciplinary programs on campus. The Department of University Studies within University College offers students a degree program in Interdisciplinary Studies.

This Interdisciplinary Studies degree program directly reflects and advances several aspects of the institutional mission at the baccalaureate level. Building on the general education program, an interdisciplinary studies degree continues to advance the liberal arts tradition at the heart of Kennesaw State University. Given the collaborative and integrative nature of this degree, it both broadens and deepens the current degree offerings, while at the same time ensures a focused, deliberate custom-designed degree program for students.

The unique characteristic of this degree is that it requires students enrolled in the program to have two or more intentional academic concentrations. The degree in Interdisciplinary Studies is a thoughtful, planned, substantive, schedule of coursework reflecting the integration of two or more disciplines, culminating in an applied or professionally oriented experience with consistent oversight by an interdisciplinary panel of faculty.

Institutionally, by encouraging cross-disciplinary connections, this degree facilitates, increases, and enhances linkages between and among existing departments. Additionally it provides students with a broad spectrum of institutional options.

Major in Interdisciplinary Studies, B.S.

Bachelor of Science Degree University College (770) 423-6930

The Bachelor of Science Degree in Interdisciplinary Studies allows students flexibility to custom-design a curriculum that will help them meet their personal and professional goals. To ensure a coherent and intellectually challenging degree plan, an IDS major must construct a written rationale explaining how combining two (or three) disciplines addresses the student's personal and career goals. Each student will be required to meet with one of the IDS Co-Directors in the Department of University Studies to draw up the proposed curriculum and formulate the rationale. For information about the Interdisciplinary Studies Degree, contact Shannon Ferketish in University College at 770-423-6930. For additional information, visit http://www.kennesaw.edu/university_studies/ids/index.shtml.

An IDS major must have an adjusted GPA of 2.5 to be accepted into the program and must maintain this GPA through graduation. Please note that special GPA requirements apply to the use of business courses in one of the disciplinary areas, and that only 27 hours of lower- or upper-level business-related courses may be used toward an IDS degree.

In summary, an IDS student must

- work with an IDS advisor to construct a degree plan combining at least two disciplines.
- take 39 hours in upper-division courses, primarily in these disciplines.
- write a formal rationale for the degree explaining why the personal and professional goals outlined there justify pursuing an IDS degree (as opposed to a more traditional major).
- include in their IDS curriculum some summative experience, through research, coursework, internship, or practicum, to given an applied focus to the degree.*
- enroll in IDS 3100, "Interdisciplinary Research Methods," if an appropriate disciplinary research method course is not included in the student's IDS curriculum. IDS 3100 may count toward the requirement that majors show proficiency in applying and integrating their two majors.

*IDS majors are strongly urged to enroll in IDS 3100, "Interdisciplinary Research Methods: IDS 3100," which will count toward the requirement that they show proficiency in applying and integrating their two majors.

Once an IDS proposal is complete, the IDS coordinator will send a copy to each discipline’s department chair or designated representative for evaluation and approval. When the proposal is fully approved, with all requisite signatures (including that of the student), the Department of University Studies will be responsible for submitting the completed proposal to the Registrar’s Office. This process must be completed at least 2 semesters before the student graduates.

The following is the proposed curriculum for the major in Interdisciplinary Studies, B.S.

GENERAL EDUCATION	42-44
UNIVERSITY-WIDE FITNESS FOR LIVING REQUIREMENT	3
*LOWER DIVISION MAJOR REQUIREMENTS (AREA F)	18
*UPPER DIVISION MAJOR REQUIREMENTS	39
Consisting of a minimum of 12 credit hours in each discipline, with a minimum of two disciplines, and 15 credit hours in upper-level courses that enhance an understanding of theory and culture, writing/communication, and application/integration. Each discipline must include courses focusing on a single theme (although they may represent diverse departments) and be consistent with career and educational goals.
*RELATED STUDIES	9
GENERAL ELECTIVES	12
PROGRAM TOTAL: 123

*These areas are to be planned closely with an IDS advisor and must be approved by department chairs or other representatives of the major disciplines selected for the degree.

Any changes to an approved IDS proposal must be re-evaluated and approved by an IDS advisor as well as the appropriate department chairs.

Department of University Studies within University College

University College provides oversight and operations for the following University-wide programs and academic support services (each housed in the Department of University Studies):

- English as a Second Language (ESL) Study and Tutorial Center
- Honors Program
- Joint Enrollment Honors Program
- Interdisciplinary Studies Degree Program (with possible Leadership Concentration)
- Learning Support Programs
- Math Lab
- Supplemental Instruction

The ESL (English as a Second Language) Program/ESL Study and Tutorial Center

The ESL Program in the Department of University Studies (University College) houses the ESL Study and Tutorial Center—an attractive, comfortable space that provides students computers for academic work and an extensive selection of ESL textbooks. At the Center, international students are offered tutoring in reading, writing, pronunciation, and Regents' test preparation. General education academic advisement, registration assistance, grammar and Alternative Regents' workshops are also available.

An important program coordinated through the ESL Study and Tutorial Center is the Conversation Partners Program. This program gives international students the opportunity to practice speaking and listening in informal settings outside the classroom, as well as learn more about campus and American cultures. Improving retention as well as helping to internationalize our campus, this popular program is offered both fall and spring semesters.

Testing is another service offered through the ESL Study and Tutorial Center. Both the Alternative Regents' tests and the Michigan Test of English Language Proficiency

(MTELP), an alternative to TOEFL, are offered to international students and applicants, and extended-time testing for undergraduate and graduate courses is available for individual students (by arrangement with the students' instructors)

Finally, the ESL Program offers ESL 1105: Grammar Seminar for International Students and ESL 1106: Pronunciation Seminar for International Students. Both of these are elective courses open to all KSU international students.

Honors Program

The award-winning Honors Program at Kennesaw State University has two divisions. For recently matriculated or currently enrolled undergraduates, the Undergraduate Honors Program offers a flexible array of excellent Honors experiences designed to challenge exceptional students. For high school juniors or seniors who want to complete college courses for dual credit, the Joint Enrollment Honors Program (JEHP) provides an opportunity to get a head start on college. Students may choose to complete their entire freshman year of college before graduating from high school. Both programs provide honors students with exciting academic challenges, intense mentoring relationships with faculty, connection to the student honors community, and applied learning that reflects the students' level of accomplishment.

Undergraduate Honors Program Admission Criteria

Students who consistently exceed the expectations of their instructors, and therefore, need and want the challenge of academic experiences qualitatively different from those provided in most existing courses, can find a home in the outstanding KSU Undergraduate Honors Program. Those admitted to the program will need to match one of the following profiles:

- Students who have recently graduated from high school, are entering Kennesaw State as first-year students, have a high school grade point average of 3.7 or better in their academic courses, and have made a composite score of 1200 or better on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (equivalent ACT scores also accepted);

- Currently enrolled students (including those who have transferred from other institutions) who have earned a cumulative grade point average of 3.7 or better in no fewer than 30 hours and no more than 60 hours of KSU course work.

The Honors Director may waive these eligibility criteria for candidates who can present a convincing and substantive case of their motivation and potential to succeed in the Undergraduate Honors Program.

Students identified as Honors prospects should receive an invitation to join the program. Others should contact the Honors Director at (678) 797-2364 if they think they are eligible and have not received any communication from the Honors Office. This is an outstanding, competitive program and you are encouraged to submit materials early.

Undergraduate Honors Program Fundamentals

The Undergraduate Honors Program is organized around three fundamentals providing students with a rounded academic experience: Honors Faculty mentorship, formal Honors Experiences, and the Honors Colloquium.

- Fundamental One - Honors Faculty Mentorship: Honors students are carefully matched with individual faculty mentors who are chosen from the ranks of the Honors Faculty and share their advisees' academic interests and professional objectives. Honors mentors are more than academic advisors (though they play that role, too). The active intellectual exchange between mentors and their students is designed to foster a peer relationship that helps the students to achieve their potential as well as gain a faculty advocate.
- Fundamental Two - Honors Experiences: Honors students must complete four Honors Experiences.
 1. Honors Experience I is based in traditional course work. Students may fulfill this requirement by taking an Honors Seminar (Honors 2290 or 4490) with other Honors students; by establishing an Honors contract in a non-Honors course; or by completing the requirements of an Honors Directed Study (Honors 4400) with one faculty member; or by taking an Honors section of a general education course embedded in an Honors learning community or offered independently.
 2. Honors Experience II has an applied focus, in which students use the knowledge and skills they have learned in their major academic disciplines in contexts that model the laboratory or workplace. This experience may be conducted on or off campus and must be qualitatively different from similar experiences already offered in the major. Students especially enjoy having the opportunity to work closely with individuals in their discipline in a "hands-on" environment.
 3. Honors Experience III may be a second course work or applied learning experience. Again, students gain intensive experience in their major by going more deeply than their non-Honors peers into an area of their choice. However, Honors students who have not completed or will not complete a research methods course in their major must take IDS 3100, "Interdisciplinary Research Methods," to fulfill this requirement.
 4. Honors Experience IV is the Senior Capstone Experience, an original research project growing out of the student's major concentration; a project based in applied research that provides new insights into that discipline; an original synthesis of information or research already available in the discipline; an original creative work; or an extensive service learning project for which the student is the primary coordinator.
- Fundamental Three - The Honors Colloquium: Honors students must successfully complete two Honors Colloquia or one Honors Colloquium and one Honors Seminar. Honors 3000, the Honors Colloquium, is a one-hour course in which Honors students interact with each other and with members of the Honors Faculty in an informal setting designed to build and nurture an Honors community exploring an interdisciplinary topic. Honors 2290 or 4490 (more formal three-hour Honors seminar courses) may be substituted for one Honors Colloquium.

To help students develop a perspective on their work that will be useful in employment after graduation, all Honors students are required to keep the products of their Honors Experiences and Honors Colloquia (research papers, journals, documentation of exhibits, etc.) in an Honors Portfolio. To be designated an Honors Scholar, a student must complete all four Honors Experiences with an "A" or a "B" (or the equivalent); must complete each Honors Colloquium with a "Satisfactory" grade; and must receive the Honors Council's approval for both the Senior Capstone project and the Honors Portfolio. The Honors Portfolio serves not only as a marker of the students' accomplishments, but is also an outstanding resource after graduation.

Students in KSU's Undergraduate Honors Program receive advanced priority registration as long as they maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.5 or better; see their Honors mentors at least once a semester; and perform satisfactorily in their Honors Experiences and Honors Colloquia. Each semester, Honors students may have the opportunity to participate in special Honors events. Honors Scholars receive a special designation on their transcripts and diplomas and are recognized at graduation. We are proud of our Honors Program and believe it provides students the opportunity to advance their learning in an applied, individualized context.

Joint Enrollment Honors Program Admission Criteria

Rising high school juniors and seniors are eligible for the Joint Enrollment Honors Program if they earn:

- a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or better in their academic course work and are on track to complete the College Preparatory requirements
- AND

- a composite score of 1100 on the SAT, with minimum subparts of 530 verbal and 530 math; or an ACT score of at least 25 composite with subpart minimums of 24 English and 24 math.

Joint Enrollment Honors Program (JEHP)

- JEHP enables high school students to take approved college courses in lieu of their high school requirements. Students may also take additional college courses, not needed for high school graduation, to get a greater head start on college.
- Students may attend KSU full-time (taking 12-16 hours of course work; 4-5 courses) or part-time (taking fewer than 12 hours of course work; 1-3 courses), with remaining courses being taken at the high school.
- Students may choose regular sections of KSU courses or honors sections offered in English, Math, Economics and Political Science. Students needing a fourth unit of a subject for high school graduation must take two college courses in that subject. JEHP students are also eligible to take most 1000- or 2000-level courses in core curriculum areas listed in the undergraduate catalog if they satisfy course prerequisites and receive the approval of both their high school counselors and their KSU Honors advisor.
- Tuition, most mandatory student fees, and a book allowance of up to $150 per semester are paid for by the Accel program of the HOPE Scholarship. Students attending public and private high schools in Georgia, as well home-schooled students affiliated with accredited home-school centers are eligible for Accel funding. Students must meet Accel residency and eligibility requirements.
- JEHP students enjoy advanced priority registration, special advising and orientation sessions, priority enrollment in Honors classes, and a guaranteed space in regular KSU classes if they enroll at their appointed registration time.

For information regarding admission to the Joint Enrollment Honors Program, interested high school juniors or seniors should contact the Office of Admissions at (770) 423-6300 and ask for the Joint Enrollment Admissions Counselor, or visit www.kennesaw.edu/admissions and click on the link to Joint Enrollment. After they are admitted to the program, JEHP students should contact the director of Pre-College Programs for information regarding orientation and advising, course offerings, and other academic aspects of being a Joint Enrollment student at (770) 423-6116.

Interdisciplinary Studies Program

The Bachelor of Science degree in Interdisciplinary Studies allows students maximum flexibility to custom-design a curriculum that will help them meet their personal and career goals. Such a program of study must assure depth as well as breadth of study; it is not a degree completion program and not a vehicle for students needing a degree program to satisfy something other than a clearly defined academic objective. It is designed to be as academically rigorous as any other degree program on campus. Therefore, students must take a total of 39 upper-division hours across at least two different disciplines. A minimum of 12 upper-division hours must be taken in each discipline. Students must earn a grade of "C" or above in these upper-division requirements, as well as meet the university's general education requirements and complete an additional 15 hours of upper-level course work addressing writing and/or communication skills; an understanding of theory and culture; and the ability to apply and integrate skills in the selected disciplines. Nine hours of related studies courses must also be built into the IDS curriculum. To graduate, an IDS major must have completed a minimum of 123 credit hours, including those mandated by the IDS degree. To ensure a coherent degree plan, an IDS major must construct a written rationale explaining how combining the two (or three) disciplines addresses the student's personal and career goals. Each student will be required to meet with one of the IDS Program Coordinators in the Department of University Studies to draw up the proposed curriculum and formulate the rationale. In order to have an IDS curriculum approved, a student must have an adjusted GPA (AGPA) of 2.5 and maintain that GPA through graduation.

In summary, an IDS student must:

- work with an IDS advisor to construct a degree plan combining at least two disciplines;
- have an adjusted GPA (AGPA) of at least 2.5 to enter the program, remain in good standing, and graduate with an IDS degree;
- take 39 hours in upper-division courses from these (or related) disciplines;
- write a formal rationale for the degree, explaining why the personal and professional goals outlined there cannot be fulfilled with one of the degrees already offered at KSU and addressing any courses that do not obviously fit into the proposed curriculum;
- have some summative experience, through research, coursework, internship, or practicum, to give an applied focus to the degree.

Once an IDS proposal is complete, the IDS coordinator will send a copy to each discipline's department chair for evaluation and approval.

Please note: Interested IDS majors may choose to add a Leadership Concentration to their program of study. The Leadership Studies Concentration consists of 15 hours of IDS leadership course work in courses with the prefix "LDRS," along with 9 additional hours of other related KSU leadership courses.

For information about the Interdisciplinary Studies Degree, contact Dr. Edward Chan, Department of University Studies and Co-Director of the Interdisciplinary Studies Program at 770-423-6930, Dr. Liza Davis, Department of University Studies and Co-Director of the Interdisciplinary Studies Program, or Ms. Shannon Ferketish, Department of University Studies, Advisor for the Interdisciplinary Studies Program at 678-797-2863. For additional information, please visit http://www.kennesaw.edu/university_studies/ids/index.shtm.

Learning Support Programs

Learning Support Programs have a specific mission: providing academic support to those students whose entrance and placement scores indicate that they need remedial instruction before they enroll in regular credit classes. Students whose SAT or ACT scores are below KSU's requirements are required to take the corresponding sub-tests of COMPASS (Computer –Adaptive Placement Assessment and Support System). The Office of Admissions, the Student Success Services Center, or the Department of University Studies will contact students needing to take these courses. According to these placement scores, students may be placed in Learning Support courses in English, math, or reading. These are non-credit courses such as English 0099 (grammar and composition), Math 0097 (Elementary Algebra), Math 0098 (Intermediate Algebra), Math 0099 (Elementary and Intermediate Algebra) and Reading 0099 (Reading Comprehension and Vocabulary Skills). Learning Support courses are designed so that students may complete all requirements in an area in a maximum of two semesters.

Since these are academic assistance courses, there are certain restrictions placed by the Board of Regents or by Kennesaw State University or both upon students enrolled in these courses. The following restrictions apply to all Learning Support students: Students must register for the LSP courses they are required to take each semester of enrollment at KSU before they are eligible to register for any regular credit courses. If they do choose to take credit courses at the same time, these courses must not have LSP courses as prerequisites. They may not, however, accumulate more than 20 hours of academic credit before completing all Learning Support requirements. They also may not attempt any Learning Support discipline more than two times. Students may not withdraw from their Learning Support courses unless they withdraw from credit courses as well. Although these courses do not carry degree credit, students do receive institutional credit and thus may satisfy requirements for VA benefits and other financial assistance. Unsuccessful completion of Learning Support requirements by students will result in exclusion from further study at KSU. Also, the program offers two courses in Regents test preparation, RGTR 0198 - Reading and RGTE 0199 - English. In addition, the program provides a variety of tutorial services, including ESL tutoring for non-native speakers, math tutoring for math students and writing assistance for non-traditional students.

The Math Lab

The Math Lab is a free, on campus tutoring service available to all currently enrolled KSU students. Services are on a first-come, first-serve basis. Access to videos, software, such as Scientific Notebook, Workplace, and other math-related computer software is also available. Tutors assist students with the understanding of math concepts, analysis of math problems, and skill building. All tutors have had Calculus I or higher and have completed the KSU tutor training workshop.

The lab is located on the 4th floor of the Library in room 433. For other information about the Math Lab, call 770-423-6044.

Supplemental Instruction

Supplemental Instruction (SI) is a program whereby students in selected "high-risk" courses (courses with a high "D", "F", "W" rate) are provided the opportunity to receive additional instruction facilitated by students who have been successful in those courses in previous semesters. They receive content instruction as well as help in analysis, critical thinking, and problem solving as it relates to the subject matter. National studies have shown that students who take advantage of this opportunity generally perform better than matched students who do not avail themselves of the service. SI is coordinated within the Department of University Studies with the cooperation of the discipline departments in which the selected courses are housed.

Department of First-Year Programs within University College

The Department of First-Year Programs within University College provides oversight and operations for the following University-wide programs:

- KSU 1101 / First-Year Experience
- Learning Communities Program

KSU 1101/First-Year Experience

KSU's First-Year Seminar (KSU 1101) is an integral part of the undergraduate KSU curriculum that introduces first-year students to higher education. As the name of the textbook for the course implies KSU 1101 provides the "Foundations of Academic Inquiry." That foundation includes an introduction to the culture of the university; an opportunity to enhance their academic and personal success; the promotion of communication, critical thinking, and ethical decision-making skills; career exploration; and an appreciation for global issues and diversity. A defining characteristic of this three-hour, academically oriented course is the close interaction of the instructor and student. This interaction is facilitated by the intentionally small size (20-25 students) of each seminar. First-Year Programs faculty also act as advisors for exploratory students who have not yet declared a major. The curriculum also includes a First-Year Common Reader program that engages students in a common experience in a global topic to promote discourse and discovery. The First-Year Seminar is often featured as an anchor in Learning Communities. First-time, full-time students with fewer than 15 credit hours are required to enroll in KSU 1101 (as an independent course) or one of the Learning Communities.

Learning Communities Program

The Learning Communities program is a curriculum initiative that promotes the integration of General Education and other lower-division courses during a student's first semester. A typical learning community is a theme-based cluster of courses that allows a student cohort to take 2-4 courses together while also taking advantage of faculty collaboration, out-of-class learning opportunities, and community engagement. There are general interest communities and discipline-based communities that link major courses with General Education offerings. Enrollment in a Learning Community or a First-Year Seminar (KSU 1101) is required of all first-time, full-time students who enroll in the university with fewer than 15 credit hours. Learning Communities help entering, first-year students adjust easily to college life and improve their chances for a successful college career. In each community, a group of 20-25 first-semester students enroll in the same sections of two or more first-year classes. Learning Communities provide an enhanced environment for successful learning. Because they know each other well, first-year students in learning communities are more comfortable speaking out in class and working collaboratively. They form natural study groups and support groups with their peers. They begin to see connections between their courses through specially designed assignments. Academic research shows that participation in learning communities consistently improves students' retention as well as their GPA—keeping them in college and helping them to be more successful.

Minors and Military Science Program

Minor Programs

A minor program is a prescribed area of academic study consisting of 15-18 semester hours, at least 12 of which must be non-duplicative outside the major's primary discipline and beyond the courses required for the student's major and general education requirements. At least nine of the required hours must be at the upper division level. The prescribed courses for a minor may be taken from one or more academic disciplines. Courses taken in Core Area F (lower division major requirements) may be counted as coursework in the minor. Courses taken to satisfy Core Areas A through E (general education) may not be counted as coursework in the minor. Students must earn a grade of at least "C" in all course work applicable to a formal minor. When a student's major and minor programs require the same courses, the credit hours for some of those courses may be counted toward both the major and minor. However, at least 12 hours of a minor must be non-duplicative with course requirements in the major.

In order to graduate with a formal minor that will be noted on the student's permanent record, the student must complete the requirements noted above and submit to the Registrar's Office a completed and approved "Declaration of Formal Minor" form along with the student's formal petition to graduate. The formal minors available at the time this catalog went to press are listed below. The office responsible for approving the minor declaration form and for advising students about the specific requirements of a minor are also noted.

Military Science

Army Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC)

Looking to become a leader? Army ROTC is offered through the cooperation of the Georgia Institute of Technology to provide students with career options that lead to commissions as officers in the Active Army, Army National Guard, or Army Reserves. All classes and leadership labs are offered at KSU.

Program Information

The ROTC program is divided into the Basic Course (freshman and sophomore years) and the Advanced Course (junior and senior years). There is no military obligation incurred for enrollment in the Basic Course. After successfully completing the Basic Course, students who have demonstrated leadership potential, passed the qualifying exams and have three academic semesters remaining to graduation are eligible for the Advance Course. Students can also qualify for the Advance Course if they have completed basic training and advanced individual training in any military branch. In addition, students who did not take ROTC during their freshman or sophomore years can qualify for the Advance Course by successfully completing the four-week Leader's Training Course (LTC) any summer prior to their junior year.

Training and books are paid for through the ROTC program. All contracted cadets receive a tax-free monthly stipend ranging from to $300-$500. Students also receive approximately $850 while attending a 33 day Leaders Development and Assessment Course (LDAC) between the junior and senior year. The starting pay of a second lieutenant is over $39,000 per year, plus benefits. After four years of active duty service, the salary is over $59,000 a year, plus benefits.

Sophomores through seniors can participate in the Army ROTC program and serve in the National Guard or Reserves at the same time. This program is called the Simultaneous Membership Program (SMP). SMP cadets are non-deployable to ensure completion of academic degrees. These cadets receive a monthly allowance, as well as their reserve pay at the grade of sergeant, E5. The National Guard and Reserves both provide SMP cadets up to $4,500 in tuition assistance per year.

In-college scholarships

Full one and a half, to four-year scholarships are available to highly qualified students. Selection is based upon performance to date, SAT and ACT scores, extracurricular activities and leadership potential. Scholarships include full payment of tuition and $900 towards books per year. For more information about Army ROTC, contact the Military Science Department at 770-423-6229 or via e-mail at <http://www.armyrotc.gatech.edu>

The Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFROTC)

<http://www.afrotc.gatech.edu/>

The Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFROTC) is a two to four-year educational program designed to give men and women the opportunity to become Air Force officers while completing a degree. The Air Force ROTC program is designed to prepare persons to assume positions of increasing responsibility and offers a wide variety of challenging opportunities for professional growth. Some sample careers are: Pilot, Navigator, Aircraft Maintenance, Missiles, Engineering, Scientific and Developmental Fields, Computer Science, Law, Health Services and Management.

Academic schedule

Freshmen and sophomores attend a 50-minute class on Tuesday, and Leadership Lab (50 minutes) on both Tuesdays and Thursdays (3 hours per week total). The Leadership Labs consist of drill and ceremony practice, guest speakers from across the nation, athletic competitions, and other cadet activities. Juniors and seniors attend a 80-minute class each Tuesday and Thursday in addition to the Leadership Lab (5 hours per week). All cadets are required to wear their Air Force uniform throughout both days.

Obligation after commissioning

Upon graduation from school, and completing all Air Force requirements, the student will be commissioned as a second lieutenant in the Air Force and have a 4-year active duty commitment. Navigators and pilots, respectively, have 8-year and 10-year commitments.

Cross-registration

Students who are interested in enrolling in Air Force ROTC courses leading to a commission in the United States Air Force can do so through the cross-registration process at their school. Contact the Detachment 165 Unit Admissions Officer at 404-894-4175 for more information.

Field training

Field Training is, in most cases, a cadet's first exposure to a working Air Force environment. The program is designed to develop military leadership and discipline, and to provide Air Force officer orientation and motivation. At the same time, the Air Force evaluates each cadet's potential as an officer. Field training includes Air Force professional development orientation, marksmanship training, junior officer training, physical fitness, and survival training.

In-college scholarships

Air Force ROTC can help you with the high cost of getting your degree. As an Air Force ROTC cadet you are entitled to many benefits. Some of them are:

- Up to $15,000 per academic year to cover tuition, lab and incidental fees, $900 for textbooks, and $250-$400 a month tax-free allowance;
- Free Air Force uniforms and textbooks;
- Management training and opportunities to apply leadership principles;
- At most schools, academic credit for your Air Force ROTC classes;
- Travel on military aircraft on a space-available basis if you are on Air Force ROTC scholarship or in the Professional Officer Course.

Pre-Health Professions and Armed Forces Health Professions Program

A Pre-Health Professions Program designation is offered to encourage students to earn commissions through Air Force ROTC and continue their education in medical or osteopathic school. You must apply before the end of your sophomore year. You will also be guaranteed additional tuition assistance for graduate-level health schooling expenses under the Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program. When you are accepted to your graduate-level health professions school, you will be granted the scholarship and transferred into the Air Force Medical Corps. Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship participants incur an additional active-duty service commitment.

Nursing Scholarships

Air Force ROTC offers a variety of scholarships for nursing that cover most tuition, books, and lab fees. The goal of the Nursing scholarships is to allow nursing students to complete their degree debt free, while acquiring a valuable resource to the Air Force's medical staff.

Preparation for Post- Baccalaureate Study

Students who are interested in post-baccalaureate study should, as early as possible in their academic career, take advantage of two valuable sources of information: (1) the online graduate catalog describing in detail the various graduate and post graduate programs and; (2) a KSU academic advisor in their area of interest. The catalog outlines specific entrance requirements and necessary prerequisites, and the advisor can provide assistance with curricular decisions at KSU. Students should be aware that graduate programs do not necessarily require an undergraduate degree in that specific discipline and that prerequisites may often be completed as elective courses in another major.

Professional Program Preparation

Some students are interested in applying to graduate or post-baccalaureate professional programs not offered at KSU (dentistry, engineering, law, medicine, for example). Although KSU does not offer pre-professional programs, many of our major programs of study and course offerings provide students with the opportunity to obtain recommended course work that will satisfy the entrance requirements for professional programs. These students are encouraged to see their advisor or contact a pre-professional program advisor as early as possible in their degree. These advisors can assist students in selecting appropriate course work, suggest strategies for including the course work into a specific program of study, and provide guidance on applying to professional programs. Information and advisement about pre-professional preparation can be obtained from the departments listed below. Information for all such programs is also available on KSU's Web site at: science.kennesaw.edu/chem/prepro.

Dentistry	Departments of Biology and Physics or Chemistry and Biochemistry
Engineering	Departments of Chemistry and Biochemistry or Mathematics and Statistics

Forestry	Departments of Chemistry and Biochemistry or Biology and Physics	(5) Meet all requirements for admission into the specified graduate program (except for receipt of the undergraduate degree); and
Law	Department of Political Science & International Affairs	(6) Submit an application for admission to the Accelerated Bachelor's-Master's Degree Program, along with all necessary admissions documentation to the Dean of Graduate Studies by the deadline dates listed below.
Medicine	Departments of Biology and Physics or Chemistry and Biochemistry
Optometry	Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry
Pharmacy	Departments of Biology and Physics or Chemistry and Biochemistry
Podiatry	Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry
Veterinary Medicine	Department of Biology and Physics

Accelerated Bachelor's-Master's Degree Option

The Accelerated Bachelor's Master's Degree Option provides qualified KSU undergraduate students the opportunity to begin graduate studies at KSU in their senior year and to simultaneously satisfy some remaining requirements for the bachelor's degree and the beginning requirements of an advanced degree.

A student may use up to nine credit hours of graduate-level courses offered within a single degree program in meeting the requirements of both a bachelor's degree and a master's degree. Students applying for this program must:

- (1) Have completed at least 18 hours of coursework at Kennesaw State.
- (2) Have a KSU GPA of 3.5 or better.
- (3) Be within 21 semester hours of graduation.
- (4) Have written permission of the chair of the department of the undergraduate major to use the graduate level courses as acceptable substitutes to fulfill related requirements of the bachelor's degree (students must satisfy all prerequisites for those graduate courses).

No more than nine semester hours of graduate credit may be completed prior to the completion of the baccalaureate degree and admission to a graduate degree program. An undergraduate student enrolled in graduate classes is limited to six semester hours of graduate course work per term and a total academic course load of 12 semester hours per semester.

For students who work closely with their advisors in planning their course of study at KSU, this option offers the opportunity of simultaneously satisfying partial degree requirements for a bachelor's and a master's degree in an accelerated program of study. Upon completion of the undergraduate degree, with a satisfactory undergraduate grade point average, and a grade of "B" or better in all graduate courses completed, the student may move to full graduate status in the same graduate program, and the courses taken as an undergraduate can be applied toward the graduate degree.

Many combinations of undergraduate and graduate programs are possible and are not restricted to the confines of a single discipline or major. For example, integrated undergraduate/graduate programs have been developed for a Bachelor of Science in Psychology leading to a Master's Degree in Business Administration and a Bachelor of Arts in English leading to a Master of Arts in Professional Writing. Students interested in this option must meet with the department chair responsible for the undergraduate major.

For application materials, contact the Dean of the Graduate College at 770-423-6738 or www.kennesaw.edu/graduate/admissions/contact.html. Students may not apply online for this program. Submit applications materials to the Dean of the Graduate College no later than the following dates:

July 15 for Fall term admission
November 15 for Spring term admission
April 15 for Summer term admission

The accelerated option is not available for students wishing to take courses in the MSN program. It is also not available for those wishing to take courses in the M.Ed. program unless the student has the required certification for admission to that program. Contact the Bagwell College of Education for more information at 770-423-6043 or <http://www.kennesaw.edu/education/grad>

KSU Graduate Programs

Kennesaw State University offers a number of Master's degrees, which are described under Programs of Study. Complete descriptions of the admission and degree requirements are detailed in the Kennesaw State University Graduate Catalog. Additional information can be obtained from the Graduate Admissions Office, the Graduate Program Directors, and on-line at:

<http://www.kennesaw.edu/graduate/>

Graduate Entrance Examinations

Most graduate programs require graduate entrance examinations similar to the undergraduate SAT tests. Although KSU does not actually administer these tests, students may obtain registration information about the GRE, GMAT, LSAT, and MCAT in the CAPS Center.

Academic Resources

The Institute for Global Initiatives

The Institute for Global Initiatives promotes and collaboratively leads global learning and regional studies among KSU's faculty, students, staff and the community through academic services and programs, research and scholarship, and partnerships. It supports and promotes KSU's mission of international education by initiating programs, responding to external funding opportunities, and providing leadership for the institution's regional centers. The centers are Center for African and African Diaspora Studies (CAADS), the Center for Hispanic Studies (CHS), and the Confucius Institute at KSU (CIKSU). It collaborates with divisions, colleges, departments, and other units to ensure the infusion of international dimensions into teaching, scholarship, and community service. At the core of the IGI is the Office of International Services and Programs (OISP). The OISP coordinates a wide range of international programs and events, including international student recruitment and admission, study abroad programs to various destinations, the annual country-study program, and international student and faculty exchange program.

Teacher Resource and Activity Center (TRAC)

The Teacher Resource and Activity Center, located in Kennesaw Hall Room 2005, is sponsored by the Bagwell College of Education and open to all KSU students, faculty, and staff. Educators in the geographica area served by the University are also invited to use the center.

Designed specifically to meets the needs of professional teachers and education majors in the teacher preparation program, the center offers a curriculum library, media services, and instructional materials. It maintains a large library of professional books and periodicals, K-12 textbooks for curriculum planning at all grade levels, theme-related activity guides, supplemental kits, and over 1000 educational DVDs and videos. TRAC also houses a production workroom equipped with a print/copy station, laminators, spiral and heat binders, poster printers, paper cutters, badge makers, and other assorted machines that support the development of classroom materials. TRAC has an extensive die-cut collection of over 800 shapes, letters, and numbers for creating bulletin boards and learning center manipulatives. Additional equipment such as computers, opaque projector, tape recorder, CD player, and televisions with VCR/DVD players are available for use in the center. Friendly staff is available to assist visitors.

Writing Center

The Writing Center, located in Humanities Rm. 242, is a free service available to all members of the university community. Tutors assist writers from any discipline and at any stage of the writing process, including topic development, organizing, drafting, revising, grammar, punctuation, and documentation. The Writing Center also provides students with introductory information and instruction on the essay portion of the Regents' Test. The Writing Center encourages writing across the curriculum in all classes and serves as a resource center for the practical and theoretical aspects of composition theory.

Hours of operation for the academic year:

Monday - Thursday	9:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Friday	9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
Sunday	1:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

To schedule an appointment with a tutor, call 770-423-6380 during regular hours. For additional information, visit the Writing Center website: <http://www.kennesaw.edu/english/WritingCenter/>

The Division of Continuing Education

Continuing Education at Kennesaw State University is a creative and flexible way to learn new skills throughout your life. Offering more than 2,100 noncredit programs, online and in the classroom, Continuing Education at KSU is your professional development and personal enrichment partner, proudly serving 21,000 community members annually.

If you already have a college degree or are already in the workforce, Continuing Education at KSU can help you gain current, practical, professional skills to help you advance or even make a career change through classroom or online courses. You can choose from career assessment and planning programs for testing and consultation, one-day workshops, life enrichment classes and certificate programs. Certificate programs are available in a wide variety of areas including management & leadership, landscape/horticulture, healthcare, paralegal, personal trainer, human resources, event planning, TESOL, web design, technical writing, project management, and advanced technology areas including cyber security, and many more.

A wide variety of personal interest courses in culinary art, fitness, visual arts and home and garden are available throughout the year. In addition, Continuing Education offers specialized, age-appropriate programs through Summer University (K-12) and The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (ages 50 and older).

Continuing Education Units (CEUs) are assigned to all professional development programs with one CEU awarded for 10 contact hours of participation. Several selected courses carry PLUs for teacher recertification. Transcripts of earned CEUs are available upon request.

Visit the Continuing Education website at <http://www.kennesaw.edu/ConEd> or call 770-423-6765 for more information and to request a current course catalog.

Computing & Information Resources

Technology is increasingly an integral part of a student's education. In addition, many student services and information is delivered via technology. To provide the KSU student with a quality education delivered most conveniently, technology is used as an essential part of instruction, for student access to educational materials, and for the delivery of student services.

A $25 technology fee was collected for the first time in the 1997-98 academic year to provide students with improved technological resources including: greatly enhanced on-campus and remote access to the internet; important software packages such as Microsoft Office delivered on-line; student training in use of computer technology; increased access on campus through extended laboratory hours; computer connections, and an electronics study room in the Library; upgrade of student laboratories; and, instruction in the use of advanced multimedia presentation technology in the Multimedia Development Group laboratory. The technology fee for 2008-2009 is $50.00.

In addition, the Kennesaw State University Website exists to assist students with course registration and reviewing of grades. In addition, the KSU Website provides easy access to information, instructional materials, and the World Wide Web. Many classrooms are connected to the internet; and selected campus classrooms continue to be upgraded to state-of-the-art multimedia and presentation sites. Each year brings new technology, creative uses of technology on campus, and services to meet our growing needs.

Mandatory KSU E-Mail Account

KSU generated e-mail accounts are the official means of communication with students. Instructions can be found at <http://students.kennesaw.edu>.

KSU's Vice President for Operations and Chief Information Officer

The Vice President for Operations and Chief Information Officer (CIO) provides leadership in the continuing advancement of information and instructional technology. This position oversees the operations of information technology which includes the Horace Sturgis Library, Information Technology Services and Enterprise Systems and Services, Online Learning Services Department, Multimedia Development Group, and Department of Archives and Records Management and Enterprise Information Systems.

Horace W. Sturgis Library

Built in 1981 with over 100,000 feet of space, the library, named after the university's first president Horace W. Sturgis, is designed to support and advance the teaching and learning activities of the greater university community.

The Sturgis Library has more than 600,000 volumes of books and government publications. There are more than 3,300 serial publications and well over 1,500,000 pieces of microforms. The library also provides, through contractual and consortia arrangements with the Atlanta Regional Consortium for Higher Education and the University System of Georgia over 10 million items for research and study purposes. The Atlanta Regional Consortium for Higher Education includes institutions such as Agnes Scott College, Emory University, University of Georgia, Clark-Atlanta University, Georgia Institute of Technology, Georgia State University, and the Institute of Paper Science and Technology. Use of these collections is available by an institutional access card, via five day truck delivery, institutional fax machines and through interlibrary loans.

The Atlanta Regional Consortium for Higher Education and University Systems Libraries have unique titles that augment collection development at Kennesaw and through the Georgia Union Catalog, enhance both research and teaching. Access to these extensive catalog collections are through the on-line public catalog which is available in the library, on the campus network and via telephone from remote sites.

For research purposes, faculty and students have access to a broad array of traditional print collections and full-text and full-image items through GALILEO, ProQuest, ERIC, and Lexis/Nexis. The GALILEO service provides access to world wide web resources such as the Library of Congress, full-text journal titles, newspapers, and to document delivery services.

Users of the library also have access to four special collections:

- The Children's Literature Collection named in honor of the late John DiFazio, professor of education at Kennesaw, houses an 8,000 volume library used for the professional preparation and training of P-12 teachers.
- The Teen Collection consisting of 1,500 works designed to meet the unique learning and reading needs of adolescence.
- The Bentley Special Collections brings together a world-class collection that spans the history of the written word in the Western World. This collection provides undergraduate students one of few opportunities in the nation to study original works firsthand.
- The Government Documents Collection houses print, microforms, CD-ROM databases and remote access to Federal Agencies. Sturgis Library, as part of the national depository system, make books, periodicals and agency data available to the Sixth Congressional District.

Tours, seminars and classroom instruction are provided for both small and large groups of students and faculty. Individual instruction is provided by appointment.

The library is a charter member of SOLINET, and is a member of the On-line Computer Library Center, a major international library computing network with members located in the United States, Canada, Europe and Japan. The Sturgis Library is open 100 hours during the semester and has extended hours during exams. Between semester hours are posted at library entrances, the circulation desk and on the library website. For checkout of materials, the university identification card serves as a library card.

Computing Services

Tracking rapid evolution within the computing field, Information Technology Services and Enterprise Systems and Services constantly refine, improve, expand and advance the computing resources available to students, faculty and staff at Kennesaw State University. They provide network and desktop support for the more than 20,000 members of the KSU community.

Information Technology Services coordinates computing services for KSU students, faculty, staff, and supports over 3,000 personal computers, LANs and connections to many different computing locations. Students, as well as faculty and staff, are eligible for computer accounts affording access to services such as the Internet, KSU's library system, an active jobs database, a current scholarship database, electronic mail, FTP, Telnet, and KSU's web site server.

Faculty and staff workstations are networked for services such as electronic mail, student records, online scheduling and registration, access to the internet, as well as word processing and high quality printing. KSU faculty and staff are in communication with colleagues worldwide through internet mailing addresses, gaining access through desktop personal computers and also through remote dial-in services.

Information Technology Services also administers more than 700 student work stations located in 30 electronic classrooms and four open computer labs. All of KSU's buildings are connected via almost five miles of fiber optic cable. All open computer labs are networked and are open to students seven days a week. These labs are supervised by qualified lab assistants available to help with a wide variety of standard software packages in word processing, spreadsheet, database management, communications and graphics. KSU students with special needs have access to computers configured with features such as screen magnification and voice synthesis.

Networked electronic classrooms advance diverse curricular needs by granting access to statistical and programming language software, as well as standard software packages. Special purpose advanced labs are available to majors in accounting, computer science, education and information systems. One of the Georgia Department of Education's Educational Technology Centers is located on the Kennesaw campus. Through this facility, majors in education and other fields have access to state-of-the-art technology for teaching and learning.

The rules for use of all telecommunications equipment, including telephones, computers and FAX equipment, are found the KSU Web site at: <http://www.kennesaw.edu/infosec/issp.html>. They can also be reached through the KSU Intranet home page by choosing the topic Issues Specific System Policies from the Computer Resources section. Use of any of these facilities implies an understanding of and compliance with these policies.

Online Learning Services Department

Online Learning Services supports online learning systems for Kennesaw State University, including web-based course support, video servers, and systems for providing live and recorded classes over the Internet. Our mission includes the investigation and development of new technologies for online learning and for classroom use.

OLS supports the KSU WebCT system.

WebCT is a system that can be used, at the option of the faculty, in any course at KSU. It is accessed over the Internet from on- or off-campus and provides a variety of instructional tools for use by faculty and students. Access to the WebCT materials for a course is restricted to students enrolled in the course. Each term, more than 50% of KSU students are enrolled in one or more courses supported by WebCT.

Additional information about resources for online learning and the services provided by OLS can be found at the web site:

<http://online.kennesaw.edu/>

Multimedia Development Group (MDG)

The Multimedia Development Group (MDG) offers a wide range of multimedia services and training for faculty, staff, and students. Located on the fourth floor of the library, MDG supports audio/visual and presentation equipment on campus. In addition to maintaining KSU's multimedia presentation classrooms, MDG specializes in multimedia training and production assistance; graphics creation, multimedia file conversion, audio/video tape duplication, video editing/compression, desktop publishing, and CD-ROM recording. MDG supports some of the most cutting edge multimedia hardware and software available.

Instructional Equipment

MDG supports a wide range of equipment for classroom use. Through designated building coordinators, MDG maintains a distributed set of equipment for faculty to request. Each building coordinator has his/her own system for reserving equipment. See your departmental secretary to obtain building coordinator's contract name and number. Equipment available for pickup includes: data projection systems, video playback combo, VHS camcorders, audio cassette player/recorders, audio CD players, public address systems, slide projectors, and microphones. If you have special equipment needs, consult MDG to consider options.

MDG Media Lab Hours

The MDG multimedia lab is open to faculty, staff, and students Monday - Thursday from 9:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m. and Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The lab is closed on holidays.

Department of Archives, Special Collections, and Records Management

The Department of ARchives and Records Management was established in 2004 in order to preserve the history of Kennesaw State University and to oversee the management of University records. The Records Management division assists and provides training for faculty and staff on managing paper and electronic records. The Archives division serves the research interests of KSU students, faculty, staff and the public. Our holdings include 600 linear feet of University records, 120 linear feet of Georgia History collections, several thousand University photographs and audiovisual recordings, and digital collections. Recent accessions include the records of the NAACP Cobb County Branch, the Gordon Collection on workplace integration at the Lockheed Plant (Marietta, Georgia) and in the Southeast United States, and the Walker Collection on African-American churches, plantations, and cemeteries in Georgia. The Bentley Rare Book Library, one of three museum-grade rare book libraries in Georgia, was added to the department in July 2009. The Rare Book Library offers tours, classes and seminars for the KSU community and the general public. Among the more than 15,000 volumes represented by the Bentley Library are recent acquisitions of a fourth folio Shakespeare (1685) and a first edition of the complete works of Chaucer.

Enterprise Information Management (EIM)

The Enterprise Information Management (EIM) office maintains the university's program and institutional evaluation records, is the university's official SACS accreditation liaison, and oversees the university's comprehensive program review and improvement process. The offices of Enterprise Information Reporting and Enterprise Data Management and Analysis aid in facilitating the production of statistical information, data analysis, and special studies in support of institutional reporting, planning, assessment, and administrative oversight.

Educational Technology Center

The KSU Educational Technology Center (ETC) is proud to be the largest of the 13 Georgia Department of Education technology centers located throughout the state. The KSU ETC is located in the Bagwell College of Education on the second floor of Kennesaw Hall. The ETC serves educators in the metro Atlanta area school systems by providing comprehensive instructional, administrative, and technical training for Georgia educators in a short course or seminar format. In addition, the ETC provides consulting and advising services, helping school systems to select, implement, and support classroom technology that provides the greatest benefit to students and teachers. The ETC seeks to disseminate information about educational technology through participation in state and national conferences, by producing blogs, podcasts, and web based materials and by participating in classes offered as part of pre-service degree programs at KSU

Visit their website at <http://edtech.kennesaw.edu> for more information on available resources and services.

Student Services & Activities

Division of Student Success and Enrollment Services

The Division of Student Success and Enrollment Services offers a variety of programs, services and activities that assist and enhance student success from the point of recruitment and admission through advisement and registration to program completion, graduation and beyond. The areas included in this division are the Office of Admissions, Career Services Center, Student Success Services (formerly CAPS), Office of the Registrar, Residence Life, Student Financial Aid, Student Life Center, Student Development Center, Center for Student Leadership and Judiciary Programs. (For financial aid information, see preceding section—Financial Information & Assistance.)

Student Success Services

Student Success Services is a comprehensive service center where students obtain help with educational, career, and personal concerns from a trained staff of counselors, specialists, and advisors. Such assistance is intended to support Kennesaw State University's academic programs by offering relevant resources that facilitate the students' orientation to the university, contribute to personal development, enhance academic success, and facilitate career skills. All students are invited to come to the center from 8:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 8:00 a.m. through 5:00 p.m. on Fridays. We are located in Kennesaw Hall, rm. 2401, or you can call 770-423-6600. Programs and services offered by the CAPS Center include:

Orientation

Our Orientation is designed for first-year students, transfer students, and parents. It was developed to assist students and their parents in making a stress-free transition to Kennesaw State University. The SSS Orientation Program has been recognized by the Foundations of Excellence Organization. Included in the program are opportunities to meet university personnel, understand academic program offerings, advising and registration. Additionally students and parents are given the opportunities to learn about the various organizations and services available to maximize student success. Our Orientation Program is located in the Carmichael Building, room 156, and can be reached by calling 770-423-6219.

Counseling and Psychological Services

In an atmosphere of confidentiality, professional counselors offer assistance to students with a variety of concerns which may include career, personal and academic counseling. Special seminars in study skills, time management, stress management, assertiveness, test-taking and other topics are conducted each semester during the academic year. This program is located in the Student Success office in Kennesaw Hall, rm. 2401.

Testing Services

Testing Services provides institutional, state and national testing opportunities to students in an atmosphere which enables examinees to perform to the best of their abilities. Testing Services coordinates and administers: CLEP, Compass, ISAT, Regents, US & GA History Exemption Exam, US & GA Constitution Exam, as well as provides proctoring services for students enrolled in Independent Study and Georgia eCore. Testing Services is located in the Student Success Services office on the 2nd floor of Kennesaw Hall, rm. 2401.

College Level Examination Program (CLEP) for Advanced Standing:

Students with business, military, or professional experience are eligible to take standardized examinations in a number of areas to earn credit for certain specific courses, provided a minimum score is attained on the tests. Credit earned will be recorded on the student's permanent record. For specific information concerning subject areas in which tests are available, the cost and minimum score required for credit and dates tests will be given, contact Counseling and Advising Program Services (CAPS).

First Year and Undeclared Advising Center

First-Year and Undeclared Advising Services provides first-year students, students who have not declared an academic program of study and Learning Support Program students with academic advising. Advisors meet with students to help them navigate General Education requirements and identify possible programs of study. First-Year Advising Services is part of the Kennesaw State University advising program whereby each department within the seven colleges provides advising services to students who have chosen their programs of study. Once the undeclared students select a specific program of study, they are referred to the respective colleges where faculty and staff in the academic departments advise the students until graduation. First-Year students who know the major can be advised in First-Year and Undeclared Advising Services as well as the academic department of the major. First-Year Advising is located on the first floor of Kennesaw Hall, rm. 1304 and can be reached by calling 678-797-2860.

Changing or Declaring Majors: To declare a major for the first time, students must contact the departmental office of their desired major. Students will complete a form in that department and have a major assigned. If students change their preferences and desire to select another major, they need to go to the department of the newly desired major. Some students may wish to change from a major to undeclared status. In this case, they must contact the First-Year and Undeclared Advising Services. Students should note that when changing majors, there is a possibility that additional hours of course work beyond those required for the completion of the original program may need to be taken. Students should declare a major as soon as possible so that they can be assigned an advisor to help them expedite their progress toward a degree and to help them in preparing for a career.

Undeclared Students: Students who have not declared a major and those required to take Learning Support classes are assigned to First-Year and Undeclared Advising Services. These advisers are trained and available to help students select courses that meet the General Education requirements, identify career and vocational goals, adjust to the university, and choose a program of study. First-Year and Undeclared Advising Services also refer students to other campus resources. Undeclared students are expected to meet with First-Year and Undeclared Advising Services every semester.

Collegiate Recovery Center

The Collegiate Recovery Center is a community of students in recovery from addiction who meet together to share their experience, strength, and hope. The Center's mission is to assist students to have a full mainstream college experience while in recovery. Students can do that by attending 12-step recovery meetings located at the Center or joining in the peer community after attaining six months of continuous recovery from addictive behaviors. Our goals are to provide opportunities for students to give back through service, to educate the community about the complexities of addiction, to guide students as they develop academic goals, and to help students continue to develop professional and social resiliency in recovery. The CRC is located in the University College, 2nd floor, rm. 222. CRC direct dialing is 678-797-2538.

Student-Athlete Success Services

Professional staff assist KSU student-athletes by helping them succeed personally and academically. Student-athletes receive assistance with advising, study skills, tutoring, orientation and registration. Life skills are offered as well as opportunities to volunteer as mentors for the community. SASS is located in Building #65 at the corner of Big Shanty and Campus Loop Road and can be reached at 678-797-2402.

Behavioral Response Programs

In order to make Kennesaw State University's campus as safe and supportive as possible, Behavioral Response Programs (BRP) seeks to identify and respond to students who are distressed and precipitating towards behavior that is disruptive, threatening, or potentially dangerous. By identifying these students early, BRP is able to assist the student in getting the help they need and the campus is protected. In addition, BRP provides education and consultation regarding identifying and responding to distressed students to faculty, staff, and other members of the university community. BRP is located within the Counseling and Psychological Services office, KH, rm. 2401.

Student Success Services Resource Areas

Counseling and Psychological Services (CPS) and Testing Services office provides a resource area available to all students without appointment. We are located in KH, rm. 2401. Our reception area is primarily a waiting area for visitors scheduled to meet with the professional staff. In addition, it houses a number of supporting resources:

- Computers with software or Internet links for career self-assessments, including PinPoint, GCIC and links to the Department of Labor employment information; WetFeet website for career info and more.
- CLEP study guides and GRE, GMAT, LSAT, and MCAT information brochures.
- Career and personal counseling books, brochures, and pamphlets.
- Study skills handouts.

Another Resource Area within Student Success Services is located in our First-Year and Undeclared Advising Services office. During student advisement our First-Year Advisors determine PinPoint career exploration would be beneficial, therefore this center provides supporting computer services and information brochures as well. Our Advising office is located in KH, rm. 1304.

Career Services Center

The Career Services Center provides a variety of opportunities and experiences which empower the students and alumni of KSU to successfully pursue their career goals. The Center is located on the second floor of Kennesaw Hall, Room 2617. The phone number is 770-423-6555.

Services provided include:

- Resume writing assistance
- Experiential learning opportunities (Cooperative Education and Internships)
- Videotaped practice interviewing

Cooperative Education and Internships

The Cooperative Education and Internship programs offer students work experience relative to their majors. Most employers want students with practical experience and often prefer to hire those who have worked with them and others through internships or co-ops.

Cooperative education combines work experience with time spent in the university classroom. The positions are always paid employment. Students who co-op must do so for a minimum of two (2) semesters with the exception of seniors who are no more than 12 semester hours from graduating. These students may be eligible for a one (1) semester co-op experience. Students receive academic credit for each semester worked and may accumulate a maximum of 12 semester hours of co-op credit. The amount of credit assigned to any co-op experience is determined by the KSU Career Services Center.

Co-op experience may be full-time or part-time. The full-time option usually equates to 35-40 hours of work per week. Additional courses may be taken in the evening if desired. The part-time option involves working an average of 20-25 hours per week, with additional courses taken during the same semester or summer term if full-time enrollment status is desired. At least a 2.5 adjusted GPA is required for all co-op students.

Internships are usually one semester in length, may be either full- or part-time, and may be paid or unpaid. A student will receive academic credit for each internship. This must be approved by the student's academic department. Students may participate in more than one internship experience, but the maximum number of hours of credit that can be earned in internship status is twelve (12) semester hours.

Co-op classes are taken on a pass/fail basis only; thus the grade of "S" or "U" will be assigned. The internship grade structure depends on the academic department involved. Students should check with the Career Services Center for more information about these programs. Co-op and internship course credit may be used as general elective credits in most majors.

Student Conduct and Academic Integrity (SCAI)

The predecessor of the Kennesaw State University SCAI Department, (Office of Judiciary Programs), was developed in 1985 to administer and supervise the procedures surrounding alleged infractions of the KSU Student Code of Conduct and other university policies. The SCAI Department strives to assure fair and impartial considerations of misconduct charges against any KSU student through a system of campus hearing boards and other administrative procedures (hearing officers).

The SCAI structure includes hearing officers and hearing boards (university court and traffic court). Each hearing board is composed of both faculty/staff and student members of the SCAI panel. Members of the panel are trained to hear complaints, arrive at fair and impartial conclusions and deliver clear and direct recommendations. In addition, panel members are trained to assist in the preparation and presentation of misconduct cases before the university court hearing board.

Students are invited to apply to become members of the SCAI hearing board. Requirements include:

- a minimum 2.8 overall G.P.A.;
- a strong interest in protecting the reputation of the University by assuring that the rules of the Code of Conduct are upheld;
- successful personal interview(s);
- two personal references who will testify to your character and integrity;
- a commitment to uphold the SCAI Code of Ethics, attend training sessions, and volunteer to serve on hearing boards, when available.

For more information, please contact the department director at (770) 499-3403 or visit the KSU SCAI web site at www.kennesaw.edu/scai

Student Development

Student Development coordinates support services, programs and activities to enrich the college experiences of specifically identified student populations, including multicultural students, international students, adult learners, and students with disabilities. In addition, the department provides an avenue for individuals to engage in volunteer service in the community through Volunteer Kennesaw State University (VKSU). Through three satellite centers, Cultural Awareness and Resource Center, the Lifelong Learning Center, and the Global Village, students are provided a place to gather a broad array of information, access to computers and other equipment, and knowledgeable, friendly support staff to ensure that students have a positive and supportive “home” on campus. The Odyssey Program, a peer mentoring program, is also coordinated by Student Development. The Odyssey Program helps first-year and new transfer students make a smooth transition to college life at Kennesaw State by pairing them with a qualified peer mentor. Student Development, located in the Carmichael Student Center, Suite 267, is open Monday through Thursday, from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., and Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., and can be reached by phone at 770-423-6443.

Adult Learner Programs

Adult Learner Programs at KSU offer a variety of innovative programs and services to meet the needs of the “nontraditional” student, those students who are 25 years of age or older or who have “nontraditional” life-styles such as family and employment. Offerings include a peer mentor service, workshops and individual consultations for students reentering school, parenting workshops, and programs for the college students’ children. Staff in Adult Learner Programs act as liaisons and advocates in helping non-traditional students succeed in college. Childcare information is provided as well as an opportunity for students to participate in a childcare subsidy program. A major program sponsored by Adult Learner Programs is the WINGS Ceremony for graduating seniors to recognize those individuals that have helped them through college. KSU students, faculty, and staff interested in adult learner concerns are provided resource materials, consultation services, and networking opportunities. The office, housed in the Lifelong Learning Center, Carmichael Student Center Room 261, is a resource center for adult learners.

Lifelong Learning Center

The Lifelong Learning Center (LLC) serves as a resource center for adult learners (students over the traditional college age or living “Nontraditional” college lifestyles such as family and employment). The center seeks to enhance the university experience by providing programs and services specifically designed for students returning to college or starting college later in life. The LLC is located in Room 261 of the Carmichael Student Center. The center is open from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on Friday. During breaks and summer sessions the LLC is open from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on Friday.

You may reach the Adulth Learner Program staff by dialing 770-423-6701.

Multicultural Student Retention Services

A number of factors have a direct or indirect impact upon retention of students of color at major institutions of higher education. Kennesaw State University is no exception. These factors include the quality of support services, faculty's expectations and attitudes, the campus climate of socialization, and the sense of belonging experienced by the students.

Multicultural Student Retention Services (MSRS) provides students of color with essential resources, services, and opportunities to aid in their retention, progression and completion of their academic careers at Kennesaw State University. MSRS facilitates academic success for students of color by offering the following resources:

- The University System of Georgia's Minority Advising Program (MAP) is an initiative of the Board of Regents, which requires minority retention officers to track, monitor, and facilitate academic success and retention strategies for minority students enrolled in each of Georgia's 34 public colleges and universities;
- Resource Center (CARC)—located on the second floor of the Carmichael Student Center in Room 263, which offers an array of tutorial services, technical, and media resources that cater to the needs of African, African American, Latino/Hispanic American, Asian American, Native American, and multicultural students; the KSU Professionals Empowering Our Potential Leaders for Excellence (P.E.O.P.L.E) mentoring program, through which students are matched with faculty, staff, or alumni of KSU for career and life skill development;
- Making the Grade is our workshop series which covers a range of subject matters of professional and interpersonal development to help students excel in various aspects of life at, and beyond, KSU;
- Sources of Scholarship (S.O.S.) Program— a service that provides electronic updates to students about relevant scholarships, grants, and internship opportunities;

- The KSU Minority Report—an annual newsletter circulated each semester for the purpose of keeping members of the Kennesaw State University (KSU) of our efforts and initiatives to serve our students of color;
- KSU Black History Celebration Committee—a group of KSU students, faculty, staff, and alumni who collaborate to provide events to inform KSU and surrounding communities of the achievements and history of African-Americans during the spring semester.

The MSRS also actively encourages students to become involved in the various student organizations on campus. The African American Student Alliance (AASA) is the line-item student organization that is directly affiliated with MSRS. AASA provides leadership and funding for the annual KSU Black History Celebration. We also provide advisement to the Distinguished Black Gentlemen, KSU Ladies of Distinction, and the KSU Scrabble Club.

The KSU African American Male Initiative (AAMI) specifically addresses the retention, progression, and graduation needs of African-American males at KSU through assessment, mentoring, and celebration of academic and leadership achievements. The student organization, Distinguished Black Gentlemen, is directly associated with this initiative. Their purpose is to elevate the minds and academic standards of African-American men on campus and those who are specifically invested in their interests.

For more information about the MSRS, contact the Assistant Director for Multicultural Student Retention Services at 770-423-6443. For information regarding the services and resources in the Cultural Awareness Resource Center, please call at 770-423-6512. You can also visit us online at http://www.kennesaw.edu/stu_dev/msrs.

International Student Retention Services

The Office of International Student Retention Services (ISRS) serves as an advocate and resource for international students. The ISRS provides counseling and advising pertaining to cross cultural adjustment and academic concerns. Once students become enrolled at KSU it is the goal of the ISRS to retain them until they receive their degrees. The ISRS is also responsible for implementing the mandatory International Student Orientation. All newly admitted F1 graduate, undergraduate and transfer students must attend this orientation. The office seeks to provide international students with pertinent information that will enhance their matriculation and success at Kennesaw State University. International students should note that they must maintain full time academic status during the fall and spring semesters but may be part-time in the summer or choose not to attend.

The staff of International Student Retention Services develops and implements educational, social and cultural activities, programs and workshops for international students. Workshops and seminars are developed each semester to enhance the experience of the international student. The workshops and seminars provide information on immigration, job search strategies, graduate studies, and taxes. The Office of International Student Retention Services takes the responsibility of retaining international students very seriously. In addition to the above, the ISRS offers international students exposure to the Global Village, a gathering place for internationally centered activities, resources, discussions and exhibits. The Global Village is located in room 255 on the 2nd floor of the Student Center.

The assistant director of the ISRS and the Administrative Specialist serve as advisors for the International Student Association (ISA). ISA brings together students of all nations for intercultural, social and athletic exchanges. The International Festival is one of the largest events on campus and includes: Breaking Barriers discussion series, Mr. and Miss KSU International Beauty Pageant, International Fashion Show, International Bazaar, and the Courtney Parkins Memorial Soccer Tournament.

For more information about the Office of International Student Retention Services (ISRS), call 770-423-6245 or visit the Global Village in Room 255 in the Student Center.

Student Volunteer Service/ Volunteer Kennesaw State University

Student Volunteer Service is an important outreach for Kennesaw State University. It affords students an opportunity to serve the community in keeping with the mission of the University. Utilizing partnerships with a number of organizations and non-profit agencies, the University seeks to address various community needs.

Information regarding volunteer service projects can be obtained through Volunteer Kennesaw State University (VKSU), a campus center that coordinates a variety of service placements and projects. Information may also be obtained at the VKSU web site, http://www.kennesaw.edu/stu_dev/vksu. VKSU matches student volunteer skills and talents with community needs. Since 1984, in cooperation with more than 300 community agencies, VKSU has served as a clearinghouse for volunteer placements, which include: Habitat for Humanity, Red Cross Blood Drives, MUST Ministries, and providing tutoring/mentoring services to at-risk children from Cobb County and Marietta Schools. In addition to traditional volunteer placements, VKSU also regularly coordinates group service projects called Involve to Solve, as well as special on-campus activities.

VKSU also serves an educational role by providing a practical opportunity for students to explore career options and experience volunteer services in their major fields of interests. Public service can provide valuable job experience as a prelude to career opportunities. Students are invited to stop by the VKSU office where staff will help them review service opportunities. The office is located on the second floor of the Carmichael Student Center, Room 264, and is open Monday through Thursday 9:00 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. and Friday 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. during fall and spring semesters. Summer semester and break hours are Monday through Thursday 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and Friday 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Disabled Student Support Services

Kennesaw State University provides program accessibility and reasonable accommodations for persons defined as disabled under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 or the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. A number of services are available to help disabled students with their academic work. In order to make arrangements for special services, students must visit the Office of Disabled Student Support Services and arrange an individual assistance plan. Certification of disability is required. Special services are based on medical and/or psychological certification of disability, eligibility for services by outside agencies and ability to complete tasks required in courses. Any individual with a disability who wishes to participate in an activity or program offered by the institution and needs accommodations should contact the office sponsoring the program at least five days prior to the date of the program so that arrangements can be made.

Accommodative services may include, but are not limited to, handicap-accessible parking spaces, special test rooms, classroom accessibility, modifications of printed materials, sign language interpreters, assistance with getting class notes, tape recording, library and laboratory assistance, adaptive computer equipment, and referral to community resources.

Eligible students deliver certification letters to faculty at the beginning of each semester identifying the approved accommodations approved. The Assistant Director for Disabled Student Support Services works with faculty members to assure that students with special needs receive appropriate accommodations.

Students taking courses on-line or at sites other than the main campus should contact the Disabled Student Support Services office by phone (770-423-6443) or email (cpope@kennesaw.edu) to make arrangements to submit documentation, register with the department, arrange accommodations, etc. Accommodations and services at remote locations may require additional time to arrange, so please start early.

Workshops on relevant topics designed to meet the unique needs of disabled students are offered frequently during each semester. Individual assistance with study skills, assignment completion, and test preparation is available.

Students, faculty and staff are encouraged to become active members of the Disabled Student Support Services Advisory Committee and to have a part in promoting awareness of the important contributions made by students with disabilities to the life of the university and the community. The committee also works to increase the accessibility of the university and to represent the interests of students with disabilities to the university administration. Individuals with hearing impairment may contact the university's Assistant Director for Disabled Student Support Services by TTY at 770-423-6480.

Student Life Center

The Student Life Center provides an open, comfortable, engaging place that promotes student success and personal growth. Staff members of the Student Life Center value: the power of education in everything we do; the strength of inclusion - everyone has a place, a part, a purpose; the spirit of youth - it is not the age, it's the attitude; the commitment to service - meeting needs, setting standards, and going beyond expectations; the potential of students - valuing who they are and where they are going; and the belief in our team - a unique partnership that sets us apart to bring us together. The Student Life Center exists to create well-rounded extracurricular life for students at Kennesaw State University. The center provides support for most of the programs and services funded with the student activity fee and strives to promote student involvement by informing students of the opportunities available to them. By being involved in student activities, our goal is for students to learn how to plan and execute activities and how to work cooperatively and collaboratively with other groups and constituencies on campus.

General services provided by the Student Life Center include oversight of the Student Center, including staffing of the information booth, operation and staffing of the Game Room, management of most student activity budgets, reservations of campus space for student organizations, and support for over 160 student organizations. The Student Life Center also has a Notary Public service. Programs include intramural and recreation services, clubs and organizations, sororities and fraternities, the Kennesaw Activities Board (KAB), Student Government (SG), and the student media. More details on these programs are provided below.

Lost and Found services are available in the Student Life Center. Items found on campus should be taken to and recovered from the Student Life Center. Lost items are logged in and the owner is notified, if the item is recovered. All found items are listed in the classified section of The Sentinel as a service to the KSU community. Found items not retrieved after one month will be discarded.

The Student Life Center is located in room 274 of the James V. Carmichael Student Center. Telephone number is (770) 423-6280.

Student Media

Four student media organizations provide opportunities for students to write, edit, photograph, and create designs, web pages and radio broadcasts for experience, academic credit or for pay. The Sentinel, KSU's weekly newspaper, covers campus news, sports and student opinion. Talon, KSU's feature magazine, captures student life through photos and stories. Share, the student literary and art magazine, provides a publishing outlet for the creative talents of KSU students. OWL Radio allows students to gain experience on and off the air with KSU's internet streaming radio station. Experienced students are welcome as well as those who are willing to learn on the job.

Student Organizations and Activities

KSU offers over 160 registered student organizations. There is a wide variety of honor societies, fraternities and sororities, special interest groups, religious and political groups from which to choose. Contact the Student Life Center for an updated list of student organizations. Student organization mailboxes and offices are located on the 3rd floor of the Student Center in the Activity Area. The Activity Area also contains a copy machine and a fax machine for use by student organizations.

To be eligible to participate in any campus club or organization, a student must be enrolled in classes and have paid fees. The criteria for eligibility or participation will vary depending upon the nature of the organization. Honor societies, for example, have particular grade and/or class requirements for membership. Fraternities and sororities have particular selective membership requirements. Other clubs and organizations are open to all students who meet the individual group requirements.

In order to hold an office in a club or organization, a student must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0 and must maintain this average while holding office; must be enrolled for a minimum of six credit hours while holding office; and must not be on disciplinary probation. Each club or organization has the right to set higher standards for participation and/or leadership if it so desires.

Kennesaw Activities Board (KAB)

The Kennesaw Activities Board (KAB) offers a wide range of activities for the entire university community including: coffeehouses with popular entertainment (comedians and musicians); The Chautauqua lecture series; family film days (in collaboration with the Lifelong Learning Center); KSU Day; and Homecoming. KAB also coordinates CineKAB, a movie rental service on campus. Students who are interested in becoming active members of KAB can call 770/423-6279 or drop by the KAB office located in the Student Center, room 375.

Student Government (SG)

Student Government (SG) serves to represent the student interests to the KSU administration. SG is the student's voice, and SG meetings are open to all students. All enrolled students are considered members of SG and are encouraged to attend meetings, participate on committees, vote in elections and referendums, and seek out an SG officer to voice concerns. The SG office is located in the Student Center, room 374.

SG officers include the president, executive vice-president, secretary/treasurer, along with six secretaries (appointed by the president) and senators (two from each college of the university, three at-large, one non-traditional, one traditional, one undergraduate, one graduate, one international, one disabled, an American minority, a student athlete and two freshmen). Elections for these positions (with the exception of the freshmen senators) are conducted each spring; however, opportunities are usually available for involvement each semester. Students who wish to run for an office should contact either the SG office at 770-423-6276 or the Student Life Center at 770-423-6280.

Intramural and Recreation Services

Participating in intramural & recreation programs can be one of the most fun and memorable experiences here at Kennesaw State. From flag football to table tennis, the activity schedule offers something for everybody. The programs provide an opportunity to socialize, develop positive fitness practices, cultivate a connection to the university, and just have fun. Program schedules and facility hours are available at the beginning of each semester. Additionally, a semester program guide listing events gives you an opportunity to plan the activities you wish to participate in.

The recreation facilities on campus comprise the Student Recreation & Wellness Center, sand volleyball court, tennis courts, and intramural field. The Student Recreation & Wellness Center has two floors dedicated to fitness equipment, a gymnasium, equipment checkout desk, XP Power Performance room, group fitness studio, club sports office, locker rooms, the Wellness Center and the Intramural & Recreation Services (IRS) office. The facilities schedule is available at the front desk of the SRWC and the IRS web page (www.ksuintramurals.com). Students may also call the facilities hotline at 770-420-4393 to hear a 24-hour recording of the Rec Center's operating hours.

In addition to the many activities, Intramural & Recreation Services also employs a number of students for various jobs. Student staff positions range from an office assistant to a sport official. There are many benefits to working; for example, registering early for classes, keeping your parking space between classes and earning extra money while on campus.

IRS programs offer competitive sports, informal recreation, fitness activities including group exercise classes and personal training, equipment checkout, outdoor recreation activities, and special events. All you need to begin participating is a valid KSU ID and a completed waiver/release form. During your time at KSU, we ask that you allow Intramural & Recreation Services to be part of your college experience. For more information, stop by the Intramural & Recreation Services office located in room 129 of the Student Recreation & Wellness Center or call our office at 770-423-6913.

Center for Student Leadership (CSL)

The Center for Student Leadership (CSL) was created to develop strategies, foster academic/SSES partnerships, and launch programs that work to identify, develop and sustain the leadership of students and graduates of Kennesaw State University. The CSL focuses on providing students resources, training and programs that enhance their leadership skills and abilities. The CSL functions under three dimensions of development: leadership programs, civic engagement, and scholarship and research.

Leadership Programs

Leadership programs incorporate varied civic engagement experiences to encourage the development of skills and knowledge through reflection, in an environment where students empower themselves to lead lives congruent with ethical leadership.

Civic Engagement

Civic engagement experiences promote a lifestyle congruent with ethical leadership by providing practical opportunities for students to deepen understanding, take action, and reflect on community issues of concern.

Engaged Research and Scholarship

Engaged Research and Scholarship is a holistic approach to learning that blends academic achievement, mentoring and engaged actions that contribute a measured positive change in society and promotes a student's personal growth.

CSL Mission

The Center for Student Leadership offers opportunities for leadership development, action research, and civic engagement to encourage students to embrace life-long leadership.

CSL Vision

Students participating in CSL programs will be life-long, reflective leaders, actively engaged in improving their communities.

CSL Philosophy

Leadership is a lifestyle. It is a reflective, purposeful process, grounded in congruence, driven by collaborative relationships, promoting positive change.

CSL Student Leadership Programs

Leaders IN Kennesaw (LINK): A signature leadership experience sponsored by the Center for Student Leadership (CSL). A multi-tiered student leadership development experience, LINK provides KSU students with comprehensive ethical leadership education and practical service application.

Endorsed by the RTM Institute for Leadership, Ethics, & Character (ILEC), LINK is an educational, experiential program designed to:

- develop ethical leadership skills and knowledge,
- promote student success, and
- enhance the holistic development of students.

Hallmarks of LINK are service leadership projects, an electronic portfolio, and competency-based assessment (by self and others) of skill and knowledge application.

Students in LINK progress through three phases of leadership development. LINK-Emerge, LINK-Ascend and LINK-Leads. Upon completion of the three-tiered program, students will be awarded an Ethical Leadership Certificate.

Center for Student Leadership (CSL) Fellows:

The CSL Fellows are selected each spring and serve as trustees for the CSL. While focused on the principles of knowledge-based decision making, these students contribute to the development of programs and services sponsored by the CSL.

Presidential Fellows: The Presidential Fellows Program for KSU juniors, seniors and graduate students, focuses students on the larger global community. The program raises awareness of the need to be civically engaged throughout life. Applications are accepted fall semester.

Northwest Crescent Leadership Alliance:

Made up of six colleges and universities in northwest Georgia, the northwest Crescent Leadership Alliance connects six students from each institution in leadership training. An initiative of the Institute for Leadership, Ethics & Character (ILEC), the program promotes civic engagement and connection with the northwest crescent of Georgia.

New Hope for Georgia Leadership Program:

The New Hope for Georgia program at KSU, developed by Dr. Betty Siegel, seeks to provide leadership education to all HOPE scholarship recipients. KSU sees the HOPE program not only as a scholarship, but as an investment in the long-term growth and development of our state. To ensure that our HOPE students become ethical leaders capable of functioning effectively in an increasingly complex world, our students will be provided comprehensive ethical leadership training.

The Nancy S. King/Rebecca S. Casey Women's Leadership Initiative:

Named for the women leaders who trailblazed the development of the Center for Student Leadership, the King/Casey Women's Leadership Initiative focuses on gender differences in leadership styles and connects first-year women with women leaders at KSU as well as the larger community. The program is held each March.

The Arts Leadership Initiative (ALI): The ALI targets KSU students seeking degrees in the College of the Arts. Students participate in an array of events intended to enhance and further develop leadership skills within the context of their discipline. Applications are accepted fall semester.

Residence Life

The Department of Residence Life provides Campus housing is provided through a public-private partnership between the university and the KSU Foundation. Residential support services are provided through the KSU Department of Residence Life, and all leasing and facility matters are handled by a private management company owned by the KSU Foundation called KSUF Housing Management LLC (or 'KSU Housing' for short). Kennesaw State University began offering on-campus housing in the fall of 2002. There are 3044 rooms available in four residential communities serving different student populations: University Village Suites (all freshmen), University Village (primarily sophomore and freshmen, and Honors housing), University Place (all upperclass), and KSU Place (designated buildings for both freshmen and upperclass). All units offer private bedrooms including cable, Internet, furnishing, and utilities. About half the units offer private bathrooms and half offer shared bathrooms between two bedrooms. All apartments include a full-kitchen, and most apartments include a washer and dryer in the unit. Each community offers unique amenities, such as social lounges, study rooms, classrooms, retail stores and food service, and health clinic. The Residence Life main office is located in the University Village Suites, terrace level of the 3000 building, suite 3051.

For more information visit <http://www.kennesaw.edu/residencelife>, email reslife@kennesaw.edu, or call the KSU Department of Residence Life at 770-420-4388. Private management information is available at www.ksuhousing.com, leasing@ksuhousing.com, or 770-426-0668.

Student Services Fees

Upon registering, each student pays a student services fee of $258. Of this amount, $144 goes to the intercollegiate athletics program, $72 to student activities, and $42 to the Student Recreation and Wellness Center. Student activity funds support a variety of programs, activities and organizations to provide all students with opportunities to develop leadership skills, form social networks, maintain a healthy mind and body, and enjoy a variety of entertainment. Activities supported by student fees include student publications, intramural activities, indoor recreation, campus activities board programs, student government programs, performing arts, clubs, organizations, student leadership training programs, the Center for Health Promotion & Wellness and the Lifelong Learning Center. Because student fees help to pay for these activities, students receive publications at no additional cost and can participate in workshops, seminars, entertainment and other activities usually at no additional cost.

Student activity fees go into the student activities budget, which is handled by the Budget Office under the ultimate authority of the assistant vice president for financial services. Expenditures are supervised by the vice president for student success and enrollment services. Authority for yearly allocations has been delegated by the president of the university to the vice president for student success and enrollment services, who acts on the advice of the Student Activities and Budget Advisory Committee (SABAC). The committee meets during spring semester to plan the next fiscal year's budget. During the year, it considers deviations from the budget that occur as a result of changes in the university's financial situation or as a result of changes in situations affecting organizations or programs funded by student fees. The student activities budget begins with SABAC, which solicits budget requests from funded organizations and holds hearings to consider whether each organization should be given the amount requested. Hearings are open to the public. Students are welcome to attend and voice their opinions about the allocation of the funds.

Other Student Services

Campus Bookstore

Used and new textbooks, supplies, reference materials, and study aids as well as academically-priced software are available in the KSU campus bookstore. The exact cost of required books and peripheral items will vary depending on courses; a full load semester cost is approximately $500. All books and supplies can be bought online. The KSU campus bookstore buys back textbooks throughout the year; the best prices will be received during finals week at the end of each term.

Textbook refunds are generally 100% refundable within the first three days from the date of purchase. After that, books will only be considered for a full refund if you drop the course during the first two weeks of classes. If you drop the class, you must provide proof of your course drop along with your original sales receipt. New textbook packages must be intact for treatment as a new book versus a used book. Access codes and software must be unopened.

The Bookstore also offers all spirit wear and mementos, graduation items & gifts, reference and trade books, as well as snacks. Bookstore hours during the semesters are:

Monday – Thursday	7:30 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.
Friday	7:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
Saturday	9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Limited hours are maintained when classes are not in session. Please check the Web site at <http://bookstore.kennesaw.edu/> for more information or to order online. Call the Customer Service line at 770-423-6261 if you have any questions.

Food Services

The University provides retail food services under an agreement with Sodexo Campus Services. Dining venues are located in the Carmichael Student Center food court, the Burruss Building, and the Social Sciences Building. In the student center, you will find national brands such as Chick – fil – A, Krystal, Krispy Kreme Donuts, Freshens, & Starbuck’s coffee.

Other dining options include a hot line (offering seasonal meals), a deli serving salad plates & sandwiches made to order, Asian cuisine, and pizza by the slice, as well as “grab ‘n go” items such as yogurt parfaits, hummus and pita, crudité’s of vegetables, fruit (whole & cut up), pastries, cereals, and a large assortment of pre-made salads and sandwiches.

During the Fall and Spring semesters, the student center food court is open Monday – Thursday from 7:30 a.m. – 8:00 p.m. and Fridays from 7:30 am – 2:00 p.m.; closed Saturday and Sunday. The Midnite Owl (Freshens, Starbuck’s, and grab ‘n go items) remains open until 8:30 p.m. on Monday - Thursday.

Einstein Bros. Bagels offers full service in the Burruss Building where bagels are baked fresh daily. Operating hours are from Monday – Thursday 7:30 a.m. – 8:00 p.m. and Friday 7:30 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.; Saturday 7:30 to 1:00; closed Sunday. You can also find these bagels in the Carmichael Student Center food court.

Jazzman’s which features coffee drinks, teas, smoothies, and grab ‘n go soups, salads, & sandwiches, is located in the Social Sciences Building. Pastries are baked fresh daily on the premises. Hours are Monday – Thursday; 7:30 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.; Friday 7:30 am - 3:00 p.m.; closed Saturday and Sunday.

Students may deposit funds on their KSU ID cards to use for food purchases. This can be accomplished at the K-Cash Terminals located around campus (Student Center near the Bursar’s office, Sturgis Library, 4th floor Burruss, 3rd floor Social Sciences, 1st floor Science, 2nd floor English, and 2nd floor Bagwell). You may also manage your account online (add funds, see transactions, suspend use) at <https://kcashmanager.kennesaw.edu>.

Campus dining locations are subject to operating hours when classes are in session. Summer hours are somewhat reduced and there is no Saturday service due to lower demand. Please see our website at <http://www.kennesaw.edu/dining>, check out the signs at each venue or call 770-499-3171 for more information, menus, and hours of operation as well as catering options.

Center for Health Promotion & Wellness

The Center for Health Promotion and Wellness, housed in the WellStar College of Health and Human Services, encourages students and employees to assume more responsibility for their health and wellbeing through awareness and education. Our primary goal is to enhance and provide a balance in the intellectual, emotional, physical, social, environmental, and spiritual development of the whole person. We also strive to provide an environment that supports positive health practices. Programming focuses on helping students and employees reduce lifestyle risk factors. The Center also serves as a learning center for future exercise and health science students.

The Center for Health Promotion and Wellness, located in room 131 of the Student Recreation and Wellness Center, promotes wellness through a variety of avenues including:

- Special events: Learn-Over-Lunches, health fairs, guest speakers, health screenings, CPR classes, eating disorders awareness week, national collegiate alcohol awareness week, and the Great American Smokeout.
- Wellness Works, KSU Employee Fitness Center: Open to KSU employees and their family members. The Center is located at the KSU Center, Suite 475, and offers the following for a small monthly fee: monthly newsletters, aerobic equipment, free weights, weight machines, and group fitness classes. These classes include Pilates, Step Aerobics, Jazzercise, Cycling, and Cardio-Kickboxing. To join or for more information, please call 770-423-6770, or visit www.kennesaw.edu/col_hhs/wellness/Wellness_Works.htm.
- Peer Health Education: Peer Health Educators (PHEs) are student volunteers who are trained and certified in developing, implementing, and evaluating fun, interactive wellness programs for fellow students. Peer Health Educators help make the campus healthier, safer, and more enjoyable. Request a PHE today for your group or organization.
- Nutrition Services: Students can meet with a registered and licensed dietitian for an assessment of their current eating habits, challenges, lifestyle, medical conditions, and overall nutritional needs. Students will receive expert advice for losing weight, gaining weight, managing eating disorders, controlling health conditions such as diabetes and high blood pressure, and much more!

- Health Assessments: Check out your current level of health by having your blood pressure, heart rate, hearing, vision, body mass index, weight, and height checked.
- Fitness Assessments: How is your fitness level? We offer MicroFit computerized fitness evaluations for cardiovascular endurance, body composition, muscular strength, and flexibility. The computerized testing allows for pre and post test comparisons.
- Educational Materials: The Wellness Resource Center contains videos and DVDs, books, magazines, journals, newsletters, and brochures on a variety of health and wellness topics. The Center also has computer programs where you can analyze your diet, assess your stress level, look up prescription drug information, and get healthy cooking tips and recipes. Hours are M-Th 9-6, Fri. 9-5 and Saturdays by appointment. For more information call 7/423-6394 or visit our website at www.kennesaw.edu/wellness.

Kennesaw State University Health Clinic

The KSU Health Clinics serve students of Kennesaw State University by encouraging health promotion, disease treatment, and prevention. Certified nurse practitioners and physicians provide services including a full range of primary care services, adult immunizations, travel health, women's health, laboratory testing, and acute and chronic illness care. Medical information is confidential and will not be released without the patient's written consent except as required by law or in event of an immediate life-threatening medical condition.

The Health Clinics are located at:
 Walk-in Clinic:
 Ground floor of Univeristy Village.
 Appointment Clinic:
 House #52 on Campus Loop Road

The Health Clinics are closed on scheduled school holidays and hours limited during semester breaks.

Kennesaw State University being a nonresidential university, does not assume responsibility for the overall health and physical well-being of its students. The university does assume, however, a reasonable degree of responsibility for the safety and welfare of its student body by encouraging students to participate in a nominally priced accident and sickness insurance plan and maintaining adequately equipped first-aid stations at strategic locations on campus.

If an individual becomes seriously ill or involved in an accident requiring medical attention, the KSU police should be contacted by dialing ext. 6666. There are police officers who are trained in C.P.R. and State-certified First Responders on duty during all normal office and class hours. Comprehensive medical facilities are reasonably accessible to the campus. If it becomes necessary to seek medical attention beyond minor first-aid treatment, the following steps will be taken:

1. If the student is conscious and alert and wants an ambulance to be called, the attending officer will comply with the request;
2. If the student is unconscious, he/she will be treated and transported to the hospital by ambulance. The attending officer will call the ambulance at the individual's expense to transport him/her to the nearest emergency room.
3. In the case of injury to students participating in sanctioned intercollegiate athletic activities, the university will assume responsibility for the expense of the ambulance;

4. Every reasonable effort will be made to contact parents, spouse, or next of kin to inform them of the situation.

No student with a contagious disease may attend classes. Every student is held individually responsible for adhering to this regulation. Any student who needs special consideration because of any physical disability—either permanent or temporary—should have the attending physician write an explanatory letter to the vice president for student success and enrollment services giving full details of the disability and any desired limitations or special considerations requested.

KSU Card Services Center

The Card Services Center at KSU issues the official university ID, Parking Decals, and Keys. In addition, they manage the KSU Debit Card Program and the KSU Mall. All services require an in-person visit to our office in Suite 219 of the Carmichael Student Center. The Card Center hours of operation normally match those of the Financial Aid, the Registrar and the Bursar, but please contact us if you need service outside this time frame. The Card Center will notify campus via the KSU-furnished email when semester services begin.

First time services to students and employees are often free (e.g. IDs and Parking Decals). Replacement services are usually subject to fees. Please be prepared to present a valid government-issued document that includes a photo (e.g. driver's license or passport) for identity verification. New regulations of the Patriot Act require KSU to make a copy of the document used to validate identity. For your protection, this copy will be stored off-site.

Identification Cards

All enrolled students at Kennesaw State University are required to carry an official KSU Identification Card. The Card Services Center produces this card on campus in Room 219 of the Carmichael Student Center. The KSU ID card is honored across campus: for photo identification; in security applications; for access to events, activities and resources; and for selected retail services. Card applicants must agree to an un-obstructed facial photo. All students must be prepared to present their KSU ID Card to University officials upon request.

KSU Debit Card

KSU has partnered with an internet bank to distribute funds through the KSU Debit Card Program. The KSU Debit Card program gives students the option to receive funds electronically either through direct deposit to a checking/debit account with our distribution bank or by ACH to a third-party bank. Students may still opt for a paper check but are encouraged to instead choose electronic distribution to receive their funds quicker. Students are not required to open an account with our partner bank but must use the card provided to setup their media choice online.

Parking Decals

All vehicles on campus must display a valid KSU Parking Decal. Vehicles without a valid decal will be ticketed and/or booted. New students and employees must pickup their parking decal in-person. New decals are issued annually only to campus residential students. All other parking decals are valid for the duration of your official status with KSU. One day passes are available as appropriate. Parking decals must be picked up in person at the Card Services Center. It is the responsibility of all KSU employees and students to review and abide by the Kennesaw State University Parking Policies and Procedures available online at <http://www.kennesaw.edu/parking>.

KSU Mall

The KSU Mall is a web-based shopping cart application that is appropriate for sales of goods and services offered by internal departments to the general public. Current offerings may be viewed by selecting the KSU Mall Quick Link from the KSU public website at www.kennesaw.edu. Contact the Card Services Center for more information.

Notice for New Students: The services listed here are reserved for registered students and Orientation attendees.

Notice for New Hires: The services listed here require that your information be appropriately entered into the KSU enterprise database(s). Please follow the instructions found online at <http://www.kennesaw.edu/hr/newhires/> to verify service eligibility.

Please visit, call (770.499.3436) or email the Card Services Center (idservices@kennesaw.edu) for details on any of these programs. Information is also available on our Web site at <http://www.kennesaw.edu/idservices/>

Print & Copy Services

Printing & Making Copies at Kennesaw State University is very easy. Here's how it works.

When you receive your KSU ID card at the Card Services office, you will note that it has a "mag stripe" on the back just like a debit card. The data encoded on your card enables the KSU system to know which account to access for billing. You must put money into your account before you can use your card to make copies or to print jobs from any of the computer labs. You add cash to your account at any of the K-Cash machines located around campus. Just follow the instructions on the K-Cash device. They are located in the following locations:

- ITS Computer Lab Area – 4th floor Burruss Building
- Kennesaw Hall – 2nd floor Education Wing
- Library – Copy Room
- Science Building – 1st floor vending area
- Carmichael Student Center – 2nd floor hallway
- Humanities – 1st floor hallway
- Social Sciences - 3rd floor hallway

You can also add money to your account via the K-Cash Manager Web site by using your KSU NetID and PWD to log in to: <https://kcashmanager.kennesaw.edu>. This site will also let you review recent transactions and temporarily disable your card should you misplace it. Parents can add value via this interface as well. All they need to know is your NetID. If you choose to give them your password they will have access to all the other features of the site as well.

To make a copy, just swipe your ID card through the device attached to the copier. Follow the instructions on the swipe device and the system will determine whether you have sufficient funds for the job that is submitted. Be sure to press clear "CLR" when your job is complete so that someone else doesn't end up using your account.

To print, you can send jobs from the various labs around campus or from the Cyber Café located in the Student Center Food Court. Most labs have printers inside or just outside the lab. Detailed instructions on how to use the print function are posted in the Labs you use for your classes.

If you don't have your ID card with you, simply purchase a Guest Card at any of the K-Cash machines. Guest Cards work just like your ID card for printing or copying.

Call 678-797-2200 or extension 2200 from a campus phone to ask questions about these services or when you encounter any problems.

Additional information may be found on the KSU web site at <http://www.kennesaw.edu/copyprint/>.

Intercollegiate Athletics

Initiated in the fall of 1982, KSU's intercollegiate sports program is a member of the Atlantic Sun Conference (A-Sun) and Division I of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). The A-Sun's membership includes: Belmont, Campbell, East Tennessee, Florida Gulf Coast, Jacksonville, KSU, Lipscomb, Mercer, North Florida, Stetson and USC Upstate. The Fighting Owls currently sponsor seven sports for men (baseball, basketball, cross-country, golf, indoor track, outdoor track and tennis) and nine for women (basketball, cross-country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, indoor track, outdoor track and volleyball). Varsity cheer and dance are also part of both the men's and women's basketball programs and compete for their respective national championships each year.

Students receive free admission, with a valid ID, to all of KSU's home contests and are encouraged to become involved as either a team participant through a tryout, an athletic staff member, or a regular spectator.

Sports Clubs

Club Sports at Kennesaw State University are designed to provide opportunities for students of the university community to participate in a variety of sports and recreational activities. Club Sports are organized and conducted by students under the direction of the Campus Intramural and Recreation Services Department. A Club Sport must be active and approved through the Club Sports office. Each club is formed by individuals with a common interest in a sport or activity that exists to promote and develop interest in that particular activity. Clubs may be instructional, recreational, competitive, or some combination thereof. Characterized by being student-initiated and student-managed, the basic structure of clubs allow members numerous opportunities for leadership and decision-making. The actual success and strength of each club is dependent on effective leadership of the officers and the degree of involvement of its club members.

Kennesaw State University currently has the following clubs: Cricket, Cycling, Ice Hockey, Roller Hockey, Men's and Women's Lacrosse, Rugby, Men's Soccer, Ultimate Frisbee, Wakeboarding, and Wrestling. New Clubs are regularly added based on current student interest and desire to facilitate the process. All participants in the Club Sport teams must be KSU students and maintain a MINIMUM 2.0 GPA and be in good academic standing. Club Sports offer students the opportunity to meet new people, stay fit, be involved at KSU and build life long friendships.

KSU Club Sports compete against other local and regional team that might include UGA, GT, Emory, Duke, Clemson, Alabama, Mercer, Auburn, Georgia Southern, UT and many more road trips. Get involved! College is what you make of it!

The club's participants must meet any financial obligations, including insurance and playing expenses.

Please visit www.ksuclubsports.com to get additional information or contacts for individual teams.

Kennesaw State University Alumni Association (KSUAA)

Chartered in 1978, the Kennesaw State University Alumni Association, Inc. is a nonprofit, educational corporation. The association places particular emphasis on and concentrates the majority of its energies and resources toward providing programs and services for alumni, fostering institutional pride, developing and enhancing KSU's public image and meeting needs by raising and administering funds for educational purposes at Kennesaw State University. The affairs of the association are guided by a 22-member board of directors including a seven-member executive committee. Each at-large director serves for a term of three years.

The Alumni Association collaborates with the University in a number of ways. Kennesaw State University employs a full-time staff, including a director, to support the association and direct Alumni Affairs' programs and activities. The Association and Office are responsible for all outreach to KSU alumni, i.e. anyone who successfully matriculated through one semester at KSU or one of its predecessors (Kennesaw State College, Kennesaw College, or Kennesaw Junior College). The Association does not charge membership dues but rather encourages alumni to support the University financially, which then designates the individual as an active alumnus.

To learn more, visit the Association's Web site at www.kennesaw.edu/alumni, or contact the alumni office at 770-423-6333.

Student Activities & Budget Advisory Committee

The Student Activities & Budget Advisory Committee (SABAC) serves as an advisory group to university administration concerning student activity funds. It also approves applications for new campus organizations as well as updates to constitutions for existing organizations.

Membership of the Student Activities and Budget Advisory Committee includes representatives of the administration, staff, faculty and students.

Student members are appointed annually. Students are invited to apply for appointment to this committee. For more information contact the Student Life Center at 770-423-6280.

Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities

Preface

Students of Kennesaw State University are guaranteed all of the rights, privileges and freedoms granted to a citizen of the United States. In addition, they are entitled to an environment that is conducive to learning and individual growth. To this end, students enrolling at Kennesaw State University assume a responsibility to abide by the policies and regulations expressed in this Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities. By doing so, students may fulfill their responsibilities and enjoy the exercise of their own rights while also respecting the rights of others.

Interpersonal Relations and Non-Discrimination Position Statements and Policies

Kennesaw State University, a member of the University System of Georgia, does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, age, sex, national origin, disability, or sexual orientation in employment or provision of services.

Intellectual Diversity and Interpersonal Relations Position Statement

Kennesaw State University is an educational community comprised of individuals from different ethnic, racial and religious groups and of different genders, political beliefs, ages, abilities and sexual orientations. In light of this diversity, Kennesaw State University is resolved to contribute to the development of an integrated, pluralistic society in which individuals model and support humaneness and respect for the individual.

Kennesaw State University is committed to a diversity of intellectual viewpoints. We trust in a genuine free marketplace of ideas where faculty and students are encouraged to express their considered opinions openly. We further believe that this intellectual exchange is healthy, democratic, and produces new insights. The exchange of ideas is also a splendid means of encouraging “critical thinking” as long as it is conducted within an atmosphere that respects the dignity of all concerned.

The University is also committed to providing quality education, which is enhanced by the perspectives provided by individuals and groups with varying backgrounds and views. Racism, sexism and other discriminatory attitudes and behaviors impede learning and working. Conversely, respect for differences enhances educational and work experiences. Kennesaw State University is dedicated to creating an environment that cherishes and nourishes this diversity.

KSU Diversity Vision Statement

It is our vision to create a strong multicultural and diverse educational environment at KSU in order to increase student satisfaction and to promote an understanding and awareness of people from various backgrounds upon graduation. In this way, KSU students will be educated for, and can effectively compete in the global society.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)

Kennesaw State University does not discriminate on the basis of disability in the admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its programs or activities.

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Public Law 101-336, gives civil rights protections to individuals with disabilities. This statute guarantees equal opportunity for this protected group in the areas of public accommodations, employment, transportation, state and local government services and telecommunications.

Qualified individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply for employment opportunities with the University. Individuals with disabilities who require reasonable accommodation to participate in any portion of the application, interview and/or testing process must advise the University's Department of Human Resources in advance. Upon request, applicants must provide documentation confirming a disability and the need for an accommodation. Advance requests for reasonable accommodation(s) should be directed to the Director of Human Resources. The office telephone number is (770) 423-6030 V/TDD. The FAX number is (770) 423-6570. The Web address for employment opportunities is <http://www.kennesaw.edu/hr>

The following individuals have been designated by the President of the University to provide assistance and ensure compliance with the ADA. Should you require assistance or have further questions about the ADA, please contact either the ADA Compliance Officer for Students at (770) 423-6443; the ADA Compliance Officer for Facilities at (770) 423-6224; or the Director of Human Resources, ADA Compliance Officer for staff and faculty at (770) 423-6030.

Kennesaw State University Policy on Accessibility in Facilities, Programs and Employment

Kennesaw State University is committed to providing accessibility to all individuals, regardless of disability. As a recipient of federal funds, KSU has maintained compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 in providing accessibility to programs and services for students with disabilities. The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 has expanded the accessibility requirements to include employment, public accommodations and telecommunications accessibility.

The University's ADA response team includes the Director of Human Resources, the Director of Plant Operations, and the Assistant Director for Disabled Student Services. The team has promoted compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act through training of supervisors in hiring and employment practices, conducting a campus facilities survey to determine physical accessibility and purchasing, and placement of telecommunication devices for the deaf in primary offices around campus. Students who require accommodation in facilities, services, or programs should contact the Assistant Director for Disabled Student Services to arrange an individual assistance plan.

Accommodation may include classroom accessibility, modified computer equipment, handicap parking, assistance with note-taking, sign language interpreting services, class materials in alternate format, library and laboratory assistance, and other accommodations. Determination of appropriate accommodations to be provided will be based upon documentation of the extent of disability.

Offices which may be contacted by means of a telecommunication device for the deaf (TDD) include Admissions, Registrar, CAPS Center, Continuing Education, Sturgis Library, Bursar's office, Human Resources, Public Safety, the disabled student support services office and the central operator.

Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS) Policy

Kennesaw State University shall provide academic programs, support services, and social /recreational programs to all eligible individuals, regardless of their disability. In the event that an employee or student is (or becomes) HIV (human immunodeficiency virus) positive, that individual shall retain his/her right to these programs, services and activities. All actions taken by Kennesaw State University will comply with the laws pertaining to public health practices and the rights of individuals to privacy and confidentiality. Instances that arise will be handled individually to provide maximum support to any member of the faculty, the administration, the staff or the student body who is HIV positive.

Sexual Harassment

Kennesaw State University follows the established policy on sexual harassment of the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia. That policy (802-18 in the Regents' Policy Manual) is as follows: Federal law provides that it shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for any employer, because of the sex of any person, to discharge without cause, to refuse to hire, or otherwise discriminate against any person with respect to any matter directly or indirectly related to employment or academic standing. Harassment of an employee on the basis of sex violates this federal law. Sexual harassment of employees or students in the University System is prohibited and shall subject the offender to dismissal or other sanctions after compliance with procedural due process. Unwelcome sexual advancements, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment. Sexual harassment can occur in situations where one person has power over another, but it can also occur between equals. Both men and women can be sexually harassed, though women are most often victimized. A relationship between a faculty member and a student should be considered one of professional and client in which sexual relationships are inappropriate.

Procedures for Handling Complaints of Sexual Harassment

Informal Resolution

Early efforts to control a potential harassment situation are very important. Sometimes an individual can stop sexual harassment by telling the person directly that he/she is uncomfortable with the person's behavior and would like it to stop. Writing a letter to the person can also be effective.

Formal Complaints and Grievances

Formal complaints of sexual harassment by students against faculty or staff will be resolved according to established grievance procedures (see Grievance Procedures for Students- Grievance Procedure for Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation in this catalog). Sexual harassment is a form of sexual discrimination. A formal complaint of sexual harassment by one student against another student will be resolved through the student judiciary process (contact the director of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity at 770-499-3403).

President's Statement on Sexual Harassment

"The mission of Kennesaw State University is to provide a learning environment in which all members of the University community are free to pursue their professional and personal goals. Sexual harassment is not only illegal, but an intolerable interference with the attainment of our mutual goals. Unwelcome sexual advances and conduct seriously damage the learning and work climate, and it is the University's intention to protect our environment from such abuses. Resolution of complaints of sexually harassing behavior should be attained as informally as possible, but in the absence of that cooperation, we will enforce our policies to the fullest, up to and including dismissal."

KSU Freedom of Assembly and Expression

Kennesaw State University recognizes and upholds First Amendment Rights of Freedom of Speech and Assembly. Demonstrations and assemblies can be valid expressions for dissenting opinions provided they do not disrupt academic and administrative functions of the institution. The opinions expressed by organizations, groups or individuals using Kennesaw State University's facilities do not necessarily reflect the position of Kennesaw State University. Kennesaw State University affirms its commitment to the freedom of speech, assembly and expression even though the language or ideas of those seeking a venue for free expression may contradict university ideals and policies or the personal views of university employees and students. The institution expects members of the faculty, staff, and student body to refrain from, and discourage, behaviors that threaten the rights, freedoms and respect every individual deserves.

Administrative procedures and guidelines pertaining to Freedom of Assembly and Expression are detailed in the KSU Student Handbook.

Rights Pertaining to Student Records

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These rights include:

- (1) The right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the University receives a request for access. A student should submit to the registrar, dean, head of the academic department, or other appropriate official, a written request that identifies the record(s) the student wishes to inspect. The University official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the University official to whom the request was submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.
- (2) The right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes are inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student's privacy rights under FERPA. A student who wishes to ask the University to amend a record should write the University official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record the student wants changed, and specify why it should be changed. If the University decides not to amend the record as requested, the University will notify the student in writing of the decision and the student's right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.
- (3) The right to provide written consent before the University discloses personally identifiable information from the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. The University discloses education records without a student's prior written consent under the FERPA exception for disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the University in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health staff); a person or company with whom the University has contracted as its agent to provide a service instead of using University employees or officials (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks. A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibilities for the University.

Note: Directory information may be released by the university without the student's written consent. Directory information consists of name, address, telephone number, major, advisor, holds, participation in recognized activities and sports, weight and height of athletic participants, dates of attendance and degrees received. Students may deny the release of directory information by requesting in writing to the registrar that such information not be released each semester they are enrolled. However, requests that directory information be withheld from a written publication must be received in sufficient time to prevent a delay in processing that publication.

- (4) The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the University to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the Office that administers FERPA is:

Family Policy Compliance Office
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW
Washington, DC 20202-5901

Student Code of Conduct

I. Preamble

Students of Kennesaw State University are guaranteed all of the rights, privileges and freedoms granted to a citizen of the United States. In addition, they are entitled to an environment that is conducive to learning and individual growth. To this end, students enrolling at Kennesaw State University assume a responsibility to abide by the University's student conduct regulations, just as they assume a citizen's responsibility to abide by federal, state and local laws. Violation of statutory laws or of the University student conduct regulations or specific departmental rules may lead to disciplinary action(s) by Kennesaw State University. By adhering to these policies and regulations students can fulfill their responsibilities and enjoy the exercise of their own rights while also respecting the rights of others.

II. Academic Honesty

The high quality of education at Kennesaw State University is reflected in the credits and degrees its students earn. The protection of these high standards is crucial since the validity and equity of the University's grades and degrees depend upon it. Any student found to have violated any KSU academic honesty regulation after a hearing before a University court panel or before the Vice President for Student Success and Enrollment Services (or his/her designee) shall be suspended for at least one semester, unless the student persuades the deciding body that the circumstances of his or her behavior substantially mitigate the gravity of the violation. These regulations are designed to assist students in (1) developing appropriate attitudes about, and (2) understanding and following the university's standards relating to academic honesty. The regulations protect students by helping them avoid committing infractions that may compromise the completion of their KSU degrees or damage their reputations.

A. Plagiarism and Cheating

No student shall receive, attempt to receive, knowingly give or attempt to give unauthorized assistance in the preparation of any work required to be submitted for credit as part of a course (including examinations, laboratory reports, essays, themes, term papers, etc.). When direct quotations are used, they should be indicated, and when the ideas, theories, data, figures, graphs, programs, electronic based information or illustrations of someone other than the student are incorporated into a paper or used in a project, they should be duly acknowledged.

B. Unauthorized Access to Official University Materials

No student shall take or attempt to take, steal or in any unauthorized manner otherwise procure, gain access to, alter or destroy any material pertaining to the conduct of a class (including tests, examinations, grade change forms, grade rolls, roll books, laboratory equipment, University grade records in written or computerized form, etc.).

C. Misrepresentation, Falsification of University Records or Academic Work

No student shall knowingly provide false information in completing university forms or applications (including admissions forms, scholarship applications, time sheets, use of false or counterfeit transcripts, etc.) or in any work submitted for credit as part of a course.

D. Malicious Removal, Retention, or Destruction of Library Materials

No student shall misplace, take, or destroy or attempt to misplace, take or destroy any item or part of an item belonging to or in the protection of the university library with the intention of bringing about an undue disadvantage in the classroom work of other Kennesaw State University students.

E. Malicious/Intentional Misuse of Computer Facilities and/or Services

The malicious or intentional misuse of computer facilities and services is prohibited. Violation of state and federal laws (including copyright violations, unauthorized access to systems, alteration/damage/destruction, or attempted alteration/damage/destruction, use for profit, etc.) or a department's rules for computer usage (including account violations, damage, or destruction of the system and/or its performance, unauthorized copying of electronic information, use of threatening or obscene language, etc.) is prohibited.

F. Student Identification Cards

- (1) Lending, selling, or otherwise transferring a student identification card is prohibited, as is the use of an identification card by anyone other than its original owner.
- (2) No student shall obtain under false pretenses any additional student identification cards.
- (3) A student must present proper credentials to properly identified university faculty and staff upon their request while these persons are in the performance of their duties.

G. Revisions of Academic Honesty Regulations

Any student, faculty member or administrator can initiate any revision of, additions to and deletions from these Academic Honesty Conduct Regulations. Recommendations shall be submitted to the vice president for student success and enrollment services. The vice president, in consultation with appropriate parties, shall ensure discussion on the proposed change. When all parties have had an opportunity to comment on the proposal, the vice president shall forward all recommendations to the university senate. The senate, in turn, shall send its recommendations with comments to the Kennesaw State University president and cabinet.

III. Disruption of Campus Life

It is the purpose of the institution to provide a campus environment which encourages academic accomplishment, personal growth, and a spirit of understanding and cooperation. An important part of maintaining such an environment is the commitment to protect the health and safety of every member of the campus community. Belligerent, abusive, profane, threatening and/or inappropriate behavior on the part of students is a violation of the Kennesaw State University Student Conduct Regulations. Students who are found responsible for such misconduct may be subject to immediate dismissal from the institution. In addition, university disciplinary proceedings may be instituted against a student charged with a violation of a law which is also a violation of this student code without regard to the pendency of civil litigation in court or criminal arrest and prosecution. Proceedings under this student code of conduct may be carried out prior to, simultaneously with, or following civil or criminal proceedings off-campus.

A. Disorderly Assembly

No students shall assemble on the campus for the purpose of creating a riot, or destructive or disorderly diversion, or obstructing or disrupting the normal operation of the university, including any teaching, administrative, disciplinary or public service activity, or any other activity authorized to take place on the campus.

B. Disruptive and Dangerous Conduct

No student shall act in a manner that can reasonably be expected to disturb the aca-demical pursuits of others or infringe upon the privacy, rights, or privileges of others, or the health or safety of him/herself or other persons.

C. Disruptive Speech

That speech is prohibited which: a) presents an immediate or imminent clear and present danger, b) is disruptive to the academic functioning of the institution, or c) constitutes a threat against an individual(s) such that it would provoke that individual(s) to imminent violent reaction.

D. Physical Attack

Physical attack on or in university property or at functions sponsored by the University or any registered university organization is prohibited.

E. Sexual Harassment/Assault

No student shall subject another person to unwelcome sexual overtures or conduct, either verbal or physical.

F. Theft or Damage of Personal Property

No student shall take, sell or attempt to take or sell, damage or destroy any items belonging to students, faculty, staff, guests of the university, or student groups without proper authorization. Nor shall any student make or attempt to make unauthorized use of the property of any other person or organization while on the KSU campus. Sale of a textbook or other item that is not one's own will be regarded as prima facie evidence of theft. Items should be turned in to a Lost and Found area.

G. Theft or Damage of University Property

The taking of or malicious, unwarranted, or irresponsible destruction or damaging of items of university property (including library items), items rented, leased, or placed on the campus at the request of the institution, or items belonging to the students, faculty, staff, guests of the university, or student groups or organizations is prohibited.

H. Possession of Weapons or Fireworks

Students are prohibited from possessing fireworks, firearms or other weapons on university property or at university sponsored events, except with the specific permission of the Department of Campus Safety and Security. Peace officers recognized by the State of Georgia are exempt from this firearms regulation.

I. Unauthorized Entry or Use of University Facilities

No student shall make or attempt to make unauthorized entry or use of any university building or facility including electronic data processing systems or personal electronic accounts/files. Upon appropriate notice by university officials, authorization for the use of University facilities can be withdrawn or otherwise restricted. The malicious or intentional misuse of computer facilities and services is prohibited. Violations of state and federal laws (including copyright violations, unauthorized access or systems, alteration/damage/destruction, or attempted alteration/damage/destruction, use for profit, etc.) or a department's rules for computer usage (including account violations, damage or destruction of the system and/or its performance, unauthorized copying of electronic information, use of threatening of obscene language, etc.) are prohibited.

J. Fire Safety and False Alarms

1. No student shall tamper with fire safety equipment.
2. No student shall set or cause to be set any unauthorized fire in or on University property.
3. No student shall make, or cause to be made, a false fire alarm or a false notification of the presence of a bomb.
4. All occupants of a building must leave the building when the fire alarm sounds or when directed to leave by properly identified University faculty or staff while these persons are in the performance of their duties.

K. Littering and Sanitation

1. No student shall dispose of trash and refuse of any kind except in proper trash receptacles.
2. Food and drink are prohibited in designated areas of the University, including classrooms.
3. No student shall in any way dispose of tobacco products in trash receptacles in or on University property.

L. Kennesaw State University Is a Smoke-Free Environment

Smoking is prohibited on KSU campus except in areas specifically designated for smoking.

M. Gambling Is Strictly Prohibited

N. Raffles

Raffles may be held by student organizations. Raffles will be treated as any other fund-raising activity and will be subject to fund-raising guidelines.

O. Advertising, Selling, and Fund-raising

No student or group of students acting in a representational capacity for Kennesaw State University shall carry out any form of sales (including bartering) or fund-raising events, or advertise sales or fund-raising events, without the authorization of the university president or a designated representative of the university president.

P. Campus Elections

No student shall carry out fraudulent and/or disruptive activity in connection with any election, referendum or poll conducted on the university campus.

Q. Shared Responsibility

Persons who knowingly act in concert to violate university regulations may be given joint responsibility for such violation. Students are responsible for their conduct on or in university property or at functions sponsored by the University or any registered university organization.

R. Residential Code of Conduct Violations

A violation of the residential code of conduct is also a violation of this student code of conduct. The procedures for a student to file a charge against another student for a violation of the residential code can be found in section XII (entitled Enforcement and Grievances) of the residential code of conduct.

IV. Financial Responsibility

A. Financial Responsibility

Students are required to meet all financial obligations to the university.

B. Use of Student Activities Funds

To use student activities funds, student organizations must follow guidelines set by the institution.

V. Use and Possession of Drugs, Including Alcohol

Use or possession of drugs (controlled substances) or both is prohibited.

- A. Kennesaw State University expressly prohibits the use, possession, sale or distribution of alcoholic beverages on campus by any campus constituency. Alcoholic beverages may be served at off-campus activities to adults of legal drinking age for the state in which the activity is being held, providing that a responsible organization representative acknowledges responsibility for monitoring alcohol consumption. Student activity funds or institutional funds may not be used for the purchase of alcoholic beverages. Kennesaw State University is committed to recognizing, upholding and enforcing the laws of the State of Georgia. Violation of those state laws shall not be condoned on the campus or at any activity held off campus by any constituency. Exceptions to the policy of no alcohol on campus may from time to time be permitted at the discretion of the president, and there are other limited exceptions to this policy within the residence halls by those over the age of 21. See section I of the residential code of conduct.
- B. All student organizations must submit an "Acknowledgment of Alcohol Policy" form to the vice president for student success and enrollment services during the first week of classes each fall semester and each time there is a change in either the president or advisor of the organization. By their signatures, the president and advisor are assuring Kennesaw State University that they and the individuals responsible for the group's social events understand the Kennesaw State University Alcohol Policy and state laws regarding the service and consumption of alcoholic beverages.
- C. Alcoholic beverages will be allowed only for functions at which alcohol is not the focal point, reason for, or the "drawing card" for the event. Organizations choosing to advertise the service of alcoholic beverages at functions will not make reference to the quantity of or overindulgence in alcoholic beverages. Reference will also be made to serving of food and alternative beverages, and the checking of driver's licenses.

- D. Any activity (especially those competitive in nature) contributing to the overindulgence of alcohol is, by these guidelines, prohibited.
- E. Any violation of this policy at any organization activity shall be reported to the vice president for student success and enrollment services by the designated monitor(s) verbally with 24 hours of returning to campus and followed by a written report within three working days. The Kennesaw State University police shall report any violation of this policy, whether at an activity or on an individual basis, to the vice president for student success and enrollment services, who shall then be responsible for disciplinary action according to established University non-academic disciplinary procedures. Possible sanctions shall be the same as those for other violations of non-academic University rules and regulations as provided for in the University Student Code of Conduct.

VI. Jurisdiction of the University Code of Conduct

Generally, KSU's jurisdiction and discipline shall be limited to conduct which occurs on university premises, university housing, and contiguous areas such as streets and sidewalks. Nevertheless, the university reserves the right to extend its jurisdiction and discipline to KSU students whose off-campus conduct violates the university's student code of conduct and adversely affects the KSU community or the pursuit of its objectives.

In addition, the following regulations apply to off-campus activities including outings or field trips for classes of Kennesaw State University, off-campus University athletic events, study abroad programs, co-ops, internships, or any officially sanctioned off-campus activity such as those under the auspices of a Kennesaw State University class, an officially recognized University organization, or a Kennesaw State University group or organization that is seeking official University recognition.

The following regulations apply to off-campus activities including outings or field trips for classes of Kennesaw State University, off-campus University athletic events, any officially sanctioned off-campus activity such as those under the auspices of a Kennesaw State University class, an officially recognized University organization, or a Kennesaw State University group or organization that is seeking official University recognition.

- A. Students involved in off-campus activities shall not act in a disorderly or disruptive fashion, nor shall they conduct any dangerous activity.
- B. Students involved in off-campus activities shall not take, damage, destroy or attempt to take, damage or destroy property of another.
- C. Use and possession of Drugs, including alcohol: Use and/or possession of drugs (controlled substances) is prohibited. Alcohol regulations appear in Section V of this code.

VII. Organizations

A student organization is subject to the authority of the Court in the following situations:

- An alleged offense was committed by one or more members of an organization, and was sanctioned by the officers.
- An alleged offense was committed by one or more members of an organization and organization funds were used to finance the venture.
- An alleged offense was committed by one or more members of an organization and was supported by a majority of the organization's membership.
- An organization has chosen to protect one or more individual offenders who were members or guests of the organization.
- The court, after hearing the case, deems that the offense, by its nature, was an organization offense and not the action(s) of the individual members.
- An alleged offense occurred as a result of an organization sponsored function.

A. Disorderly or Disruptive Assembly

Assembly for the purpose of or resulting in the disruption of normal university or community activity, or which obstructs the normal activities of university faculty or staff, is prohibited.

B. Use of Alcohol or Other Drugs

Use and/or possession of drugs (controlled substances) is prohibited. Alcohol regulations appear in Section V of this code.

C. Hazing

Hazing in any form is prohibited. Hazing is defined as follows: Any action taken, or situation intentionally created, on or off the premises of the university, to produce mental or physical discomfort, embarrassment, harassment, ridicule or suffering as a means to gain entry into an organization. These activities include, but are not necessarily restricted to, paddling in any form; creating excessive fatigue; physical or psychological shocks; wearing, in public, apparel that is conspicuous and not normally in good taste; engaging in public stunts and buffoonery; morally degrading or humiliating games and activities; and/or any other activities not consistent with the regulations of Kennesaw State University.

D. Theft and Disregard for Property

1. Unauthorized taking, attempted taking, or possession of items belonging to an individual, the university, the community, or another university or student organization is prohibited.
2. Unauthorized use or attempted use of service (e.g., telephone, computer services, etc.) belonging to the university, the community, another student organization, or an individual is prohibited.

E. Unauthorized Entry

Unauthorized entry, attempted entry, or use of university or community facilities is prohibited.

F. Fire Safety

Use of fireworks or creation of a fire without the specific permission of the KSU Police is prohibited.

G. Academic Honesty

Maintaining files of examinations, tests, reports, or term papers is prohibited.

H. Official Recognition

All student groups and organizations shall follow the appropriate procedures, as set forward by the Office of the vice president for student success and enrollment services, to become officially recognized Kennesaw State University student organizations.

I. Gambling Is Strictly ProhibitedJ. Raffles

Raffles may be held by student organizations. Raffles will be treated as any other fund-raising activity and will be subject to fund-raising guidelines.

K. Sales, Fund-raising and Advertising

Unauthorized selling of any kind (including bartering), unauthorized fund-raising, and unauthorized advertising of fund-raising or any other type of event is prohibited. Organizations shall follow the guidelines set down by the Office of the Vice President for Student Success and Enrollment Services for all such activities.

L. Proper Planning

Organizations shall be able to demonstrate that they have taken due measures to properly plan for any activities or events held on or off the university campus.

1. All such events and activities must be registered with and approved by the Office of the Vice President for Student Success and Enrollment Services for approval at least two weeks prior to holding the event.
2. Reasonable measures shall be taken to ensure appropriate parking, security, safety and sanitary procedures for any activity or event.
3. Organizations shall adhere to specified time limits for any activity or event.
4. Holding events or activities not sanctioned or approved by the Office of the Vice President for Student Success and Enrollment Services is prohibited.

M. Shared Responsibility

Student organizations are responsible at all times for organizational violations of the university student conduct regulations by their members or their guests. Organization members who knowingly act in concert to violate the regulations may be held jointly responsible with their organization for such violations. Organizations that knowingly condone, encourage, or require behavior that violates university regulations may be held jointly responsible for such violations.

VIII. Contempt and False Statements Under Oath

- A. All students shall fully comply with the instructions of the courts of the Kennesaw State University Judiciary.
- B. No student shall make a false statement while under oath in a university disciplinary hearing.
- C. No student shall disrupt the proceedings of the Kennesaw State University Judiciary, behave in a manner which is intended to lessen the authority or dignity of the Kennesaw State Judiciary, or otherwise obstruct justice on the campus.
- D. All students are expected to serve as witnesses when summoned by the Kennesaw State University Judiciary unless excused by the vice president of student success and enrollment services.

IX. Revisions of the KSU Code of Conduct excluding those pertaining to Academic Honesty

Any student, faculty member, or administrator can initiate any revisions, additions, or deletions from the Student Campus Code of Conduct Regulations. Recommendations shall be submitted to the acting student government president. The student government president shall ensure discussion on the proposed change in the student government senate. When the student government senate has decided on an official recommendation to comment on the proposal, the student government president shall forward all recommendations with comments to the vice president for student success and enrollment services no later than 90 days from the date of the initial proposal. In the event that 90 days should expire without a recommendation being given to the vice president for student success and enrollment services, the proposal shall be passed directly to the vice president's office for consideration and deliberation. The student government president, upon delivering the recommendation to the vice president's office, shall also forward copies to the director of student conduct and academic integrity and the chair of the university senate. The university senate shall be afforded the option of passing a motion from that body which either approves or disapproves of the entire recommended change, and this official motion shall be delivered to the president of the student government and the vice president for student success and enrollment services in a recommendation capacity. The university senate shall have no more than 40 days from which the chair is notified to approve said motion. The vice president, in turn, shall either accept or reject the student government's recommendations. If the recommendation is accepted, the vice president shall distribute the recommendation with comments to the university president and cabinet.

X. Disciplinary Measures

A. For students

1. Expulsion: permanent severance of one's relationship with the university.
2. Probated expulsion: further convictions of major offenses, as specified by the court, shall result in expulsion.
3. Suspension: temporary severance of one's relationship with the university.
4. Probated suspension: notice to the student that further convictions of major offenses, as specified by the court, shall result in suspension.
5. Disciplinary probation: notice to the student that any further major disciplinary violation may result in suspension; this action might also include one or more of the following: the setting of restrictions on social activities, the issuing of a reprimand, and restitution.
6. Restrictions: exclusion from enjoying or participating in social activities or from holding office in university organizations.
7. Reprimand: Oral reprimand: an oral disapproval issued to the student. Written reprimand: a written disapproval issued to the student.
8. Restitution: reimbursement for damage or misappropriation of property; this may take the form of appropriate service or other compensation.
9. Community service: assignment to work a specific number of hours at a community service agency.

10. Ethics Training: for violation of the academic honesty code, assignment to Ethics Training will be in addition to and following the prescribed suspension period. For other violations, ethics training may be assigned by the hearing panel, by the vice president for student success and enrollment services, or his/her designated representative.
11. Other Remedies: as Imposed by the vice president of student success and enrollment services or his/her designated representatives.

B. For Student Organizations

1. Includes disciplinary sanctions 7, 8, 9, 10, and 11 listed above.
2. Suspension of the organization's registration with student activities.
3. Probated suspension of the organization's registration with student activities.
4. Revocation of the organization's registration with student activities.

C. Academic Dishonesty

Any accused student found to have violated KSU regulations concerning academic honesty by a Judiciary hearing before university court or before the vice president for student success and enrollment services, or his/her designee, shall be suspended for at least one semester unless he/she has convinced the hearing body that there exist substantial mitigating circumstances to his/her offense. The appropriate grade to be assigned in the case of academic dishonesty is the responsibility of the faculty.

D. Interim Suspension

Interim suspension measures may be employed against a student by the vice president for student success and enrollment services when the vice president for student success and enrollment services, or his/her designated representative, shall determine, based on clear and convincing evidence, that the student has engaged, or threatens to engage, in behavior which:

- a. is seriously disruptive or significantly impedes the normal activities or academic endeavors of others, or
- b. poses an immediate significant threat of physical danger to others, or

- c. poses an immediate significant threat of danger to him/herself, and such threat is of such a serious nature that it must be handled more expeditiously than the university judiciary procedures allow.

Interim suspension may include any or all of the following:

- a. restriction from participation in any academic course, program, or activity;
- b. restriction from participation in any student activity on or off campus;
- c. restriction from use of any or all University facilities, including the library, labs, or offices;
- d. restriction from entering the campus or any designated portion thereof.

In such instances, the process outlined for interim suspension in the university judiciary procedures shall be followed.

Handling Student Code of Conduct Violations at KSU

Kennesaw State University's Student Code of Conduct, Judiciary Policies and Procedures, suspension policies, and campus police are organized in ways to preserve and protect the health, safety and academic integrity of the campus community, as noted in the following policies and procedures. In general, the University department of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity handles all charges against students which involve alleged violations of the Kennesaw State University Student Code of Conduct, including allegations of academic misconduct and disruptive behavior. In addition, the KSU police may become involved with incidents of disruptive behavior.

Faculty, staff and/or students who are witnesses to or victims of incidents of alleged violations of the Student Code of Conduct should immediately contact the University Judiciary Office and submit the proper documentation. The university judicial officer will conduct a preliminary investigation and advise as to the appropriate course of action in each situation. Incidents of misconduct may be subjected to mediation, or negotiation, if appropriate, prior to the formal hearing process.

A person bringing charges against a student for alleged violations of the Code of Conduct is expected to fully cooperate with the judiciary policies and procedures, which includes participation in investigations related to the charges and in the hearing process. Once a university court hearing date is set, both the accuser and the accused student will have the option of obtaining an advisor from the judiciary panel to assist in the preparation and presentation of their case. A detailed description of the hearing process is found at the Judiciary policies and procedures Web site, http://www.kennesaw.edu/scail/misconduct_procedures.shtml

I. Academic Misconduct

Academic misconduct is defined in Section II of the Kennesaw State University Student Code of Conduct. Procedures for addressing and reporting incidents of academic misconduct can be found in the Judiciary Policies and Procedures, as well as the Faculty/Staff Guide to Addressing Student Conduct Issues. The University's policies include procedures for both handling informal resolutions of academic misconduct, and filing formal charges with the department of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity, which will result in a hearing.

In either situation, whether the matter is handled informally or forwarded to the judiciary for handling, the faculty member should document the incident on an Academic Misconduct Incident Report form, and forward this information to the university judiciary officer. Incident reports which are submitted to the department of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity will not be released without the written consent of the student, in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.

Under the informal procedure, a faculty member who has evidence that a student has committed academic misconduct may elect to resolve the issue within the confines of the class, if the student readily admits to the misconduct, without coercion or intimidation. The faculty member must first meet with the student to explain and discuss the allegations of misconduct. If the student admits the misconduct, and declines a judiciary hearing, the faculty member may assign an appropriate sanction. Informal sanctions may include additional academic work for the class, grade reduction, a grade of "F" on the assignment or in the course, etc.

However, if the student denies the misconduct, or the student and faculty member cannot reach an informal agreement regarding an appropriate penalty, the misconduct should be reported to the department of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity for a hearing. Academic misconduct, as determined by a judiciary hearing, carries a mandatory minimum suspension of one semester, unless substantial mitigating circumstances are proven.

II. Disruptive Behavior

It is the purpose of the University to provide a campus environment which encourages academic accomplishment, personal growth, and a spirit of understanding and cooperation. An important part of maintaining such an environment is the commitment to protect the health and safety of every member of the campus community. Belligerent, abusive, profane, threatening and/or inappropriate behavior on the part of students is a violation of the Kennesaw State University Student Code of Conduct. Students who are found in violation of the Code of Conduct may be subject to immediate dismissal from the University. In addition, those violations, which may constitute misdemeanor or felony violations of state or federal law, may also be subject to criminal action beyond the University disciplinary process.

Disruptive behavior includes, but is not limited to the following conduct (See the KSU Student Code of Conduct in the Kennesaw State University Handbook and Planner or the code of conduct on the judiciary Web site, http://www.kennesaw.edu/scai/code_of_conduct.shtml for additional categories of unacceptable student conduct.):

1. Disorderly Assembly

No student shall assemble on the campus for the purpose of creating a riot, or destructive or disorderly diversion, or obstructing or disrupting the normal operation of the University (including any teaching, administrative, disciplinary, or public service activity, or any other activity authorized to take place on the campus).

2. Disruptive and/or Dangerous Conduct

No student shall act in a manner which can reasonably be expected to disturb the academic pursuits of others or infringe upon the privacy, rights or privileges of others, or the health or safety of him/herself or other persons.

3. Disruptive Speech

That speech is prohibited which: a) presents an immediate or imminent clear and present danger, b) is disruptive to the academic functioning of the institution, or c) constitutes a threat against an individual(s) such that it would provoke that individual(s) to imminent violent reaction.

4. Physical Attack

Physical attack on or in University property or at functions sponsored by the University or any registered university organization, is at any time prohibited.

A faculty member is responsible for maintaining discipline in the classroom setting, to the extent that all students in that class have an opportunity to participate in the learning process. Free exchange of ideas through appropriate dialogue is a necessary and important part of the learning process. Outside the classroom, other areas of the campus provide support services which are also important to the total learning process. Sometimes a faculty or staff member may be confronted with a situation where the conduct of a particular student or students is inappropriate in that it impedes the natural and necessary learning process. The faculty or staff member must then determine whether the situation is disruptive but not imminently dangerous, or both disruptive and imminently dangerous to the health and safety of others.

If the situation is not imminently dangerous, the faculty or staff member may control the immediate situation by requiring the student(s) to meet specific criteria (not speaking during the remainder of the class period, leaving the classroom or office area immediately, etc.), or the faculty member may choose to dismiss the class for the remainder of the period to avoid a confrontation. Such action should be immediately reported to the department chair and to the department of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity, using the Student Misconduct Incident Report Form.

If the faculty or staff member feels that there is a significant imminent danger to the health and safety of the student(s), others, or him/herself, the faculty or staff member should immediately contact the University's Public Safety office for assistance. The responding officer at the time of notification shall remove the student from the area immediately and refer the incident to the Vice President for Student Success & Enrollment Services, or his/her designated representative, for possible handling under the "interim suspension" policy.

Interim suspension measures may be taken against a student when the Vice President for Student Success & Enrollment Services or his/her designated representative shall determine, based on clear and convincing evidence, that the student has engaged, or threatens to engage, in behavior which (1) is seriously disruptive or significantly impedes the normal activities or academic endeavors of others, (2) poses an immediate, significant threat of physical danger to others, or (3) poses an immediate, significant threat of danger to him/herself, and is of such a serious nature that it must be handled more expeditiously than the university judiciary procedures allow.

Interim suspension may include any or all of the following: (1) restriction from participation in any academic course, program, or activity; (2) restriction from participation in any student activity on or off campus; (3) restriction from use of any or all university facilities, including the library, labs, or offices; (4) restriction from entering the campus or any designated portion thereof.

If a determination is made to suspend a student under the interim suspension policy, the person rendering the decision shall notify the student, the public safety department, the registrar, and the student's teachers that the student has been temporarily suspended from the institution pending the outcome of a hearing.

The case will then be forwarded to the University Judiciary for a hearing, to be held as soon as practical. In such situations, the student may waive the normal ten-day notification requirement in order to have a more speedy hearing and decision.

Supplemental Program Specific Recourse

Some degree programs, such as those in education or nursing, have program-level admission and retention standards and review procedures in place beyond the generally applicable institutional admission and retention policies. If disruptive student behavior occurs in the context of fulfilling program requirements in such areas, the faculty or staff member may also have the recourse of filing a complaint with the designated program-level official and proceeding through the due process procedures established for handling such complaints. Individuals should consult the dean of the college and/or published standards as to the applicability of such program-specific recourse to the incident or incidents in question.

III. Sexual Assault

Victims should report instances of alleged sexual assault to either the KSU Department of Public Safety (770) 423-6666 or the Student Success and Enrollment Services Office (770) 423-6310.

The victim of a sexual assault should take care to preserve any evidence that may be necessary to prove that the assault occurred. Victims are advised to consult law enforcement authorities before showering/bathing, or changing or laundering any clothing that was worn during the assault. However, the fact that the victim of a sexual assault has already bathed, showered, or otherwise compromised potential evidence should in no way dissuade the victim from reporting the assault, as such actions may not prevent prosecution or conduct proceedings from going forward.

Students who report sexual assaults to the KSU Department of Public Safety or the vice president for student success and enrollment services shall be afforded assistance in seeking counseling and follow-up medical care, making changes to their academic situations and reporting to the appropriate criminal authorities after an assault has occurred.

Kennesaw State University recognizes and upholds the rights of victims of sexual assault, including:

- A. The right to have any and all sexual assaults against them treated with seriousness; the right, as victims, to be treated with dignity; and the right for campus organizations which assist victims to be accorded recognition.
- B. The right to have sexual assaults investigated and adjudicated by the duly constituted criminal and civil authorities of the governmental entity in which the crimes occurred; and the right to the full and prompt cooperation and assistance of campus personnel in notifying the proper authorities. The foregoing shall be in addition to any campus disciplinary proceedings.
- C. The right to be free from any kind of pressure from campus personnel that victims (1) not report crimes committed against them to civil and criminal authorities or to campus law enforcement and disciplinary officials; or (2) report crimes as lesser offenses than the victims perceive them to be.
- D. The right to be free from any kind of suggestion that campus sexual assault victims not report, or under report, crimes because (1) the victims are somehow responsible for the commission of crimes against them; (2) victims were contributively negligent or assumed the risk of being assaulted; or (3) by reporting crimes they would incur unwanted personal publicity.
- E. The same right to advisement and assistance, or ability to have others present, in any campus disciplinary proceeding that the institution permits the accused; and the right to be notified of the outcome of such proceeding.

- F. The right to full and prompt cooperation from campus personnel in obtaining, securing, and maintaining evidence (including a medical examination) as may be necessary to the proof of criminal sexual assault in subsequent legal proceedings.
- G. The right to be made aware of, and assisted in exercising any options, as provided by state and federal laws or regulations with regard to mandatory testing of sexual assault suspects for communicable diseases and with regard to notification to victims of the results of such testing.
- H. The right to counseling from any mental health services previously established by the institution, or by other victim-service entities, or by victims themselves.
- I. After campus sexual assaults have been reported, the victims of such crimes shall have the right to require that campus personnel take the necessary steps or actions reasonably feasible to prevent any unnecessary or unwanted contact or proximity with alleged assailant(s), including transfer of classes if requested by the victims.

Note: Kennesaw State University is concerned with your safety. We publish two campus safety publications: Safe and Sound and Sexual Assault: Myths and Reality. They contain such information as campus crime statistics and campus safety policies. These publications are available at the Department of Public Safety, upon request. You may also request a campus security report regarding crime statistics from this office.

IV. Parental Notification Policy: Drug and Alcohol Violations

Sections 951 and 952 of the 1998 Higher Education Amendment established that institutions of higher education could notify the parents or legal guardians when their student under the age of 21 was found to be in violation of the school's disciplinary code for drugs and alcohol. Kennesaw State University strives to create a balance between honoring the personal growth and responsibility of its students as they learn to establish their own independence with that of providing parents with the sensitive information they need to know in order to advise their students effectively. Parental notification is done when the university believes that it will help the student by providing support for their physical health and safety, academic success and/or personal development. Parents of students under the age of 21 may be notified when a student is determined to have violated the KSU Student Code of Conduct in regard to alcohol or other controlled substances. Circumstances leading to parental notification include, but are not limited to, the following:

- A student endangers him/herself or others while under the influence of alcohol or other controlled substances (i.e., this may include alcohol poisoning, hospitalization, fighting or on-campus DUI);
- Student who committed the violation required medical intervention or transport as a result of consumption of alcohol or a controlled substance;
- The occurrence of an arrest (i.e., this might include minor possession of alcohol or other drugs, possession with intent to distribute/supply or the manufacturing or cultivation of drugs or alcohol);
- The occurrence of significant property damage;
- The occurrence of a major disruption to the university's educational mission;
- When an administrator determines that any future violation of the alcohol/drug policy will likely result in the student's suspension;
- When an administrator determines that any future violation of the alcohol/drug policy will likely result in the student's removal from university housing;
- The violation suggests a pattern of alcohol or controlled substance abuse.

In order to allow the student to have the first opportunity to notify his/her parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of the alcohol/drug violation, students will be afforded two business days after the determination of a rule infraction before the university will attempt to issue a notification to the parent(s) or legal guardian(s). Notification will be coordinated through the office of the Vice President for Student Success and Enrollment Services. Written notification will detail the fact that the student has been found responsible for an alcohol or other drug offense. Written notice will not include specific details of the offense(s) for which the student is found responsible, the circumstances surrounding the offense(s), or the specific disposition of the case. The notification will include a listing of campus/community services that are available to address the student's alcohol or drug situation. Parents/guardians interested in gaining more information about the violation or disposition of the case are encouraged to discuss the case with their student or request that the student sign a written consent to have this information revealed to his/her parents. Questions or concerns regarding these guidelines should be directed to Kennesaw State department of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity, Student Center Room 285, 770-499-3403.

Environmental Health and Safety

KSU Position Statement on Environmental Awareness

Kennesaw State University endeavors to encourage in each student, faculty, staff member, and the community, a respect for the worth of the environment and a desire and capacity to recycle, to conserve energy and to take other measures to help conserve limited resources. This institution focuses on developing an environmental ethic that promotes excellence, responsibility and stewardship in environmental affairs and is committed to educating the community about environmental issues.

KSU Mission Statement on Occupational Health and Safety

It is the goal of Kennesaw State University to protect employees and property of KSU and to provide safe work places. To this end, the Department of Environmental, Health & Safety of Kennesaw State University will ensure compliance with local, state, and applicable federal codes, provide technical assistance, conduct routine facility audits and empower the employees of KSU through training in hazard recognition and accident prevention.

KSU is a Restricted Smoking Campus

Smoking is prohibited on KSU campus except in areas specifically designated for smoking.

Visits by Children

The University cannot accommodate children of the faculty, staff, and students on campus during normal operating hours, i.e., 8:00 a.m. - 10:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday, and 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m., Friday. Children are welcome to attend scheduled events and to make brief visits when accompanied by a parent or other adult.

Drug and Alcohol Policy

I. Introduction

National statistics reveal that the leading causes of death among the 18-23 year-old population are alcohol-related accidents, alcohol-related homicides, and alcohol-related suicides. A high percentage of campus disorderly conduct, disruptive behavior and property destruction, and academic failures on a national level is alcohol-related. The abuse of alcohol and other drugs can alter behavior, distort perception, impair thinking, and impede judgment. Alcohol and drug abuse might also result in various diseases, illnesses, and even death. The Georgia legislature, in response to these disturbing facts, has provided by law certain measures to reduce those dangers associated with alcohol abuse. These measures include statutory provisions which provide that no person below the age of 21 years may use, purchase, or possess alcoholic beverages. The law also prohibits serving alcoholic beverages to any intoxicated person. These considerations, among other things, are equally applicable to the use and abuse of illicit drugs. In response, federal and state laws regarding the manufacture, use and distribution of illicit drugs have been enacted and are applicable to all full-time, part-time, and temporary faculty, staff, students, and administrators. The University supports and endorses these provisions of federal and state laws and insists on strict compliance with these statutes by its students, staff, faculty, and administrators at all levels.

II. Alcohol Policy

Kennesaw State University expressly prohibits the use, possession, sale, or distribution of alcoholic beverages on campus by any campus constituency. Alcoholic beverages may be served at off-campus activities to adults of legal drinking age for the state in which the activity is being held, providing that a responsible club or organization representative acknowledges responsibility for monitoring alcohol consumption. Student Activity funds or institutional funds may not be used for the purchase of alcoholic beverages. Kennesaw State University is committed to recognizing, upholding, and enforcing the laws of the state of Georgia. Violation of those state laws, incorporated into the Kennesaw State University Alcohol Policy shall not be condoned on the campus or at any activity held off campus by any constituency. Exceptions to the policy of no alcohol on campus may from time to time be permitted at the discretion of the president, and there are other limited exceptions to this policy within the residence halls by those aged twenty-one or older who do not reside in substance-free communities. See the Residential Code of Conduct for more information.

Official state regulations regarding the use, sale, or possession of intoxicating beverages are as follows:

3-1-2 Defines "alcoholic beverages" to mean all alcohol, distilled spirits, beer, malt beverages, wine, or fortified wine.

3-2-36 Provides for criminal process against any person who violates the law in counties and municipalities where the sale of alcoholic beverages is not authorized or where alcoholic beverages are being sold contrary to law.

3-3-21 Provides that no person knowingly or intentionally may sell or offer to sell any wine or malt beverages within 100 yards of any school building, school grounds, or college campus. Provides further that distilled spirits may not be sold within 200 yards of a school building, educational building, school grounds, or college campus.

3-3-22 States that no alcoholic beverage shall be sold, bartered, exchanged, given, provided, or furnished to any person who is in a state of noticeable intoxication.

3-3-23 Prohibits the furnishing to, purchasing of, or possession of alcoholic beverages by persons under 21 years of age.

3-3-23.1 Provides that any person furnishing or possessing alcoholic beverages in violation of the previous Code Section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Establishes procedures for arrest by law enforcement officers.

University judiciary policies and procedures require that all student organizations planning to serve alcohol at any off-campus function must submit an "Acknowledgment of Alcohol Policy" form to the vice president for student success and enrollment services during the first week of classes each fall semester and each time there is a change in either the president or advisor of the organization. By their signatures, the president and advisor are assuring Kennesaw State University that they and the individuals responsible for the group's social events understand the Kennesaw State University Alcohol Policy and state laws regarding the service and consumption of alcoholic beverages.

Alcoholic beverages will be allowed for functions at which alcohol is not the focal point, reason for, or the "drawing card" for the event. Organizations choosing to advertise the service of alcoholic beverages at functions will not make reference to the quantity of or overindulgence in alcoholic beverages. Reference will also be made to serving of food and alternative beverages, and the checking of drivers' licenses. Any activity (especially those competitive in nature) contributing to the overindulgence of alcohol is, by these guidelines, prohibited. Any violation of this policy at any club or organization activity shall be reported to the vice president for student success and enrollment services by the designated monitor(s) verbally within 24 hours of returning to campus and followed by a written report within 3 working days.

The Kennesaw State University Department of Public Safety shall report any violation of this policy, whether at an activity or on an individual basis, to the vice president for student success and enrollment services within 24 hours of the occurrence. The vice president for student success and enrollment services shall then be responsible for disciplinary action according to established university nonacademic disciplinary procedures. Possible sanctions shall be the same as those for other violations of nonacademic university rules and regulations as provided for in the university student code of conduct.

III. Drug-Free Workplace and Campus Policy

As a recipient of Federal funds, Kennesaw State University supports and complies with the provisions of the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989 and the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988. The unlawful possession, manufacture, distribution, dispensation, and use of illicit drugs and alcohol by employees or students on the university campus is prohibited and violations of this policy will result in appropriate disciplinary action.

Faculty, staff and students are expected to adhere to the policies of the university and observe the basic standards of good conduct, meet appropriate standards of performance, and observe all local, state and federal laws relative to unlawful use of illicit drugs and alcohol. Penalties for violations of these standards range from warnings and probation to expulsion, loss of academic credit, suspension, temporary or permanent suspension and withdrawal of organization recognition, referral to the legal system for prosecution, demotion, and termination of employment. Detailed sanctions are defined in the Student Handbook (Student Code of Conduct), Board of Regents' Policy Manual, Classified Employee Handbook and in the complete policy statement available in the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs upon request.

IV. University Sanctions for Violations of the Alcohol and Drug Policy

- A. Any faculty, staff member, administrator, or other employee who violates the policy on alcohol and drugs, shall be subject to disciplinary action up to and including the possibility of dismissal and referral to the appropriate federal, state or local authorities for prosecution in the courts.
- B. Any student or student organization that violates the policy on alcohol and drugs, shall be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the Kennesaw State University Student Code of Conduct up to and including educational sanctions, possible loss of on-campus housing, suspension and/or expulsion from the university and referral to the appropriate federal, state, or local authorities for prosecution in the courts. A student organization shall be subject to disciplinary action up to and including educational sanctions, suspension and/or revocation of its registration with Student Activities and referral to the appropriate federal, state, or local authorities for prosecution in the courts.
- C. When there is an alcohol or drug infraction, in addition to any criminal prosecution or university judicial code sanction, a student who is a member of a university athletic team may face additional sanctions based on rules established by the team.

V. Drug and Alcohol Education Programs and Assistance Available

A combination of several campus offices will provide assistance or act as a referring agency for Kennesaw State University. Included in the campus efforts to assist those with substance abuse problems are:

The CAPS Center, (770) 423-6600, is located on the second floor of Kennesaw Hall. The Center currently has nine professional counselors qualified to work with those persons who have problems associated with alcohol and drug abuse. At present, two counselors are certified as Prime for Life facilitators. The counseling center offers in-house counseling and educational alcohol and drug abuse programs. CAPS counselors use the Bacchus

Gamma on-line educational program as needed. CAPS also performs in house evaluation for alcohol and drug abuse and uses the SASAA-3 Substance Abuse Subtle Screening Inventory as well for alcohol abuse screening. It also maintains a listing of referral agencies for off-campus assistance when such assistance is more appropriate. CAPS Center services are available to students, faculty and staff. CAPS works closely with the KSU Health Clinic, Wellness Center, and the Residence Life Department to provide alcohol and drug education programming across campus.

The Department of Human Resources, (770) 423-6030, is located in the Campus Services Building. The Drug-Free Workplace coordinator is the Director of Human Resources. Employee Assistance Programs (EAP) relating to drug and alcohol abuse are available for KSU employees (staff and faculty). KSU's EAP is provided by EAP Consultants, Inc. Employees and their family members may contact them at 770-951-8021 or 800-869-0276 or online at www.eapconsultants.com or see <http://www.eapconsultants.com/drugfree.html>

The Department of Public Safety, (770) 423-6206 (non-emergency number), is located in the Public Safety Building #20 near the West Parking Deck. The KSU police are a co-sponsor of annual National Collegiate Alcohol Awareness week in October and will speak to groups or classes upon request about safety and alcohol and drug awareness issues.

The Wellness Center, (770) 423-6394, is located in the Student Recreation and Wellness Center, Bldg. 3, RM 131. The mission of the Center for Health Promotion and Wellness is to improve the health and well being of students and employees through awareness and education, and the Center makes available computer programs, Alcohol 101, and prescription drug information to further this mission. The Wellness Center also participates each year in National Collegiate Alcohol Awareness week in October, sponsoring many interactive programs designed to educate students, faculty, and staff to issues associated with alcohol use and abuse.

The KSU Health Clinic, (770) 423-6644, is located on Campus Loop Road, House 52, across from University Place Housing. The clinic provides services to KSU students, faculty, and staff. Alcohol and drug use and abuse programming is presented in conjunction with the Wellness Center.

The Department of Residence Life (770) 420-4388, is located on the first floor of the Carmichael Student Center (room 156). It provides alcohol and drug education to residential students on a continuing basis throughout the year through programs presented to small groups of residents. The Residential Life professional staff together with staff from the CAPS Center also conducts a monthly two-hour alcohol education course for all interested students. Students who are first time violators of campus alcohol rules generally are required to attend.

VI. Annual Distribution of KSU Drug and Alcohol Policies Required

The Office of the Dean of Student Success is responsible for ensuring that Kennesaw State University's Drug and Alcohol Policy is distributed annually to each student and employee (faculty and staff).

Administrative Withdrawal of Students

A student may be administratively withdrawn from the university when, in the judgment of the vice president for student success and enrollment services, and the director of counseling services, and after consultation with the student's parents and personal physician, if any, it is determined that the student suffers from a physical, mental, emotional or psychological health condition which: (a) poses a significant danger or threat of physical harm to the student or to the person or property of others or (b) causes the student to interfere with the rights of other members of the university community or with the exercise of any proper activities or functions of the university or its personnel or (c) causes the student to be unable to meet institutional requirements for admission and continued enrollment, as defined in the Student Code of Conduct and other publications of the university.

Except in emergency situations, a student shall, upon request, be accorded an appropriate hearing prior to a final decision concerning his/her continued enrollment at the university.

Grievance Procedures for Students

Grievance Procedures for Admissions, Privacy Rights and Other Non-Academic Matters

Within the framework of students' relationships to Kennesaw State University, several avenues exist for the expression of grievance. Provision for hearing appeals by applicants denied admission to the university is outlined in Article VI, Section C, paragraph 2a, of the Bylaws of the Board of Regents. Appeal procedures for grievances related to students' privacy rights are contained in the university catalog (see section on confidentiality of student records). Charges against students and student organizations for violations of the KSU Student Code of Conduct will be handled through the department of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity. Grievances related to loss of athletic scholarship and other forms of financial aid are heard by the Financial Aid Appeals Committee.

Grievance Procedures for Discrimination and Retaliation

All student grievances or complaints against faculty, staff, or administrators alleging (1) discriminatory practice(s) based on race, religion, color, sex, sexual orientation, handicap, or national origin, or (2) retaliation against the student because of his/her prior report of discrimination or harassment, or because of the student's cooperation in any investigation, shall be addressed in writing to the KSU EEO office in the Division of Legal Affairs with the following caveat. If the student believes that his/her final grade in a course is unfair because of discrimination or retaliation by a faculty member, the complaint shall be addressed as specified under Academic Policies-Grade Appeal Procedures section II (Grade Appeal Procedure When There Is an Allegation of Discrimination or Retaliation).

290 Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities

Otherwise, once the EEO office has received a written complaint containing specific allegations of discriminatory practices or retaliatory actions the following process shall take place.

A. The EEO officer (or his/her designee) must notify in writing the person(s) whose actions or behavior is/are at issue of the allegation of discrimination and/or retaliation and of the pending investigation as soon as possible, but definitely within one week of receiving the complaint in writing from the student. The person's immediate supervisor should be notified at the same time.

B. During the investigation by the EEO office no administrative or legal action or intervention will be taken unless the EEO investigator first consults with and obtains the agreement of the Provost and VPAA (or his/her designee) and the VP for SSES (or his/her designee) to the proposed administrative or legal action or intervention.

C. If the EEO officer (or his/her designee), after investigation, finds that the student does not have reasonable grounds for complaint he/she shall so notify in writing the student, the person(s) about whom the complaint is made, and that person(s)' immediate supervisor. This investigation and notification will take place within sixty days of the written allegation's receipt by the EEO's office.

D. If the EEO officer (or his/her designee), after investigation, finds the student may have reasonable cause for complaint he/she will so notify in writing the student, person(s) about whom the complaint is made, and that person(s)' immediate supervisor. The investigation and notification will take place within sixty days of the written allegation's receipt by the EEO's office. On the same date that written notification is delivered to the parties, the EEO officer (or his/her designee) will contact the chair of the university council. The chair of the council will then be responsible for establishing an ad hoc committee of three (faculty/administrative faculty/staff members) and two students to hear the discrimination complaint and make recommendations. The names and contact information of the five members of the ad hoc committee shall be communicated by the chair of the university council to the EEO officer (or his/her designee).

- E. Prior to the hearing the EEO officer (or his/her designee) will arrange that the ad hoc committee shall meet and elect a chair from among the five members. The chair will conduct the hearing. The chair may participate in all deliberations, but will not vote except in the case of a tie.
- F. The hearing committee may draw up its own rules of procedure, and the committee is not bound by any formal rules of legal proceedings and may hear any information that may be of value in determining the issues involved, but minimum due process shall include the right of both parties to be notified in writing at least ten business days in advance of the date, time, and place of the hearing; the right of the person against whom the complaint has been made to be informed in writing of the specific nature of the complaint against him/her and of the evidence and/or witnesses on which it is based; and the right of both parties to present evidence and witnesses on their behalf and to question witnesses. The EEO officer (or his/her designee) shall act to make certain these due process rights are met. The supervisor of the person about whom the complaint is made will be notified that a hearing has been scheduled. The EEO officer (or his/her designee) will attend the hearing and may present any report created or evidence or information obtained during the EEO office's investigation if requested to do so by either party or by the committee. The EEO officer (or his/her designee) shall retain all records associated with the complaint, his/her investigation, the hearing, the committee's written report, and the president's written decision for such length of time as required by Georgia law.
- G. Each party has the right to a non-attorney adviser to assist in preparing and presenting his/her case before the committee. Those present during the hearing will be the members of the ad hoc committee, the EEO officer (or his/her designee), the parties to the complaint, one non-attorney adviser for each party, and such witnesses as are necessary. Each witness shall be present only when his/her presence is necessary to present information and/or answer questions. No other persons shall be present unless agreed upon in writing by the chair of the committee, both parties, and the EEO officer (or his/her designee).

- H. All decisions and recommendations will be based on a majority vote, and be rendered according to the principle of the preponderance of evidence. Only the five members of the ad hoc committee should be present during deliberation except that the EEO officer (or his/her designee) may be present to answer policy questions.
- I. The hearing committee will be expected to produce a written report summarizing the information presented, indicating and explaining its decision, and making recommendations, if desirable, to any party or parties. Copies of the written report will be submitted to each party in the case (student and person complaint made against), the person's immediate supervisor, the EEO officer (or his/her designee), the chief legal officer for the university, and the president of the university within five business days from the completion of the hearing. The chair of the hearing committee shall act to make certain the written report is delivered to the proper persons. The opinions and recommendations of the ad hoc committee are advisory and in no way bind the president to the recommended actions.
- J. After consideration of the ad hoc committee's written report, the president shall make a decision and communicate it in writing within five business days to the student, the party or parties against whom the complaint has been made, the EEO officer (or his/her designee), the chief legal officer of the university, and the immediate supervisor(s) of the employee(s) against whom the complaint has been made.
- K. Should the aggrieved student remain dissatisfied with the president's decision, further redress may be sought through internal channels by applying to the Board of Regents for a review of the decision, pursuant to the Bylaws of the Board of Regents, Article IX, p. xxvii.

Nothing in this process prohibits the parties from settling this matter at any stage with the assistance of mediation through the Office of the University Ombuds (770-423-6112), if appropriate. However, any attempt to settle the matter through mediation does not affect time deadlines for this process.

Any student complaints against another KSU student should be addressed to the KSU department of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity (formerly Office of Judiciary Programs).

Classification of Courses

Non-degree courses are numbered below 1000. In general, freshman courses are those numbered 1000 to 1999, sophomore level 2000 to 2999, junior level 3000 to 3999, senior level 4000-4999, and graduate level 5000 and above.

The figures shown below the course number and the title of the course, in general, signify the number of class hours per week, the number of laboratory hours per week and the semester hours of credit for the completed course. Thus, the entry 3-0-3 denotes three hours of class, zero hours of laboratory and three hours of degree credit. The courses are listed alphabetically.

Learning Support Restrictions

All learning support students must be enrolled in their required learning support program (LSP) classes before they are eligible for any regular credit courses. If they do take credit courses before completing their LSP requirements, they may not take any course which has those requirements as a prerequisite. LSP students, therefore, may take no 3000- or 4000-level courses, and should very carefully check the prerequisites for other courses.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement, a grade of "C" or higher in ACCT 3100, and ACCT 3300; Non-business Majors: a grade of "C" or higher in ACCT 3100, ACCT 3300 and permission of the Director of the School of Accountancy.

The study of the control and security of accounting information systems with an auditing perspective. Topics covered include: The quality of information, information technology (IT) audit process, types of IT audits, ethics, fraud, forensic auditing, computer assisted audit tools and techniques, and IT governance.

ACCT 4400. Directed Study. 1-3 hours.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement, a grade of "C" or higher in ACCT 3100, and approval of instructor and department chair prior to registration; Non-business Majors: a grade of "C" or higher in ACCT 3100, and approval of instructor and department chair prior to registration and ACCT 3200. Special topics of an advanced nature not in the regular course offerings.

ACCT 4490. Special Topics in Accounting. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement, a grade of "C" or higher in ACCT 3100, and approval of instructor and the Director of the School of Accountancy; Non-business Majors: 60 semester hours, a grade of "C" or higher in ACCT 3100, and approval of the Director of the School of Accountancy. Selected special topics of interest to faculty and students.

ACCT 4600. Governmental and Not-for-Profit Accounting. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and a grade of "C" or higher in ACCT 3100; Non-business Majors: A grade of "C" or higher in ACCT 3100 and the Director of the School of Accountancy.

Study of accounting and reporting practices for state/local governments and not-for-profit organizations. Course includes consideration of current events and other topical issues related to governments and not-for-profit organizations.

ACCT 4700. Valuation of Closely Held Businesses. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and ACCT 3200, FIN 3100, and a grade of "C" or higher in ACCT 3100; Non-business Majors: ACCT 3200, FIN 3100, a grade of "C" or higher in ACCT 3100, and permission of the Director of the School of Accountancy.

The study of fundamental concepts and valuation methods used to value a closely-held business when there is no established market price. When determining the future benefit stream of a business entity and the associated risk, concepts from finance, economics, accounting and taxation will be incorporated.

• AFRICAN & AFRICAN DIASPORA STUDIES (AADS) •

AADS 2100. Introduction to African & African Diaspora Studies. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

This course introduces students to the foundations of African and African Diaspora Studies. It does so by examining the evolution, nature and theoretical traditions which inform AADS. The course promotes critical thinking and exposes students to theoretical ideas and global perspectives relevant to the black experience.

AADS 2260. Research Methodologies. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MATH 1107 and AADS 2100.

This course is designed to expose the student to the variety of interdisciplinary research methodologies, both quantitative and qualitative, to prepare them for the methodological approaches appropriate for their chosen concentrations in African and African Diaspora Studies.

AADS 4499. Senior Seminar. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: AADS 2260 plus 21 hours of upper level courses or permission of instructor.

A capstone course in which students connect and integrate learning from AADS and other courses that they have taken in their concentration, explore the deeper issues in the discipline, research and write a senior thesis, and make technology-assisted presentation of their findings to a committee of AADS faculty.

• AMERICAN STUDIES (AMST) •

AMST 3700. Principles and Methods of American Studies. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

Critically examines the meaning and culture of America locally and globally. This reading-, writing-, and discussion-based course introduces students to the interdisciplinary study of American cultures. The course uses a wide variety of readings and activities from multiple academic disciplines and popular culture.

AMST 3710. U.S. in the World. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

Examines “America” as a cultural signifier that circulates around the world. These representations not only travel to other countries, but also return to us in cultural products from other countries. In addition to cultural theory, we will look at film, television, literature, and music as they that embody notions about “America.” Our primary concern is to interrogate what ideological assumptions underlie our notion of what “America” means.

AMST 3740. American Popular Culture. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

Critical analysis of popular culture in American society. A particular offering of the course could focus on a specific area of popular culture (e.g., books, music, sports, food, mass consumption or advertising) or survey several of those topics. Historical and theoretical readings will support students’ analysis of primary texts, including examples highlighting the globalization of American popular culture, mass markets and niche markets, the social formation of taste, and shifts in society’s preferences for mass consumption in different time periods. Course may be repeated for credit provided the content differs entirely from the previous offering.

AMST 3750. Place in American Culture. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

This course offers a thematic study of the cultural, social, and economic patterns of American places using texts and methods from a variety of disciplines such as history, literature, and sociology. Employing the techniques of critical reading and historical analysis, students interrogate texts ranging from contemporary prize-winning novels, film and media representations, to primary historical documents to gain a fuller understanding of both the place studied and the significance of “place” in culture. Course may be repeated for credit provided the content differs entirely from the previous offering.

AMST 3760. American Identities. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

Examines the construction of individual identities and identity groups in American culture. Students survey and critique a range of texts expressing and representing the formation of identity constructions around such categories as race, gender, ethnicity, national origin, class, and sexuality. Students consider the various historical, cultural and social forces that shape (and sometimes resist) diverse views of American identity both within and outside the U.S. Course may be repeated with a change in content.

AMST 3770. American Cultural Productions. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

Examines the production, interpretation, performance, circulation, and contestation of cultural practices and activities that produce ideas and beliefs about “America.” The course may focus on a particular cultural product (e.g., the suburbs) or cultural productions related to a particular historical period (e.g., the Great Depression) or other discrete category (e.g., racial productions). Course may be repeated with a change in content.

AMST 3780. American Cultural Movements. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

Examines the history of and relationships between selected cultural movements in the United States through an interdisciplinary lens. Drawing primarily on historical resources and cultural texts, the course analyzes the evolution and conduct of movements or of a particular major movement, as well as the evolution of academic inquiry and understanding of these movements. Course may be repeated with a change in content.

AMST4490. Special Topics in American Studies. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

A study of selected special topics of interest to faculty and students. Course may be repeated for credit provided the content differs entirely from the previous offering.

• ANTHROPOLOGY (ANTH) •

ANTH 2105. Social Issues: Perspectives in Anthropology. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099 and READ 0099.

One of the four disciplinary options (Anthropology 2105, Geography 2105, Psychology 2105, Sociology 2105) that can be taken to satisfy the Social Issues requirement in the general education curriculum. A common set of world social issues is critically examined from one of four social science perspectives. The discipline of anthropology examines the effects of cultural behavior on contemporary issues and problems confronting people around the world.

ANTH 2201. Introduction to Anthropology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Read 0099 if required.

Introduction to anthropology's four major subfields: biological anthropology, archaeology, cultural anthropology, and linguistics.

ANTH 3300. Anthropological Theory. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ANTH 2201.

This course surveys the historical development of anthropological theory. It emphasizes the major theories and theoreticians in the discipline of anthropology and their importance for understanding contemporary anthropological research.

ANTH 3301. Human Origins. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ANTH 2201.

This course is an introduction to the evolutionary origins of humans. Major topics include evolutionary theory, primate behavior and taxonomy, the fossil record of human and non-human primate evolution, and the interaction of culture and biology as it relates to human evolution.

ANTH 3305. Principles of Archaeology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ANTH 2201 or permission of instructor.

Archaeology is the subfield of anthropology that has as its goal the understanding of the human past by studying the material remains that people leave. This course will cover the history, goals, methods, and theoretical base of current technology. Cultural resource management will be introduced as well.

ANTH 3310. Cultural Diversity in the U.S. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ANTH 2105 or ANTH 2201 or SOCI 2105 or SOCI 2201.

The interrelated issues of culture, race, ethnicity, identity, gender, and social stratification in American society are examined through a holistic and comparative perspective with an emphasis on the examination of case studies.

ANTH 3315. Indigenous People of the Southeast United States. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ANTH 2105 or ANTH 2201 or permission of instructor.

An examination of the culture of the prehistoric, historic and contemporary Native Americans of the Southeastern U.S. including the Mound Builders, Cherokees, Creeks, Choctaws, and Seminoles.

ANTH 3320. Lab in Physical Anthropology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ANTH 2201 and MATH 1107.

This course provides students with practice in techniques used by physical anthropologists in areas such as: human skeletal anatomy, forensic anthropology, paleontology, primatology, human growth and development, and population genetics. In addition, students get an introduction to important literature in the field. This course is a prerequisite for some upper division physical anthropology courses.

ANTH 3321. Indigenous Peoples of North America. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ANTH 2201.

The study of contemporary issues affecting Native American peoples through a survey of traditional cultures and culture change.

ANTH 3335. Archaeology Field Techniques. 3-6.

Prerequisite: ANTH 2201.

This archaeological field school is designed to teach students the methods and techniques employed by archaeologists. Students participate in excavation, survey, and laboratory analysis. The course takes place at sites such as the Pickett's Mill State Historic Site in Paulding County, Georgia. Please contact the professor prior to registration for meeting information (the first meeting takes place on site).

ANTH 3350. Cultures and Societies of the World. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ANTH 2105 or 2201 or SOCI 2105 or 2201.

A comparative survey of culture and social organization in various regions of the world with a focus on contemporary social problems, cultural change and adaptation.

ANTH 3380. Maya Archaeology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ANTH 2201.

This course is designed to introduce students to the ancient Maya, whose civilization flourished in the lowlands of Central America between 1000 B.C. and A.D. 1500. It also examines reasons for the rise and fall of classic Maya civilization, including topics such as the development of complexity, settlement, subsistence, art and architecture, ritual and religion, and intellectual achievements.

ANTH 3390. Lab in Archaeology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ANTH 2201 and ANTH 3305.

This course introduces laboratory methods through a project-oriented, hands-on format. A major focus of the course is on the inferential processes through which archaeologists recover and understand the past. This course also introduces many of the important principles and concepts that archaeologists use to analyze, manage, curate, and publish artifacts and the data associated with them. In addition, it allows the opportunity to have some hands-on experience with artifacts. Hands-on experiments in class help reinforce the theoretical concepts. Finally, the main goal is for the student to get basic “literacy” with respect to archaeological analysis and develop good lab habits rather than master any particular kind of analysis.

ANTH 3398. Internship in Anthropology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ANTH 2201, at least 12 hours of upper division anthropology, and 90 hours overall.

A structured off-campus experience in a supervised setting that is related to the student’s major. Practical experience is combined with scholarly research in the topical area of the internship, under the guidance of an interdisciplinary faculty committee. Sites must be selected in advance of the semester of the internship. A departmental internship orientation session is scheduled once a semester.

ANTH 4100. Direct Applied Research. 1 - 6.

Prerequisite: Any upper division anthropology course and consent of instructor and chair.

This course offers students an opportunity to investigate anthropologically-oriented concepts and issues by assisting in faculty-led research or scholarship. Course content and instructional methodologies are identified by the faculty’s needs and expectations.

ANTH 4400. Directed Study in Anthropology. 1-3 Credit Hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair.

Covers special topics and seminars external to regular course offerings. May include original research projects and practicum experiences.

ANTH 4405. Human Variation. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ANTH 2201.

This course provides an understanding of the nature and extent of human biological variation, as well as an understanding of how it is studied. The course focuses on two separate yet interconnected topics: the biological variation that exists within our species, Homo sapiens; and the concept of race.

ANTH 4410. Cultural Anthropology: A Global Perspective. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ANTH 2105 or ANTH 2201 or SOCI 2105 or SOCI 2201.

The comparative study of human cultures and societies through use of cross-cultural analysis of human behavior and case studies. Major foci are comparisons between universal and culturally relative aspects of human behavior, comparative social organization, cultural change and adaptation, and contemporary global cultural problems.

ANTH 4420. Lab in Forensic Anthropology. 0-6-3.

Prerequisite: ANTH 3320.

This laboratory class provides an overview to the field of forensic anthropology for undergraduates. Forensic anthropology is an applied field of physical anthropology that seeks to recover, identify, and evaluate human skeletal remains within a medico-legal context. This generally includes the determination of an unidentified individual’s sex, age, ancestry, stature, and in many cases, circumstances surrounding death.

ANTH 4421. North American Archaeology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ANTH 2201.

An introduction to archaeological goals, methods, and interpretation of the prehistory of North America.

ANTH 4425. Historical Archaeology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

The course introduces students to methods and issues in American historical archaeology. Particular emphasis is placed upon archaeological methods and documentary research, changing gender roles, ethnicity, and technological innovations. Case studies will focus on the South but other regional contexts may also be included.

ANTH 4450. Research Methods in Anthropology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ANTH 2105 or ANTH 2201.

Major theoretical ideas and methods used in anthropological research will be examined with a focus on applying them in research and practice.

ANTH 4490. Special Topics in Anthropology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair.

Selected topics of interest to faculty and students.

• ART (ART) •

ART 1100. Two-Dimensional Design and Color Theory. 3-3-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099.

Elements of art and the principles of two-dimensional design, with emphasis on line, shape, texture, space, value elements of color theory executed through conventional methods.

ART 1107. Arts in Society: Visual Arts. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099 and READ 0099 if required.

Through an examination of the role of arts in society, and an in-depth study of visual works of art, this interactive course provides an understanding of the creative process and develops skills in creativity and critical analysis. Heightened perceptual abilities will be developed through class experiences and field visits to a variety of arts events in dance, music and theater as well as in visual arts. (Attendance at some events requires paid admission.)

ART 1150. Drawing I. 3-3-3.

Prerequisite: None.

Drawing, using a variety of media and techniques, including work from figure, still-life and landscape. Some drawing with digital media.

ART 1200. Three-Dimensional Design. 3-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 1150 and ART 1100.

An introductory course in exploring, evaluating and resolving concepts related to basic three-dimensional design problems. Exercises include three-dimensional drawing techniques and model building. Emphasis is placed on the application of elements and design and principles of organization as well as form and space relationships using a variety of media.

ART 2150. Drawing II. 3-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 1100 and ART 1150.

Pictorial composition with studies in use of line, form, value and texture, including work from nature, the life model and setups.

ART 2550. Computer Applications in Art. 3-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 1100 and ART 1150.

The study of computer technology employed by professional artists. Digital presentation and documentation techniques covered. Limited work with art production software.

ART 3000. Professional Practices and Portfolio Review. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Permission of advisor and chair.

A seminar to assess student direction and professional development in the visual arts. A portfolio review and faculty critique will assess student progress, strengths and areas of development. Guest lectures by professional artists will augment class discussions and presentations examining current issues, values and protocols in the visual arts.

ART 3011. Typography I. 1-5-3.

Prerequisite: ART 2550.

The focus of this course is on the history of Graphic Design with emphasis on the exploration and study of typography as a visual communication tool. The course will include an understanding and working knowledge of the grid as a visual design tool for typographic page layout.

ART 3020. Typography II. 1-5-3.

Prerequisite: ART 3000 and ART 3011.

The focus of this course is on concept-based problem solving with emphasis on the appropriate use of type and form. Students will explore historical periods of typography to include well-known designers and design trends. Symbolism and corporate identity design will also be incorporated.

ART 3021. Publication Design. 1-5-3.

Prerequisite: ART 3020.

The focus of this course is on page layout and web design. Two and four-color print publications (magazines, newsletters, brochures, etc.) will be covered, with emphasis on the ability to employ visual structural systems (grids), to produce a cohesive group of layouts in a variety of document formats. Web design will be introduced as another publishing medium.

ART 3022. Pre-Press and Image Manipulation. 1-5-3.

Prerequisite: ART 3000 and ART 3011.

The focus of this course is on digital image manipulation and object oriented-graphics. This will ensure that students have a thorough understanding of digital file formats and their application to page layout. Emphasis will be on production terminology according to the principles of industry standard digital pre-press. Image editing and manipulation for the web will also be covered.

ART 3120. Ceramics I. 3-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 1200 and ART 2150.

Basic processes in ceramics, including pinch pot, coil and slab method of building, and an introduction to ceramic decoration with engobes and textures.

ART 3150. Drawing III - Life Drawing. 3-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 2150 and ART 3000.

Intensive study of the human figure; action, structure, volume, design and expressive potentialities from a variety of models, using a variety of media. Some portraiture.

ART 3160. Painting I. 3-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 1100 and ART 1150.

Painting with various media emphasizing organizational structure, technical considerations and abstract relationships.

ART 3260. Painting II. 3-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 3000 and ART 3160.

Painting with acrylics and/or oils emphasizing organizational structure, abstract relationships and technical considerations.

ART 3300. Sculpture I. 3-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 1200 and ART 2150.

An introduction to selected sculptural processes using a variety of media.

ART 3310. Sculpture II. 0-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 3000 and ART 3300.

In-depth exploration of selected sculpture processes, creative and aesthetic concepts related to the 3 dimensional form.

ART 3360. Ceramics II. 0-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 3000 and ART 3120.

Experiences with hand-built and wheel-thrown methods with emphasis on form, surface treatment, glazing and firing.

ART 3396. Cooperative Study. 1 - 3.

Prerequisite: Approval of coordinator of cooperative educational internships (Career Services).

A supervised work experience program for a minimum of two academic semesters at a site in business, industry or government. For sophomore, junior or senior level students who wish to obtain successive on-the-job experience in conjunction with their academic training.

ART 3398. Art Internship. 1 - 9.

Prerequisite: Permission of department chair.

A supervised, credit-earning work experience of one academic semester with a previously approved business firm, private agency or government agency.

ART 3400. Photography I. 3-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 1100 and ART 2150.

Basic introduction to developing visual skills and photographic techniques using black and white film. Emphasis on exposure, development, print and aesthetics.

ART 3410. Photography II. 3-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 3000 and ART 3400.

A refinement of techniques and visual skills with emphasis on aesthetics using different types of film and cameras. Includes an introduction to digital photographic imaging.

ART 3500. Printmaking I. 3-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 2150 and ART 2550.

Basic printmaking processes including but not limited to relief (wood block), intaglio (etching, engraving) and stencil (silk-screen).

ART 3510. Printmaking II. 3-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 3000 and ART 3500.

Advanced exploration of conventional and experimental printmaking techniques including but not limited to the relief, intaglio and stencil processes.

ART 4011. Design Strategy and Presentation. 3-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 4021.

The focus of this course is the development of business and presentation skills as these relate to graphic design. The student is responsible for taking the client-based projects from concept to finished digital image. The course will include site visits and service learning.

ART 4020. Electronic Illustration. 2-4-3.

Prerequisite: ART 3000 and ART 3011.

The focus of this course is the execution of quality illustrations. The blending of traditional and electronic images will be influenced and strengthened by the history of illustration. The illustrations are adapted for print and web using advanced conceptual skills and digital techniques. The strong development of form and color and the elements and principles of design are stressed.

ART 4021. Advertising and Packaging. 1-5-3.

Prerequisite: ART 3020.

The focus of this course is to explore the role of advertising and packaging as part of the graphic design discipline. Emphasis is on advertising campaign strategies and tactics from a historical perspective, package design solutions targeted to marketing objectives, media realities and display aesthetics. The history and the unique positioning of advertising and packaging is stressed.

ART 4022. Advanced Digital Design: A Senior Applied Project. 2-4-3.

Prerequisite: ART 3022.

The focus of this course is to advance the quality of digital images for the web and print. The emphasis is on a student-centered portfolio project of professional quality. The students prepare, present and demonstrate a high level of mastery in their visual, verbal and presentation styles and techniques. May be taken 3 times for 9 hours.

ART 4150. Advanced Study in Drawing. 0-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 3150.

Selected topics in drawing of an advanced nature which may include independent student research. Can be taken three times, for three credit hours each, for a total of 9 credit hours toward the major.

ART 4260. Painting III - Watercolor. 3-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 3260.

Students paint in transparent and opaque watercolor with emphasis on technical aspects of watercolor painting. Experimental and traditional approaches are presented.

ART 4265. Advanced Study in Painting. 0-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 3260.

Selected topics in painting of an advanced nature which may include independent student research. Can be taken three times, for three credit hours each, for a total of 9 credit hours toward the major.

ART 4310. Advanced Study in Sculpture. 0-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 3310.

Selected topics in sculpture of an advanced nature which may include independent student research. Can be taken three times, for three credit hours each, for a total of 9 credit hours toward the major.

ART 4360. Advanced Study in Ceramics. 0-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 3360.

Selected topics in ceramics of an advanced nature which may include independent student research. Can be taken three times, for three credit hours each, for a total of 9 credit hours toward the major.

ART 4400. Directed Study in Art. 1 - 3.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair.

Selected topics of an advanced nature, which may include original research projects. Can be used in upper-level course requirements only twice with no more than 3 hours credit given each time.

ART 4410. Advanced Study in Photography. 0-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 3410.

Selected topics in photography of an advanced nature which may include independent student research. Can be taken three times, for three credit hours each, for a total of 9 credit hours toward the major.

ART 4490. Special Topics and Art Seminar. 1 - 3.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair.

Selected special topics and seminars of interest to faculty and upper-level students interested in art.

ART 4510. Advanced Study in Printmaking. 3-3-3.

Prerequisite: ART 3510.

Selected topics in printmaking of an advanced nature which may include independent student research. Can be taken three times, for three credit hours each, for a total of 9 credit hours toward the major.

ART 4980. Senior Portfolio and Applied Project. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Permission of the advisor and instructor.

This graduating senior capstone course focuses on the development of a student resume and professional portfolio showcasing work designed for varied platforms. There is also a research component for current job market demands & requirements, as well as graduate school options. The design pieces will demonstrate work that represents an individual style and a high level of conceptual abilities and professionalism.

ART 4990. Senior Art Seminar and Exhibition. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Permission of the advisor and instructor.

This graduating senior capstone course focuses on the development of a professional graduation exhibition, resume and professional portfolios. Career and graduate school research are course components. Selected topics dealing with professional artists and exhibition practices, culminating with the exhibition of participants' work. The exhibition pieces will demonstrate work that represents an individual style and a high level of conceptual abilities and professionalism.

• ART EDUCATION (ARED) •

ARED 3155. Art Education Life Drawing. 2-0-2.

Art majors: ART 2150 and ART 3000.

Art Education Life Drawing is an advanced study of drawing concentrating on the subject matter of the human figure. Each of the approximately 30 sessions will consist of lectures on anatomy with in-class studio work, group critiques and tests of knowledge of subject matter. Media used in this class will progress from graphite and chalks to other media as chosen by the student.

ARED 3302. Teaching, Learning and Development in Visual Arts. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ART 2550.

This course is designed to help students gain an understanding of the current teaching issues in the field of art education and understand development and learning in the P-12 art room. Creative, artistic, and perceptual development will be presented through an examination of the characteristics of diverse learners and an emphasis on the physical, psychosocial-emotional, and cognitive development of P-12 learners.

ARED 3304. Teaching Art History, Criticism and Aesthetics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ARH 2850 and ART 2550.

This course is designed to prepare students to develop strategies for teaching art history, art criticism, and aesthetics in the P-12 art classroom. Students will develop materials appropriate for classroom instruction that stimulate and assess art learning. In addition, this course meets the required learning for Fine Arts Georgia Performance Standards and National Standards for Visual Arts.

ARED 3306. Materials, Methods and Management for Teaching Art (P-12). 3-3-3.

Prerequisite: ARED 2550.

This course is an intensive laboratory experience using the media and materials for teaching art. Intended for prospective art specialists teaching grades P through 12. Methods and strategies for teaching various art media and processes will be covered. Classroom management strategies are integrated into teaching methods.

ARED 3308. Special Populations in Art Education. 2-2-3.

Prerequisite: ARED 3306 and admission to Teacher Education.

This course focuses on content knowledge and applications for art educators teaching students with exceptionalities. Content includes current legal, educational, and therapeutic issues as they relate to teaching art to special populations. Distinctions between art education and art therapy are discussed. This course includes field experiences and admission to Teacher Education. Proof of professional liability insurance is required prior to receiving a school placement.

ARED 3309. Visual Art for Early & Middle Grades. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: 45 credit hours.

A course designed for preparing elementary school educators to integrate meaningful art experiences into the classroom. Prospective elementary classroom educators develop basic concepts, skills, methods of instruction, and teaching competencies in the specific area of the visual arts.

ARED 3310. Multiculturalism & Cross-culturalism in Art Education. 1-2-2.

Prerequisite: EDUC 2201, EDUC 2204.

Corequisite: ARED 3302.

This course involves an exposure to art education literature that focuses on diversity issues in historical and contemporary contexts (including ethnicity, race, socioeconomic status, gender, exceptionalities, language, religion, sexual orientation and geography). Theories and models of contemporary art education practice are explored, which strengthen the respect proper to all classroom diversities. Students participate in field experience activities in schools, museums and other community settings.

ARED 3398. Internship. 1-12 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair.

A supervised, credit-earning work experience of one academic semester with an approved school, museum or educational organization involved in the visual arts.

ARED 4400. Directed Study. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair.

Selected topics of an advanced nature, which may include original research projects. The content of the directed study will be determined jointly by the instructor and the student.

ARED 4410. Intercultural Curriculum Model. 2-2-3.

Prerequisite: ARED 3306 and admission to Teacher Education.

This course is designed to prepare prospective art teachers to be able to plan and organize effective intercultural art programs and curricula, to explore innovative and exemplary art programs and materials, to assess art learning, and to develop a rationale and strategy for articulating and promoting a quality art program. In addition, this course is designed to identify and understand art instruction that meets the required Fine Arts Georgia Performance Standards. Students also participate in a clinical practice activity in a partner school, involving the cooperative creation and delivery of an original intercultural art curriculum unit.

304 Course Descriptions

ARED 4425. Art Instructional Design and Application (P-12). 0-6-3.

Prerequisite: ARED 4410 and admission to Teacher Education.

A comprehensive art education model based course combining curriculum design and instructional methods with in-depth field experience in the public schools. Students will both observe and teach in a classroom setting. Campus seminars will relate the field experiences to current instructional theory. Admission to Teacher Education. Proof of liability insurance required prior to receiving a school placement.

ARED 4470. Student Teaching. 12 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Admission to Student Teaching and EDUC 2130.

Full-time teaching experience in art education under the supervision of a public school supervising teacher and a college supervisor. Must have prior approval of art education program coordinator and of College of Education to student teach. Admission to Teacher Education. Proof of liability insurance required prior to receiving a school placement.

ARED 4490. Special Topics in Art Education. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair.

Selected special topics and seminars of interest to faculty and upper-level students interested in art education.

• ART HISTORY (ARH) •

ARH 2750. Art History Survey I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: None.

This is a lecture/discussion course in which students study the art of Paleolithic cultures and major world civilizations to the 14th century C.E. Prehistoric art, the art of Egypt and the Ancient Near East, classical Greece and Rome, introduction to the traditional art of Asia, Sub-Saharan Africa and early Christian, Byzantine and Islamic art, and the art of the European Middle ages are covered. The survey includes art of the Americas before the arrival of the Spanish. Museum visits are required.

ARH 2850. Art History Survey II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Art majors: ARH 2750 and ENGL 1101. Non art majors: ENGL 1101 and permission of instructor.

This is a lecture/discussion course in which students study major developments and trends from the 14th century C.E. to the end of the 19th century in art of the western world and of major world cultures during the same period. Museum visits are required.

ARH 2950. Art History Survey III. 3-0-3.

Art majors: ARH 2850 and ENGL 1101. Non art majors: ENGL 1101 and permission of instructor.

This is a lecture/discussion course in which students study major developments and trends in 2 and 3 dimensional art since 1900 (with a brief overview of the roots of modern art). Post-modern theories open the study to indigenous, traditional, colonial, and post-colonial cultures in world art. Museum visits are required.

ARH 3398. Internship. 1-9.

Prerequisite: Permission of department chair.

A supervised work experience of one academic semester with a previously approved gallery, museum, or private government agency.

ARH 3550. Latin American Art. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ARH 2750 and ENGL 1102.

A study of Latin-American art from pre-Columbian times to the present.

ARH 3570. African Art. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ARH 2750 and ENGL 1102.

A history and survey of African art, from prehistory to the present.

ARH 3650. Theory and Criticism of the Visual Arts. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ARH 2850 and ENGL 1102.

A study of the basic aesthetic theories and critical methods employed by artists, teachers, critics and art historians. Emphasis on artistic styles and aesthetic philosophies in historical, cultural and creative contexts.

ARH 3670. Survey of Asian Art. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

This lecture/discussion course surveys the art of India and Southeast Asia, China, Japan, and Korea from prehistory to the present. Students study the chronological developments of the major styles of painting, sculpture, architecture, and decorative arts from these regions. The course highlights important examples of works of art to discuss the artistic achievements and the aesthetics of these regions, and explores how cultural, political, religious, and social climates have shaped the visual arts in Asia from the beginnings of its civilization to the 21st century.

ARH 3800. African American Art. 3-0-3.
Prerequisite: ARH 2850 and ENGL 1102.

An introduction to African American art designed to explore the diverse aesthetic expressions of African American artists from colonial times to the present. Through an examination of aspects of the religious, social, cultural and creative history of Black Americans, students will develop an understanding of the wealth of contributions made by people of African descent to the development of American art and culture.

ARH 3950. History of American Art. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ARH 2850 and ENGL 1102.
 Study of the art styles and movements in the United States from colonial times to present.

ARH 4400. Directed Study. 1 - 3.

Prerequisite: Permission of instructor and department chair.
 Selected topics of an advanced nature, which may include original research projects. Can be used in upper-level course requirements only twice with no more than 3 hours credit given each time.

ARH 4450. Renaissance Art. 3-0-3.
Prerequisite: ARH 2850 and ENGL 1102.

A survey of art in Europe from the early 14th century to the mid 16th century. The veneration for classical antiquity and the development of realistic representation are examined. Besides a chronological study, the painters, sculptors and architects in Italy and in Northern Europe are covered. The issues of patronage, artist training and technology are also addressed.

ARH 4490. Special Topics in Art History. 1 - 3.

Prerequisite: ARH 2850, ENGL 1102, and approval of instructor and department chair.
 Selected special topics and seminars of interest to faculty and upper-level students interested in art history.

ARH 4550. Baroque Art. 3-0-3.
Prerequisite: ARH 2850 and ENGL 1102.

A survey of major movements, artists and themes in the 17th and 18th century western art and architecture. The mutual awareness and cultural interchange with the traditions of Africa, Asia, the Americas and Oceania are also emphasized.

ARH 4560. Italian/Dutch Baroque Art History, Materials and Applied Techniques. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ARH 2850, ARH 3150, ENGL 1101, and ENGL 1102.

This is a combination of a lecture/discussion course and a practical application course in which students will examine the art of 17th-century Italy and Holland. The first week of the course will be an art historical examination exploring the character of Italy and Holland as they developed according to historical, social, cultural and artistic trends, while the second week will involve the practical application of painting techniques popular to the Baroque period. These techniques will include, preparing a wood panel with gesso, toning the panel, transferring a preliminary, toned drawing, done with a Conté white pencil, developing an underpainting, and then finally, the application of traditional glazing techniques.

ARH 4570. Caravaggio and the Spaniards. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ARH 2850, ARH 3150, ENGL 1101, and ENGL 1102.

This course consists of two components: 1) a study of the work of the early Italian Baroque painter Michelangelo da Merisi, more commonly known as Caravaggio, and the impact that his unique artistic vision had on 17th-century Spanish painters from Naples-based Jusepe Ribera to the most renowned Spanish painter, Diego Velazquez; and 2) a technical exploration of the painting techniques that make Caravaggio's work and 17th-century Spanish painting so visually impressive, emotionally compelling and dramatic. Students will create a painting, from scratch, during the second segment of the course, either after a masterwork of Caravaggio or after a Spanish master.

ARH 4650. 19th Century Art. 3-0-3.
Prerequisite: ARH 2850 and ENGL 1102.

Study of major developments and trends in 19th century painting, sculpture, graphic design and architecture. Review of major aesthetic theories and non-western art forms that shape 19th century art.

ARH 4660. Romanticism and Its Practice. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ARH 2850, ARH 3150, ENGL 1101, ENGL 1102.

This course consists of a study of the Romantic phenomenon that developed in Europe and the United States, particularly at the end of the 18th and throughout much of the 19th century. We will not only discuss the philosophical ideas, read primary source literature, essays, poetry and prose, including some excerpts from works of fiction, and of course look at the art work in Europe and the United States, but we will create a Romantic painting over the course of the term. We will also listen to some Romantic music and even write about it in class. Romanticism in England, France, Italy, Spain, Germany and the United States will be explored, and students will produce a painting, either a figurative work or a landscape, of the professor's choosing, and based on a Romantic masterpiece.

ARH 4670. Victorian Art and Culture. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ARH 2850, ENGL 1101, ENGL 1102.

This course is in a seminar format. A seminar consists of the presentation of various topics covering a variety of subjects such as art, fashion, poetry, technology and social dynamics, but more importantly, it is a forum for open discussion of pertinent topics. Whenever we come across a topic that we feel is relevant and interesting to Victorian Art and Culture, we open a discussion in class, even if that day's topic is unrelated. The latter includes gender issues and the roles that men and women played in Victorian society. The format of this course will not be the straight-forward lecture approach of survey courses, and class discussions will be the driving force behind the course. The Victorian Period covers the reign of Queen Victoria of England, who sat on the throne from 1837 to 1901. Initially, the professor will present an overview, touching on several different topics that define the Victorian era and subsequent classes will consist of student presentations and in-depth class discussions based on assigned readings. Over the course of the semester we will also watch a video recording entitled 1900 House. It is an experiment conducted recently using a contemporary, middle-class British family, placing them in a Victorian home and requiring them to live like a Victorian family would have at the turn of the twentieth century.

ARH 4680. American Landscape Painting. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ARH 2850, ENGL 1101, ENGL 1102.

This course consists of an in-depth exploration of the phenomenon of American landscape painting. It traces the development of this discipline in the United States, where it took a rather different direction from contemporary European practitioners of the genre, for most of the nineteenth century. The course explores the artistic, social, political and historical implications of the images within the context of American Romanticism, Impressionism and Realism from its beginnings in the early 18th century to the beginning of the 20th century.

ARH 4870. History of Photography. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ARH 2850 and ENGL 1102.

A selective survey of 19th and 20th century photography, primarily in Europe and America. Emphasis on photography's development as an artistic medium. Focus on major practitioners of the medium, and on photography's relationship to historical events, psychology, sociology and the development of art and architecture. ART 2750 recommended.

• ASIAN STUDIES (ASIA) •

ASIA 3309. Survey of Chinese Literature and Culture. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

ASIA 3309, cross-listed as FL 3309, is a survey of Chinese literature and culture, examining major works and literary and artistic movements as well as cultural issues. Readings and discussion in English; some readings in the original for Chinese language students.

ASIA 3670. Survey of Asian Art. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

ASIA 3670 is a lecture/discussion course to survey the art of India and Southeast Asia, China, Japan, and Korea from prehistory to the present. Students in this course study the chronological developments of the major styles of painting, sculpture, architecture, and decorative arts from these regions. This course highlights important examples of works of art to discuss the artistic achievements and the aesthetics of these regions, and to explore how cultural, political, religious, and social climates have shaped the visual arts in Asia from the beginnings of its civilization to the 21st century.

ASIA 4490. Special Topics in Asian Studies. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

Selected special topics of interest to faculty and students working in Asian Studies.

• ASTRONOMY (ASTR) •

ASTR 3320. Astronomy and Cosmology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in any core lab science sequence.

An introduction to stellar Astronomy and Cosmology. Topics include stellar structure and evolution, end states of stars such as white dwarfs and black holes, active galaxies and quasars, the large-scale structure of the universe, and theories for the origin and evolution of the Universe. This course will emphasize physical principles and conceptual understanding.

ASTR 3321. Solar System Astronomy. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in any core lab science sequence.

An introduction to Solar System Astronomy. Topics include planetary motion and its role in the scientific revolution, theories for the origin of the solar system, the history and evolution of the Earth, comparative planetology and the origin of life. This course will emphasize physical principles and conceptual understanding.

• BIOLOGY (BIOL) •

BIOL 2107. Biological Principles I. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 1211/1211L.

A cellular approach to biology. Topics include cell chemistry, cell structure and function, energy metabolism and cell differentiation, and techniques used to study them. Laboratories employ principles of spectrophotometry and differential centrifugation to examine enzyme kinetics, quantification of protein and subcellular fractionation. For science majors.

BIOL 2108. Biological Principles II. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 2107.

An organismal approach to biology. Topics include population genetics, evolution, ecology, behavior and structure/function relationships. In the laboratory, emphasis is on the collection and analysis of data from exercises dealing with population genetics and ecology. Fetal pig dissection is included. For science majors.

BIOL 2221. Human Anatomy & Physiology I. 3-0-3.

Corequisite: CHEM 1151 and CHEM 1151L or SCI 1101.

The course begins with cellular chemistry and function, tissues, and continues through the nervous, skeletal and muscular systems. Homeostasis and structural and functional relationships will be emphasized. Primarily recommended for students interested in nursing, physical therapy and health, physical education and sports science. Cannot be used for credit toward a degree in Biology.

BIOL 2221L. Human Anatomy & Physiology I Laboratory. 0-2-1.

Corequisite: BIOL 2221.

Basic anatomy and physiology of the skeletal, nervous, and muscular systems as well as basic histology. Structural and functional relationships will be emphasized.

BIOL 2222. Human Anatomy & Physiology II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 2221.

A continuation of Biology 2221. Emphasizes homeostasis and structural and functional relationships in the study of cardiovascular, respiratory, urinary, digestive, endocrine, and reproductive systems. Primarily recommended for students interested in nursing, physical therapy and health, physical education, and sports science. Cannot be used for credit toward a degree in Biology.

BIOL 2222L. Human Anatomy & Physiology II Laboratory. 0-2-1.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 2221/2221L; Corequisite: BIOL 2222.

Basic anatomy and physiology of the cardiovascular, respiratory, digestive, urinary endocrine, and reproductive systems. Structural and functional relationships will be emphasized.

BIOL 2261. Fundamental Microbiology. 3-2-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 2221/2221L.

Basic principles and techniques of microbiology including the various types of microbes, their morphology, metabolic processes and their relationships to humans; basic microbiology laboratory principles emphasizing fundamental isolation, identification, and culture techniques. Primarily for nursing majors. Cannot be used for credit toward a degree in Biology.

BIOL 3300. Genetics. 3-2-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 2108 and CHEM 1212/1212L.

Principles of genetics including classical, molecular, population genetics and cytogenetics. Importance of genetics as a foundation for other divisions of biology is stressed. The laboratories will explore concepts in both transmission and molecular genetics. Laboratory exercises will demonstrate the principles of segregation and independent assortment. Sex linkage, epistatic relationships, and the principles of human karyotyping will also be examined. Exercises in molecular genetics will introduce students to the process of recombinant DNA technology and will demonstrate the principles involved in molecular separation techniques.

BIOL 3310. Invertebrate Zoology. 3-2-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 2107, 2108.

An examination of the invertebrates including anatomy, ecology, evolution, physiology and phylogeny of invertebrates. In lab, students will observe and identify a selected group of invertebrate organisms as well as design and conduct studies of invertebrate physiology, diversity, distribution and behavior.

BIOL 3315. Vertebrate Zoology. 3-2-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 2107, 2108.

An examination of the phylogenetic relationships, evolutionary origins, and life history traits of the vertebrates. Laboratories will emphasize the identification of North American vertebrates and examine the relationship between morphology and taxonomy. Two day-long field trips outside of regularly-scheduled lab hours are required.

BIOL 3317. Pathophysiology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: BIOL 2222/2222L or 4431.

Examines the biological basis of common, clinical disease states. Pathophysiology is treated as a disruption of normal homeostatic mechanisms that progresses beyond the normal compensatory capabilities of the human body.

BIOL 3320. Plant Morphology. 3-2-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 2107, 2108.

Evolutionary trends and relationships of major groups of non-vascular and vascular plants as seen in vegetative and reproductive morphology, life cycles and paleobotany. Students will observe and dissect selected groups of non-vascular and vascular plants, with emphasis on evolutionary trends and relationships.

BIOL 3327. Medical Genetics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: BIOL 3300 or consent of instructor.

An introduction to the principles of medical genetics and the application of these principles to human genetic disorders. Topics include inborn errors of metabolism, cytogenetic anomalies, neural tube defects, and application of molecular genetics to the diagnosis of specific disorders. Genetic counseling procedures, prenatal options and the ethical dilemmas generated as a result of these options will also be discussed.

BIOL 3335. Natural History of Georgia. 1-6-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 2107, 2108.

This course examines the flora, fauna, geology and environments of selected Georgia ecosystems. The historical and geological development of the state's major habitats and landforms are examined by way of a series of weekend field trips.

BIOL 3338. Histology. 3-2-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 2107, 2108.

An investigation of structural and functional relationships in animal tissues. Laboratory includes a study of cells, tissues and organs to understand their structural organization from normal animal specimens.

BIOL 3340. Microbiology. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 2107, 2108.

A study of prokaryotic and unicellular eukaryotic organisms, emphasizing morphology, physiology, control, identification, symbiotic relationships, and practical applications. Immunology is studied as a response of vertebrates to microbial infection. The laboratory emphasizes basic microbiological methods of culture and identification of microorganisms. The role of microbes in the environment and in medicine is also investigated.

BIOL 3350. Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 2107, 2108.

A survey of representative vertebrates and related chordates emphasizing phylogeny and anatomical adaptations. Evolutionary trends are examined in the context of large-scale environmental changes that have occurred over geological time. Lab component will have students dissecting selected vertebrates organisms and experimentally determining the physical forces acting on the evolution of vertebrates.

BIOL 3370. Ecology. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 2107, 2108.

Relationships among living organisms and their environments at the individual, population, community and ecosystem level. Laboratory and field activities will emphasize environmental sampling procedures and statistical analysis of sampling data.

BIOL 3371. Limnology. 2-4-4.

Prerequisite: BIOL 2107, 2108.

This course will develop a comprehensive and integrated understanding of physical, chemical and biological processes occurring in lakes, streams and estuaries. The approach will use the scientific method to investigate and contrast basic ecological processes operating in various systems. Students will generate hypotheses from an initial collection of data and from lectures on various limnologic parameters (e.g. light, nutrients, productivity, community structure, pollutants.) Students will test specific hypotheses by developing and implementing field surveys and experimental manipulations.

BIOL 3372. Aquatic Biodiversity. 1-6-4.
Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 3370 or permission of instructor.

An introduction to major plant and animal taxa found in aquatic ecosystems. Students will develop field and laboratory identification and collection skills. Major ecological and biogeographical factors influencing distribution and abundance of aquatic organisms will be examined. A series of three weekend field trips are required.

BIOL 3373. Methods in Aquatic Ecology. 2-4-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 2107/BIOL 2108.

This course provides students experience in design and execution of studies in aquatic ecology. Students will obtain hands-on experience with field and lab techniques used in aquatic research, including drainage basin assessments, assessment of lake and stream habitat and water quality, wetlands delineation, sampling techniques for fish and aquatic invertebrates, and techniques used in aquatic toxicology. Field experiences during regularly scheduled class periods are an integral part of the course.

BIOL 3375. Behavioral Biology. 3-2-4.
Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 2107, 2108 or comparable research methods course. See Biology/Physics Department Chair for approval of other courses.

A survey of the major concepts of neurophysiology, ethology and behavioral ecology, including the behavior of social organisms. Laboratory and field activities emphasize a quantitative, hypothesis testing approach to observing the behavior of animals.

BIOL 3380. Evolutionary Biology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 3300. Principles of evolutionary biology including discussions of natural selection, adaptation, population genetics, speciation, and phylogeny reconstruction. The applications of evolutionary biology to areas such as conservation biology, medicine, and agriculture are discussed.

BIOL 3390. Developmental Biology. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 3300. Developmental process of animals and plants from formation of gametes through the embryonic stages, birth, maturation and aging. Emphasis on anatomical development, experimental embryology and molecular mechanisms of cellular differentiation. Laboratory emphasizes studies in developmental biology techniques including plant and animal cell and tissue culture.

BIOL 3396. Cooperative Study. 1-2.
Prerequisite: Approval of Biology/Physics Department Chair and Coordinator of Cooperative Education/ Internships (Career Services).

A supervised work experience program for a minimum of two academic semesters at a previously approved site in business, industry or government or a private agency. For sophomore, junior or senior level students who wish to obtain successive on-the-job experience in conjunction with their academic training. Can be applied to free electives only.

BIOL 3398. Internship. 1-12.
Prerequisite: Approval of major area committee and Biology/Physics Department Chair prior to registration.

A supervised, credit-earning work experience of one academic semester with a previously approved business firm, private agency or government agency. Credit is allowed only in elective areas.

BIOL 3399. Seminar. 1-0-1.
Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 2107, 2108 or permission of instructor.

Selected topics of current interest, to be announced. May be taken only two times for credit.

BIOL 4000. Service Learning in Biology. 1-3.

Prerequisite: 60 hours and permission of instructor and department chair/program director. A community activity which links learning to life by connecting meaningful community service activities with academic learning, personal growth, and civic responsibility. Activity will be designed with the instructor and approved by the chair/program director.

BIOL 4400. Directed Study. 1-4.
Prerequisite: Approval of instructor, major area committee and Biology/Physics Department Chair prior to registration.

Selected topics of an advanced nature, which may include original research projects. Up to four hours may be applied to the major area.

BIOL 4410. Cell and Molecular Biology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 3300, CHEM 3361.

Cellular function and genetic principles from an experimental point of view. Emphasis on functional interactions among cellular substructures, regulation of cellular biosynthetic activity, molecular genetics, and evaluation of experimental data.

BIOL 4420. Plant Physiology. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 2107, 2108, CHEM 3361.

Plant physiology is the study of plant function. Emphasis will be placed on photosynthesis, secondary metabolism, transport of water and solutes, plant defense against pathogens and herbivores, mineral nutrition, and environmental and hormonal control of growth and development. Each process will be examined at the biochemical, cellular and organismal level so as to provide a more complete understanding of the process. Laboratory studies will expose students to both current and classical approaches used to study plant physiology.

BIOL 4431. Human Physiology. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 2108, PHYS 1111 or 2211, and a minimum of 12 credit hours of upper division biology or chemistry courses.

A course in human systems physiology in which the principle of homeostasis will be used to understand how function is integrated from the cellular to the organismal level. The course will focus on the respiratory, cardiovascular, muscular, and renal systems. Critical thinking and quantitative methods will be emphasized.

BIOL 4450. Team Research. 1-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 3300 and permission of instructor.

This course is a group experience in biological research in which class members form a research team to design, perform, analyze and write up for publication a single project or group of related projects under the supervision and direction of a faculty member.

BIOL 4460. Medical Microbiology. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 3340.

This course will explore the disease process of, the immune response to, and the prevention and treatment of the medically important Monera, Viruses, Fungi and some microscopic Protista with emphasis on emerging infections, including a laboratory experience that focuses on enhancing laboratory and investigative skills.

BIOL 4465. Immunology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 3300; BIOL 3340 recommended.

Immunology will explore current concepts of the immune system. Emphasis will be placed on the induction of the immune response, on the mechanism(s) of those responses, and on the mechanism(s) by which the immune system protects against disease. The development and the role of each of the components involved in the immune response as well as immunological applications will be discussed.

BIOL 4475. Virology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 3300; BIOL 3340 recommended.

This course will explore current concepts associated with the field of virology. The structure and genetic composition of viruses as well as strategies for replication and expression of viral genetic material will be explored. Mechanisms of viral pathogenesis will be presented. In addition, current methods for viral diagnostics, prevention of viral infection and treatment of infected individuals will be presented within the context of viruses of historical significance as well as newly emergent viruses of current medical concern. Novel infectious agents such as satellites, viroids and prions will also be discussed.

BIOL 4486. Bioethics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 3300, plus a minimum of 12 hours of 3000-4000 level Biology/Biotechnology/Biochemistry or consent of instructor.

This course will enable the student to think more critically about some of the difficult moral problems which arise in the practice of science and from our contemporary understanding of living systems and biotechnology. Readings and discussion will focus on issues of personal decision making and public policy regarding both biomedical and environmental issues.

BIOL 4490. Special Topics in Biology. 1-4.

Prerequisite: Varies as to topic.

Selected special or current topics of interest to faculty and students. See semester schedule.

BIOL 4610. Advanced Topics in Anatomy & Physiology. 1-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in one course from Anatomy & Physiology area.

Advanced topic in physiology that may fit the needs and interests of students and faculty. Such topics might include advances in laboratory techniques, microbial physiology and cellular physiology. Can be taken only once for credit toward degree.

BIOL 4620. Advanced Topics in Ecology & Evolution. 1-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 3370 or BIOL 3380.

Advanced topics in ecology and evolution that may fit the needs and interests of students and faculty. Such topics might include advanced lab and field techniques, microbial ecology, evolution of specific taxa, biology of gender. Can be taken only once for credit toward degree.

BIOL 4630. Advanced Topics in Cell & Molecular Biology. 1-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in one course from cell biology area.

Advanced topics in cell or molecular biology that may fit the needs and interests of students and faculty. Such topics might include advanced genetics, microbial genetics, biology of cancer or biotechnology. Can be taken only once for credit toward degree.

• BIOTECHNOLOGY (BTEC) •

BTEC 3301. Introduction to Biotechnology. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 3300.

This course introduces students to the concepts, methods and equipments currently being used in the field of biotechnology including areas of food biotechnology, genetics, diagnostics, gene therapy and forensics. Students gain practical, hands-on experience with a range of commonly used techniques in biotechnology.

BTEC 3396. Cooperative Study. 1-2.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BTEC 3301; Approval of Biology/Physics Department Chair and Coordinator of Cooperative Education/ Internships (Career Services).

A supervised work experience program for a minimum of two academic semesters at a previously approved site in business, industry or government or a private agency. For sophomore, junior or senior level students who wish to obtain successive on-the-job experience in conjunction with their academic training. Can be applied to free electives only.

BTEC 3398. Internship. 1-12.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BTEC 3301; Approval of major area committee and Biology/ Physics Department Chair prior to registration. A supervised, credit-earning work experience of one academic semester with a previously approved business firm, private agency or government agency. Credit is allowed only in elective areas.

BTEC 3399. Seminar in Biotechnology. 1-0-1.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BTEC 3301 or permission of instructor.

Selected topics of an current interest, to be announced. May be taken only two times for credit.

BTEC 3400. Drugs, Biologics, Devices and Diagnostics: Conception to Regulatory Approval. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 3300 or CHEM 3361/3361L; or approval of Biology/Physics department chair.

Students will be given an overview of regulatory issues and practices in biotechnology, focusing on the requirements of the FDA and USDA. Current Good Manufacturing Practice, Good Laboratory Practice, Good Clinical Practice and Hazard Analysis Critical Control Points will be discussed as applied to the conception through approval of drugs, biologics and medical devices. Students will demonstrate an understanding of procedures involved in clinical trials including record keeping, standard operating procedures, methods validation, compliance, and enforcement.

BTEC 3410. Molecular Genetics. 2-3-3

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BTEC 3400 and STAT 3125.

This course provides students with an understanding of the methods used in collecting, organizing and managing data as well as an understanding of the concepts involved in Good Manufacturing Practices as related to the biotechnology industry. Issues involving study design, randomization schemes and sample size will be discussed. Operational issues in clinical trials, recruitment of participants, data collection, quality control and data monitoring are also learned. A clinical trial protocol will be written and reviewed as for regulatory submission.

BTEC 3420. Project Management: Product Registration and Clinical Trials. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Grade of "C" or better in BTEC 3400 and STAT 3125.

This course provides students with an understanding of project design and management as applied to product registration and clinical trials as related to the biotechnology industry. Students develop an understanding of planning, design and team concepts along with estimating techniques. Students will learn to use Microsoft Project (or similar) software and develop proficiency in oral, written and graphic communication skills. Students will also reconcile regulatory affairs and clinical trial issues with ethical practices.

BTEC 4110. Global Biotechnology-Study Abroad. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: BIOL 3300.

This course provides students with a common course that deal with the key scientific, social, economic, commercial, and ethical issues that are associated with the development and growth of the biotechnology industry in the global market. This course reflects a traditional immersion experience in a host university along with extensive global travel and intercultural experiences to show, first hand, what is being studied in the classroom. More specifically students will relate the role of biotechnology and its application in industry in a global perspective. The travel component of this course is to enhance the academic and personal experience of the students along with traditional classroom work. In addition, this course will give students opportunity to learn about their chosen academic field or career choice from an international perspective, learn about communication and interactions skills with people from the host country, and establish successful relationships with others from around the world.

BTEC 4200. Industrial Microbiology. 2-6-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 3340.

This course is a detailed survey of advanced microbiological methods used in industry. Topics include biosafety issues, bacterial and fungal identification, environmental monitoring, methods validation, media preparation and sterilization, anaerobic culture techniques, quantitative methods, and fermentation in batch and continuous cultures.

BTEC 4300. Chromosome Preparation & Analysis. 2-4-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 3300 and BIOL 3327.

An extensive preparatory course designed to give students hands-on experience with the methods used in the preparation of human chromosomes. Collection techniques, culture procedures, harvesting protocol and slide preparation will be followed by analysis and interpretation of karyotypes, both normal and abnormal. Clinical implications of abnormal karyotypes will also be included as will proper use of various types of microscopes and image capture and analysis by computer.

BTEC 4310. Cytogenetics Practicum. 0-10-5.

Prerequisite: "B" or better grade in BTEC 4300 and "C" or better grade in and BIOL 3327, approval by the director of the KSU Cytogenetic Technology Program.

A supervised, credit-earning work experience of two academic semesters in a clinical cytogenetics laboratory affiliated with either a university hospital or a company. The extensive clinical laboratory training includes routine cytogenetic techniques such as G-banding, as well as advanced techniques such as fluorescence in situ hybridization (FISH) and DNA chips. Upon the completion of the internship, the student is eligible to sit for the NCA certification exam.

BTEC 4320. Internship in Pharmaceutical, Biotechnology, or Biomedical Industry. 0-7-3.

Prerequisite: Grade of "C" or better in BTEC 3410 and BTEC 3420 and approval of Biology/Physics department chair prior to registration.

A supervised, credit-earning work experience in the Pharmaceutical, Biotechnology or Biomedical Industry. Students will work in regulatory affairs and/or clinical trials, seeing how their previous course work is actually applied in these industries. This internship is limited to those completing the Certificate Program in Regulatory Affairs and Clinical Trials.

BTEC 4400. Directed Study. 1-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BTEC 3301; Approval of instructor, major area committee and Biology/Physics Department Chair prior to registration.

Selected topics of an advanced nature, which may include original research projects. Up to four hours may be applied to the major area.

BTEC 4455. Case Studies in Forensic Science. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 3300; CRJU 3320 (recommended).

This course will discuss the role and application of forensic science in criminal investigations and legal proceedings. Emphasis will be placed on forensic DNA analysis but other aspects of forensic science will also be discussed.

BTEC 4460. Methods in Forensic DNA Analysis. 1-6-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 3300.

This laboratory-intensive, course will introduce students to the techniques currently used in Forensic DNA Profiling by crime labs in Georgia and across the country. Laboratory activities will include extraction and quantification of DNA from your own cheek cells, and state-of-the-art PCR-based DNA profiling methods. The course is designed to allow students to experience the full range of activities associated with the various procedures. Activities will include solution preparation, sample processing, record keeping, data interpretation, and report generation. Discussions will include the historical development of previously-used DNA profiling methods, alternative procedures employed in some laboratories, and the ongoing development of new DNA profiling methods. Legal issues associated with quality control, frequency estimates, sample condition, chain of custody, and admissibility will also be presented.

BTEC 4490. Special Topics in Biotechnology. 1-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BTEC 3301; Other vary as to topic. Selected special or current topics of interest to faculty and students. See semester schedule.

BTEC 4800. Forensic Diagnostics: Infectious Agents. 2-3-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BIOL 3340 and BTEC 3301.

The application of microscopy, antibody-based techniques and molecular probes for the detection and identification of infectious agents.

• BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (BUSA) •

BUSA 1000. Introduction to Business. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Freshman or sophomore standing; Non-business Majors: None. Broad spectrum analysis of business enterprise, its nature, environment, organization, management, operation and control procedures.

BUSA 4490. Special Topics in Business Administration. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Sophomore GPA Requirement and approval of instructor and department chair; Non-business Majors: Approval of instructor and department chair.

Selected special topics of interest to faculty and students.

• BUSINESS INFORMATION SYSTEMS MANAGEMENT (BISM) •

BISM 2100. Business Information Systems & Communication. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1101, three credit hours of MATH numbered 1101 or higher. This course assumes a basic proficiency in MS Office applications (Word, Excel, and PowerPoint). The Office for Undergraduate Business Programs has a list of the basic skills required; free training on those skills is available through Information Technology Services for students currently enrolled in any KSU course.

Business information systems course designed to: (1) improve communications skills appropriate to the business setting; (2) expand proficiency in the use of business application software; and (3) introduce information technology concepts relevant to doing business in an electronic environment.

BISM 3100. Information Systems Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and BISM 2100; Non-business Majors: BISM 2100.

Illustrates how to effectively use, manage, and participate in the development of information technology applications that support common business processes. Focuses on the interdependence among an organization's management, business processes, and information systems. Provides hands-on experience in developing a business information system.

BISM 3200. Advanced Business Application Systems. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and BISM 2100; Non-business Majors: BISM 2100.

Designed to provide the business student with an understanding of advanced microcomputer applications with a focus on database applications and their management and use in organizations. Emphasis is on providing students with the understanding and skills to conceptualize, develop and manage end-user applications.

BISM 4100. Business Systems Analysis and Design. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement, BISM 3100; Non-business Majors: BISM 3100 and permission of the Director of the School of Accountancy.

An introduction to the basic concepts underlying systems analysis and design, and the application of those techniques in the development of business information systems. Focus is on preparing business managers to be active and effective participants in an information technology development project.

BISM 4400. Directed Study. 1-3 Semester Hours.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and approval of instructor, and the Director of the School of Accountancy prior to registration; Non-business Majors: Approval of instructor and the Director of the School of Accountancy prior to registration.

This is a special topics course of an advanced nature which focuses on information systems subject areas not covered in regular business course offerings.

BISM 4490. Special Topics in Business Information Systems. 1-3 Semester Hours.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and approval of instructor and the Director of the School of Accountancy; Non-business Majors: 60 semester hours and approval of instructor and the Director of the School of Accountancy.

Selected topics of interest to faculty and students.

• BUSINESS LAW (BLAW) •

BLAW 2200. Legal and Ethical Environment of Business. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1101.

Covers torts, contracts, government regulation of business and the legal system. Also addresses ethical issues arising in a business' internal and external relationships.

BLAW 3400. Negotiation. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement; Non-business Majors: 60 semester hours.

An examination of the theory and practice of negotiation. In addition to reviewing readings, students will participate in simulations and discuss negotiation cases to broaden their negotiating techniques.

BLAW 4100. Advanced Business Law. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement; Non-business Majors: 60 semester hours; BLAW 2200 recommended and permission of the Director of the School of Accountancy. BLAW 2200 recommended.

A study of legislation regulating business partnerships, corporations, commercial paper, secured transactions, sales, consumer credit and bankruptcy.

BLAW 4200. Employment Law. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement; Non-business Majors: 60 semester hours, and the permission of the Director of the School of Accountancy. bLAW 2200 recommended.

A study of the influence of law on the personnel function, with special emphasis on discrimination laws and affirmative action issues. Provides an overview of various federal laws such as the National Labor Relations Act, The Fair Labor Standards Act and ERISA.

BLAW 4300. Real Estate Law. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement; Non-business Majors: 60 semester hours; BLAW 2200 recommended and permission of department chair.

Designed to provide the business student with an understanding of the nature, sources and principles of real estate law, and its importance in the business environment. Topics include: real property; contracts involving real estate, deeds and titles; transfer of real estate, mortgages, liens, zoning and land use controls, condemnation, real estate agents and landlord-tenant law.

BLAW 4400. Directed Study. 1 -3 semester hours.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and approval of instructor and the Director of the School of Accountancy prior to registration; Non-business Majors: Approval of instructor and the Director of the School of Accountancy prior to registration.

Special topics of an advanced nature not in the regular course offerings.

BLAW 4490. Special Topics In Business Law. 1-3 semester hours.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and approval of instructor and the Director of the School of Accountancy; Non-business Majors: 60 semester hours and approval of instructor and the Director of the School of Accountancy.

Selected topics of interest to faculty and students.

BLAW 4500. Franchise Law. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement; Non-business Majors: 60 semester hours and permission of the Director of the School of Accountancy. BLAW 2200 recommended.

Designed to provide the business student with an understanding of the nature, sources and principles of franchise law and its importance in the business environment. Topics include: fundamentals of franchising, intellectual property, FTC Rules and disclosure, requirements of franchise registration and business opportunity law and earnings claims.

BLAW 4600. International Law: Business Applications. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement; Non-business Majors: 60 semester hours; BLAW 2200 recommended and permission of the Director of the School of Accountancy. BLAW 2200 recommended.

Examines the international legal system and alternative means of international dispute resolution. Covers laws that determine when and under what conditions companies are allowed to do business abroad. Cases used to explore choosing the most appropriate business relationship and entering the most advantageous agreement.

BLAW 4960. Current Issues in Business Ethics and Law. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement; Non-business Majors: 60 semester hours and permission of the Director of the School of Accountancy. BLAW 2200 recommended.

An examination of contemporary issues in legal and ethical behavior in organizations. Stresses the application of ethical principles to business.

Prerequisite: MATH 0099 and READ 0099 (if required). Corequisite: CHEM 1151L.

General principles of atomic structure, bonding, reaction, solutions, equilibria as required for a basic understanding of physiological applications. A brief introduction to organic compounds which are of particular importance in pharmacological applications.

CHEM 1151L. Survey of Chemistry I Laboratory. 0-3-1.

Corequisite: CHEM 1151.

Laboratory course to study and apply topics and concepts covered in CHEM 1151.

CHEM 1152. Survey of Chemistry II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisites: "C" or better grade in CHEM 1151. Corequisite: CHEM 1152L.

A study of the classes of organic molecules including their common uses and physical and chemical properties. An introductory look at the structure and function of biological macromolecules.

CHEM 1152L. Survey of Chemistry II Laboratory. 0-3-1.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 1151L. Corequisite: CHEM 1152.

Laboratory course to study and apply the topics and concepts covered in CHEM 1152.

CHEM 1211. General Chemistry I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: High school chemistry or CHEM 1151. Corequisite: CHEM 1211L, MATH 1113 or MATH 1112.

First course in a two-semester sequence covering the fundamental principles and applications of chemistry for science majors. Course content includes electronic structure of atoms and molecules, bonding fundamentals, fundamentals of chemical reactions, and gas laws.

CHEM 1211L. General Chemistry I Laboratory. 0-3-1.

Prerequisite: None. Corequisite: CHEM 1211, MATH 1113.

First laboratory course in general chemistry. Designed to introduce the student to the application of cognitive skills utilizing chemical knowledge in the laboratory.

CHEM 1212. General Chemistry II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 1211. Corequisite: CHEM 1212L, MATH 1190.

Second course in a two-semester sequence covering the fundamental principles and applications of chemistry for science majors. Course content includes chemical kinetics, chemical thermodynamics, liquids and solids, properties of solutions, chemical equilibrium, acids and bases, electrochemistry, and qualitative analysis.

CHEM 1212L. General Chemistry II Laboratory. 0-3-1.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 1211, CHEM 1211L. Corequisite: CHEM 1212.

Second laboratory course in general chemistry. Designed to continue the application of cognitive skills utilizing chemical knowledge in the laboratory including qualitative analysis techniques.

CHEM 2100. Forensic Chemistry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 1211, CHEM 1211L. Corequisite: CHEM 2100L.

Course content includes: the scope of forensic chemistry; types of physical evidence, processing a crime scene; application of chemistry techniques in the identification and analysis of physical evidence (drugs, blood, fire residues, glass, soil, ink, etc); forensic toxicology and forensic aspects of arson.

CHEM 2100L. Forensic Chemistry Lab. 0-3-1.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 1211, CHEM 1211L. Corequisite: CHEM 2100.

Students will use chemistry to analyze crime-scene samples. Hands-on activities will be related to glass and drug identification, trace evidence, breath and ink analyses and blood typing. Techniques such as chromatography, ultraviolet-visible and infrared spectroscopy, refractive index measurement, breath-analyzers, blood-typing kits, will be used.

CHEM 2800. Quantitative Analytical Chemistry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in both CHEM 1212 and MATH 1190. Corequisite: CHEM 2800L. Introduction to statistics. The use of spreadsheets. Principles of gravimetric and volumetric analysis. Concepts of chemical equilibria as applied to acid-base, precipitation, and complex ion reactions. Electrochemistry and potentiometry. Ultraviolet - visible spectroscopy. Introduction to modern chromatographic separations.

CHEM 2800L. Quantitative Analytical Chemistry Laboratory. 0-4-1.

Corequisite: CHEM 2800.

Prerequisite: CHEM 1212L.

Laboratory experiments include: gravimetric analysis, precipitation, complexiometric, and reduction-oxidation titrations; potentiometric applications; calibration techniques using ultraviolet - visible spectroscopy. Tutorials on the application of spreadsheets.

CHEM 3000. Chemical Literature. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3361.

An exploration of the process and practice of chemical research that leads to publication. An introduction to resources and methods for searching the chemical literature.

CHEM 3010. Medicinal Chemistry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3501 or CHEM 3500.

This course covers fundamentals of pharmacology such as drug discovery / development and pharmacokinetics, with emphasis given to the role of chemistry and biochemistry in these areas. A main focus of the course will be how drugs function at the molecular level. Examples will be chosen from drugs that target enzymes, receptors, and DNA.

CHEM 3050. Physical Chemistry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 2202 and CHEM 2800.

This is a one semester course in physical chemistry taken by students majoring in biochemistry, general chemistry, forensic chemistry and chemistry education. The course provides a survey of thermodynamics, chemical equilibria, and kinetics. It also includes an introduction to the quantum mechanical principles important in understanding molecular spectroscopy and molecular modeling.

CHEM 3100. Inorganic Chemistry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3000, CHEM 3601.

Introduction to inorganic chemistry for the professional degree. Topics include atomic structure, bonding, coordination chemistry, nomenclature, reaction mechanisms, symmetry, structure, and a general survey of descriptive inorganic chemistry.

CHEM 3105L. Inorganic Synthesis. 0-3-1.

Corequisite: CHEM 3100 or 3120.

Laboratory course to introduce the concepts and practices of inorganic synthetic chemistry. Emphasis is on the synthesis, characterization, reactivity, structure, and other properties of the inorganic compounds and complexes. The course introduces standard methodology for the synthesis and characterization of known compounds. Team research projects then incorporate the same methods for the synthesis and characterization of new compounds yet to be reported in the literature.

CHEM 3110. Bioinorganic Chemistry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3050. Corequisite: CHEM 3110L.

General aspects of bioinorganic chemistry will be discussed including physical methods, roles of metals in biological systems, classes of metalloproteins and metalloenzymes, and metals in medicine. The primary focus is on understanding how metals make a variety of biological functions possible through their unique properties.

CHEM 3110L. Bioinorganic Chemistry Laboratory. 0-3-1.

Corequisite: CHEM 3110.

The aim of this laboratory is to integrate concepts from biology and inorganic chemistry by performing experiments that lie at the interface of these two disciplines. Lecture topics will be reinforced through experiments covering synthesis and analysis of bioinorganic model compounds, enzyme activity as it relates to metal availability, and metal therapeutics.

CHEM 3120. Descriptive Inorganic Chemistry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3050. Corequisite: CHEM 3105L.

General aspects of inorganic chemistry including bond theory, periodicity, acid-base chemistry, energetics, reaction mechanisms, model systems, kinetics, redox chemistry, and descriptive chemistry of the elements with primary focus of taking students from the introductory principles of chemistry to a broader and deeper level of understanding of the chemistry across the periodic table.

CHEM 3361. Modern Organic Chemistry I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 1212.
Corequisite: CHEM 3361L.

The first of a two-semester course sequence in modern organic chemistry, this course involves a study of structure, properties, synthesis and reactions of basic organic compounds using modern structural and mechanical theories.

CHEM 3361L. Modern Organic Chemistry Lab I. 0-3-1.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 1212L.
Corequisite: CHEM 3361.

Laboratory experiments designed to introduce the students to modern experimental method used in organic chemistry for separation of mixture, purification of compounds, and reactions illustrating single functional group transformation.

CHEM 3362. Modern Organic Chemistry II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3361.
Corequisite: CHEM 3362L.

The second of a two-semester course sequence in modern organic chemistry, this course involves a study of structure, properties, synthesis and reactions of basic organic compounds using modern structural and mechanical theories.

CHEM 3362L. Modern Organic Chemistry Lab II. 0-3-1.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3361L.
Corequisite: CHEM 3362.

Laboratory experiments designed to introduce the students to modern experimental methods used in organic chemistry synthesis, characterization of compounds, and multistep synthesis of useful target-compounds from readily available starting material.

CHEM 3396. Cooperative Study. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of coordinator of cooperative education/internship.

A supervised, credit-earning work experience of one academic semester with a previously approved business firm, private agency or government agency. Credit is allowed only in elective areas.

CHEM 3398. Internship. 1-10 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of internship coordinator and chair.

A supervised, credit-earning work experience of one academic semester with a previously approved business firm, private agency or government agency. Credit is allowed only in elective areas.

CHEM 3400. The Teaching and Learning of Chemistry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3361.

An introduction to the methods of effective chemistry teaching in both the classroom and laboratory settings. Current chemical education research literature on topics such as theories of teaching, active learning strategies, misconceptions, multiculturalism, laboratory design, demonstrations, and assessment will be introduced and discussed. Class meetings will include hands-on activities where demonstrations and laboratory investigations are designed, enacted, and assessed as well as discussions about research-based best practices in the presentation of chemistry concepts to diverse student populations. Time will also be devoted to ensuring that essential chemistry content such as electrochemistry, thermodynamics, kinetics, and bonding are thoroughly understood so that they can be communicated effectively in the classroom.

CHEM 3450. Peer Leading in Chemistry. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: CHEM 3361 or instructor consent.

The purpose of this course is to support and prepare students for the role of peer leader. Peer leaders work with small groups of students that are enrolled in introductory chemistry courses on a weekly basis. The course involves training in pedagogical techniques and a review of relevant chemistry concepts. Emphasis is made on reflective practices within the peer led setting. Enrollment by permit only.

CHEM 3500. Biochemistry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3362.

This course is a one-semester, lecture-only biochemistry course. Concepts covered include the structure and function of biomolecules, membranes, enzyme kinetics, metabolism and bioenergetics, as well as biological information flow. Intended for chemistry, biology, or biotechnology majors. Biochemistry majors are required to take CHEM 3501/L and CHEM 3502.

CHEM 3500L. Biochemistry Laboratory. 0-3-1.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3362L.
Corequisite: CHEM 3500.

This laboratory serves as an introduction to biochemistry laboratory techniques and includes biochemical applications of spectroscopy, electrophoresis and chromatography. CHEM 3500L is a laboratory companion to CHEM 3500 and is taken by general chemistry, forensic, professional, and chemistry education track chemistry majors and others needing a one semester biochemistry course with laboratory. This laboratory is not intended for biochemistry majors.

CHEM 3501. Biochemistry I: Structure and Function of Biological Macromolecules. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 2800 and CHEM 3362. Corequisite: CHEM 3501L. Chemistry and biochemistry of macromolecules: proteins, carbohydrates, lipids, and nucleic acids. Introduction to enzymes.

CHEM 3501L. Biochemistry I Laboratory. 0-3-1.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 2800L and CHEM 3362L. Corequisite: CHEM 3501. Introduction to biochemistry laboratory techniques including centrifugation, chromatography, electrophoresis, spectroscopy, and exploration of bimolecular structure using computer graphics.

CHEM 3502. Biochemistry II: Metabolism. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3501. A detailed study of enzyme mechanisms, thermodynamics, and major metabolic pathways, including carbohydrate, lipid, and amino acid metabolism.

CHEM 3540L. Advanced Biochemistry Laboratory. 0-6-2.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3501L. Laboratory course intended for students who plan to work in an industrial setting or attend graduate school in one of the biosciences. This laboratory combines the techniques from Biochemistry I Laboratory (CHEM 3501L) in a realistic, applied way to solve multistep problems.

CHEM 3601. Physical Chemistry I: Rates of Reactions, Atomic and Molecular Structure and Spectroscopy. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 2800/L, PHYS 2211, and MATH 2202. Corequisite: CHEM 3601L. CHEM 3601 is the first course in a two-semester sequence in physical chemistry required for students in the Professional Chemistry Track. This course covers two distinct areas of study. The first topic area includes chemical kinetics and transport phenomena. The second area provides an introduction to quantum mechanics and its application to selected chemical systems, atomic structure, chemical bonding, atomic spectroscopy, rotational, vibrational and electronic spectroscopy of small molecules.

CHEM 3601L. Physical Chemistry Lab I. 0-3-1.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in CHEM 2800/L, PHYS 2211, and MATH 2202. Corequisite: CHEM 3000, CHEM 3601. Laboratory methods in physical chemistry.

CHEM 3602. Physical Chemistry II: Thermodynamics and Statistical Mechanics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3601. Corequisite: CHEM 3602L. CHEM 3602 is the second in a two-semester sequence covering physical chemistry, and has its primary emphasis on chemical thermodynamics and statistical mechanics and statistical thermodynamics. The course includes physical and chemical properties of real and ideal gases, the laws of thermodynamics and their application to physical and chemical systems, treatment of phase equilibria and chemical equilibria, and extends the application of quantum mechanics to thermodynamics in the development of statistical thermodynamics.

CHEM 3602L. Physical Chemistry Lab II. 0-3-1.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3601L. Corequisite: CHEM 3602. Continuation of CHEM 3601L.

CHEM 3700. Environmental Chemistry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3361. This course will cover the environmental chemistry involving the transport, distribution, reactions, and speciation of inorganic, organometallic and organic chemicals occurring in the air, soil and water environments at the local, national and global scale. Environmental transformations and degradation processes, toxicology, pollution and hazardous substances will be discussed.

CHEM 3710L. Environmental Chemistry Lab. 0-3-1.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3361L. This laboratory course is designed to teach sampling, environmental analysis, data handling, systems modeling, specialized instrumental techniques, and field techniques related to atmospheric, geologic, and freshwater environmental chemistry. Additionally, team research projects will be designed to address a specific question related to the topics mentioned above.

CHEM 3800. Forensic Analytical Chemistry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in CHEM 2800 and CHEM 3362. This course covers fundamental topics of forensic analytical chemistry including statistics and data quality, sample preparation, drugs (pharmacology and toxicology), arson and the chemistry of combustion, and trace chemical evidence. Throughout the course, emphasis is placed on modern chemical instrumentation as applied to forensic casework. Students on the Forensic Chemistry track must take this course with CHEM 3800L.

CHEM 3800L. Forensic Analytical Chemistry Lab. 0-3-1.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in CHEM 2800L and CHEM 3362L. Corequisite: CHEM 3800.

Students will use modern chemical instrumentation to analyze simulated crime scene samples. Activities related to drug identification, arson debris analysis, and trace chemical analysis will be performed. Laboratory experiments will be designed to introduce students to the types of samples and analytical methodology encountered in a working crime lab.

CHEM 4000. Service Learning in Chemistry. 1-3.

Prerequisite: 60 hours and permission of instructor and department chair/program director.

A community activity which links learning to life by connecting meaningful community service activities with academic learning, personal growth, and civic responsibility. Activity will be designed with the instructor and approved by the chair/program director.

CHEM 4100. Directed Applied Research. 1-5 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Junior level status; consent of instructor and chair.

Applied research project directed by a faculty member.

CHEM 4110. Advanced Topics in Inorganic Chemistry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3100, CHEM 3602.

Survey of modern inorganic chemistry and current theories concerning atomic structure, bonding, coordination chemistry, spectroscopy including a discussion of symmetry and group theory as they apply to the characterization of inorganic compounds, ligand field theory and other topics.

CHEM 4300. Instrumental Analytical Chemistry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 2800 and "C" or better grade in CHEM 3050 or CHEM 3601. Corequisite: CHEM 4300L.

Introduction to chemometrics. Theoretical principles and uses of modern instrumental methods covering: spectroscopy, electroanalysis, and chromatographic separations.

CHEM 4300L. Instrumental Analytical Chemistry Laboratory. 0-4-1.

Corequisite: CHEM 4300. Prerequisite: CHEM 2800L.

Laboratory experiments include: calibration techniques for analyzing single-component and multicomponent systems, application of spectroscopy (UV-VIS, AAS), electroanalysis (different forms of voltammetry), chromatographic separations (LC, GC) in quantitative and qualitative analysis.

CHEM 4310. Advanced Topics in Analytical Chemistry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3602.

Advanced theories and methods in analytical chemistry emphasizing newer analytical methods in practice in modern laboratories.

CHEM 4400. Directed Study. 1-5 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor, major area committee and department chair prior to registration.

Up to five hours may be applied to the major area. Special topics of an advanced nature that are not in the regular course offerings.

CHEM 4420. Identification of Organic Compounds. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3362.

Advanced study of common spectrometric techniques for identifying organic compounds. Emphasis on interpretation of data obtained from Infrared Spectroscopy (IR), Mass Spectrometry and Nuclear Magnetic Resonance (NMR), including two-dimensional NMR.

CHEM 4430. Advanced Topics in Organic Chemistry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3362.

Advanced topics in organic chemistry as may fit the needs and interest of the students and faculty. Such topics might include stereochemistry, physical organic chemistry, heterocycles.

CHEM 4430L. Advanced Topics in Organic Chemistry Lab. 0-3-1.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3362L. Corequisite: CHEM 4430.

Laboratory experiments designed to teach students the process of design, planning, and implementation of organic synthesis and the characterization of compounds using classic analytic methods and modern spectroscopic techniques.

CHEM 4440. Polymer Chemistry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3362.

Topics in modern polymer chemistry including synthesis, kinetics, characterization, and uses.

CHEM 4500. Methods in Nucleic Acid and Protein Biochemistry. 2-3-3.

Prerequisite: CHEM 3501 and CHEM 3501L, and BIOL 3300.

This course covers the chemical aspects of biochemical techniques routinely performed in the study of DNA, RNA, and protein. This course will build upon and complement the information on proteins and enzymes covered in biochemistry courses and the basic understanding of DNA, RNA, replication, transcription, and translation that students learn in biochemistry, genetics and other biology courses. The laboratory component of this course provides an opportunity for multi-week projects that combine methods learned in previous courses with new methods, and as such it serves as a capstone experience in biochemical methodology.

CHEM 4510. Advanced Topics in Biochemistry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3501.

Topics relating to the chemistry of metabolic processes in living organisms.

CHEM 4620. Advanced Topics in Physical Chemistry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CHEM 3602.

Advanced topics in physical chemistry with emphasis in such areas as quantum mechanics, statistical mechanics, kinetics, and molecular spectroscopy.

• CHINESE (CHNS) •

CHNS 1001. Introduction to Chinese Language and Culture I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099, READ 0099, if required.

Introduction to Chinese language and culture, stressing progressive acquisition of effective communication skills in both the written and spoken language and an understanding of the practices and products of Chinese culture. Not open to native speakers of Chinese.

CHNS 1002. Introduction to Chinese Language and Culture II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: One year of high school Chinese or CHNS 1001 or the equivalent.

Introduction to Chinese language and culture, Part II, stressing continued progressive acquisition of effective communication skills in both the written and spoken language and an understanding of the practices and products of Chinese culture. Not open to native speakers of Chinese.

CHNS 2001. Intermediate Chinese Language and Culture I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Two years of high school Chinese or CHNS 1002 or the equivalent.

Students continue to develop proficiency in listening, speaking, reading and writing in Chinese and learn to communicate in culturally appropriate ways. Not open to native speakers of Chinese.

CHNS 2002. Intermediate Chinese Language and Culture II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Three years of high school Chinese or CHNS 2001 or the equivalent.

Students continue to increase linguistic and cultural proficiency through the use of a variety of materials and activities. Not open to native speakers of Chinese.

CHNS 3200. Critical Reading and Applied Writing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: CHNS 2002 or the equivalent.

A study of selected readings of signs, news, and literary and cultural works to increase vocabulary, enhance grammar skills, and develop reading skills. Designed to give students extensive experience in reading Chinese.

CHNS 3302. Practical Conversation. 3-3-3.

Prerequisite: CHNS 2002 or the equivalent.

This course stresses expansion of effective listening comprehension and speaking skills through culturally and linguistically appropriate activities.

CHNS 3303. Grammar and Composition. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: CHNS 2002 or the equivalent.

This course is a general review of grammar and composition and other writing activities, such as summaries, correspondence, descriptions, narration, literary analysis, and other rhetorical and culturally appropriate forms.

• COMMUNICATION (COM) •

COM 1109. Human Communication. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099, READ 0099, if required.

An introduction to the fundamental components of the human communication process, emphasizing selected concepts, methods, and practice in dyadic, small group, and presentational settings. Covers such areas as information gathering, message design, audience considerations, verbal/nonverbal approaches, discussion/delivery strategies, critical analysis, and related media technology support resources. Includes student speaking assignments.

COM 2033. Visual Communication. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1101 and ENGL 1102.

COM 2033 is an introduction to visual communication using perceptual, physiological, psychological, cultural, and semiotic concepts. The course focuses on visual awareness and processing as key elements in effective communication.

COM 2129. Public Speaking. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: All developmental studies courses if required.

COM 2129 covers methods and practice in effective oral communication with an emphasis on speech preparation and presentation.

COM 2135. Writing for Public Communication. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1101 and 1102.

COM 2135 covers application and practice of writing form and style particular to communication industry careers, such as journalism, public relations and human resource areas. Includes weekly writing assignments.

COM 2205. Introduction to Communication in Organizations. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 2129 and COM 2135.

An introduction to methods and applications of basic theories, interactive structures, and directions within various organizational environments.

COM 2230. Introduction to Mass Communication. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 2129 and COM 2135.

COM 2230 is a survey of the various genres of mass media such as books, magazines, newspapers, radio, television, film, Internet and others. Examines the development, roles, functions, problems and criticisms of specific media from a global context.

COM 3310. Concepts in New Media. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 2230 or permission of instructor, if not a communication major.

An analysis of the content, process and distribution of new media, including Web-based, network-based, and CD-ROM based products. Students will examine, evaluate and prepare material for informational, educational, and/or entertainment new media as well as explore the process of computer-assisted communication.

COM 3315. Interviewing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

Methods and practice in situational interviewing, including selection, sales, journalistic and media interviews. Examines roles and functions of both interviewee and interviewer.

COM 3324. Contemporary Issues in Mass Media. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 2230.

Exploration and analysis of evolving and emerging issues in mass media, including economic, regulatory and technological developments and trends.

COM 3325. Intercultural Communication. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

A study of cultural and communication variables that impact the interaction process between peoples. Intercultural communication is examined during the time communication participants share ideas, information, persuasion and emotions.

COM 3330. News Reporting and Writing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 2205 or COM 2230.

COM 3330 is an introduction to the ways and means of developing, gathering, writing and editing factual and editorial copy. The course examines news personnel functions, reporting and interviewing techniques, ethical and legal considerations, along with news-writing practice surrounding the above.

COM 3335. Public Relations Principles. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 2205 or COM 2230 or permission of instructor, if not a communication major.

An introduction to the history, role, and functions of public relations, including public relations theory, ethics, and industry and career issues.

COM 3340. Digital Media Production. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 2230 or COM 2205 and IS 2101.

COM 3340 focuses on the application and impact of digital media technology and how it has changed the production experience in a journalistic context. The course addresses the principles of shooting, sound characteristics, ergonomics, and basic techniques for field recording (time-code, miking, shot composition, and mixing). Audio and video formats are examined in the context of non-linear post-production.

COM 3345. Group Communication. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 2205 and 60+ credit hours or permission of instructor, if not a communication major.

COM 3345 is a study of input, process and output variables in small group discussion. The emphasis on participation, observation and evaluation of various discussion methods.

COM 3355. Public Relations Cases. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 3335.

COM 3355 examines basic roles and functions of messaging strategies in promoting organizational goals. A case study approach will emphasize theory and methods for effective communication with diverse organizational publics, including the mass media, employees, consumers, financial stakeholders and special interest groups.

COM 3360. Photojournalism. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 3330.

COM 3360 introduces the fundamentals of how still photography is used to document our world in a public sphere. The course covers the skills, theory, aesthetics and ethics of newspaper, magazine and online photojournalism. Visual storytelling from a single picture to a multi-image photo essay is explored. A digital portfolio is to be produced and presented at the end of the term. Personal digital camera required.

COM 3366. Nonverbal Communication. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

A comprehensive review of communication without the use of words. Examines the research on body movement, territory, and environmental design, touch, eye behavior, vocal attractiveness, time use, deception, and body alterations such as attire.

COM 3375. Public Relations Writing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 3335.

COM 3375 offers practice in writing public relations applications, including news releases, public service announcements, and newsletter articles. Students will create a portfolio of writing samples.

COM 3376. Interpersonal Communication. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

Theory and application of communication concepts involving interpersonal relationships and contexts.

COM 3398. Internship in Communication. 1-9 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of departmental internship coordinator and eligibility based on the following criteria: junior standing (60+ credit hours) at least a 2.5 GPA, and at least one semester of communication coursework successfully completed at Kennesaw State University.

A supervised, credit-earning work experience of approximately one semester with a previously approved business firm, private agency, or government agency. Up to nine communication internship hours may be earned for credit. To help students build their resume, a maximum of six credit hours may be earned at one internship site per semester. If a student chooses a second internship, he or she must take an internship with another organization.

COM 3435. Communication Research Methods. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 2205 or COM 2230.

COM 3435 is an introduction to the nature of academic inquiry in communication, the basic structure and methodology of professional and academic research, and the resources available for access to published research.

COM 3459. Communication and Conflict. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 1109 and 60+ credit hours.

COM 3459 introduces a model of effective conflict management in organizations and other contexts via appropriate communicative strategies. The model proposes that our perspective of dealing with conflict determines our approach to conflict situations. This course will provide students with practical knowledge for understanding the benefits of conflict, recognizing its evolution, and applying various strategies for dealing with different people in a variety of contexts.

COM 4100. Directed Applied Research. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: COM 3435 and consent of the instructor and chair.

COM 4100 offers students an opportunity to investigate communication-oriented concepts and issues by assisting in faculty-led research or scholarship. Course content and instructional methodologies are identified by the faculty's needs and expectations. The amount of work expected per student is based on the number of assigned credit hours.

COM 4344. Organizational Training and Development. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 2205 and 60+ hours; or permission of instructor, if not a communication major.

COM 4344 covers methods and practice in communication training and development for organizations including pre-assessment, writing objectives, training techniques, post-training evaluation, feedback, implementation. The emphasis is on communication processes and outcomes for the trainer and trainee plus communication skill development within training modules.

COM 4400. Directed Study. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: 60+ credit hours.

Specific topics of an advanced nature not in the regular course offerings.

COM 4405. Organizational Publications. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 2135.

Explores the nature and role of organizational publications; the analysis of their form and function; writing and editing news and feature material for such publications; and the selection and coordination of graphic support and production of resources.

COM 4420. Advanced Media Writing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 3330 or permission of instructor, if not a communication major.

Methods and practice in the research and writing of feature length stories, including coverage of topics such as lead types, story development and researching, news features, human interest features, seasonal stories, personality profiles, enterprise stories, brights, sidebars and others.

COM 4424. Uses and Effects of Mass Media. 3-0-3.

Prerequisites: COM 2230 and COM 3324.

Examines research findings and commentary about mass media impact and use in the United States. An exploration of what mass media “do” to users and what users “do” with the mass media, and why these effects and uses are thought to occur. Useful for students interested in graduate work in mass media, professional media careers, media literacy, or more conscientious use of mass media and awareness of possible effects on themselves or others.

COM 4425. Gender, Race and Media. 3-0-3.

Prerequisites: COM 2230 or permission of the instructor, if not a communication major.

An examination of mass media portrayals of gender and race, from years past to present. Students will analyze media artifacts, identify recurring themes, and explore research about the societal effects of stereotypical media portrayals.

COM 4429. Persuasion Methods and Strategies. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

A study of the theories, methods, applications and implications of persuasion from the days of Aristotle to today’s political and commercial arenas. Explores the practice of changing attitudes and opinions via non-coercive means.

COM 4430. Media Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 2230 or permission of instructor, if not a communication major.

A comprehensive examination and analysis of the structure, personnel, planning, operations, economics and editorial broadcast, production, advertising, and public relations companies as well as new media.

COM 4440. Leadership Communication. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 2205 and COM 3435, or permission of instructor.

Leadership Communication distinguishes leadership as an influential message-centered process. Based on this perspective, the course examines the variables of message exchange (communicator role, message content and meaning, media, context, and culture) as they impact organizational goal achievement. Eight major communication approaches are used to explain leadership. Special attention is given to understanding communication theory and extending social science research.

COM 4444. Film and Video Structure and Process. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: 60+ credit hours.

An examination of the television and motion picture industries, covering such factors as development, pre-production, the production process, post-production and distribution. Emphasis will be placed on the managerial aspects of the process and will include the institutional/instructional video market.

COM 4445. Advanced Digital Audio Production. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 3330 and COM 3340, 90+ credit hours,

Advanced Digital Audio Production focuses on producing, writing, and story telling for audio in a journalistic context. The course is designed to teach students how to write scripts and produce radio promotions, commercials and news stories. The course surveys trends in the radio industry including traditional broadcast, digital, and satellite radio as well as podcasting and audio streaming of content.

COM 4450. Advanced Digital Video Production. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 3330 and COM 3340.

COM 4450 is designed to teach students electronic field production, including single and multiple camera operations; advanced field camera operations; tape-to-tape editing; editing techniques; single/multiple camera continuity, and scripting in a journalistic context. The students must have a fundamental understanding of production operations before enrollment.

COM 4455. Organizational Communication Audit (Capstone). 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 2205 and COM 3435 and 90+ credit hours.

COM 4455 is the study and application of the organizational communication assessment process used by consultants, trainers and managers. In this capstone course, students will conduct a communication audit for a local company and develop a written analysis of the organization's internal communication patterns. Capstone course—to be taken last in concentration.

COM 4460. Crisis Communication. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 3375 and COM 3435 or permission of the instructor, if not a communication major.

COM 4460 provides students insights regarding key concepts, theoretical perspectives, essential skills and abilities, and critical thinking and problem solving skills necessary for effective crisis management within organizations. Topics will include issues management, risk management, relationship management, crisis planning and preparation, case studies, and developing crisis management plans.

COM 4465. Public Relations Campaigns. 3-0-3.

Prerequisites: COM 3375 and COM 3435 and 90+ credit hours.

COM 4465 is the study and application of the campaign planning process from inception to evaluation. The class functions as an agency, and student groups develop a strategic communication campaign plan for a campus or community organization. Capstone course—to be taken last in concentration.

COM 4470. Media Law. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 2230 and POLS 1101.

An in-depth examination of the existing legal structure within which the media operates and the antecedent statutory and case law through which this structure has evolved. Also addresses ethical concepts and considerations surrounding the media.

COM 4480. Communication Theory. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 3435 and 60+ credit hours.

COM 4480 is an in-depth and diversified examination of various theories analyzing and describing the human communication process from different perspectives, including interpersonal, organizational, and mass communication.

COM 4485. Media Studies Capstone. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 3435 and COM 4480.

COM 4485 is a seminar format of extensive readings and class discussions about mass media in order to examine theoretical and methodological concerns and their implications for our understanding of media in society. The course culminates in a research paper that integrates, critiques, extends and applies knowledge gained from the readings and the student's prior media studies course work. Students present the results of their research and contribute to substantive discussions of the presentations by all other students in the course.

COM 4488. Multi-Media Visions of Community (Capstone). 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 3435 and one of the following: COM 4420, COM 4445, COM 3360, or COM 4450.

COM 4488 is informed by social networking and civic, citizen and community journalism applications and theories. Student-driven teams produce multi-media journalistic reflections of community life and institutions. The students, ideally working with diverse sets of community members, choose the best methods, tools and platforms for telling their stories and justifying their choices. This course is the capstone course, showcasing what students have learned in the Journalism and Citizen Media concentration.

COM 4490. Special Topics in Communication. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: 45+ credit hours.

Selected special topics of interest to faculty and students.

COM 4495. Public Relations Study Tour. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: 60+ credit hours and COM 3335; if COM 3335 has not been completed, permission of instructor is necessary.

This course offers students the opportunity to learn about integrated communications by visiting some of the nation's most well known public relations agencies. Students will gain firsthand exposure to the wide range of services provided by the nation's top communication professionals. Students will meet for an intensive one-week preparation class to better understand the structure and function of public relations; then the class will visit the agencies for a hands-on look at the communication process. Students will incur additional travel expenses, including the instructor's travel expenses.

COM 4499. Senior Thesis. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: COM 3435, COM 4480, and 90+ credit hours.

The senior thesis is designed to allow students to apply course work to professional issues. The course culminates in the student's preparation and presentation of an undergraduate thesis or creative project. This course may serve as the capstone for any of the four concentrations.

• COMPUTER SCIENCE (CS) •

CS 2290. Special Topics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor, major area committee, and department chair.

The course covers special topics at the intermediate level that are not in the regular course offerings.

CS 2301. Programming Principles I. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: MATH 1112 or MATH 1113 (co-requisite).

An introduction to problem-solving methods that lead to the development of correct, well-structured programs. Topics also include the fundamentals of computer systems.

CS 2302. Programming Principles II. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CS 2301 and either MATH 1112 or MATH 1113.

A continuation of programming principles begun in CSIS 2301 with emphasis on object-oriented methods, inheritance, arrays, and graphical user interfaces.

CS 2350. Object-Oriented Programming. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: CS 2301.

The course covers concepts, principles and methods of object-oriented programming using C# with .NET. Topics include classes, inheritance, polymorphism, interface, event handling and other object-oriented techniques. This course will also introduce C# programming with the .NET libraries, such as WinForms, ADO.NET, and ASP.NET.

CS 3310. Introduction to Database Systems. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CS 2301.

Introduction to the database management systems, database processing, data modeling, database design, development, and implementation. Contrasts alternative modeling approaches. Includes implementation of current DBMS tools and SQL.

CS 3401. Introduction to Data Structures. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CS 2302, MATH 3322.

An introduction to data structures with an emphasis on linear data structures and object-oriented programming concepts. Topics include arrays, record, vectors, lists, stacks, and queues. Study of search and sort algorithms and analysis of their performance are covered.

CS 3402. Advanced Data Structures and Algorithms. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CS 2350 and CS 3401.

Study of non-linear data structures with an emphasis on specifications, representations, and applications to problem solving and programming. Topics include trees, graphs, priority queues (heaps), and hash tables. Study of algorithm performance analysis for implementation and manipulation is covered.

CS 3510. Computer and Network Architecture. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CS 2302.

An introduction to the theory and fundamentals of networking and computer architecture. Data representation, binary arithmetic and numbering systems for computers and network systems will be covered. Topics relating to networking include concepts and topics relating to bottom three layers of the OSI & TCP/IP reference models. Among them, data, signals, transmission, communication media, encoding, decoding, multiplexing, spreading, switching, and others. Computer architecture topics include Boolean algebra, logic gates, digital components, combinational and sequential circuits, circuit design, CPU basics, clocks, memory organization and addressing, interrupts, registers, and others.

CS 3530. Operating Systems. 3-0-3.

Prerequisites: "C" or better grade in CS 2302.

An introduction to fundamental operating systems concepts. Topics include job scheduling, memory management, and process interactions.

CS 3610. Software Engineering. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CS 2350 and CS 3310.

The course covers the life cycle of software engineering with emphasis on UML modeling. Topics include software process models, requirements analysis and modeling; design concepts, modeling, and design patterns; architectural design; implementation; and testing strategies and techniques.

CS 3650. Object-Oriented Software Development. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CS 2350, CS 3401, and CS 3610.

The primary objective of the course is to study an object-oriented approach software development that systematically uses a set of object-oriented principles, methods, and tools to build high-quality software. Topics include object-oriented analysis, design, and implementation. Object-oriented techniques are studied from an advanced viewpoint, and illustrated using contemporary programming languages.

CS 4400. Directed Studies. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor, major areas committee, and department chair.

This course covers special topics of an advanced nature that are not in the regular course offerings. Up to three hours may be applied to the major area.

CS 4491. Advanced Topics in Computer Science. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in any prerequisite course. Prerequisite course(s) vary depending upon the topic.

This course provides the current and relevant topics in an advanced Computer Science area of interest to faculty. It may substitute for a CS major elective.

CS 4500. Advanced Data Communications. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CS 3510 and CS 3530.

A study of protocol suites and how they are used in data communications on the Internet. Topics include protocol layering, Internet addressing, routing, connection establishment and termination, management of data flow, and error handling. A specific protocol suite will be examined in detail.

CS 4520. Distributed Systems Development. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CS 3401, CS 3610, and CS 4500.

Introduction to the current technologies such as those in J2EE for modeling, designing, implementing, and developing Web applications. Topics include a historical review of technologies for developing distributed systems, such as COBRA, Jini, DCOM, etc., while applying the current technologies including servlets, JSPs, JSFs, EJBs, JavaBeans, database accesses, and emails for hands-on practices.

CS 4545. Applied Cryptography.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CS 4500.

This course is an introduction to cryptography and its applications. While this course will touch on the mathematics involved in cryptography, the focus of the course will be on its application. Thus, the course emphasizes the upper layers of cryptosystems (i.e. key management and system usage) rather than the internals of encryption algorithms.

CS 4580. Web Services with Java. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CS 2302 and CS 3610.

An introduction to the current technologies included in the JWSDP package (Java Web Service Developer Pack) for modeling, designing, implementing, and deploying Web Services, which are based on protocols such as SOAP and use XML.

CS 4620. Object-Oriented Methods. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CS 3610.

A study of object-oriented methods used in software development including modeling language and process. This study involves practical work using a development environment that supports the method and its notation and process. Object-oriented methods currently in widespread use are compared. Software development aspects of user interfaces are covered.

CS 4650. Advanced Object-Oriented Software Development. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CS 3402 and CS 3610.

The primary objective of the course is to introduce the student to advanced topics in object-oriented software development, such as patterns, frameworks, and software architecture. Object-oriented techniques are illustrated using programming languages such as Eiffel, C++, and Ada 95. Case studies are presented, some to be completed by the students using a team approach.

CS 4730. Real-Time Systems and Simulation. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CS 3530 and MATH 3332.

General structure of real-time systems; software and hardware; the basic requirements for software development; and in particular their modeling and simulation. A specific method is studied in detail, including its modeling language and process. This involves using RT-UML and the process interaction approach to simulation. This study includes practical work using a development environment that supports the method and its notation and process. Case studies are presented, some to be completed by the students using a team approach. The course also includes a survey and comparison of some real-time development methods currently in widespread use. An overview of the most common real-time operating systems is included as the last part of the course.

CS 4850. Computer Science Senior Project. 1-2-2.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CS 3402 and CS 3610.

The course should be taken within the last two semesters before graduation.

Capstone experience for computer science students intended to promote a successful transition to professional practice or further academic study. Students spend the term working on an IT project as a team. Students have the opportunity to develop and practice essential project management skills and work with current software tools and technologies.

• COMPUTER SCIENCE EDUCATION (CSED)•

CSED 4416. Teaching of Computer Science. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Grade of "C" or better in IS 2101; CS 2302, admission to Teacher Education, and permission of program coordinator.

An examination and application of curricular issues, learning theories, teaching strategies, instructional materials, and assessment procedures for teaching secondary school computer science in the multicultural and diverse classroom.

CSED 4417. Computer Science Teaching Practicum. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Grade of "C" or better in CSED 4416.

Secondary school field experience in computer science teaching. Proof of professional liability insurance is required prior to school placement.

• COMPUTER SCIENCE AND INFORMATION SYSTEMS (CSIS)•

CSIS 1020. Introduction To Programming Principles: Visual Basic. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Credit level mathematics course.

Introduction to computers and programming as tools to aid problem solving. Implementation will be in Visual Basic.

CSIS 2300. Principles of Computing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in credit level mathematics course.

Principles of computing is the first course a student should take to prepare for a career in computer science or information systems. Topics include information systems in organizations, hardware, software, database concepts, telecommunications and networks, the Internet, systems development, security, privacy, ethics, programming logic, algorithms, abstraction, and data structures.

CSIS 2520. Introduction To Data Communications. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CS 2301.

An introduction to the theory and applications of data communications. Topics include communication media, encoding systems, data security and integrity, network topologies, network protocol concepts, Internet protocols, and routing.

CSIS 3396. Cooperative Study. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of coordinator of cooperative education/internships (Career Services Center).

A supervised work experience program for a minimum of two semesters at a site in business, industry or government. For sophomore, junior or senior level students who wish to obtain successive on-the-job experience in conjunction with their academic training.

CSIS 3398. Internship. 1-9 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of coordinator of cooperative education (Career Services Center).

A supervised work experience program for one semester at a site in business, industry or government. For sophomore, junior or senior level students who wish to obtain on-the-job experience in conjunction with their academic training.

CSIS 3550. Unix Administration and Security. 3-0-3.

Prerequisites: "C" or better grade in IS 3040 and CS 3530.

This course covers the fundamentals of the Unix operating systems with the goal of covering those concepts and skills important in computer security. Topics will include installing and configuring a Unix system, setting up security elements of the system, and using standard command-line tools.

CSIS 4300. Web Development. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in IS 2060.

This course emphasizes how to plan, design, and develop Web sites that are visually appealing and easy to navigate. The experienced programmer will learn how to develop and test HTML code. Using leading software tools such as HomeSite, Dreamweaver, and Adobe Photoshop, students will learn to build Web pages and to create and manipulate digitized images. Emerging Web technologies such as CSS and XHTML will also be explored.

CSIS 4310. Advanced Database Systems. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in IS 2080.

The purpose of this course is to provide students with a strong foundation in advanced database concepts from an industry perspective. As a second course in database concepts, students will expand their skills and knowledge of database and query design. Furthermore, students will gain critical skills and knowledge in such areas as query processing, object-oriented DBMS, object-relational DBMS, transaction management, concurrency, as well as theoretical foundations in relational algebra.

CSIS 4510. Computer Law. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in IS 2060.

Covers broad areas of law pertaining to the computer industry; including Intellectual Property (Copyright, Patent, Trademark, and Trade Secret), Contract, and the U.S. Constitution. Class will discuss computer crime, privacy, and professional ethics.

CSIS 4515. Computer Ethics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in IS 2080 and WRIT 3140.

Computer Ethics addresses a definition of ethics, provides a framework for making ethical decisions, and analyzes in detail several areas of ethical issues that computer professionals are likely to encounter in business. Each area includes information regarding U.S. Law. Topics include philosophical, business, and professional ethics, privacy, criminal conduct, property rights, speech, and reliability.

CSIS 4830. IS Integrated Project. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in IS 3540, IS 3040, IS 3220, IS 2040.

Implementation of a comprehensive information system utilizing database and programming technologies. This course follows the systems analysis and design course closely by integrating key concepts from core IS courses.

This is intended to be a capstone project experience for IS majors, weaving critical content from programming principles, database systems, object-oriented (OO) analysis and design, and web technologies into a fully-implemented substantive IS project. Students will participate in a team project focusing on the design and implementation of an information system. Applications may be built with visual, web-based technologies such as Visual Basic, Oracle, ActiveX, HTML, and DHTML.

CSIS 4840. Information Resource Management And Policy. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in IS 2060 and 90 credit hours; corequisite CSIS 4841.

Intended as a senior capstone course. Focus is on management of information systems resources, technologies and people. Covers strategic planning and control of IS; management of the systems development process, operations, and maintenance; management of end-user computing; IS functional organization and the CIO. Requires research papers and presentations on current topics.

CSIS 4841. Information Technology Connections Lectures. 1-0-1.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in IS 2060 and 90 credit hours; Corequisite: CSIS 4840.

Lecture series that illustrates how Information Technologies connect and facilitate the interchange of information between professions and disciplines.

• CRIMINAL JUSTICE (CRJU) •

CRJU 1101. Foundations of Criminal Justice. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: None.

This course provides an overview of the criminal justice system. Emphasis will be on crime in America, the criminal justice process, law enforcement, adjudication, punishment, corrections, and prisons. Other special issues to be addressed include AIDS, changing roles of women, and criminal justice systems in other countries.

CRJU 2301. Research Methods in Criminal Justice. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: CRJU 1101.

This course provides an introduction to concepts and techniques of social science research. Students will (a) become familiar with levels of measurement, sampling techniques, research design, and research techniques, and (b) apply these techniques to the study of specific research questions in criminal justice.

CRJU 3305. Technology and Criminal Justice. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: CRJU 1101.

This course involves an in-depth study of technology as it relates to crime and the criminal justice system. Topics discussed include technology associated with forensics, computer crime and homeland security. Legal issues and laws pertaining to the use of technology for investigative purposes, privacy issues and fourth amendment issues are examined. Various technologies used by police, courts and corrections are also addressed.

CRJU 3310. Police in America. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: CRJU 1101 or HS 2233.

An overview of the role of the police in American society, examining such issues as the police role in a democracy, ethnic tensions, unionization and professionalism, civil disturbances, law enforcement, and police misconduct.

CRJU 3311. Police Administration. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: CRJU 1101.

This course familiarizes students with the principal issues facing contemporary American police administration. Students will gain an appreciation of the complex responsibilities associated with administering a police organization in a free society.

CRJU 3312. State and Federal Law Enforcement Initiatives. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: CRJU 1101.

This course allows the student to participate in a seminar that includes up to date information from readings and through discussions with agents from state and federal agencies. Students will develop knowledge about state and federal agencies and their missions; the types of investigations undertaken by agencies; the use of technology by agencies and by offenders; predictions of future issues and crimes the agencies will likely face; the application/hiring process and essential/desired skills needed to work for various agencies.

CRJU 3315. Criminal Procedure. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: CRJU 1101.

This course addresses the following stages of criminal procedure and evidence: (1) methods and rules of police investigation and arrest; (2) pretrial screening of complaints; (3) formal charging of the accused; (4) adjudication - evidentiary requirements; (5) sentencing; and (6) appellate review by higher courts.

CRJU 3320. Criminal Investigation. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: CRJU 1101.

This course examines the historical, theoretical, and technological aspects of the investigation of crime. The topic areas include crime scene examinations, the collection and preservation of evidence, forensic and behavioral sciences, interviews/interrogations, and the use of technology by law enforcement agencies.

CRJU 3332. Corrections. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: CRJU 1101 or HS 2233.

A review of the historical and philosophical backgrounds of corrections. Special emphasis is placed on the role of corrections in the criminal justice system.

CRJU 3352. Juvenile Delinquency and Corrections. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201 or CRJU 1101.

Surveys of the definition, extent, cause, treatment, prevention, and control of juvenile delinquency.

CRJU 3365. The Profile of the Serial Offender. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: CRJU 1101.

This course is designed for the serious student of the behavioral sciences who is interested in developing the insight necessary to understand why some violent offenders repeat their crimes while others do not. The students will learn various skills necessary in the development of offender characteristics and traits as well as investigative strategies in unsolved homicide and sexual assaults. They will learn how to determine whether a victim was specifically targeted for violence or randomly selected. They will learn how to identify and interpret the behavioral evidence left at crime scenes by particular types of serial offenders. Additionally, the students will be exposed to the most recent theories and research which attempt to explain how the serial offender evolves from childhood to young adult and beyond. It should be noted that actual case presentations will be made throughout the course to illustrate each phase in the development of the serial offender.

CRJU 3398. Internship. 1-9.

Prerequisite: 90 hours.

A structured off-campus experience in a supervised setting that is related to the student's major and career interests. Practical experience is combined with scholarly research in the topical area of the internship, under the guidance of an interdisciplinary faculty committee. Sites must be selected in advance of the semester of the internship. A departmental internship orientation session is scheduled once a semester.

CRJU 3400. Ideological/Group Violence and Law Enforcement. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: CRJU 1101.

The course will examine law enforcement response to domestic and international terrorism. Topics will include threat analysis, intelligence processing, proactive measures, reactive measures, development of modern terrorism and specific terrorist groups.

CRJU 3500. Community Policing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: CRJU 1101.

The course is designed to provide students an understanding of the concepts, issues, and principles of community oriented policing in the United States and other countries. It will provide thorough exposure to a proactive approach to crime reduction and prevention.

CRJU 4100. Ethics in Criminal Justice. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: CRJU 1101.

This course prepares students to think critically about ethical issues they will encounter in the criminal justice profession. Topics include uses of force, increasing cultural diversity, and the balance between freedom and security.

CRJU 4300. Organized Crime. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: CRJU 1101.

This course examines the origins of organized crime, including the Mafia, Dixie Mafia, Mexican Mafia, Nigerian Mafia, Gypsies, and motorcycle and organized crime. It also explores the methods which legitimate businesses use in maintaining illegal, organized religion.

CRJU 4305. Technology and Cyber Crime.

Prerequisite: CRJU 1101 and CRJU 3305.

This course provides an overview of cyber crime and computer-related crime issues facing the American criminal justice system, particularly law enforcement. The course looks at law enforcement's ability to respond and discusses law enforcement problems in dealing with computer crime. Students will learn about government response to cyber crime problems, especially from a law enforcement perspective. Future trends of cyber crime and computer-related crime will also be discussed.

CRJU 4400. Directed Study in Criminal Justice. 1-3.

Prerequisite: Approval in instructor and department chair.

Covers special topics and seminars external to regular course offerings. May include original research projects and practicum experiences.

CRJU 4410. Criminal Profiling and Analysis. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: CRJU 1101, CRJU 3365.

This course centers on the "deductive profiling" method, the analysis process of forensic evidence, and the development of offender characteristics. It approaches each crime as its own universe of social relationships and behaviors and requires the examination and analysis of a real homicide.

An overview of the socio-legal aspects involving profiling and analysis of specific profiling issues in different types of serial crime are addressed.

CRJU 4430. Victimology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201 or CRJU 1101.

An overview of the basic concepts of criminal victimization, including society's response to victims and their problems.

CRJU 4490. Special Topics in Criminal Justice. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair.

Selected topics of interest to faculty and students.

Prerequisite: Approval by internship coordinator.

A structured off-campus experience in a supervised setting chosen in relation to the student's focus and interests in one of the interdisciplinary programs in the College of Humanities and Social Sciences. Students meet with the internship coordinator to develop an appropriate plan which leads to the writing of a research-oriented paper or research project. 100 hours per semester required at internship site.

• DANCE (DANC) •DANC 2000. Dance History I. 3-0-3.

develop strength and flexibility. Students will explore efficiency in movement, increase their range of physical expression, develop a healthy use of the body and acquire an awareness of spatial relationships.

DANC 3500. Pas de Deux/Pointe. 0-4-2.

Prerequisite: DANC 3100 or permission of instructor.

Development of partnering skills in dance through increased technical development and the learning of classical repertory. A portion of this course focuses on the development of pointe technique for women and classical variations for men. Designed to develop the advanced-intermediate level dance student's ability to transfer classical ballet skills into partnered pas de deux work.

DANC 3600. Dance Improvisation. 0-4-2.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1101.

Creative discovery and investigation of the body's potential to move without preconception. Through a variety of movement stimulation exercises students are encouraged to develop their inner creativity and explore movement invention.

DANC 3700. Body Conditioning and Somatics. 0-4-2.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1101.

A study of a variety of physical conditioning methods such as yoga and pilates combined with injury prevention techniques that promote physical efficiency and physical development of the body.

DANC 4010. Dance History II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: DANC 2000.

A historical study of prevalent twentieth-century dance forms and their development. Socio-cultural influences in dance and the contributions of individual artists is investigated and researched. A portion of this course studies the history of dance in world cultures and global trends in the development of dance as an art form.

DANC 4100. Dance Kinesiology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: DANC 2000.

A study of the science of the human body, its anatomy and movement physics.

DANC 4200. Analysis and Criticism of Dance. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: DANC 2000.

Students develop analytical and critical skills in dance through an understanding of core dance principles, developing refined observation skills, and the study of dance journalism.

DANC 4300. Dance Pedagogy. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: DANC 2000 and ENGL 1102.

Students study the philosophical and practical principles associated with the teaching of dance as an art form. Through practical application of theoretical learning objectives, students learn to identify and work conceptually from core principles in technique and pedagogy.

DANC 4400. Directed Study. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair.

Selected topics of an advanced nature, which may include original research projects.

DANC 4490. Special Topics. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair.

Topics of an special interest to students and faculty.

DANC 4500. Choreography. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Two 3000-level DANC classes or permission of the instructor.

This course introduces dance choreography including improvisational techniques and choreographic devices appropriate for the concert stage, musical theatre, children’s theatre or educational theatre.

DANC 4800. Senior Seminar. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: DANC 4010 or permission of the director of dance.

This course evaluates the students understanding of practical, aesthetic, and critical issues in dance as an art form in contemporary society. Students discuss theoretical principles used by contemporary artists that support the application of contemporary principles in the field of dance.

DANC 4900. Senior Project. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: DANC 4010 and 90 credit hours.

Students produce a creative work based on a research project that results in a public performance.

• DRAMA: See THEATRE (TPS)•

• EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION (ECE) •

ECE 2205. Organization and Administration of Early Childhood Programs. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: EDUC 2204.

This course addresses planning for child care facilities including staffing, licensing, organizing space and equipment, nutrition and health policies, and parent and community relations. The purpose of this course is to provide the teacher/facilitator with an opportunity to understand the importance and application of developmentally appropriate practices and examine the role and responsibilities of the early childhood administrator and teacher in a preschool setting. Observations in preschools will be required.

Verification of professional liability insurance is required before placement in observation setting.

ECE 2220. Practicum. 3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of the Director of Center for Education Placements and Partnerships, advisor, department chair.

A practicum in a classroom during which the student will be actively involved in the teaching-learning process under the guidance of a professional teacher.

ECE 2303. Instructional Technology in Schools. 1-3-3.

Prerequisite: EDUC 2201.

Develops skill in selecting and using technology to enhance instruction in the early childhood classroom. Includes a laboratory experience with computers, educational software and multimedia presentations.

ECE 3313. The Preschool Curriculum. 2-3-3.

Prerequisite: EDUC 3302.

The course is designed to assist students in developing knowledge and understanding of the principles, components and development of preschool curricula, and strategies of learning for preschool children. The field experience in a pre-kindergarten setting, a requirement of this course, is designed to assist the teacher/facilitator in the application of developmentally appropriate practices with preschool children with and without disabilities. Verification of professional liability insurance is required prior to placement in the field experience.

ECE 3320. Teaching Reading in the Early Grades. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education.

Examines theories and principles that guide emergent literacy instruction. Focus is on the cognitive development of the emergent reader and brain-based research. Strong emphasis is placed on phonemic awareness. Assessment tools and approaches to reading instruction, including ability grouping, are examined and applied. Strategies for teaching reading and writing skills are contextualized in children’s literature. Multicultural perspectives and technology are used to facilitate and reinforce instruction. Includes extensive field experience. Verification of professional liability insurance is required prior to placement in the field. Twenty (20) hours field experience is included.

ECE 3330. Teaching Reading in the Elementary Grades 3-5. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education; EDUC 3302, ECE 3320, and department chair permission.

The relationship among reading, writing, speaking, and listening is studied in the context of the elementary classroom, grades 3 - 5. Content area reading, study strategies, comprehension strategies, use of non-fiction and fiction literature, and various strategies for teaching spelling, grammar, and vocabulary are included. Emphasis is placed on examining diagnostic tools to assess, remediate, and group a diverse student population for instruction, and on the use of technology to extend and support reading and the language arts.

ECE 3340. Diagnosis and Application of Literacy Instruction in the Early Childhood Classroom. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education and ECE 3330.

This course includes the study and application of diagnosis and instructional activities for the pre-service elementary and early childhood classroom teacher. It includes both formal and informal diagnosis, interpretation of formal and informal test results, planning and implementation of instructional actions, application of literacy diagnosis across the curriculum, and diagnosis of the classroom literacy environment and instruction. This course requires 20 hours field experience. Verification of professional liability insurance is required prior to placement in the field.

ECE 3350. Child Development and Early Learning. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and EDUC 2130.

This course addresses theories of human development from conception to middle childhood (age eleven years) with attention to the social, emotional, physical and cognitive domains. Issues relating to family, diversity, and culture will be addressed as they relate to development and supporting children's learning. Candidates will also explore effective learning environments, health, safety & nutrition for children. Observations in natural settings will be required.

ECE 3360. Teaching Reading and Writing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education.

An introduction to the reading and writing processes and strategies for teaching reading and writing within the broader framework of the language arts. Language development, emergent literacy, word identification skills including phonics, comprehension processes and strategies, balanced reading instruction, the process approach to writing and factors that contribute to literacy development will be emphasized. Students will be involved in public school and other learning environments used to teach reading. Verification of professional liability insurance is required for classroom observation.

ECE 3364. Children's Literature. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education.

A survey of literature appropriate for kindergarten and early grade readers. Reviews both current and traditional works in several genres and considers various approaches for teaching such literature.

ECE 3398. Internship. 1-12 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Permission of the Director of Center for Education Placements and Partnerships, advisor, and department chair.

A supervised teaching experience for teachers seeking certification renewal credit.

ECE 4400. Directed Study. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair prior to registration.

A concentrated investigation of a particular aspect of education as a topic within a teaching field concentration or degree major. The content of the directed study will be determined jointly by the instructor and the student.

ECE 4401. Teaching Mathematics in Early Childhood Education. 2-5-3.

Prerequisite: EDUC 3302 and MATH 3317.

Corequisite: HPS 3670.

Study of integrating mathematics concepts, principles and processes into the teaching of mathematics in preschool through fifth grade. Emphasis will be placed upon developmentally appropriate practices in planning, implementing and evaluating instruction in the mathematics curriculum. Includes an extensive field experience as well as media use. Verification of professional liability insurance is required prior to placement in the field experience.

ECE 4402. Teaching Science in Early Childhood Education. 2-5-3.

Prerequisite: EDUC 3302, ISCI 2001 and ISCI 2002.

Study of integrating science processes, principles and concepts into the teaching of science in preschool through fifth grade. Emphasis will be placed on the process-oriented inquiry method of teaching science, curriculum goals, design and planning and implementing and evaluating instruction in science. Includes an extensive field experience as well as the use of educational technology. Verification of professional liability insurance is required before placement in the field.

ECE 4403. Teaching Social Studies in Early Childhood Education. 2-5-3.

Prerequisite: EDUC 3302, HIST 2111, or HIST 2112.

Focuses on the curriculum goals and content for social studies in the early grades. Emphasis will be placed on developing an integrated approach to social studies and on developing inquiry processes appropriate to the age and developmental levels of students in preschool through fifth grade. Includes an extensive field experience as well as media use. Verification of professional liability insurance is required prior to placement in the field experience.

ECE 4404. Teaching Reading & Language Arts Across the Curriculum in Early Childhood Education. 2-5-3.

Prerequisite: EDUC 3302 and ECE 3340.

Study of the integration of language arts across the curriculum and effective strategies for planning, implementing and evaluating instruction in reading, writing, listening and speaking in preschool through fifth grade. Emphasis on assessment techniques and approaches to conducting guided lessons in reading and writing that are culturally and developmentally appropriate. Includes an extensive field experience and media use. Verification of professional liability insurance is required before placement in the field experience.

ECE 4405. Teaching Language Arts and Social Studies in Early Childhood. 2-5-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to TOSS and ECE 3340.

Includes the study and application of social studies and language arts as integrative elements of the elementary curriculum. Candidates will focus on the nature and theory in order to prepare students to become citizens actors, adopt problem solving dispositions and achieve excellence in the application of oral and written communication skills. Verification of professional liability insurance is required prior to placement in the field experience.

ECE 4410. Reading Across the Curriculum. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to TOSS and ECE 3340.

An examination of the reading and writing processes in the content areas with a transition from learning to read and write to reading and writing to learn. Includes methods, strategies, and techniques for teaching reading and writing in all content areas to diverse populations with an emphasis on actual application of knowledge in the TOSS integrated unit and field experience. The selection and use of technology, including electronic texts, is explored. To be taken concurrently with ECE 4401, ECE 4402, and ECE 4405.

Verification of professional liability insurance is required prior to placement in the field experience.

ECE 4473. Student Teaching: Early Childhood (P-5). 12 credit hours.

Prerequisites: Approval of Center for Education Placements and Partnerships and Department of EECE.

Full-time teaching experience under the supervision of a public school cooperating teacher and college supervisor. Verification of professional liability insurance is required before placement in student teaching.

ECE 4490. Special Topics in Education. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair.

Selected special topics of interest to faculty and students.

• ECONOMICS (ECON) •

ECON 1100. Global Economics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099, MATH 0099, READ 0099, if required.

Analysis of the determination of output, employment, interest rates, and income with emphasis on the influence of fiscal and monetary policy.

ECON 4710. Econometrics and Forecasting. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and ECON 2300; Non-business Majors: 60 credit hours including ECON 2200 and ECON 2300 or MATH 1107 and permission of department chair.

Study of the tools used for estimating and forecasting demand, revenue and cost, as well as demographic characteristics of importance to an individual in a business decision making position.

ECON 4750. Multivariate Data Analysis. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and ECON 2300; Non-business Majors: 60 credit hours including ECON 2200 and ECON 2300 or MATH 1107 and permission of department chair.

The theory and application of quantitative methods of data analysis. Emphasis is on the application of statistical principles to empirical model building in business and economics. Topics include regression analysis, analysis of variance, factor analysis, discriminant analysis, parametric and nonparametric tests, sampling techniques, and experimental design.

ECON 4810. Quantitative Decision Models. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and ECON 2300; Non-business Majors: 60 credit hours including ECON 2200 and ECON 2300 or MATH 1107 and permission of department chair.

The theory and application of quantitative decision models. Emphasis is on the formulation, solution, and interpretation of models with application to a variety of business problems. Topics include linear, integer, nonlinear, and dynamic programming, network analysis, duality, and postoptimality analysis.

ECON 4850. Decision Analysis and Simulation. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and ECON 2300; Non-business Majors: 60 credit hours including ECON 2200 and ECON 2300 or MATH 1107 and permission of department chair.

The theory and application of stochastic decision models. Emphasis is on the application of probability and simulation techniques to structure decision problems in business and economics. Topics include measurement of risk, decision processes, decision analysis, and static and dynamic simulation models.

• EDUCATION (EDUC) •

EDUC 2110. Investigating Critical and Contemporary Issues in Education. 2-1-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

This course engages potential education candidates in observations and interactions in schools, and analyses of critical and contemporary educational issues. Candidates investigate issues influencing the social and political contexts of educational settings in Georgia and the United States. Candidates actively examine the teaching profession from multiple vantage points both within and outside the school. Against this backdrop, candidates reflect on and interpret the meaning of education and schooling in a diverse culture. Includes the use of current technologies which are directly related to effective teaching and 15 hours of observation and participation in an appropriate school setting—elementary/early childhood, middle grades, secondary or P-12 environments. Verification of professional liability insurance and a criminal background check are required prior to receiving a school placement.

EDUC 2120. Sociocultural Influences on Teaching and Learning. 2-1-3.

Prerequisite: None.

This course introduces teachers to fundamental knowledge of culture essential for effective teaching in increasingly diverse classrooms. Designed as a foundation course for subsequent courses focused on the preparation of culturally responsive teachers, this course examines 1) the nature and function of culture; 2) the development of individual and group cultural identity; 3) definition and implications of diversity. Includes 15 hours of observation and participation in an appropriate school setting—elementary/early childhood, middle grades, secondary or P-12 environments. Verification of professional liability insurance and a criminal background check are required prior to receiving a school placement.

EDUC 2130. Exploring Teaching and Learning. 2-1-3.

Prerequisite: EDUC 2130.

This course explores key aspects of learning and teaching through examining your own learning processes and those of others, with the goal of applying your knowledge to enhance the learning of all students in a variety of educational settings and contexts. Includes 10 hours of observation and interaction with a learner in a naturalistic setting. Current use of technology will be integrated as communication and instructional tools. Verification of professional liability insurance is required.

EDUC 2201. Teaching and Schools in a Changing Society. 2-2-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

An introductory study of current issues and problems in American education from historical, political, economic, social, philosophical, multicultural, and global perspectives. Focuses on efforts of schools to adapt to a changing society, the role of the teacher as a professional educator and professional ethics. Includes the use of current technologies which are directly related to effective teaching and 30 hours of observation and participation in a classroom setting appropriate to the students' professional interests in elementary/early childhood, middle grades, secondary, or P-12 education. Verification of professional liability insurance is required prior to enrolling in this course.

EDUC 2202. Life Span Development: Adolescent and Young Adulthood Emphasis. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

A study of human development through the life span addressing social, moral, emotional, physical, cognitive and psychological development, with an emphasis on how these relate to learning and instruction of adolescents and young adults. Course examines impact of learning styles, developmental and cultural differences, and various levels of student abilities, exceptionalities, and health. Current use of technology will be integrated as communication and instructional tools. Teacher candidates will have the opportunity to observe in naturalistic settings.

EDUC 2204. Human Growth, Development and Learning. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

A study of human development through the life span with emphasis on social, moral, emotional, physical, cognitive and psychological development as these relate to learning and instruction. Includes discussing learning styles, developmental and cultural differences, wide range of abilities and exceptionalities, and health. Current use of technology will be integrated as communication and instructional tools. Students will observe children in naturalistic settings, such as schools and day care centers.

EDUC 3302. Curriculum and Assessment. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education.

Examines theories and principles of curriculum and assessment. Focus is placed on the identification and construction of learning outcomes and the development and selection of culturally responsive units and lesson plans. Focus is also placed on standardized and teacher constructed assessment tools consistent with these objectives. Emphasis is placed on the use of assessment tools for instructional decision-making. Technology is integrated for enhancing and assisting instruction.

EDUC 3308. Learning, Motivation, and Classroom Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education.

Examines theories, models, and principles of learning, motivation, and classroom management in schools. In level-specific modules, particular emphasis is placed on the application of theoretical principles to early childhood, middle grades, or secondary classroom settings. Addresses learning theories, motivational theories, learning styles and individual differences, and models and strategies for implementing effective systems of time, material, environment and behavior management in diverse classroom settings. Various technological applications, including the World Wide Web, e-mail, and presentation software, will be utilized.

EDUC 3310. Multicultural Perspectives in Teaching and Learning. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: EDUC 2201.

A study of the influence of diversity on teaching and learning in a pluralistic, democratic society. Examines theories and models of instruction for diversities in race, class, gender, religion, language and exceptional ability found in multicultural classrooms.

•EDUCATION - MIDDLE GRADES (EDMG)•

EDMG 2200. Practicum. 1 to 3.

Prerequisite: Permission of advisor and department chair.

An assigned practicum in a classroom during which the student will be actively involved in the teaching-learning process under the guidance of a professional teacher. Proof of professional liability insurance is required prior to receiving a school placement.

EDMG 3300. Success in the Middle: Teaching, Learning, and Advocacy. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to teacher education program and EDUC 2130.

Candidates will focus on the development of middle school curriculum and instructional and assessment activities that relate to early adolescents, with an emphasis on the attributes of the middle school philosophy. Candidates will also examine the issues of teaching young adolescents and the unique role teachers must play as interdisciplinary team members, content specialists, as well as advocates for the middle school and the middle level learner. Candidates will further examine issues related to diversity including, but not limited to, ethnicity, race, age, socioeconomic status, gender, giftedness, disability, language, religion, family structure, sexual orientation, and geographic region. Information from current research and exemplary practitioners will be used to extend candidate knowledge on special topics related to social, emotional, and physical development as it relates to the curricula.

EDMG 3398. Internship. 1 to 12.

Prerequisite: Permission of advisor and department chair.

A supervised work experience with an approved business firm, private agency or government agency. Credit is allowed only in the elective areas.

EDMG 4400. Directed Study. 1 to 3.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair prior to registration.

A concentrated investigation of a particular aspect of education as a topic within a teaching field concentration or degree major. The content of the directed study will be determined jointly by the instructor and the student.

EDMG 4401. Teaching Mathematics in Middle Grades. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: EDUC 3300, at least 9 hrs of required teaching field Math courses.

This course is a segment of a 12-hour block designed to develop appropriate teaching strategies in mathematics. Students apply learning theories, teaching techniques, questioning strategies, instructional materials, and assessment procedures for middle grades learners. Students will develop and implement plans for teaching mathematics in an interdisciplinary team setting.

EDMG 4402. Teaching Science in Middle Grades. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: EDUC 3300, at least 9 hrs of required teaching field Science courses.

This course is a segment of a 12-hour block designed to develop appropriate teaching strategies in science. Students apply learning theories, teaching techniques, questioning strategies, instructional materials, and assessment procedures for middle grades learners. Students will develop and implement plans for teaching science in an interdisciplinary team setting.

EDMG 4403. Teaching Social Studies in Middle Grades. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: EDUC 3300, at least 9 hrs of required teaching field Social Studies courses.

This course is a segment of a 12-hour block designed to develop appropriate teaching strategies in social studies. Students apply learning theories, teaching techniques, questioning strategies, instructional materials, and assessment procedures for middle grades learners. Students will develop and implement plans for teaching social studies in an interdisciplinary team setting.

EDMG 4404. Teaching Language Arts in Middle Grades. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: EDUC 3300, at least 9 hrs of required teaching field Language Arts courses.

This course is a segment of an 12-hour block designed to develop appropriate teaching strategies in language arts. Students apply learning theories, teaching techniques, questioning strategies, instructional materials, and assessment procedures for middle grades learners. Students will develop and implement plans for teaching language arts in an interdisciplinary team setting.

EDMG 4405. Curriculum and Instruction in Middle Grades. 4-2-5.

Prerequisite: EDMG 3308.

This collaboratively taught course is a segment of an 11-hour block designed to develop appropriate teaming skills for middle grades teachers. The teaching team models instructional strategies that exemplify the philosophy of middle school education. Students become part of an instructional team to develop effective strategies for interdisciplinary settings. Student teams are paired with school instructional teams during an extensive field experience. Proof of professional liability insurance is required prior to receiving a school placement.

EDMG 4406. Methods and Management in the Middle Grades: Field Experience. 0-9-3.

Prerequisite: EDMG 3300. Corequisites: EDMG 4407 and two of EDMG 4401, 4402, 4403, and/or 4404.

This course is an intensive and extensive field experience in a middle school. Candidates will be required to spend up to four hours per day, four days per week in their placement. Candidates must have a satisfactory field experience to continue on to student teaching. Proof of professional liability insurance and a criminal background check are required prior to receiving a school placement.

EDMG 4407. Methods and Management in the Middle Grades: Seminar. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: EDMG 3300. Co-requisites: EDMG 4406 and two of EDMG 4401, 4402, 4403, and/or 4404.

This course is a once-a-week seminar to be held on campus to address topics such as middle grades classroom management and the middle grades concept and philosophy.

EDMG 4475. Student Teaching in Middle Grades. 12 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Admission to Student Teaching.

Full-time teaching experience under the supervision of a public school cooperating teacher and college supervisor in an upper elementary school classroom or in a middle school. Includes regularly scheduled professional seminars. Proof of professional liability insurance is required prior to receiving a school placement.

EDMG 4490. Special Topics in Education. 1 to 3.

Prerequisite: Permission of instructor and department chair.

Selected special topics of interest to faculty and students.

EDMG 4498. Classroom Internship. 1 to 12.

Prerequisite: Permission of the Director of Center for Education Placements and Partnerships and advisor.

A supervised teaching experience for teachers seeking certification or renewal credit. Proof of professional liability insurance is required prior to receiving a school placement.

•EDUCATION - READING (EDRD)•

EDRD 3320. Understanding the Reader and the Reading Process. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to teacher education.

A study of the socio-psycholinguistic foundations of reading and writing for teachers of adolescents. This course examines language development, reading acquisition, phonemic awareness, word identification, phonics, vocabulary, fluency, comprehension and motivation. It explores historical perspectives of reading, reading research and theory, and introduces students to a wide range of instructional practices and curriculum materials that meet the needs of all adolescent learners.

EDRD 3330. Methods and Materials for Middle Grades Reading and Writing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to teacher education.

A study of methods and materials for reading and writing to learn in the middle grades. Emphasis will be placed on making meaning from a variety of text sources including young adult literature, technical, informational, environmental, and media. Instructional strategies for reading and writing in content areas will be showcased. This course acquaints candidates with a reading and writing experience using diverse works for adolescents, introduces students to text selection and electronic database media resources for middle grades classrooms. A focus on language and cultural diversity is included.

EDRD 4409. Instructional Strategies in Reading, Writing, and Young Adult Literature. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education.
This course provides an understanding for selecting and using diverse young adult literature in middle grades classrooms. It examines reading and writing theories and introduces students to various methodologies for teaching literature. It acquaints students with a reading and writing experience using diverse literary works for adolescents, introduces students to book selection aids and electronic database media resources for middle grades environments.

EDRD 4410. Reading to Learn in the Content Areas. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education.
A study of concepts and strategies involved in reading to learn in the content areas. Teacher candidates will study types of text; instructional grouping options; factors related to the reader, text, and context; and strategies to be applied before, during, and after reading. In addition, candidates will explore methods for evaluating textbooks, sources to supplement textbook reading, and ways to use technology within instruction. This course places a heavy emphasis on instruction for strategic reading and writing that meets the individual needs of all adolescent readers. This course is for majors in secondary education only.

EDRD 4411. Reading Diagnostics for Teachers of Adolescents. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to teacher education.
An introduction to a wide range of reading assessment instruments including reading inventories, miscue analysis, and pausing indices used for understanding the individual and diverse needs of adolescents. Teacher candidates in this course will examine both informal and formal assessments including technology-based assessment. Candidates will use assessment data to plan, evaluate, and revise effective reading instruction that meets the diverse needs of students. A field component is included.

• ENGLISH (ENGL) •

(Note: Upper-level writing courses, see WRIT prefix)

ENGL 0020. Principles of Writing for the Regents' Test. 3-0-0.

ENGL 3320. Scriptural Literature. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 2110.

Study of authors, themes, genres, and composition of scriptural writings.

ENGL 3330. Gender Studies. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 2110.

A study of literature using gender as the primary category of analysis. Viewing gender as a social construction, it will consider literature's exploration of such issues as gendered roles in society, interactions between private and public life, gender's relation to canon formation, and the ways in which individuals may struggle to define their place in culture in the face of gendered expectations. Texts studied might include published literature, primary sources such as letters and diaries, public documents, non-print texts such as films, and material culture objects. A particular offering might focus on a region or nation, a time period, a theme, a representative individual, or some combination.

ENGL 3340. Ethnic Literatures. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 2110.

A study of literature using ethnicity as the primary category of analysis. Individual offerings of the course might survey a range of ethnic literatures (e.g., Asian American, Chicano, Native American, Jewish) or explore one such body of texts (e.g., Caribbean literatures).

ENGL 3350. Regional Literature. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 2110.

A study of literature using region as the primary category of analysis. Texts might include fiction and nonfiction, performance texts (such as drama and folktale from the oral tradition), and examples of material culture (e.g., architecture, home furnishings, and clothing). The class might focus on a specific geographic region (e.g., the American South, the Caribbean); a comparative study of regional culture (Faulkner's Yoknapatawpa vs. Hardy's Wessex, Hawthorne's and Melville's New England vs. Sedgwick's and Jewett's New England); or author or theme closely associated with a region (e.g., Cather's West, Race and Religion in the South).

ENGL 3360. Major African American Writers. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 2110.

Development of African American literature with emphasis on major writers defining trends, movements, genres, and themes.

ENGL 3390. Great Works for Middle Grades Teachers. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 2110.

A survey of classic literature written by diverse authors. The texts studied are frequently found in middle grades classroom. Focus will be on text analysis and writing about literature.

ENGL 3391. Teaching Literature to Adolescents. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 2110.

Using narrative as a central genre, this course introduces current English teaching philosophy and practice in teaching literature to adolescents. This course models current ways to integrate technology into the curriculum, identifies a variety of multicultural teaching texts, and extends the study of critical theory into the teaching of literature to adolescents.

ENGL 3396. Cooperative Study. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of coordinator of cooperative education/internships (Career Services).

A supervised work experience program for a minimum of two semesters at a site in business, industry or government. For sophomore, junior, or senior level students who wish to obtain on-the-job experience in conjunction with their academic training.

ENGL 3398. Internship. 1-9 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of departmental internship adviser.

Supervised, credit-earning work experience of one semester with a previously approved business firm, private agency, or government agency. Credit is allowed only in related studies or free elective areas.

ENGL 3400. Survey of African Literatures. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 2110.

A survey of African literatures, including the orature, literature, performance texts, film and/or other media produced in each quadrant of Africa, from early times to the present day. For example, the course might survey African narrative, looking at a selection of early epics, folktales, short stories or novels representing themes, motifs, and styles in each quadrant of Africa.

ENGL 3500. Topics in African American Literature. 3-0-3.

An examination of gender as depicted in popular culture texts. Focusing on one medium (e.g., film, television, periodicals, music) or surveying a range of popular culture forms, students will critique depictions of gender; practice using theories and methods from gender and women's studies to understand popular culture's role in shaping gender identity; and do research on gender in the context of popular culture.

GWST 3040. Topics in Gender Studies. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

Examination of a topic or topics in gender studies that will introduce students to some key themes relevant to the field today, including approaches for doing their own exploratory research and learning to critique popular culture portrayals of gender and sexuality. Specific content may vary, so course may be repeated.

GWST 3050. Global Perspectives on Gender. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

This course offers global perspectives and contexts within which gender can be explored, analyzed, and critiqued. The course will be driven by cross-cultural and comparative study and may include analysis of the construction of gender in relation to social practices, the law, tradition, religion, institutional culture, economics, and popular culture. This course may be repeated for credit with prior approval.

GWST 3398. Internship. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GWST 3000 and approval by internship coordinator.

A structured off-campus experience in a supervised setting that is chosen in relation to student's focus and interests. Practical experience is combined with a research approach that investigates issues relevant to the internship. Students will meet with the internship coordinator to develop an appropriate plan that will lead to the writing of a research-oriented paper or research project, a required part of the internship. Students should consult with the internship coordinator at the midpoint of the semester prior to the internship to choose from an approved list of internship sites, none of which may be with a current employer

GWST 4499. Research in Gender and Women's Studies. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GWST 3000 and completion of 60 credit hours.

A study of research models of scholarship in gender and women's studies, combined with an opportunity for students to conduct a research project of their own. Students will read examples of outstanding research and survey discipline-based scholarship focusing on gender and women's studies. Topics for studying methods could include debates regarding different methodologies, critiques of traditional research methodologies, integrating feminist theory with scholarship, and ethical questions associated with producing research in gender and women's studies. This course should be taken as the final course of the GWST minor.

• GEOGRAPHY (GEOG) •

GEOG 1101. World Regional Geography. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: None.

An introduction to world regions through the context of human geography. The course focuses on basic geographic concepts to analyze social, economic and political issues at local, regional and global scales. Elements of fundamental physical geography will be discussed to illustrate the spatial relationships between the physical environment and human geography.

GEOG 1102. Earth from Above. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: None.

This is a survey course for any student with an interest in geography, maps, or geospatial data and technologies. Students will obtain fundamental geographic principles of place and space, and learn introductory geospatial techniques such as map reading, coordinate systems, and scale by using global positioning satellite receivers, aerial photos, satellite imagery, and Google Earth technologies. The course is designed to give students hands-on experience to collect, manipulate, analyze, and understand geospatial data.

GEOG 1112. Climate and Vegetation. 3-1-4.

Prerequisite: None.

This course examines aspects of physical geography, specifically earth-sun relationships, atmospheric processes, climate and weather patterns, and vegetation patterns and principles. Emphasis is on the distribution and interactions among these environmental variables as well as the impact humans have had on these natural systems. The lab focuses on practical and applied aspects of these environmental systems. Lab work includes maps reading, data collection, and data analysis.

GEOG 1113. Landforms and Landscapes. 3-1-4.

Prerequisite: None.

This course examines aspects of physical geography such as plate tectonics, rocks and soils, river systems, coastal systems, glaciers, and karst topography. Emphasis is on the evolution and distribution of these physical landforms and resultant landscapes, as well as the processes that have shaped them. The lab focuses on practical and applied aspects of landform patterns and processes. Lab work includes the use of topographic maps and aerial photographs, the identification of rocks and minerals, and the analysis of landscape features.

GEOG 2105. Social Issues: Perspectives in Geography. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099 and READ 0099.

One of the four disciplinary options (Anthropology 2105, Geography 2105, Psychology 2105, Sociology 2105) that can be taken to satisfy the Social Issues requirement in the General Education curriculum. A common set of world social issues is critically examined from one of four social science perspectives. The discipline of geography examines the effects of the current social patterns on the cultural landscape from local, regional and global perspectives.

GEOG 3300. Urban Geography. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GEOG 1101 or GEOG 2105.

An analysis of the location and distribution of urban centers, urban land uses and the geographical aspects of general urban issues.

GEOG 3305. Introduction to Cartographic Processes. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MATH 1107; CSIS 2300; and GEOG 1101 or GEOG 2105.

This course is an introduction to the processes and technology of cartography, the science and art of map making. The foundations of map construction and design will be presented from theoretical and applied perspectives. Students will be introduced to hands-on and computerized mapping, leading to a basic appreciation of the map as the integral component of geographic information systems data analysis. SSED majors—this course will not count as an upper division GEOG requirement for your degree program.

GEOG 3310. Historical Geography. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GEOG 1101 or GEOG 2105.

A global approach to the study of the geographic factors affecting historical events associated with the human exploration and settlement of the planet. The influence of geography on economic and political changes over time will be reviewed for selected historical phenomena.

GEOG 3312. Geography of Europe. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GEOG 1101 or GEOG 2105.

A geographical survey of Europe and its environs, with emphasis on the tremendous diversity found in both the physical and human geography of the region. Economic, political and cultural geography are examined within the framework of the forces that are rapidly restructuring European landscapes of Eastern and Western Europe.

GEOG 3315. Introduction to Geographic Information Systems. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GEOG 3305 or permission of instructor.

Students will be introduced to the basic design of state-of-the-art GIS and its analytical capabilities. Topics include: Geodatabases, applications in GIS, map projection information, raster/vector data models, introduction to available data on the internet, and basic GIS analytical functions such as querying and overlaying. The course will use ArcGIS to introduce these concepts in a hands-on environment.

GEOG 3320. Political Geography. 3-0-3.

Prerequisites: GEOG 1101 or GEOG 2105.

This course is intended to explore the following concepts and issues from a geographical perspective: territoriality, theories of the state, spatial expressions of ideology, boundary issues, imperialism, geopolitics, nationalism, electoral geography, national identity, religion and governing power in a spatial context, and cultural and/or economic hegemony.

GEOG 3330. Economic Geography. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GEOG 1101 or GEOG 2105.

A geographic analysis of global resources and economic growth. The underlying theme of the course is the impact of space (location, distance, area, boundaries) on economic decision making. Topics to be discussed include population, transportation, rural and urban land use, industrial location, natural resource management, and development/underdevelopment. Differing spatial theories will be employed to explain the global economy in transition.

GEOG 3340. Cultural Geography. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GEOG 1101 or GEOG 2105.

A thematic approach is applied to analyze human cultures, to examine world cultural regions, to note the spread of cultural traits, to interpret interactions between culture and environment, and to appreciate multiple traits of cultures and cultural landscapes. The five themes of region, diffusion, ecology, integration, and landscape are used to explore historical and contemporary issues of population, agriculture, politics, language, religion, ethnicity, popular culture, and urban spaces. The philosophy of the course is based on the premise that the built environment is a spatial expression of the beliefs, attitudes, and practices of a people.

GEOG 3350. Geography of Sub-Saharan Africa. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GEOG 1101 or GEOG 2105.

A spatial survey that focuses on the physical, historical, cultural, and economic forces at work on the African continent, south of the Sahara. Special emphasis is placed on the roles of the natural environment, population geography, historical geography, agriculture, economic development, and other factors that shape the landscapes of Sub-Saharan Africa.

GEOG 3360. Geography of Asia. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GEOG 1101 or GEOG 2105.

This course is designed as a survey of the physical and cultural geography of the Asian region. Students will be provided with an overview of Asian landform features and climate coupled with a discussion of human interaction with a variety of Asian landscapes in terms of historical, political, economic, religious, and ethnic factors using geographic and cartographic analytical techniques.

GEOG 3370. Geography of Latin America and the Caribbean. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GEOG 1101 or GEOG 2105.

This course studies the major physical, cultural and geo-political sub-regions in Latin America and the Caribbean. In-depth geographic awareness and knowledge of the Latin American and Caribbean region is gained from the study of physical landscapes, natural hazards, economics, historical geography, environmental and resource issues, cultures and societies, urbanization, development, current events, and prospects for the future.

GEOG 3380. Geography of North America. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GEOG 1101 or GEOG 2105.

A geographical survey of North America emphasizing the significant diversity found in both the physical and human geography of the region. Past, current and changing locational arrangements of people and resources are examined as they relate to economic, political, urban and cultural geographic perspectives within the framework of the forces that have created the variety of landscapes of the North American continent.

GEOG 3398. Internship. 1-9.

Prerequisite: GEOG 4405 for GIS internships, or at least 15 hours of upper division geography courses for non-GIS internships.

A structured off-campus experience in a supervised setting that is related to the student's major and career interests. Practical experience is combined with scholarly research under the guidance of geography faculty and the internship supervisor. Those seeking experience in a GIS environment will work under the guidance of the GIS Program Director. Sites must be in advance of the semester of the internship and must be approved by the student's advisor or internship coordinator. A departmental internship orientation session is scheduled once a semester. Note: GIS certificate students please sign up for GEOG 4415 and not this course.

GEOG 3700. Introduction to Environmental Studies. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Any general education science lab sequence.

This course is designed to give students an overview of the human dimensions of US environmental issues and is a core course for the environmental studies minor. From a geographical perspective, the course explores how US environmental laws, ethics, viewpoints and economics interact, shape, and manifest themselves across the landscape. Students will be introduced to technologies, such as geographic information systems and satellite images, used by geographers to study environmental issues. The course will examine spatial patterns arising from the ways in which we manage our natural resources and environment. Natural resources such as water, air, soil, energy and fossil fuels will be used as examples in the discussion of spatial patterns arising from resource extraction, transportation and use.

GEOG 3800. Climatology 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GEOG 1112 and any general education lab science sequence.

This course examines the nature of Earth's climate and the physical processes that determine the variations in climate and weather worldwide. Emphasis is on the interactions among the atmosphere, the hydrologic cycle, and earth's surface. Aspects of climate change will also be addressed.

GEOG 3900. Biogeography. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GEOG 1112.

This course examines the geographic distribution of plants and animals from historical, cultural, and ecological perspectives. Emphasis is on the local, regional, and global patterns and processes that have influenced the distribution and evolution of plant and animal species. Aspects of environmental change and conservation is also addressed.

GEOG 4100. Directed Applied Research. 1-6.

Prerequisite: Any upper division geography course; consent of instructor and chair.

This course will offer students an opportunity to investigate geographically-oriented concepts and issues by assisting in faculty-led research or scholarship. Course content and instructional methodologies will be identified by the faculty's needs and expectations.

GEOG 4405. Advanced Geographic Information Systems. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GIS 3315.

This course builds upon basic concepts addressed in the Introduction to Geographic Information Systems (GIS) course. The use of topological data procedures and relational database concepts within the GIS context will be investigated along with procedures relevant to building Geodatabases, including map projections, coordinate systems, digitizing vectors, and transformations. Fundamental spatial analysis operations are expanded upon, including spatial query, address matching, spatial aggregations, buffering, polygon overlay, and point-in polygon operations. ArcGIS software is used in class.

GEOG 4400. Directed Study. 1 - 3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of advisor, instructor, major area committee and department chair prior to registration.

Covers special topics and seminars external to regular course offerings.

GEOG 4410. Introduction to Remote Sensing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GEOG 4405 or permission of instructor.

Remote sensing is the art and science of obtaining information about an object, area, or phenomenon by a device that is not in contact with the study subject. Remote sensing methods include the production and analyses of satellite imagery and aerial photography as well as basic digital image processing techniques. This course is an introduction to remote sensing from space and aircraft platforms and an introduction to digital photogrammetry.

GEOG 4415. Practicum in Geographic Information Systems. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GIS 4410 and permission of program coordinator.

A capstone course designed to complete the GIS Certificate Program by integrating the students' prior training in the application of computer based manipulation and spatial analysis of data through the use of geographic information systems programs in on-site applied work settings. Students will be given applied experiences in selected public or private organizations in the community or in campus-related programs to make use of their GIS training. Students are expected to find their own practicum, which require the program coordinator's approval. GIS Majors should enroll in GEOG 3398.

GEOG 4490. Special Topics in Geography. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of Instructor and Department Chair.

Selected topics of interest to faculty and students.

GEOG 4499. Senior Seminar in Geography. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: At least 18 hours upper division required geography coursework and permission of instructor.

Required capstone course for all geography and GISc majors. This seminar helps students apply their geographic knowledge and skills culminating in a research project. The course also includes preparation for graduate study and job opportunities in geography.

• GERMAN (GRMN) •

GRMN 1001. Introduction to German Language and Culture I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099 and READ 0099 if required.

Introduction to German language and culture, stressing progressive acquisition of effective communication skills in both the written and spoken language and an understanding of the practices and products of German culture. Not open to native speakers of German.

GRMN 1002. Introduction to German Language and Culture II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: One year of high school German, or GRMN 1001, or the equivalent.

Introduction to German language and culture, part II, stressing continued, progressive acquisition of effective communication skills in both the written and spoken language and an understanding of the practices and products of German culture. Not open to native speakers of German.

GRMN 2001. Intermediate German Language and Culture I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Two years of high school German, or GRMN 1002 or the equivalent.

The student will continue to develop proficiency in listening, speaking, reading, and writing, and learn to communicate in culturally appropriate ways. Not open to native speakers of German.

GRMN 2002. Intermediate German Language and Culture II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Three years of high school German or GRMN 2001 or the equivalent.

Students continue to increase linguistic and cultural proficiency through the use of a variety of materials and activities. Course will serve as a transition between intermediate and upper-level courses in the language. Not open to native speakers of German.

GRMN 3200. Critical Reading and Applied Writing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GRMN 2002 or the equivalent.

This course emphasizes skill development and refinement in the areas of critical reading and writing in German. Designed to give students extensive experience in reading and writing in German, the course focuses on the relationship between writing and reading, and on ways to improve one through the other.

GRMN 3302. Practical Conversation. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GRMN 2002 or permission of instructor.

Students learn to express themselves verbally, using role-play, skits and extemporaneous speaking on a variety of topics including basic situations as well as discussions of professional areas. Taught in German.

GRMN 3303. Grammar and Composition. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GRMN 2002 or permission of instructor.

Introduction to the more difficult points of German grammar, syntax and style. In addition to the development of writing skills, students will concentrate on expanding their active vocabulary. Taught in German.

GRMN 3304. Literature and Culture I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GRMN 3200 and GRMN 3303.

An introduction to the literature and culture of Germany and German-speaking countries from the Middle Ages to 1848. Students examine literary and artistic movements as well as cultural issues of the period. Reading and discussion in German and in English.

GRMN 3305. Literature and Culture II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GRMN 3200 and Culture II.

An introduction to the literature and culture of Germany and German-speaking countries from 1848 to the present. Students examine literary and artistic movements as well as cultural issues of the period.

GRMN 3398. Internship. 1-9 credit hours.

Prerequisite: GRMN 3302 or permission of instructor.

Supervised, credit-earning work experience of one semester requiring use of German in the work place. Prior approval by department coordinator and internship supervisor is required.

GRMN 4400. Directed Study. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: GRMN 2002 or permission of instructor.

Covers special topics and seminars external to course offerings that allow a student to work individually with an instructor. Requires prior approval by instructor and department chair.

GRMN 4402. Contemporary Culture. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GRMN 3304 or GRMN 3305 or permission of instructor.

This course is an examination of the historical, social, and political contexts of the contemporary experience in the German-speaking world through the analysis of cultural representations such as film, media, plastic arts, music, and literature. Readings and discussions are in German.

GRMN 4404. Commercial German. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GRMN 2002 or permission of instructor.

An in-depth study of business practices and the language of business that focuses on verbal and written communication as well as economic, social and political factors that are important to the conduct of business in the German-speaking world. Readings and discussion in German and in English.

GRMN 4434. Topics in Language, Literature, and Culture. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GRMN 3304 or GRMN 3305 or permission of instructor.

This course explores a period, movement or genre in literature, a topic in culture, or language-related issues. Topics are chosen for their significance and impact on German-speaking cultures. The course is taught in German.

GRMN 4456. Advanced Grammar and Linguistics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GRMN 3303 or permission of instructor.

This course is an advanced study of grammar from a linguistic perspective. It provides an overview of phonetics, phonology, morphology, and syntax. The course exposes students to dialectal variations of the German-speaking world and stresses development of oral proficiency. The course is taught in German.

GRMN 4490. Special Topics in German. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GRMN 2002 or permission of instructor.

Selected topics of interest to students and faculty.

GRMN 4499. Senior Seminar. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: GRMN 3304 or GRMN 3305 or permission of instructor.

This is a capstone course designed to synthesize and connect the student's prior academic experiences in the major and related fields of study. Students will prepare a reflective essay and a research paper to present to the faculty. Papers and presentations are in German.

• HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES (HHS) •

HHS 3100. Culturally Competent. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

This course provides students with skills needed by health and human service workers to provide effective care to individuals from a variety of ethnic and cultural backgrounds. Emphasis will be placed on working with immigrants and refugees from Hispanic cultures.

• HEALTH, PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND SPORT SCIENCE (HPS) •

SECTION I:

Fitness for Living Requirement.

HPS 1000. Fitness for Living. 2-1-3.

Prerequisite: None.

Emphasis on the importance of physical activity, nutrition, stress and weight management, and health-related fitness components. Topics will be developed with practical applications to one's life-style including opportunities to assess selected fitness, nutritional and activity patterns, and to develop and participate in a personalized physical activity program.

SECTION II:

Physical Activity Program.

HPS 1030. Aerobic Conditioning/Weight Training. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: None.

Motor skill acquisition, fundamental techniques and knowledge appropriate for the successful participation in a variety of cardiovascular fitness related activities and weight training principles.

HPS 1050. Archery/Badminton. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: None.

Motor skill acquisition, fundamental techniques and knowledge appropriate for the successful participation in target archery and badminton.

HPS 1070. Basketball/Softball. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: None.

Motor skill acquisition, fundamental techniques and knowledge appropriate for the successful participation in five player basketball and slow pitch softball.

HPS 1090. Dance: Ballet. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: None.

Motor skill acquisition, fundamental techniques and knowledge appropriate for the successful participation in classical ballet dance.

HPS 1130. Dance: Jazz. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: None.

Motor skill acquisition, fundamental techniques and knowledge appropriate for the successful participation in basic jazz dance.

HPS 1150. Dance: Modern. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: None.

Motor skill acquisition, fundamental techniques and knowledge appropriate for the successful participation in basic modern dance.

HPS 1160. Rhythmic Activities for Children (P-5). 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: None.

Rhythmic and movement concepts used in expressive movement and as a foundation for motor skills included. Strategies for teaching creative movement will be addressed. Field experience with young children included.

HPS 1170. Folk/Square/Social Dance. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: None.

Motor skill acquisition, fundamental techniques, and knowledge appropriate for participation in folk, square, and social dance. Will include selected folk dances representing different cultures around the world. Circle, contra, and western style square dance will be emphasized. Social dances shall include Fox Trot, Waltz, Swing, and various Latin dances.

HPS 1190. Soccer/Team Handball. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: None.

Motor skill acquisition, fundamental techniques, and knowledge appropriate for the successful participation in soccer/team handball.

HPS 1210. Golf. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: None.

Motor skill acquisition, fundamental techniques and knowledge appropriate for the successful participation in golf. Additional fee required.

HPS 1230. Martial Arts. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: None.

Motor skill acquisition, fundamental techniques and knowledge appropriate for the successful participation in the development of martial arts and self defense skills. Additional fee required.

HPS 1250. Outdoor Recreational Pursuits. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: HPS 1310 or instructor's consent.

Motor skill acquisition, fundamental techniques and knowledge appropriate for the successful participation and appreciation of outdoor recreation activities. Units represented may include backpacking, camping, orienteering and canoeing. Weekend trips, off campus field experiences and additional fee required.

HPS 1290. Stunts & Tumbling/ Gymnastics. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: None.

Motor skill acquisition, fundamental techniques and knowledge appropriate for the successful participation in the development of stunts, tumbling and gymnastic skills. Additional fee required.

HPS 1310. Swimming: Beginning. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: None.

Motor skill acquisition, fundamental techniques and knowledge appropriate for the successful completion of the American Red Cross Beginning through Intermediate swimming levels. Course is designed for the nonswimmer or individual with limited aquatic experience.

HPS 1330. Swimming: Intermediate. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: HPS 1310 or instructor's consent.

Motor skill acquisition, fundamental techniques and knowledge appropriate for swimming and water safety. Successful completion of this course corresponds to standards for the American Red Cross Swimmer level.

HPS 1350. Swimming: Lifeguard Training. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: HPS 1330 or instructor's consent.

Motor skill acquisition, fundamental techniques and knowledge appropriate to become certified in American Red Cross Lifeguard Training.

HPS 1390. Tennis. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: None.

Motor skill acquisition, fundamental techniques and knowledge appropriate for the successful participation in tennis.

HPS 1430. Volleyball. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: None.

Motor skill acquisition, fundamental techniques, and knowledge appropriate for successful participation in volleyball.

HPS 1450. Scuba Diving. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: HPS 1310 or instructor's consent.

This course is designed to develop fundamental concepts, principles, and techniques of sport SCUBA diving. Course covers selection and maintenance of gear, snorkeling skills, physiology of diving, use of dive tables, diving environment, and an emphasis on safe diving practices. PADI open water certification available but not required to fulfill HPS credit. Additional fee and mask, fins, and snorkel required.

HPS 1470. Self Defense. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: None.

This course develops self defense tactics and the knowledge of personal safety. Topics may include but are not limited to hand and leg strikes, various escapes and releases, safety in the car and home, sexual harassment, date rape, self defense and the law, and sexual abuse of children.

HPS 1510. Fitness Swimming. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: HPS 1310 or instructor's consent.

This course provides opportunities for students with good swim skills to increase their fitness level via the medium of water. Workouts will be comprised of drills designed to increase stroke efficiency as they improve aerobic capacity, body composition, and muscular endurance. This is a vital opportunity for those students with physical limitations that prohibit typical land based exercise.

HPS 1530. Water Aerobics. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: None.

This course is comprised of aerobic exercises and muscular strength/endurance exercises performed in the water. These exercises will focus on increasing mobility, cardiovascular fitness, muscle tone, and improving body composition. This is a vital opportunity for students with physical limitations prohibiting typical land based exercise. No aquatic proficiency required.

HPS 1550. Developmental Movement Experiences. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: None.

Foundational framework for motor skill acquisition, fundamental techniques and knowledge appropriate for children and early adolescents. Developmental patterns and experiences will range from educational games, rhythms, and gymnastics to cooperative, cross cultural and creative leisure activities/games.

HPS 1570. Walk/Jog for Fitness. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: None.

Motor skill acquisition, fundamental techniques, and knowledge appropriate for the successful participation in walking/jogging cardiovascular fitness activities. Nutritional principles for lifetime health will also be discussed.

HPS 1810. Outdoor Recreation and Education. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: HPS majors only.

Fundamental techniques and leadership skills necessary for safe participation in a variety of land and water outdoor recreational and educational activities without disturbance to the environment. Activities may include backpacking, camping, orienteering, canoeing, basic survival and problem solving adventure activities. Additional fee required.

HPS 1830. Swimming: Water Safety Instructor. 1-2-2.

Prerequisite: HPS 1330 or instructor's consent.

Fundamental techniques, knowledge and methods appropriate to become certified to teach all levels in the American Red Cross swimming programs.

HPS 1850. Advanced Strength/Aerobic Training. 1-1-1.

Prerequisite: HPS majors only.

Motor skill acquisition, advanced techniques and knowledge appropriate for successful participation and instruction in strength training and aerobic fitness activities.

in aerobics classes, workout design and implementation, monitoring exercise, exercise risk factors, safe and effective exercise, evaluation of existing programs, and administrative considerations.

HPS 2100. Introduction to Exercise and Health Science. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 099, READ 099, if required.

An introduction to exercise and health science. Topics include historical perspectives, overview of the profession and career opportunities, professional organizations, certification programs, current issues, and future trends.

HPS 2200. Introduction to Sport Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: None.

An introduction to sport management. To include a historical development of the discipline, overview of the profession and career opportunities, professional organizations, current issues, and future trends.

HPS 2220. Legal Aspects of Sports. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HPS 2200; admission to the program or instructor's consent.

This course will focus on the application of law principles to the sport and fitness setting. Areas include agency law, tort liability, contract law, antitrust law, Constitutional law, labor law, and criminal law. The course will focus on issues as they pertain to sport managers, educators, coaches, athletes, facility directors, and recreational administrators.

HPS 2222. Sports Information. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HPS 2200; admission to the program or instructor's consent.

The primary purpose of this course is to familiarize students with the field of sport information including mass communication, the print media, the broadcast media, sports news releases, interviewing, and public relations. Emphasis is placed upon the gathering, managing, and delivering of information about sport organizations, teams, players, and coaches to the public.

HPS 2290. Special Topics. 1-3.

Prerequisite: None.

Selected physical activity units not regularly offered through the Department of HPS. Repeatable.

HPS 2300. First Aid/CPR Instructor Training. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Current American Red Cross Community First Aid and Safety (C.F.A.S.) Certification.

Theory, practice, and application for safety, injury prevention, and care to include the American Red Cross Community First Aid and Safety (CFAS). Teaching methodologies are also

SECTION III.

Health, Physical Education, and Sport Science Major Courses.

HPS 2000. Contemporary and Historical Perspectives of Health and Physical Education. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 099, READ 099, if required.

An overview of contemporary and historical perspectives of health and physical education. Emphasis is on providing discussion of career options, major programs of study and professional opportunities in the areas of health and physical education as well as a survey and study of the historical and philosophical principles relative to physical education from a world and U.S. perspective. HPS majors should take this course prior to all 2000-4000 level major courses.

HPS 2090. Exercise Leadership. 2-2-3.

Prerequisite: HPS 1000 and Community First Aid and Safety (C.F.A.S.) Certification.

This course is designed to provide students with leadership skills and experience that directly apply to fitness programs. Topics include current trends needed to prepare professionals to teach CFAS to the layperson. Topics may include but are not limited to: personal, school, home, recreation, traffic, work site, and disaster safety.

HPS 3050. Coaching Principles. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: None.

Basic understanding of the theoretical and practical applications of the sport science areas of physical education related to coaching. Current issues and topics addressing the principles and problems of the prospective interscholastic coach including coaching philosophy, pedagogy, sport psychology, sport medicine and sport physiology. Students successfully completing the course may become certified as a Leader Level Coach by the American Coaches Effectiveness Program.

HPS 3060. Advanced Coaching Methodology: Basketball and Volleyball. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HPS 3050.

This course is designed to provide an in-depth understanding of the theories and techniques of coaching basketball and volleyball. Social, economic, political, and military aspects of the American experience are also studied.

HIST 4425. Oral History. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HIST 2112.

Focuses on the methods of taking, processing, and utilizing oral histories. Additional emphasis is placed on the study of planning, development, and operation of oral history projects for libraries, museums, corporations, and public history agencies.

HIST 4426. Documentation and Interpretation of Historic Sites. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HIST 2112.

Explores the methods of documenting historic properties, especially as related to the National Register of Historic Places. Special emphasis is placed on completing a nomination for the National Register of Historic Places. Includes interpretation of historic sites for public exhibit.

HIST 4428. the Third Reich. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HIST 2112 or HIST 1110.

This course draws a wide range of texts to place the Third Reich (1933-1945) in a broad historical context to understand its rise, causes, consequences, and legacies.

HIST 4430. Museum Studies. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HIST 2112.

Provides a broad introduction to the museum world and the functions of museums in American society. Emphasis will be placed on historical museums. Subjects covered will include museum management, collections management, education, interpretation, exhibit design, ethics, and scholarly criticism of museums.

HIST 4435. History and Memory. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HIST 2112.

This seminar experience examines the literature of public history and memory. Through readings and discussion the class will examine: what we know about the past and how we know it; the changing interpretation of historical events over time; the shape and influence of historical memory; the politics of historical interpretation; and the public presentation of history.

HIST 4440. Medieval Europe. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HIST 1110.

A survey of the origins of European culture. Focuses on the period between the fourth and the fourteenth centuries, during which time Europe achieved its own form of cultural unity distinct from that of its Mediterranean neighbors.

HIST 4442. History of Religious Tolerance. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HIST 1110.

This course traces the origins of the concept of tolerance of the religious "other," with a focus of content on medieval and Early Modern Europe. Besides the historical exploration of the topic and an examination of the emergence and development of the idea of religious toleration against a background of persecution, wars of religion, students also examine and discuss philosophical and practical aspects of religious tolerance today.

HIST 4444. Renaissance and Reformation Europe. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HIST 1110.

A survey of the changing patterns of thought that radically altered European society between the 14th and 17th centuries. The renaissance of art, the triumph of individualism, the rise of Protestantism, and the reformation of the Church will be studied in their social, political and intellectual contexts.

HIST 4445. Age of the Enlightenment. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HIST 1110.

A contextualized discussion of major developments in European thought during the eighteenth century. Topics include rationalism and the notion of the social applicability of science, the idea of progress, the critique of established religion, economic theories such as those of the Physiocrats, and epistemological interests as expressed in the Encyclopedie of Diderot and d'Alembert, as well as the increased cosmopolitanism and the importance of extra-European models (especially the Chinese Confucian model).

HIST 4488. Approaches to World History 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HIST 1110 and 2206.

An examination of the various approaches to world history as a field of study, comprising the important debates and controversies in the tradition. The course includes a consideration of contemporary debates and recent developments on topics such as modernization and its place and significance in world history. The examination also includes a critique of the conceptualization of world history in today's classroom and will suggest possible alternatives.

HIST 4490. Special Topics in History. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: HIST 1110 and 2112.

Selected special topics of interest to faculty and students.

HIST 4499. Senior Seminar. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HIST 2275 AND 3376, with 'C' or better.

A combined tutorial and seminar in which students research and write a senior thesis in addition to making a computer based presentation in class.

• HISTORY EDUCATION (HIED) •

HIED 4413. Teaching of Social Science (6-12). 6-0-6.

Prerequisite: HIST 2275, HIST 2206, and permission of program area.

An examination and application of curriculum issues, learning theories, teaching strategies, instructional materials, and assessment procedures for teaching secondary school social science in the multicultural and diverse classrooms of today. Emphasizes those practices suggested by research in secondary social science education and encouraged by our accrediting agencies.

HIED 4414. Teaching of Social Sciences Practicum. 0-9-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to HIED 4413.

Secondary school field experience in social science teaching with concurrent seminars. Proof of professional liability insurance is required prior to school placement.

HIED 4475. Student Teaching: Social Science (6-12). 12 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Admission to Student Teaching.

Full-time teaching experience in social sciences under the supervision of a secondary school cooperating teacher and a specialist in history education. Includes a regularly scheduled seminar.

HIED 4498. Internship in Teaching Social Studies (6-12). 0-18-12.

Prerequisite: Provisional teaching license issued by State of Georgia; full-time employment teaching social studies (7-12).

Student teaching experience in social studies for provisionally certified teachers. Supervision will be in collaboration with a mentor-teacher in a local school and a specialist in social studies education. Twelve (12) hours of this internship will automatically substitute for SSED 4475. Proof of professional liability insurance. Students are responsible for their own school placement.

• HONORS (HON) •

HON 2290. Honors Seminar. 3-0-3

Prerequisite: Admission to the Undergraduate Honors Program.

A special topics course offered exclusively for students admitted to the Undergraduate Honors Program and designed to examine a single theme or issue from a variety of disciplinary perspectives, providing students with the opportunity to work individually or collaboratively on a cross-disciplinary project.

HON 3000. Honors Colloquium. 1-0-1.

Prerequisite: Admission to the Undergraduate Honors Program.

A course designed to explore different disciplinary perspectives on knowledge and its acquisition, fostering faculty-student interchange in a seminar setting. Students also participate in three or more cultural/intellectual activities beyond the classroom. Required of all students in the Undergraduate Honors Program, the Colloquium may be repeated to meet the expectations of Fundamental Three of the Honors curriculum.

HON 4400. Honors Directed Study. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to the Undergraduate Honors Program.

A course designed to accommodate traditional or applied learning experiences exclusive of those offered in other Honors courses.

HON 4490. Honors Special Topics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to the Undergraduate Honors Program.

A course addressing special topics of interest to Honors students and faculty.

HON 4499. Honors Senior Capstone Experience. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to the Undergraduate Honors Program and senior status.

A project designed by the senior Honors student and reflecting original research, an original synthesis of existing research, an application of existing research to a new context, or the application of special skills to the creation and coordination of a substantial service learning project in the student's major. Required of all students in the Undergraduate Honors Program.

• HUMAN SERVICES (HS) •

HS 2233. Overview of Human Services. 3-0-3.

Corequisite: None.

This course provides students with an overview of helping professions. Topics include: philosophy of human services; characteristics of human service workers; careers in human services; description of public, non-profit and for-profit agencies; theory; and cultural diversity. Human service majors are required to take this course as a prerequisite for many other HS courses. Students must complete 20 hours of volunteer service as a requirement of this class, or be enrolled in HS 2244. Non majors are welcome to take HS 2233.

HS 2244. Foundation Internship. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HS 2233 or permission of department.

This course provides human service majors and non-majors the opportunity to begin to explore the helping professions by completing 150 hours of service learning. Students will begin to apply theoretical knowledge, skill development and value systems they have learned in the classroom to a particular work environment.

HS 2275. Research Methods for Human Services. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MATH 1107 or equivalent.

This course introduces quantitative and qualitative social science research methods with an emphasis on the specific methods necessary for human service research and provision. This course enables students to become informed producers and consumers of research products, particularly in the human service areas. The emphasis is on basic concepts and underlying assumptions of various social science research methodologies and their design implications. It also develops skills in designing research projects with a particular emphasis on survey research.

HS 3200. Social Welfare Policy. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HS 2233.

This course provides students with an overview of American social welfare policy and the problems that they address. Attention will also be given to social welfare in a global society.

HS 3300. Human Socialization. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201 or PSYC 1101.

This course provides students with an overview of the development of human beings focusing on the socialization process and its effect on personal and social functioning.

HS 3304. Community Intervention. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HS 2233.

This course focuses on macro-human service practice as a complement to preparation in micro-direct services. It is specifically designed to provide students with a working knowledge and basic skills required for helping communities and organizations address their needs and concerns. Students will learn various models of community and organizational intervention that can be used in diverse settings.

HS 3313. Interviewing Skills. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HS 2233 or permission of the department.

This course introduces students to interviewing skills in non-crisis settings. Communication skills learned in the course include relation-building techniques within a problem-solving model. Additionally, students learn skills to identify client strengths and to work with resistant clients. Students are required to role-play, video-tape, and critique skills learned in the course. The goal of this course is to expose the student to a variety of perspectives and techniques used by all human service workers.

HS 3320. Working with Support Groups. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HS 3313.

This course introduces students to basic theory, skills, methods, and values necessary to lead support groups. These groups are not designed to be in-depth therapeutic experiences but to deal with individuals experiencing general problems of everyday life.

HS 3322. Aging and the Family. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HS 2233 or PSYC 1101.

This course introduces students to family systems theory and practice in relation to working with older adults and their families. The impact on nursing home placement, Alzheimer's disease, death and dying, and depression as it is related to family function is stressed. Services and solutions to aging related problems will be included.

HS 3324. Death & Dying. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HS 2233 or PSYC 1101.

This course provides an understanding of death and dying, bereavement and loss. This course will attempt to "take death out of the closet," present many viewpoints, and highlight the important areas that surround this topic. Skills needed to work with the dying and their families will be stressed.

HS 3335. Working with Families. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HS 2233.

This course provides students an overview of the basic theoretical models used for family interventions. Students will also learn beginning skills for family group work.

HS 3350. Poverty and Culture. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201, PSYC 1101, or permission of department.

This required course will provide an overview of poverty in the U.S., its causes, efforts to alleviate it, and its reflection in and by culture. Students will examine theories of causes of poverty, insights into personal experiences of poor people, and critical thinking activities relative to this social issue.

HS 3375. Program Development and Evaluation. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HS 2275.

This course introduces the student to the development and evaluation of human services programs. It stresses the importance of considering evaluation within program development. Students will analyze programs that have demonstrably improved the lives of disadvantaged people. They will learn about techniques of evaluation, building upon the course content of HS 2275. They will design a small-scale program that includes an evaluation plan.

HS 3396. Cooperative Study. 1-3.

Prerequisite: Approval of human services department co-op coordinator.

This course is for junior or senior level students who wish to obtain credit for job experience in conjunction with academic training. Course may be repeated up to three times in order to complete the required credits for the course. Human Services' majors interested in a COOP must meet the university requirements for COOP, meet with their advisor and the HS undergraduate Field Coordinator to discuss appropriateness of using current employment prior to applying for a COOP with areer Services.

HS 3398. Advanced Internship. 1-9.

Prerequisite: HS 3313 and HS 4410.

Human service majors are required to complete a minimum of 300 clock hours (6 semester hours) of supervised field experience. Students must have successfully completed the Foundation Internship (HS 2244) in order to be eligible for the advanced internship. This course requires a minimum of 300 clock hours (6 semester hours) of advanced internship credit. The advanced internship must be taken within the last two semesters before graduation. Placement must be approved by the internship faculty coordinator and must take place in approved agencies consistent with the objectives of the major program. All majors must attend one orientation session in order to be considered for this internship. Students are strongly encouraged to have completed all concentration course work prior to taking the advanced internship.

HS 3520. Leadership in Nonprofit Organizations. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HS 2233.

This course introduces students to the field of leadership in nonprofit organizations. It specifically focuses on managing change, role of leadership organizations of the future, and the skills needed to successfully lead an organization. The "underpinning" of leadership (trust, credibility, courage, aloneness, reciprocity, sharing power, etc.) is also explored. This is a required course for American Humanics students pursuing their Certification in Nonprofit Management.

HS 3540. Grant Writing and Fundraising. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HS 2233.

This course introduces students to the area of fund raising, development, special events and basic finance in the nonprofit sector. It is also appropriate for students working in other areas of Human Services as well as other majors who plan to work with nonprofits or governmental agencies.

HS 3560. Human Resources for Nonprofit Organizations. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HS 2233.

This course introduces the student to the basic theories, techniques, and skills that are necessary to effectively manage human resources, including staff and volunteers.

HS 4400. Directed Study in Human Services. 1-3.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair.

This course covers special topics and seminars external to regular course offerings. May include original research projects and practicum experiences.

HS 4410. Ethics in the Helping Profession. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HS 2233 and HS 3200.

This course provides students with an understanding of the importance of ethics and values in the Human Service Profession. Students will examine how their own personal and professional values affect their practice and will learn various models for ethical decision-making. Also students will learn how to become sensitive to different value systems.

HS 4415. Principles of Child Welfare. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HS 2233 or PSYC 1101.

This course provides the student with a comprehensive overview of child welfare as a societal concern. Students will become aware of the historical development of children's problems, services, and the issues facing children today.

HS 4420. Dynamics of Family Violence. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HS 2233 or PSYC 1101.

This course provides students with a working knowledge of family violence issues. Students will become familiar with different theories regarding causation and treatment as well as society's response to family violence.

HS 4425. Working with Children and Youth. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HS 2233 or PSYC 2201.

This course focuses on theoretical interventions through the lifespan phases of childhood and adolescence. Intervention techniques within an ecological framework are explored and assessed for use in a wide range of problem areas in a variety of settings.

HS 4440. Crisis Intervention. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HS 3313.

This course builds on concepts and techniques taught in HS 3313 Interviewing Skills for Human Service Workers. Students will learn crisis intervention theory, advanced communication skills, and knowledge about different crises and crisis settings. Students will be required to role-play crisis intervention techniques.

HS 4490. Special Topics in Human Services. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair.

This course provides selected topics of interest to faculty and students.

HS 4498. Capstone Seminar in Human Services. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: HS 3375 or HS 4410.

This course is the culmination of the public and social services program, integrating the students' education and experience. This course also provides students the opportunity to look at their options for the future, in a seminar format.

Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education. Prepares candidates to work collaboratively with families and school personnel to have a positive impact on the educational, social and behavioral development of all students, including those with a full range of disabilities, in a diverse society. The course focuses on knowledge of legislative mandates for serving exceptional students, characteristics of exceptionality, best practice in facilitating teaching and learning, and accountability through assessment of outcomes. This course requires an observational experience in an assigned school placement. Verification of professional liability insurance is required prior to placement in the field experience. Fulfills Georgia HB 671 requirement.

INED 4000. Service Learning in Special Education. 1-3.

Prerequisite: 60 hours and permission of instructor and department chair/program coordinator. A community activity which links learning to life by connecting meaningful community service activities with academic learning, personal growth, and civic responsibility. Activity will be designed with the instructor and approved by the chair/program coordinator.

• INFORMATION SECURITY AND ASSURANCE (ISA) •ISA 2100. Principles of Information Security and Assurance. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in credit level mathematics course.

An introduction to the various technical and administrative aspects of Information Security and Assurance. This course provides the foundation for understanding the key issues associated with protecting information assets, determining the levels of protection and response to security incidents, and designing a consistent, reasonable information security system, with appropriate intrusion detection and reporting features.

ISA 3010. Security Script Programming. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in IS 3020 or permission of the department.

A study of secure programming and security programming techniques. The course examines aspects of developing traditional computer software, applying additional controls and measure to prevent the development of vulnerable and exploitable code. The course then examines programming techniques used in support of ongoing technical security functions, including Perl and CGI scripting.

ISA 3200. Network Security. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in IS 3040 and ISA 2100.

Detailed examinations of the tools, techniques and technologies used in the technical securing of information assets. This course is designed to provide in-depth information on the software and hardware components of Information Security and Assurance. Topics covered include: firewall configurations, Web and distributed systems security, and specific implementation of security models and architectures.

ISA 3210. Client Systems Security I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in ISA 2100.

This course is an exploration of client computer system security and vulnerabilities, including client computer architectures, and operating systems. It provides the detailed technical coverage necessary to protect computer information system clients by presenting the knowledge of client platform computer hardware components, client network devices and interfaces, as well as the structure and usage of common client operating system software from an information security perspective. Additional learning regarding ongoing maintenance and operational issues of client computing systems will also be included.

ISA 3300. Management of Information Security and Assurance. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in ISA 2100.

Detailed examinations of a systems-wide perspective of information security, beginning with a strategic planning process for security. Includes an examination of the policies, procedures, and staffing functions necessary to organize and administrate ongoing security functions in the organization. Subjects include security practices, security architecture and models, continuity planning and disaster recovery planning.

ISA 3396. Cooperative Study in Information Security and Assurance. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ISA 2100 and approval of coordinator of cooperative education (Career Services).

A supervised work experience for a minimum of two semesters at a site in business, industry, or government, focusing on some aspect of information security and assurance. For sophomore, junior, or senior level students who wish to obtain on-the-job experience in Information Security and Assurance, in conjunction with their academic training. Students may take a cooperative study for multiple semesters however only three credit hours are applicable toward the Certificate in Information Security and Assurance. Contact the department office for additional information on the requirements and restrictions of the cooperative study.

ISA 3398. Internships in Information Security and Assurance. 1-9 credit hours.

Prerequisite: ISA 2100 and approval of coordinator of cooperative education (Career Services).

A supervised work experience for one semester at a site in business, industry or government, focusing on some aspect of information security and assurance. For sophomore, junior or senior level students who wish to obtain on-the-job experience in Information Security and Assurance, in conjunction with their academic training. Students can earn between three and nine credit hours toward their degree programs but only three hours will be counted toward the Certificate in Information Security and Assurance. Contact the department office for additional information on the requirements and restrictions for the Internship.

ISA 4220. Server Systems Security. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in ISA 3200.

This course is an exploration of server computer system security and vulnerabilities, including server computer architectures, and operating systems. It provides the detailed technical coverage necessary to protect computer information system servers by presenting the knowledge of server platform computer hardware components, server network devices and interfaces, as well as the structure and usage of common server operating system software from an information security perspective. Additional learning regarding ongoing maintenance and operational issues of server computing systems will also be included.

ISA 4330. Incident Response and Contingency Planning. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in ISA 3300.

An examination of the detailed aspects of incident response and contingency planning consisting of incident response planning, disaster recovery planning, and business continuity planning. Developing and executing plans to deal with incidents in the organization is a critical function in information security. This course focuses on the planning processes for all three areas of contingency planning – incident response, disaster recovery, and business continuity, and the execution of response to human and non-human incidents in compliance with these policies.

ISA 4350. Computer Forensics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in ISA 3200 and ISA 3210.

This course focuses on the detection, isolation and response to security breaches and attacks. It provides a detailed examination of the entire computer forensic process and presents specific procedures required to respond to a computer crime incident. Subjects include recognizing unauthorized access, identifying file anomalies, and traffic monitoring.

ISA 4400. Directed Study in Information Security and Assurance. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor, major area committee, and department chair.

Selected topics of advanced nature that are not in the regular course offerings.

ISA 4490. Special Topics in Information Security and Assurance. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Varies by topic.

Selected special or current topics of interest to faculty and students.

ISA 4700. Emerging Issues in Information Security and Assurance. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in ISA 4330 and permission of the department.

This course explores emerging issues in information security and assurance, and the role of organizational information security in state, regional and national policy. It provides content about the interaction between the organization, society, and public agencies. It examines the role of people versus technical security ideals currently debated by contemporary organizations.

ISA 4810. Cyber Defense. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ISA 3010, ISA 3210, ISA 4220 and ISA 4330.

This course discusses the hardware/software tools and techniques associated with the protection of computer systems and networks. Students learn how to protect network resources as deployed in a typical organization. Course topics include policy and practice associated with the protection of communication resources, intrusion detection systems, firewalls, and use of various tools for system and network protection.

ISA 4820. Information Security and Assurance Programs and Strategies. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in ISA 4330.

This is the Senior capstone course for the Information Security and Assurance major and the course must be taken in the final year of the student's degree. The course integrates learning from all managerial ISA courses and encourages the student to develop skills in synthesis and communication (both written and oral) as well as teaching new material about the role of the CISO and the strategic and tactical planning and operation of the information security department in a variety of organizations. A research paper will be prepared and presented in the course. Outside speakers will supplement the course and provide the student additional, outside perspective on the information security industry.

• INFORMATION SYSTEMS (IS) •

IS 2040. Web Development I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: IS 2101 or department approval.

This course presents introductions to many of the basic concepts, issues and techniques related to designing, developing and deploying Web sites. During the course, students will learn about Web design, HTML, XHTML, basic scripting, Dynamic HTML, Applets, and Cascading Style Sheets (CSS). Students will learn how to create sites both manually and through the use of Web site development software tool such as HomeSite, Dreamweaver, Flash, and Adobe Photoshop. Students will also learn how to develop interactive graphic and animation and will be introduced to the .NET developing environment.

IS 2060. Systems Analysis. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: IS 2101.

Software systems development including elicitation and specification of user requirements, graphical modeling of objects, data, and processes, and design of data structures, user interfaces, and system behaviors. A team project is required.

IS 2080. Data Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: IS 2101 or department approval.

This course introduces the student to the properties, logic, design, implementation, and access to business databases. Particular emphasis is placed on the relational approach to database management and processing, which focuses more on the logical nature of a database than its physical characteristics. Relational database programming assignments are drawn from the fields of business and government.

IS 2101. Computers and Your World. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099, READ 0099 if required.

Start | Run | Learn. Computers and the Internet have revolutionized society. Every profession is affected. Communication, education and commerce have been transformed. Music, films, photography and books are digitized. Students who enroll in this course will rip a music CD, edit and e-mail a digital photograph, reinstall an operating system, design a database, conduct research on the web, secure a wireless router, participate in an online community and create a web site. Issues explored include security, privacy, globalization, diversity and ethics. Be a well-rounded user of computers and the Internet. Don't get left behind by the information technology revolution.

IS 3020. Application Development I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: IS 2101 or department approval.

This course will provide students with the knowledge and skills needed to develop applications in a development environment. It covers .NET and .NET 2.0 technologies. This is the first course in the .NET development platform. Students will learn how to develop applications using Microsoft Visual Studio .NET development environment.

IS 3040. IT Infrastructure. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: IS 2101 or department approval.

This course provides foundation skills on information technology infrastructure. Topics include hardware; software; communications including LAN, WAN, and wireless network; transaction support; facilities for business continuity and security; infrastructure management best practices including ITIL and COBIT; service level agreements; and risk management including compliance, sourcing, disaster planning, auditing, controls, and standards.

IS 3080. Information Resource Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: IS 2101 or department approval.

Information Resource Management (IRM) constantly strives to improve its commitment to incorporate new technologies to advance the organization. The focus of this course is on management of information systems resources, technologies and people. Covers strategic planning of information resources investments, operations, and support; management of human, technological, and financial resources; management of end-user computing; IS functional organization and the CIO; and organizing information resources for efficient and effective services.

IS 3220. Project Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: IS 2101.

Introduction to the principles and application of project management techniques with an emphasis on the design and management of computer information systems projects. Topics include project planning, work team design, project estimation techniques, project reporting, identifying and controlling project risks, budgets, and quality assurance.

IS 3240. XML Services. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: IS 2040 and IS 3020.

This course provides students with the knowledge and skills that are required to develop XML based solutions to solve document sharing problems. The course focuses on using Microsoft Visual Studio .NET and Universal Description, Discovery, and Integration (UDDI) to enable students to build, deploy, locate, and consume eXtensible Markup Language (XML) Web services.

IS 3520. Enterprise Systems. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: IS 2080.

Modern information systems contain many vendor-supplied components that must be selected, integrated, tested, and installed. This course analyzes current practices in systems integration, including business intelligence, enterprise application integration (EAI), enterprise resource planning (ERP), and data integration. Further, this course addresses the skills required to develop system Requests for Proposals (RFPs), evaluation and management of contracts and contractors, testing methods, installation planning and outsourcing.

IS 3540. Systems Design. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: IS 2060, IS 2080, IS 3020.

In this course students will build an information system for a real-world organization, public or private. Using a team project concept, students will analyze, design, create, and implement a working information system for a class case or client. Emphasis will be placed on project management, rapid application development, and the development of quality systems for clients.

IS 3580. Data Warehouse and Business Intelligence. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: IS 2080.

This course covers the fundamentals of data warehousing and business intelligence architecture and issues involved in planning, designing, building, and populating a successful data warehouse and business intelligence system. Topics covered in this course are business requirement analysis, dimensional modeling, physical design, extraction-transformation-load design and development, Analysis Service Online Analytical Processing database, data mining, and business intelligence applications.

IS 3740. Human Computer Interaction. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: IS 2040 and IS 3020.

A comprehensive introduction to the principles and techniques that impact human interaction with computers. Topics include the foundations of human-computer interaction, building a graphical user interface, human-centered software evaluation, human-centered software development, graphical user-interface design, graphical user-interface programming, HCI aspects of multimedia, and HCI aspects of collaboration and communication. Major research and the building of a working graphical user interface are included.

IS 3760. Web Development II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: IS 2040.

The architectural model for computer-based application intense software systems centers around component development and deployment. This course will explore concepts related to the development of dynamic component-based web systems including web page connectivity to database systems and the development and utilization of Web Services. Web services include the ability to integrate code written in different programming languages and the emerging platforms, architectures, and technologies (such as XML, SOAP, and WSDL) that have arisen to support the next generation of software systems. Specifically students in this course will have an opportunity to directly interact with an Integrated Development Environment (such as Microsoft's .NET) and will be required to develop and implement dynamic Web pages and Web services.

IS 3780. Local Area Network. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: IS 3040.

A presentation of Local Area Networks (LAN) including LAN hardware, LAN system software, LAN applications software, LAN installation, LAN administration. LAN administration topics include users, groups, security, printing, backup and recovery, and reactive and proactive management. Concepts studied in class will be implemented by the students.

IS 3950. Global Technology Strategy. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: BISM 2100 or CSIS 2101 or equivalent or permission of the department.

This case study course looks at organizational approaches to the integration of technology in multiple cultures. In this course, students look at the international pervasion of the high-tech mindset, from the perspectives of the business, social, financial markets, and personal life.

IS 4220. Advanced Databases. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: IS 2080.

Students will learn database development techniques including database, designer and developer. Databases are used to support decision making by detecting patterns, devising rules, identifying new decision alternatives and making predictions about the future. Students will learn how to build large databases using SQL to query the data, building forms and reports, managing Web-based applications, and create an integrated application.

IS 4400. Directed Study. 1 to 3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor, major area committee, and department chair. Up to three hours may be applied to the major area.

Special topics of an advanced nature that are not in the regular course offerings.

IS 4490. Special Topics. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade (varies by topic).

Selected special or current topics of interest to faculty and students.

IS 4540. Data Mining. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: IS 3580.

Data mining aims at finding useful regularities and patterns in large data sets. In this course students will learn how this interdisciplinary field brings together techniques from databases, statistics, machine learning, and information retrieval. This course covers major data mining techniques including association mining, classification, clustering, trend analysis, prediction, fraud detection, and their applications in e-commerce, CRM, health care and others. Tools like SQL Server 2005 business intelligence toolkit will be used to create analytical applications.

IS 4550. Technology Commercialization. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: 90 credit hours.

This is a course for junior and senior level science and mathematics majors who may want to be prepared to commercialize technology and start up a company. The course is designed to provide students with the perspective, tools and information necessary to evaluate the market potential of a technical idea, secure patent protection, obtain research, development funding, understand start-up issues, appreciate the value of a technology incubator, obtain venture capital, understand IPOs and grow a technology-based enterprise. The course is structured around a continuum of lectures, readings, case studies, guest speakers, presentations, and student projects. An integrative commercialization plan developed by student teams for a new company in the technology arena is an integral part of the course.

IS 4560. e-Business Systems. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: IS 2040.

Information systems that enable electronic transactions and communication have redefined the ways that firms compete, interact with value chain partners, and relate to customers. In the near future, all business will be e-business, and every organization will be required to effectively implement e-business solutions. This course explores enterprise e-business applications and the issues organizations encounter as they leverage Internet technologies to enhance communication and transactions with stakeholders.

IS 4880. Application Development II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: 90 credit hours, IS 3540, IS 2040, IS 3040, IS 3220.

This course focuses on development and implementation of a comprehensive information system utilizing database and programming technologies in a .NET environment. This course follows the systems design course by integrating key concepts from core IS courses. This is intended to be a capstone project experience for IS majors, weaving critical content from all core courses into a fully-implemented substantive IS project. Students will participate in a team project focusing on the design and implementation of an information system.

• INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (IT) •

IT 3300. Web Technologies. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CSIS 2300 or BISM 2100 or equivalent.

Web Technologies will introduce students to the planning, design, implementation and maintenance of World Wide Web applications. Applications will be developed using both high-end development environments as well as html. Topics include tables, image maps, frames, security, ethical issues, application development tools, and development methodologies.

IT 3396. Cooperative Study. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of cooperative education/internships (Career Services Center).

A supervised work experience program for a minimum of two semesters at a site in business, industry, or government. For sophomore, junior or senior level students who wish to obtain successive on-the-job experience in conjunction with their academic training.

IT 3398. Internship. 1-9 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of cooperative education/internships (Career Services Center).

A supervised work experience program for one semester at a site in business, industry, or government. For sophomore, junior or senior level students who wish to obtain successive on-the-job experience in conjunction with their academic training.

IT 3500. Database Technologies. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in CSIS 2300 or BISM 2100 or equivalent.

Database Technologies covers the essentials of database concepts for non-IT careers. Key topics may include searching and querying, validation of electronic data, data mining, data collection principles, privacy and fair use, related intellectual property issues, integration of incompatible data sources, database-driven web sites, and visual database programming. Tools included may include SQL, Visual Basic Web Databases, Personal Oracle, and Access 2000, and various database search engines.

IT 3700. Information Technology Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BISM 2100 or CSIS 2300.

Advanced applications of general-purpose software with a special emphasis on integration of multiple software tools and data to solve a wide variety of career related problems. Students study current topics in the application and management of information technology at the worker, department, and enterprise level.

IT 4400. Directed Study. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval instructor, major area committee, and department chair. Up to three hours may be applied to the upper division requirements for the IT certificate.

Special topics of an advanced nature that are not in the regular course offerings. Students selecting this to complete the IT certificate must select a topic involving technology-applications in the chosen career area.

IT 4525. Electronic Commerce. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in BISM 2100 or CSIS 2300.

The application of information technology to the buying and selling of information, products, and services, via computer networks. Topics include EDI, transactions over public networks, corporate digital libraries, advertising and marketing on the Internet, and consumer-data interface.

• INSURANCE (INS) •

INS 3500. Principles of Risk Management and Insurance. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement; Non business Majors: 60 credit hours.

This course is an introduction to the identification of risks and their management. Topics will include fundamental life, health, retirement, property and liability exposures and their management through avoidance, control, retention or transfer. The characteristics of life, health, property and liability insuring devices are also covered.

• INTEGRATED SCIENCE (ISCI) •

ISCI 2001. Life and Earth Science. 2-2-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in SCI 1102.

Life and Earth Science Concepts defines science, examines how science is done, and develops an understanding of fundamental concepts in biology, geology, and meteorology. Laboratories will emphasize experimental design and data analysis.

Course is primarily for early grades and middle education majors, and cannot be used for credit towards a degree in Biology programs. Not acceptable for use as General Education requirement.

ISCI 2002. Physical Science. 2-2-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in SCI 1102 or equivalent. Physical Science defines science, examines how science is done, and develops an understanding of fundamental concepts in astronomy, chemistry and physics. Laboratory experiences will emphasize experimental design, data analysis, and inquiry methods. Course is intended for early grades education majors. Cannot be used for credit towards a degree in Biology programs; Not acceptable for use as General Education requirement.

• INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES (IDS) •

IDS 3100. Interdisciplinary Research Methods. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102 and MATH 1107 (or equivalent math course depending on major). Students learn about conducting research from an interdisciplinary perspective, with a focus on social science research strategies. The following topics are introduced – advantages and disadvantages of various research methods, designs of studies, collecting and analyzing data, ethical issues involved in research, application of findings, and writing reports and proposals of an interdisciplinary nature. Students design a research project related to a topic of their choosing.

• ITALIAN (ITAL) •

ITAL 1001. Introduction to Italian Language and Culture I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099 and READ 0099 if required.

Introduction to Italian language and culture stressing progressive acquisition of effective communication skills in both the written and spoken language and an understanding of the practices and products of Italian culture. Not open to native speakers of Italian.

ITAL 1002. Introduction to Italian Language and Culture II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ITAL 1001 or permission of instructor. Introduction to Italian language and culture, part II, stressing continued, progressive acquisition of effective communication skills in both the written and spoken language and an understanding of the practices and products of Italian culture. Not open to native speakers of Italian.

ITAL 2001. Intermediate Italian Language and Culture I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ITAL 1002, or permission of instructor. The student will continue to develop proficiency in listening, speaking, reading, and writing, and learn to communicate in culturally appropriate ways. Not open to native speakers of Italian.

ITAL 2002. Intermediate Italian Language and Culture II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ITAL 2001 or permission of instructor. Students continue to increase linguistic and cultural proficiency through the use of a variety of materials and activities. Course will serve as a transition between intermediate and upper-level courses in the language. Not open to native speakers of Italian.

ITAL 3200. Critical Reading and Applied Writing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ITAL 2001 or the equivalent. This course emphasizes skill development and refinement in the areas of critical reading and writing in Italian. Designed to give students extensive experience in reading and writing in Italian, the course focuses on the relationship between writing and reading, and on ways to improve one through the other.

ITAL 3302. Practical Conversation. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ITAL 2002 or permission of instructor. Stresses expansion of effective listening comprehension and speaking skills through culturally and linguistically appropriate activities.

ITAL 3303. Grammar and Composition. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ITAL 2002 or permission of instructor. General review of grammar through composition and other written activities, such as summaries, correspondence, descriptions, narration, literary analysis, and other rhetorical and culturally appropriate forms.

ITAL 3306. Literature and Culture. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ITAL 2002 or permission of instructor. Introduction to Italian literature and culture. Students examine literary and artistic movements as well as cultural issues. Students also work across the curriculum, focusing on interdisciplinary issues and developing their competence in critical analysis from a global perspective. Readings and discussion in Italian and/or English.

ITAL 3398. Internship. 1-9 credit hours.

Prerequisite: ITAL 3302 and ITAL 3303 or permission of instructor. Supervised, credit-earning work experience of one semester requiring use of Italian in the work place. Prior approval by department coordinator and internship supervisor is required.

ITAL 4402. Contemporary Culture. 3-0-3.
Prerequisite: ITAL 3303 and ITAL 3306 or permission of instructor.

An examination of the historical, social and political contexts of the contemporary Italian experience through the analysis of different cultural representations such as film, media, plastic arts, music and literature. Readings and discussion in Italian.

ITAL 4434. Topics in Language Literature and Culture. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ITAL 3303 and ITAL 3306 or permission of instructor.

An exploration of a period, movement or genre in literature, a topic in culture, or language-related issues. Topics are chosen for their significance and impact on Italian culture. Readings and discussions in Italian.

ITAL 4490. Special Topics in Italian. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ITAL 3302 and ITAL 3303 or permission of instructor.

Special topics relevant to the study of the Italian society.

• JAPANESE (JPN) •

JPN 1001. Introduction to Japanese Language and Culture I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099 and READ 0099 if required.

Introduction to Japanese language and culture stressing progressive acquisition of effective communications skills in both the written and spoken language and an understanding of the practices and products of Japanese culture. Not open to native speakers of Japanese.

JPN 1002. Introduction to Japanese Language and Culture II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: One year of high school Japanese, or JPN 1001, or the equivalent.

Introduction to Japanese language and culture, part II, stressing continued, progressive acquisition of effective communication skills in both the written and spoken language and an understanding of the practices and products of Japanese culture. Not open to native speakers of Japanese.

JPN 2001. Intermediate Japanese Language and Culture I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Two years of high school Japanese, or JPN 1002 or the equivalent.

The student will continue to develop proficiency in listening, speaking, reading, and writing, and learn to communicate in culturally appropriate ways. Not open to native speakers of Japanese.

JPN 2002. Intermediate Japanese Language and Culture II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Three years of high school Japanese or JPN 2001 or the equivalent.

Students continue to increase linguistic and cultural proficiency through the use of a variety of materials and activities. Not open to native speakers of Japanese.

• KSU SEMINARS (KSU) •

KSU 0090. Academic Support Skills Seminar. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Academic Standing of Probation.

KSU 0090 is a 10-week, one-credit-hour course designed to help probation students regain Good Academic Standing. Offered in conjunction with the established university probation policy, the course is required for First-time, Full-time (FTFT) students who have satisfied the institutional first-year requirement but whose SGPA is below 2.0. Students will learn academic skills and attitudes for college success. Individual Development Plans are created with each student. "S"/"U" grading only.

KSU 1101. First-Year Seminar. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: None.

KSU 1101 (or a Learning Community) is required for all first-year full-time students entering KSU with fewer than 15 credit hours. KSU 1101 is designed to develop college-level skills for academic success by focusing on life skills, strategies for academic success, connecting with campus and community, and foundations for global learning. This First-Year Seminar course guides student through the transition from high school to higher education. Students with 30 or more credit hours are not eligible to enroll in KSU 1101 or a Learning Community.

KSU 2290. Special Topics. 1-3.

Prerequisite: Varies as to topic.

Selected special topics relevant to the mission of University College.

KSU 4401. Senior Seminar. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: 90 credit hours earned and above.

This institutional capstone course provides a structure for seniors to bring closure to their undergraduate experience while preparing for the transition from the university to the community at large. Within a structured learning community from a variety of disciplines, students will access the meaning of their undergraduate experience and develop an understanding of their role as alumni and productive citizens of the work force, community, state, nation, and the world. Through the preparation of a reflective portfolio, involvement in a service-learning project, and a critical discussion of their short- and long-term logistical goals, the students will prepare for the post-university experience.

• LATIN (LATN) •

LATN 1001. Introduction to Latin Language and Culture I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099 and READ 0099 if required.

Introduction to Latin stressing progressive acquisition of grammar, composition, prose translation and pronunciation.

LATN 1002. Introduction to Latin Language and Culture II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: One year of high school Latin or LATN 1001 or the equivalent.

Introduction to Latin, part II, stressing continued progressive acquisition of grammar, composition, prose translation and pronunciation.

LATN 2001. Intermediate Latin Language and Culture I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Two years of high school Latin or LATN 1002 or the equivalent.

Review of Latin grammar and syntax. Prose translations from selected prose authors such as Livy, Caesar, Tacitus, and Sallust.

LATN 2002. Intermediate Latin Language and Culture II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Three years of high school Latin or LATN 2001 or the equivalent.

Continued refinement of grammar and reading skills through the study of prose and poetry from the Golden Age of Latin Literature.

LATN 4490. Special Topics in Latin. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Latin 2002 or permission of instructor.
Selected topics of special interest to faculty and students.

• LEADERSHIP STUDIES (LDRS) •

LDRS 3000. Foundations of Leadership. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

History, theories and models of leadership are examined from an interdisciplinary perspective. Students begin to develop their own leadership identity and consider how their personality and leadership style affects group process. Other factors that affect leadership such as gender and culture are also explored. Interviews with and observations of leaders from a variety of disciplines help students better understand the ethical and practical applications of leadership

LDRS 3200. Leadership in a Global Society. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

Leadership is examined through an interdisciplinary, global lens. Students learn how cultural context affects leadership style, conflict negotiation, and ethical decision making; examine how leaders might impact culture; and develop their own multicultural awareness and competencies. Contemporary cases of how leadership varies depending on the cultural context in which one is leading are researched. Key geographical regions of the world are analyzed from a leadership perspective, and an individual cultural experience highlighting the intersection of leadership and culture also occurs.

LDRS 3400. Service as Leadership. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

Based on the Social Change and Servant Leadership models, students explore the connections between service and leadership. This course examines the differences between civic engagement, civic responsibility and social activism. Students participate in engagement projects within the community, attend social activism functions and develop and present projects geared toward social change. Students leave this course with an understanding of how servant leaders can impact their community.

LDRS 3600. Service as Leadership. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

This course examines leader's behaviors through an ethical lens and delves into the moral decision making process and the role of ethics in leadership. Based on analysis of case studies of current and historical vents, students gain an understanding of ethical leadership decision making while touching on the theories of ethics and their application. Students can expect to focus on the importance of understanding ethics in a global environment.

• MANAGEMENT (MGT) •

MGT 3100. Management and Behavioral Sciences. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement; Non-business Majors: 60 credit hours.

This course introduces students to the field of management, focusing on basic principles and concepts applicable to all types of organizations. The evolution of functional and behavioral aspects of management and organization theory are presented in the context of political, societal, regulatory, ethical, global, technological and demographic environmental forces.

MGT 3140. Leading & Teaming in Business Settings. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 3100; Non-business Majors: 60 credit hours including MGT 3100.

Teams are essential in today's work environments. Various leadership frameworks and tools, such as decision making, project management, and business process analysis and management, and change leadership will be explored and evaluated as well as executive leadership behaviors. Topics will include leading task forces and learning teams, working in and leading virtual teams, skills in leading multiple teams, managing challenging interactions and contention, promoting compelling goals and maintaining focus while eliciting commitment and accountability, reinventing business leadership, and global leadership applications and issues. Emphasis will be on integrating social-enterprise research, skill development, and applications.

MGT 3190. Business, Ethics, and Society. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement; Non-business Majors: 60 credit hours.

This course examines the relationship between business and society and the role of ethics in employee and managerial decision-making and behavior. Using a stakeholder management approach, the course explores uses and potential abuses of business power on internal and external stakeholders. Models for integrating ethical concerns into business decisions are examined.

MGT 3200. Operations Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement, and ECON 2300; Non-business Majors: MGT 3100 and ECON 2300.

Generic modeling techniques are applied to the planning, operation and control of the production of goods and services. Topics include: quality control, facility location and layout, material requirements planning and project scheduling.

MGT 3396. Cooperative Study. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and approval of the Coordinator of cooperative education/internships (KSU Career Services); Non-business Majors: Not available to non business majors.

A supervised work experience program for a minimum of two academic semesters at a site in business, industry or government. For sophomore, junior or senior level students who wish to obtain successive on-the-job experience in conjunction with their academic training. Credit is allowed only in Business Electives area.

MGT 3398. Internship. 1-6 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and approval of the Coordinator of cooperative education/internships (KSU Career Services); Non-business Majors: Not available to non-business majors.

A supervised, credit-earning work experience of one academic semester with a previously approved business firm, private agency or government agency. A research paper is required to receive credit. For junior or senior students who wish to participate in an on-the-job experience in which they may apply their academic training. The work experience may not be with a current employer. The course will be graded on an S/U basis. Credit is allowed only in Business Electives area.

MGT 3600. Introduction to International Business. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA requirement; Non-business Majors: 60 credit hours.

An introduction to the global business environment, this course examines the discrete and interactive effects of the geographic, historical, sociocultural, political/legal, economic and technological forces that shape international commercial activity and its consequences.

MGT 4120. Venture Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 3100; Non-business Majors: MGT 3100 and permission of the department chair.

Introduction to the management and operation of small business. Topics include: start-up issues; legal forms of organization; operational planning; developing a marketing plan; financing the business; personnel issues; developing an accounting and control system; long-range planning and strategy formation; and other topics as appropriate.

MGT 4121. Entrepreneurship and Creativity. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement. Non-business Majors 60 hours and permission of the department chair.

Introduction to entrepreneurship. Students will develop comprehensive business plans for new ventures or for the expansion of existing small businesses through a disciplined approach to creatively visualizing future opportunities. Attention will focus on managing risk and creativity. Topics include: personal assessment; opportunity analysis; feasibility analysis; venture finance; and budgeting.

MGT 4122. Venture Analysis. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 4120 or MGT 4121. Non-business Majors: MGT 4120 or MGT 4121 and permission of the department chair.

A course that applies the concepts of small business management, entrepreneurship and creativity to the analysis of complex business problems faced by new ventures and existing small businesses. Case studies will be used to develop students' ability to identify and solve problems. Work will continue on personal start-up projects and business plans.

MGT 4123. Family Business Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 3100; Non-business majors: MGT 3100 and permission of department chair.

This course explores the unique challenges and opportunities involved in owning and/or managing a family business. By attending the class, students learn to identify and address challenges related to responsible ownership, succession, corporate governance, family governance, professionalization, and family office. Both family and non-family members' perspectives are explored and addressed.

MGT 4124. Franchise Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 3100; Non-business Majors: MGT 3100 and permission of the department chair.

Franchise Management is an introduction to the field of franchising as it concerns the franchiser (the business who grants the business rights to franchisees), and the franchisee (the individual or business who obtains the rights to operate the franchised business in accordance with the chosen method to produce or sell the product or service). It covers the body of knowledge on how to expand an existing business through domestic or international franchising as well as how to analyze and decide how to buy and manage a franchise.

MGT 4125. International Entrepreneurship. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 3100; Non-business Majors: MGT 3100; NACE Grant Students: None. An examination of the role of the entrepreneur in creating new international business ventures. This course provides students with both a theoretical and practical understanding of new venture creation in the international marketplace, including extensions of domestic enterprises and new enterprises.

MGT 4130. Commercial Real Estate Ventures. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 3100; Non-business Majors: MGT 3100 and permission of the department chair.

This course addresses the acquisition, development, operation, and disposition of commercial real estate properties, with a special emphasis on shopping centers. Dimensions of inquiry include: ethical decision making, specific legal requirements associated with real estate ventures, and stakeholder (developers, investors, local communities, and public sector) analysis.

MGT 4160. Organizational Behavior. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 3100; Non-business Majors: MGT 3100 and permission of the department chair.

Drawing from psychology, sociology, anthropology and related disciplines, the field of organizational behavior examines individual characteristics of people in a demographically diverse work force, group dynamics involved in task accomplishment, and the effects of individual and group behavior on organizational effectiveness.

MGT 4161. Organizational Communications. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 3100; Non-business Majors: MGT 3100 and permission of the department chair.

This course develops student understanding of communication processes within organizations, increases ability to diagnose and deal with organizational communication problems, and enhances skills in using communication to improve individual, group, and organization-wide effectiveness.

MGT 4170. Strategic Human Resource Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 3100; Non-business Majors: MGT 3100 and permission of the department chair.

This course provides a functional overview of human resource management areas including strategic human resource planning, employee staffing, compensation and benefit systems, performance assessment, training and development, and labor relations. Emphasis is placed upon the development of managerial competencies to conduct selection interviews, performance appraisals, and workplace dispute negotiations.

MGT 4171. Employee and Labor Relations. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 4170; Non-business Majors: MGT 4170 and permission of the department chair.

The study of employee and labor relations includes union organizing, collective bargaining, labor legislation, contract negotiation, grievance resolution, arbitration, and international labor movement issues. Alternative dispute resolution methods, cooperative labor / management policies and practices, and union-free work environments are covered.

MGT 4172. Compensation and Reward Systems. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 4170; Non-business Majors: MGT 4170 and permission of the department chair.

Compensation systems and practices that attract, motivate, and retain employees are investigated in this course. Topical areas include wage and hour regulations, job evaluation, pay structure development, incentive systems, merit pay decision making, and strategic benefit systems design.

MGT 4173. Human Resource Selection. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 4170; Non-business Majors: MGT 4170 and permission of the department chair.

This course focuses on the acquisition, selection, and placement of human resources to maximize organizational effectiveness. Topics include strategic human resources planning, EEO requirements, labor force forecasting, job analysis methods, recruitment practices, employee selection techniques, and testing procedures that increase employee-job fit.

MGT 4174. International Human Resource Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors; Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 3100. Non-business Majors: MGT 3100 and permission of the department chair.

This course focuses on human resource management functions required to implement international or global strategy. Areas examined include international recruitment and selection, performance management, training and development, compensation, labor relations, management of expatriates and their repatriation, dealing with host country nationals, and career management in the international context. Special topics include human resource law and issues in specific countries outside the U.S. and managing a multicultural labor force in the U.S.

MGT 4190. International Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 3100; Non-business Majors: MGT 3100 and permission of the department chair.

This course deals with the basic managerial functions in an international enterprise. It explores the theoretical and practical aspects of managing international business operations, and deals with multi-cultural and global issues of managing the business expansion beyond the domestic market. It portrays the difficulties of managing enterprises that cross national borders and have to deal with cultural diversity, and diversity in socio-political and economic systems.

MGT 4199. Strategic Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA requirement. Students must have completed all the required core upper-division business courses including ECON 2300, FIN 3100, MGT 3100, MGT 3200, and MKTG 3100. This course is taken in the last or next-to-last semester in the program. Non-business Majors: Not open to non-business majors.

This course emphasizes an integrative, multifunctional, general management perspective of the organization and its long-term survival in a global economic environment. It builds the knowledge base and analytical skills required for managing a business enterprise. Components include situation analysis, strategy formulation, evaluation, and choice, as well as strategy implementation at different organizational levels, and under different contextual conditions. The course enables the refinement of the student's communication and presentation skills, as well as the interpersonal abilities necessary for accomplishing group tasks. Integrating multiple business disciplines, it serves as the capstone course in the business curriculum.

MGT 4400. Directed Study. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and permission of instructor and department chair prior to registration; Non-business Majors: Permission of instructor and department chair prior to registration.

Special topics of an advanced nature not in the regular course offerings.

MGT 4476. Contemporary Global Business Practices. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and 90 semester hours including MGT 3100 and MGT 3600; Non-business Majors: MGT 3100, MGT 3600 and the permission of the Business Undergraduate Dean or Management Department Chair.

This course deals with current practices in Global Business. It examines the strategies and tactics adopted by Global Companies from both Developed as well as Emerging Markets. Students will obtain insights into how firms in today's global markets need to be skilled in handling virtual teaming, outsourced and offshored projects, and strategic alliances across national boundaries, in order to maintain competitive advantage.

MGT 4490. Special Topics in Management. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and permission of instructor and department chair prior to registration; Non-business Majors: Permission of instructor and department chair prior to registration.

Selected topics of interest to faculty and students.

MGT 4700. Hospitality Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 3100; Non-business Majors: MGT 3100 and permission of department chair.

This survey course provides students with an understanding of the Hospitality Industry and the role it plays in the both the U.S. and global economies. This course provides an overview of hospitality management areas such as lodging, food service, travel, and entertainment and career opportunities in each area. The main goal of the course is to expose students to the hospitality industry and provide an understanding of the unique aspects of managing businesses in this industry.

MGT 4800. International Supply Chain Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 3200; Non-business Majors: MGT 3200 and permission of the department chair.

This course examines the key concepts of supply chain management, involving the flows of materials and information among all of the firms that contribute value to a product or service, from the source of raw materials to end customers. The course emphasizes the relationship between a firm and its supply chain partners: primarily the suppliers from whom it purchases its inputs and those who assist in the logistics and distribution of the products. The course has an international emphasis to reflect the trend of increasing partnerships with international suppliers, international transportation providers, and distributors in foreign markets. Supply chain management issues are addressed for both manufacturing and service organizations.

MGT 4850. Managing Process Improvement. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 3200; Non-business Majors: MGT 3200 and permission of the department chair.

This course addresses leading-edge manufacturing theory and practice, including the just-in-time manufacturing philosophy, kanban production control systems, group technology, cellular manufacturing, the theory of constraints, the drum-buffer-rope production control system, and VAT analysis. This course extends knowledge beyond what is taught in traditional production and inventory management courses.

MGT 4860. Quality Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 3200. Non-business Majors: MGT 3200 and permission of the department chair.

This course is an in-depth study of the key concepts and practices of modern quality philosophies and techniques. The opportunities to add value through quality in all phases of business and product life cycles will be identified. Concepts and methods of statistical quality control will be presented.

MGT 4880. Service Operations Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MGT 3200; Non-business Majors: MGT 3200 and permission of the department chair.

The course will focus on developing a clear understanding of services from multiple perspectives. Students will define, diagnose, design, measure, control, and change services with the objective of improving quality and productivity. The course will address important service design issues, competitive issues unique to services, and the extensive interaction between marketing and operations in service organizations.

• MARKETING (MKTG) •

MKTG 3100. Principles of Marketing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement; Non-business Majors: 60 credit hours.

An introduction to the principles of marketing. This course examines the term, "marketing," in a broad sense to include all those activities of individuals or organizations which encourage and facilitate exchanges of values. This includes many activities such as research, physical distribution, product planning, pricing and promotional activities. These concepts are examined as they apply to marketing of goods and services, in profit and nonprofit sectors, in both domestic and global markets.

MKTG 3396. Cooperative Study. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and approval of Coordinator of cooperative education/internship (KSU Career Services); Non-business Majors: Not available to non-business majors.

A supervised work experience program for a minimum of two academic semesters at a site in business, industry or government. For sophomore, junior or senior level students who wish to obtain successive on-the-job experience in conjunction with their academic training. Credit is allowed only in Business Electives area.

MKTG 3398. Internship. 1-9 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and approval of the Coordinator of cooperative educational/internship (KSU Career Services); Non-business Majors: Not available to non business majors.

A supervised, credit-earning work experience of one academic semester with a previously approved business firm, private agency or government agency. A research paper is required to receive credit. For junior or senior students who wish to participate in an on-the-job experience in which they may apply their academic training. The work experience may not be with a current employer. The course will be graded on an S/U basis. Credit is allowed only in Business Elective s area.

MKTG 3800. Entertainment Marketing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA requirement and MKTG 3100; Non-business majors: MKTG 3100 and permission of the department chair.

An introduction to the marketing practices of the entertainment industry. Industry terms, marketing strategies and tactics, recent developments and trends will be examined for major sectors of the entertainment industry including movie, music, television, theater, publishing, gaming, hospitality, and sports sectors. The course will also focus on product placement, celebrity source usage, product tie-ins, cross promotion, licensing, and other current marketing practices in the entertainment industry.

MKTG 4100. Marketing Research. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement, MKTG 3100 and ECON 2300; Non-business Majors: MKTG 3100 and ECON 2300 and permission of the department chair.

An examination of the marketing research process as an information-providing activity supporting management decision making. The course covers definition of the research problem, selecting and planning of a research design, measurement and scaling, questionnaire construction, and data analysis and interpretation. Students are required to use a statistical software package for data management and analysis.

MKTG 4150. Consumer Behavior. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MKTG 3100; Non-business Majors: MKTG 3100 and permission of the department chair.

Examines the diverse influences of culture, society and psychological processes on consumer purchase patterns. Implications for marketing activities are also discussed.

MKTG 4300. Basic Retailing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MKTG 3100; Non-business Majors: MKTG 3100 and permission of the department chair.

An introduction to retailing as a business institution. Attention is focused on activities, procedures and decisions related to the operation of a retail unit.

MKTG 4350. Retail Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MKTG 3100; MKTG 4300 recommended; Non-business Majors: MKTG 3100; MKTG 4300 recommended and permission of the department chair.

An examination of the practices and methods of retail distribution and merchandising as a rapidly changing part of the total marketing process, involving both large and small firms.

MKTG 4400. Directed Study. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and approval of instructor and department chair prior to registration; Non-business Majors: Approval of instructor and department chair prior to registration.

Special topics of an advanced nature not in the regular course offerings.

MKTG 4410. Professional Selling. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Admission to the Coles College of Business and MKTG 3100; Non-business Majors: MKTG 3100 and permission of the department chair.

An examination of the role of personal selling in the firm's marketing strategy, model of communication and specific methods of selling. All students will be required to develop and deliver effective sales presentations.

MKTG 4430. Market Analysis. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement, MKTG 3100 and ECON 2300; Non-business Majors: MKTG 3100; ECON 2300 and permission of the department chair.

This course develops skills in locating, selecting and using appropriate information sources for making and using market measurements in the planning and management of marketing and sales operations. Students learn tools for estimating demand and forecasting industry and company sales and how to use these measures in selecting market targets, designing sales territories, assigning sales quotas and planning customer contract programs.

MKTG 4450. Sales Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MKTG 3100; Non-business Majors: MKTG 3100 and permission of the department chair.

A study of the planning, organizing, staffing, directing and controlling of the sales force in developing an effective marketing organization.

MKTG 4476. Contemporary Global Business Practices. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and 90 semester hours including MGT 3100 and MGT 3600; Non-business Majors: MGT 3100, MGT 3600 and permission of the Business Undergraduate Dean or Chair of the Department of Management and Entrepreneurship.

This course will deal with current practices in Global Business. It will examine the strategies and tactics adopted by Global Companies from both Developed as well as Emerging Markets. Students will obtain insights into how firms in today's global markets need to be skilled in handling virtual teaming, outsourced and offshored projects, and strategic alliances across national boundaries, in order to maintain competitive advantage.

MKTG 4490. Special Topics in Marketing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and approval of instructor and department chair; Non-business Majors: Approval of instructor and department chair. Selected special topics of interest to faculty and students.

MKTG 4500. Internet Marketing and Global Business 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MKTG 3100; Non-business Majors: MKTG 3100 and permission of the department chair.

The course focuses on how information technology has created the framework for the emergence of commerce on the Internet. Students will be exposed to the ways that firms are utilizing the Internet to reconstruct their value chains and create/sustain competitive advantage. The impact of this medium on key dimensions of global business operations such as purchasing, manufacturing and marketing will also be addressed.

MKTG 4620. Services Marketing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisites: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MKTG 3100; Non-business Majors: MKTG 3100 and permission of the department chair.

An examination of the unique characteristics of service organizations and the increasingly vital role they play in the U. S. economy. By focusing upon the marketing of such diverse services as hotels, hospitals, banking and recreation, the course stresses the importance of tailoring marketing strategies to fit the special needs of service marketers, needs quite different from those of manufacturing organizations.

MKTG 4630. Direct Response Marketing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MKTG 3100; Non-business Majors: MKTG 3100 and permission of the department chair.

A study of the promotional methods that request immediate action or response. Topics include: planning, creating and evaluating of direct response advertising campaigns, introduction to direct mail marketing techniques including lists, catalogs, testing and merchandise selection and the media of direct marketing.

MKTG 4650. Advertising. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MKTG 3100; Non-business Majors: MKTG 3100 and permission of the department chair.

A study of the various elements of advertising, this course emphasizes the strategic applications of advertising and promotion from the perspective of the marketing manager.

MKTG 4670. Promotional Strategy. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MKTG 4650; Non-business Majors: MKTG 4650 and permission of the department chair.

A study of the various component parts of the promotional mix. Focuses on the development and management of personal selling, public relations, publicity and advertising in implementing marketing strategy.

MKTG 4750. Advanced Selling. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MKTG 3100 and MKTG 4410; Non-business Majors: MKTG 3100 and MKTG 4410 and permission of the department chair.

An in-depth examination of current business trends as they impact the professional salesperson. Particular emphasis is placed on negotiating skills and customer relationship management (CRM), as well as general sales-related topics including sales automation and time/territory management. Students will be required to spend time in the field with professional salespeople and to prepare and deliver effective informational and persuasive sales presentations.

MKTG 4820. International Marketing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MKTG 3100; Non-business Majors: MKTG 3100 and permission of the department chair.

A study of the application of the marketing concept in international markets. The course examines how the differences in international environments induced by economic, cultural, legal and other influences necessitate the adaptation of the marketing mix to satisfy consumers. Alternative international market entry strategies, such as exporting and licensing, are discussed.

MKTG 4850. Business to Business Marketing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MKTG 3100; Non-business Majors: MKTG 3100 and permission of the department chair.

A study of the special problems and requirements of marketing products to organizational buyers. The course examines organizational buyer behavior, business to business promotion, business to business sales and the development of industrial products.

MKTG 4870. Sports Marketing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MKTG 3100; Non-business Majors: MKTG 3100 and permission of the department chair.

Sport event marketing is one of the fastest growing career fields in America. The term, "sports marketing" includes the administration, coordination, and evaluation of any type of event related to sport. Examples are from local school and community sport events, not-for-profit and corporate events, intercollegiate sport programs, and amateur and professional league activities such as the Olympic Games and the Super Bowl.

The Sports Marketing class is designed to provide the student an opportunity to experience an actual sports event project. The project will be selected by the class, after which a strategic plan will be developed and carried out. This class will be interactive and require the student's complete participation to be successful.

MKTG 4990. Marketing Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and MKTG 3100, 4100, 4150; Non-business Majors: MKTG 3100, 4100, 4150 and permission of the department chair.

Integrates the full scope of marketing management. Development of complete marketing programs; discussion of major marketing problems; study and analysis of actual case problems.

Prerequisite: Placement by COMPASS Examination, by the Admissions Office or by the Department of Learning Support Programs.

A Learning Support Programs course that, in conjunction with MATH 0098, prepares students for basic credit courses. Emphasizes basic concepts and skills of elementary algebra.

MATH 0098. Intermediate Algebra. 3-0-0.

Prerequisite: Placement by COMPASS Examination, by the Admissions Office or by the Department of Learning Support Programs.

A Learning Support Programs course which prepares students for basic credit mathematics courses. Emphasizes basic concepts and skills of intermediate algebra.

MATH 0099. Elementary and Intermediate Algebra. 6-0-0.

Prerequisite: Two units of high school algebra or permission of instructor.

A Learning Support Programs course that prepares students for basic credit mathematics courses, covering both elementary and intermediate algebra in one semester. Topics include: signed numbers, equations and inequalities, graphs of linear equations, systems of equations, polynomials and factoring, rational expressions, radicals and quadratic equations.

MATH 1101. Mathematical Modeling. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MATH 0098 if required.

An applications-driven course that focuses on modeling real data concerning environmental issues. Incorporates collaborative learning, oral and written reports, and technology in the form of graphing calculators. Topics include linear, quadratic, piecewise defined, rational, polynomial, exponential and logarithmic functions.

MATH 1106. Elementary Applied Calculus. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MATH 1101, MATH 1111, MATH 1112 or MATH 1113.

Uses techniques of college algebra and elementary calculus to analyze and model real world phenomena. The emphasis will be on applications using an intuitive approach to the mathematics rather than formal development. Topics include graphs, derivatives, and integrals of functions. The course incorporates collaborative learning, oral and written reports, and technology.

MATH 1107. Elementary Statistics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MATH 1101, MATH 1111, MATH 1112 or MATH 1113.

Emphasizes techniques and applications rather than derivation. Topics include methods of summarizing data, probability, statistical inference and regression. The course incorporates collaborative learning, oral and written reports and technology.

MATH 1111. College Algebra. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MATH 0098 if required.

This course is a functional approach to algebra that incorporates the use of appropriate technology. Emphasis will be placed on the study of functions and their graphs, inequalities, and linear, quadratic, piece-wise defined, rational, polynomial, exponential, and logarithmic functions. Appropriate applications will be included.

MATH 1112. College Trigonometry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MATH 1112 if required.

This course is a functional approach to trigonometry that incorporates the use of appropriate technology. Emphasis will be placed on the study of trigonometric functions and their graphs incorporating a unit circle approach as well as special triangles and angles. Topics include circular functions, solutions of triangles, trigonometric identities and equations, graphs of trigonometric functions, Law of Sines, Law of Cosines, and vectors. Appropriate applications will be included.

MATH 1113. Precalculus. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MATH 0098 if required.

Provides students with the foundation in elementary functions and understanding of mathematics needed to succeed in subsequent mathematics and science courses, especially calculus. Topics include polynomial, rational, exponential, logarithmic, and trigonometric functions. In each case, properties, graphs, and applications will be presented. Technology, in the form of graphing calculators and/or computers, will be integrated throughout the course for instruction and study. Required for math/science majors.

MATH 1190. Calculus I. 4-0-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 1112 or MATH 1113.

A first course in calculus and analytic geometry. Topics include fundamental concepts of limits, continuity, derivatives, and integrals of functions of one variable. Incorporates applications from a variety of disciplines. Modern computing technology will be used where necessary and appropriate.

MATH 2008. Foundations of Numbers and Operations. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MATH 1107 or MATH 2207.

This course is an Area F introductory mathematics course for early childhood education majors. The course emphasizes the understanding and use of the major concepts of number and operations. As a general theme, strategies of problem solving are used and discussed in the context of various topics.

MATH 2202. Calculus II. 4-0-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 1190.

The main topics of this course will be integral calculus and infinite sequences and series. Emphasis will be placed on applications of the integral, techniques of integration, and Taylor Series. In addition to analytical methods, computing will be used to conduct numerical studies of integrals and series.

MATH 2203. Calculus III. 4-0-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 2202.

In this course, the concepts of single variable calculus are extended to functions of more than one variable. Topics will include vector calculus, partial derivatives, multiple integrals, and applications of these concepts.

MATH 2207. Data Analysis and Probability for Teachers. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MATH 1101 or MATH 1111 or MATH 1112 or MATH 1113.

This course emphasizes techniques and applications in statistics and probability and uses concrete materials in teaching the content. The course is designed for education majors. Topics include methods of summarizing data, probability, exploring concepts of fairness as well as uncertainty and chance, identifying possible outcomes and making predictions based on simple experiments, and demonstrating knowledge of instructional strategies related to assessment and teaching. Not for mathematics or secondary mathematics education majors.

MATH 2590. Mathematics for Teachers of Middle Grades. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: 6 hours of mathematics.

The development of the student's ability to communicate mathematically through reading, writing and discussing ideas will be strongly emphasized along with the cultural, historical, and scientific applications of mathematics. Topics will include the development of the set of real numbers, number theory, geometric figures in the plane and in space, and measurement, including area and volume. Mathematical ideas will be developed in a lab setting using technology and physical models to motivate and assist the more formal development. Not for mathematics majors.

MATH 2595. Mathematics for Middle Grades and Secondary Teachers. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: 6 hours of mathematics.

Designed for the preservice teacher of mathematics for adolescents. Content strands to be explored include number and operation, algebra, and measurement. The process standards of communication, connections, problem solving, reasoning and proof, and representation will be emphasized. Appropriate use of manipulatives, calculators and software will be integrated in course materials. Not for mathematics majors.

MATH 3000. Software of Mathematics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 1190.

This is a gateway course for the Minor of Applied Mathematics taught by at least two instructors with different expertise per semester. The professional software to be taught includes SWP (Scientific Work Place), MATLAB, MATHCAD, MAPLE, and MATHEMATICA.

MATH 3260. Linear Algebra I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 1190.

An introduction to linear algebra and some of its classical and modern applications. Among topics to be included will be systems of linear equations, vector spaces, linear transformations, and diagonalization. Significant use of technology will be employed in performing matrix computations.

MATH 3261. Numerical Methods I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 3260 and CSIS 2301.

Numerical methods for the solution of linear systems will be introduced. Topics will include iterative methods and convergence. Extensive computer use will be incorporated.

MATH 3272. Introduction to Linear Programming. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 3260.

The simplex method, dual simplex method, dual-primal two phase method, and several interior-point methods for linear programming problems will be introduced. Selected applications will be discussed.

MATH 3310. Differential Equations. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 2202.

An introduction to the modeling of continuous phenomena using ordinary differential equations. Emphasis will be placed on the combined use of qualitative, numerical, and analytical approaches to the analysis of models. Technology will be used for numerical and graphical analysis. Among topics included will be formulation of models, local stability analysis, phase lines and phase planes, and Euler's numerical algorithms.

MATH 3316. Rational Numbers and Proportional Reasoning for Elementary Teachers. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MATH 2008.

A continuation of Mathematics 2008 designed for the P-5 teacher. Topics include the conceptual development of the rational numbers and extension to the real numbers, operations and problem solving with real numbers, patterns and relationships, and proportional reasoning. Experience and exploration with appropriate technology and physical models will be an integral part of the study of these ideas. Not for mathematics or mathematics education majors.

MATH 3317. Geometry and Measurement for Elementary Teachers. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MATH 3316. Admission to teacher education.

A continuation of Mathematics 3316 designed for the P-5 teacher. Topics will emphasize the critical content and conceptual development of measurement; transformational geometry; symmetry in the plane; and constructions. Geometric concepts will be explored and developed using physical models, visual models and educational software. Not for math or math education majors.

MATH 3318. Algebra for Elementary Teachers. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MATH 3317.

A continuation of Mathematics 3317 designed for preparing the P-5 teacher. Topics will emphasize understanding and use of the major concepts and techniques of algebra for grades P-5, including expressing, transforming, and generalizing patterns and quantitative relationships through a variety of representations, including tables, graphs, algebraic symbols, verbal descriptions, manipulatives, and geometric figures. Solving problems using multiple strategies, manipulatives, and technological tools will also be a focus. Not for mathematics or mathematics education majors.

MATH 3322. Discrete Modeling I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 1112 or MATH 1113 or MATH 2590.

An elementary introduction to topics and methods in discrete mathematics motivated by a series of real-world problems. Topics include matrices, graphs, counting and recursion.

MATH 3323. Computer Applications of Discrete Modeling. 1-0-1.

Prerequisite: MATH 3322 and CSIS 3401.

This course will give students the opportunity to apply the theoretical work of Discrete Modeling I to concrete problems. The computer will be used to support working with large examples. Examples will cover combinatorics, discrete functions, and graph theory.

MATH 3332. Probability and Statistical Inference. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in MATH 1190.

This course is designed to introduce the student to probability and both descriptive and inferential statistics. Topics include: random variables and probability distributions, expectation and variance of random variables, properties of estimators, exploratory data techniques, confidence intervals, hypothesis tests for population mean and proportion, Statistical Process Control, chi-square goodness of fit test, and contingency table analysis. The MINITAB statistical software package is used.

MATH 3390. Introduction to Mathematical Systems. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 1190.

Introduction to Mathematical Systems is a course specifically designed to introduce students to the study of mathematics from a mathematical systems approach. A mathematical system consisting of undefined terms, axioms and theorems will be studied. The major emphasis of this class will be on the development of skills in communicating and justifying mathematical ideas and conclusions. Mathematical systems studied will vary according to the instructor and may be chosen from sets, number systems and /or geometry.

MATH 3395. Geometry. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 3390.

This course develops geometry as an axiomatic mathematical system and approaches it from synthetic, transformational, and algebraic perspectives, including higher dimensions. Various geometries are studied including finite, infinite, projective, Euclidean and Non-Euclidean. Includes a research project on a topic which would be appropriate for any entry-level school geometry student.

MATH 3396. Cooperative Study. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of coordinator of cooperative education/internship.

A supervised work experience program for a minimum of two academic semesters at a site in business, industry or government. For sophomore, junior or senior level students who wish to obtain successive on-the-job experience in conjunction with their academic training.

MATH 3398. Internship. 1-9 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of major area committee and department chair.

A supervised, credit-earning work experience of one academic semester with a previously approved business firm, private agency, or government agency.

MATH 3495. Advanced Perspectives on School Mathematics Part I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 1190 and MATH 3390.

Students' understanding of the mathematics taught in middle school will be deepened and broadened through the study of key topics including algebra, linear functions, exponential functions, quadratic functions, number theory, discrete mathematics, and mathematical modeling. This course is designed so that students can revisit key ideas in school mathematics, bringing with them the skills and understandings of college course work in mathematics, deepening and broadening their understanding, and connecting more advanced ideas to the topics they will teach in middle school and high school.

MATH 4260. Linear Algebra II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 3260.

Topics in this course include real vector spaces and their subspaces; inner product spaces, orthonormal bases, Gram-Schmidt process; best approximation; eigenvalues and eigenvectors; symmetric, positive definite, and similar matrices; matrices of general linear transformations, and various applications.

MATH 4322. Discrete Modeling II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 3322 and CSIS 2301.

This course continues the study of discrete mathematical modeling begun in Discrete Modeling I. Topics include generating functions, design theory, and networks. Combinatorial algorithms will be emphasized and some programming will be required.

MATH 4345. Numerical Methods II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 3310 and CSIS 2301.

Topics included will be numerical methods for systems of equations, differentiation and integration, approximation theory, initial and boundary value problems and problems for ordinary differential equations. Extensive use of computing will be incorporated.

MATH 4361. Modern Algebra I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 3260.

An introduction to the fundamental structures of abstract algebra (groups, rings, and fields), the connections of these structures with the algebra studied at the elementary level, and the historical development of modern algebra.

MATH 4362. Modern Algebra II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 4361.

This course is a continuation of MATH 4361 in which portions of the theory of abstract algebra will be developed more fully and specific applications will be examined more deeply. Some theoretical and applied areas from which the topics of this course will be chosen are Galois Theory (including straight-edge and compass constructability, Galois groups, and solvability of polynomials by radicals), lattices and Boolean Algebras, cryptography, and/or other application areas (at the instructor's discretion).

MATH 4381. Real Analysis I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 2202 and MATH 3260.

A study of functions of a single real variable and of some of the finer properties of the real number system. Various foundational topics such as proofs, the theory of sets, infinity, etc., will present themselves naturally as the student deepens his/her understanding of concepts already familiar from Calculus. Among topics to be included will be the real number system, sequences, functions, limits, continuity, derivatives, and the Mean Value Theorem.

MATH 4382. Real Analysis II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 4381.

This course continues the study of functions of one real variable begun in Real Analysis I. Topics included are: the Riemann-Stieltjes integral; Sequences and series of functions; Introduction to orthogonal functions and Fourier series; Introduction to Lebesgue measure theory and integration.

MATH 4391. Complex Variables. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 2203.

The study of complex variables is a central subject in mathematics, important for students in mathematics, engineering and physical sciences (due to so many applications to fluid mechanics, heat conduction, and electromagnetic theory). Complex variables are a very powerful tool for solving problems that are either difficult or virtually impossible to solve in any other way. Topics covered in MATH 4391 provide an introduction to the subject, including basics from complex function theory: complex numbers, analytic functions, Cauchy-Riemann conditions, elementary functions, complex integration, Cauchy's theorem and integral formula, power series, residues and applications.

MATH 4400. Directed Study. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor, major area committee, and department chair.

Special advanced topics external to regular course offerings.

MATH 4490. Special Topics in Mathematics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair.

Special selected topics of interest to faculty and students.

MATH 4495. Advanced Perspectives on School Mathematics Part II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 3260.

Students' understanding of secondary mathematics will be deepened and broadened through the study of algebraic structures, analytic geometry, and trigonometry, including conic sections, complex numbers, polynomials and functions. This course is designed so that students can revisit key ideas in high school mathematics, bringing with them the skills and understandings of college course work in mathematics, deepening and broadening their understanding, and connecting more advanced ideas to the topics they will teach in high school.

MATH 4700. Capstone Experience. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Approval of mathematics department chair.

An internship, project or course which synthesizes the skills mastered during the course of the program.

• MATHEMATICS EDUCATION (MAED) •

MAED 3475. Historical and Modern Approaches to Mathematics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education.

Students will investigate classical and modern mathematics through problem-solving and mathematics-specific technologies. Students will have opportunities to connect course content with the middle and secondary school curriculum.

MAED 4000. Service Learning in Mathematics Education. 1-3.

Prerequisite: 60 hours and permission of instructor and department chair/program director.

A community activity which links learning to life by connecting meaningful community service activities with academic learning, personal growth, and civic responsibility. Activity will be designed with the instructor and approved by the chair/program director.

MAED 4400. Directed Study in Mathematics Education. 1 - 5 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair.

A concentrated investigation of a particular aspect of a topic within mathematics education. The content of the directed study will be determined jointly by the instructor and the student.

MAED 4416. Teaching of Mathematics (6-12). 6-0-6.

Prerequisite: EDUC 2130, MATH 3495, MAED 3475, and admission to Teacher Education.

An examination and application of curricular issues, learning theories, teaching strategies, instructional materials, and assessment procedures for teaching secondary school mathematics in the multicultural and diverse classroom of today. Includes a secondary school field experience in mathematics teaching and seminars. Emphasizes those practices suggested by research in mathematics education and encouraged by the NCTM and the MAA. Proof of professional liability insurance is required prior to receiving a school placement.

MAED 4417. Teaching of Mathematics (6-12) Practicum. 0-9-3 repeatable.

Prerequisite: Admission to MAED 4416.

Secondary school field experience in mathematics teaching with concurrent seminars. Proof of professional liability insurance is required prior to school placement.

MAED 4475. Student Teaching: Mathematics (6-12). 12 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Admission to Student Teaching.

Full-time teaching experience in mathematics under the supervision of a secondary public school collaborating teacher and a university mathematics education supervisor. Includes a regularly scheduled seminar. Proof of professional liability insurance is required prior to receiving a school placement.

MAED 4490. Special Topics in Mathematics Education.

1 - 5 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair.

Selected topics on interest to faculty and students.

MAED 4498. Internship in Teaching Mathematics (6-12). 0-36-12 repeatable.

Prerequisite: Provisional teaching license issued by the State of Georgia; full-time employment teaching mathematics.

Student teaching experience in mathematics for provisionally certified teachers. Supervision will be in collaboration with a mentor-teacher in the local school and a specialist in mathematics education. One semester at the same school of this internship will automatically substitute for MAED 4475. Proof of professional liability insurance. Student is responsible for his own school placement.

• MILITARY SCIENCE (MILS) •MILS 1021. Leadership and Personal Development. 2-3-3.

Prerequisite: None.

General introduction of cadets to the personal challenges and competencies that are critical for effective leadership. Cadets learn how the personal development of life skills such as time management, physical fitness, and stress management relate to leadership, Officer-ship, and Army operations. Focus is placed on developing basic knowledge and comprehension of Army Leadership Dimensions while gaining a big picture understanding of the ROTC program, its purpose in the Army, and its advantages for the student.

MILS 1022. Introduction to Tactical Leadership. 2-3-3.

Prerequisite: None.

MILS 1022 overviews leadership fundamentals such as setting direction, problem-solving, listening, presenting briefs, providing feedback, and using elective writing skills. Cadets explore dimensions of leadership values; emphasis is placed on recruitment and retention of cadets. The building of stronger relationships among the cadets through common experiences and practical interaction are critical aspects of the MILS 1022 experience.

MILS 2021. Innovative Team Leadership. 2-3-3.

Prerequisite: None.

MILS 2021 explores the dimensions of creative and innovative tactical leadership, strategies, and styles by examining team dynamics of two historical leadership theories that form the basis of the Army leadership framework -- trait and behavior theories. Cadets practice aspects of personal motivation and team building in the context of planning, executing, and assessing team exercises and participating in leadership labs. Focus is on continued development of the knowledge of leadership values and attributes through an understanding of Army rank structure, duties, and basic aspects of land navigation and squad tactics. Case studies provide tangible context for learning the Soldier's Creed and Warrior Ethos as they apply in the contemporary operating environment (COE).

MILS 2022. Found Tactical Leadership. 2-3-3.

Prerequisite: MILS 1021, MILS 1022, MILS 2021, prior military service or consent of the instructor. MILS 2022 examines the challenges of leading tactical teams in the complex contemporary operation environment (COE). The course highlights include dimensions of terrain analysis, patrolling, and operation orders. The course furthers study of the theoretical basis of the Army leadership framework and explores the dynamics of adaptive leadership in the context of military operations. MILS 2022 provides a smooth transition into MILS 3011. Cadets develop greater self awareness as they assess their own leadership styles and practice communication and team building skills. COE case studies give insight into the importance and practice of teamwork and tactics in real-world scenarios.

MILS 2031. Army Physical Fitness Training. 1-3-2.

Prerequisite: Must have a Department of the Army (DA) Form 3425-R signed by a Physician and be enrolled in the Military Science Levels 1-4. Develops skills needed to participate in, instruct, develop, and assess the Army Physical Fitness Test. Classes will meet Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 6:00 am to 7:00 am in or near the gymnasium for training and lecture period.

MILS 3011. Adaptive Tactical Leadership. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: Advanced ROTC standing or consent of the department. MILS 3011 challenges cadets to study and practice adaptive leadership skills as they are presented with challenging scenarios related to squad tactical operations. Cadets receive systematic and specific feedback, as well as their own self evaluations. Cadets continue to develop their leadership and critical thinking abilities. The focus is developing cadets' tactical leadership abilities to enable them to succeed at ROTC's summer Leadership Development and Assessment Course (LDAC).

MILS 3012. Leadership Change Environment. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: Advanced ROTC standing or consent of department.

MILS 3022 uses increasingly intense situational leadership challenges to build cadet awareness and skills in leading tactical operations up to platoon level. Cadets review aspects of combat, stability, and support operations. They also conduct military briefings and develop proficiency in garrison operation orders. The focus is on exploring, evaluating, and developing skills in decision-making, persuading, and motivating team members in contemporary operation environment (COE). MILS 3012 cadets are evaluated on what they know and do as leaders as they prepare to attend the ROTC summer Leadership Development Assesst Course (LDAC).

MILS 4011. Developing Adaptive Leadership. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: MILS 3011, MILS 3012.

MILS 4011 develops cadet proficiency in planning, executing, and assessing complex operations, functioning as a member of a staff, and providing performance feedback to subordinates. Cadets assess risk, make ethical decisions, and lead fellow ROTC cadets. Lessons on military justice and personnel processes prepare cadets to make the transition to Army officers. MS IV cadets analyze, evaluate and instruct cadets at lower levels. Both their classroom and battalion leadership experiences are designed to prepare MS 4011 cadets for their first unit of assignment. They identify responsibilities of key staff roles, and use situational opportunities to teach, train, and develop subordinates.

MILS 4012. Leaders Complex World. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: MILS 4011 or Advanced Course Standing.

MIL 4012 identifies and resolves ethical dilemmas. This course explores the dynamics of leading in the complex situations of current military operations in the contemporary operating environment (COE). Cadets examine differences in customs and courtesies, military law, principles of war, and rules of engagement in the face of international terrorism. They also explore aspects of interacting with non-governmental organizations, civilians on the battlefield, and host national support. The course places significant emphasis on preparing cadets for their first unit assignment. It uses case studies, scenarios, and “What Now, Lieutenant?” exercises to prepare cadets to face the complex ethical and practical demands of leading as commissioned officers in the United States Army.

MILS 4090. Special Topics in Military Science. 1-5 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Must be enrolled in, or have successfully completed both MSIII and MSIV-level ROTC classes or obtain permission from the Professor of Military Science.

MILS 4090 allows for independent study with a faculty member. Topics and research will pursue topics of military science not extensively treated in any other Military Science course.

MILS 4400. Directed Study in Military Science. 1-10 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Permission of instructor.

MILS 4400 is offered to military science students interested in investigating special topics external to regular course offerings. This course is primarily offered as a completion course. Its secondary intent is to afford the Military Science Department the flexibility to offer course work to students who have special circumstances in their academic and commissioning requirements such as nursing and accelerated commissioning program cadets

• MUSIC (MUSI) •

MUSI 1020. Fundamentals of Music Theory. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: none.

The fundamentals of music theory including music reading, rhythm and pitch orientation, accidentals, key and time signatures, rhythmic organization, intervals, scale formation, triad construction and chord spelling, elementary ear training and sight singing, and an introduction to the keyboard. Open to all university students. May not be counted for credit towards a music degree.

MUSI 1107. Arts in Society: Music. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099, READ 099, if required.

Through an examination of the role of arts in society, and an in-depth study of musical works, this interactive course provides an understanding of the creative process and develops skills in creativity and critical analysis. Heightened perceptual abilities will be developed through class experiences and field visits to a variety of arts events in dance, theater, and visual arts, as well as in music. (Attendance at some events requires paid admission.)

MUSI 1110. Introduction to World Music. 1-2-2.

Prerequisite: MUSI 1121.

Introduction to music of the world’s cultures. Required laboratory component.

MUSI 1111. Aural Skills I. 0-2-1.

Prerequisite: None.

For music majors. Foundation work in sight singing including rhythmic and melodic dictation. Practical application includes some composition and improvisation.

MUSI 1112. Aural Skills II. 0-2-1.

Prerequisite: MUSI 1111 (with “C” or better).

For music majors. Continuation of skill development in sight singing including rhythmic and melodic dictation. Practical application includes some composition and improvisation.

MUSI 1121. Music Theory I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: None.

For music majors. A correlated study of rhythmic, melodic and harmonic aspects of music common practice. Development of basic skills in music theory and harmony including practical application through part-writing. Components include composition, improvisation and practical keyboard applications.

MUSI 1122. Music Theory II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MUSI 1121 (with “C” or better).

For music majors. A continuation of correlated study of rhythmic, melodic and harmonic aspects of music common practice. Continuation of keyboard harmony is included with application at the keyboard. Components include composition, improvisation and practical keyboard applications.

MUSI 1144. University Philharmonic Orchestra. 0-3-1.

Prerequisite: Membership is open to all students with previous experience playing an instrument.

May be repeated for lower-division credit. Study, rehearsal, and concert performance of literature for orchestra. No audition is required and non-music majors with previous orchestral experience are encouraged to play in the group.

MUSI 1145. Concert Band. 0-3-1.

Prerequisite: Membership is open to all students with previous experience playing an instrument.

May be repeated for lower-division credit. Study, rehearsal, and concert performance of literature for concert band. No audition is required and non-music majors with previous band experience are encouraged to play in the group.

MUSI 1146. Chamber Singers. 0-6-1.

Prerequisite: Audition.

May be repeated for lower-division credit. Study, rehearsal, and concert performance of choral literature. Membership in Chamber Singers is by audition only.

MUSI 1147. Wind Ensemble. 0-6-1.

Prerequisite: Audition.

May be repeated for lower-division credit. Study, rehearsal and concert performance of literature for wind ensemble.

MUSI 1148. Orchestra. 0-6-1.

Prerequisite: Audition.

May be repeated for lower-division credit. Study, rehearsal and concert performance of literature for orchestra. Membership in the orchestra is by audition only.

MUSI 1149. Chorale. 0-3-1.

Prerequisite: None.

May be repeated for lower-division credit. Study, rehearsal and concert performance of literature for choir.

MUSI 1165. Class Piano I. 0-2-1.

Prerequisite: All developmental studies courses if required. Non-music majors require permission of instructor.

Keyboard proficiency for music majors and non-majors. Solo and ensemble playing.

MUSI 1166. Class Piano II. 0-2-1.

Prerequisite: MUSI 1165.

Continuation of Music 1165.

MUSI 2100. Technology in Music. 0-2-1.

Prerequisite: MUSI 1122.

The development of practical experience with current computer applications and current technology specifically associated with music instruction and music performance. The course exposes students to current capabilities of technology as they relate to composition, instrumentation, performance and teaching.

MUSI 2111. Aural Skills III. 0-2-1.

Prerequisite: MUSI 1112 (with "C" or better).

For music majors. Advanced skill development in ear training and sight singing. Includes rhythmic and melodic dictation. Practical application includes some composition and improvisation.

MUSI 2112. Aural Skills IV. 0-2-1.

Prerequisite: MUSI 2111 (with "C" or better).

For music majors. Continuation of advanced skill development in ear training and sight singing. Includes rhythmic and melodic dictation. Practical application includes some composition and improvisation.

MUSI 2221. Music Theory III. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MUSI 1122 (with "C" or better).

For music majors. Advanced correlated study of music theory and harmony of common practice including chromatic harmony and 20th century harmonic techniques. Components include composition, improvisation, literature analysis and practical keyboard application.

MUSI 2222. Music Theory IV. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MUSI 2221 (with "C" or better).

For music majors. Continuation of advanced correlated study of music theory and harmony in common practice including analytical study of 20th century music. Components include composition, improvisation, literature analysis and practical keyboard application.

MUSI 3165. Class Piano III. 0-2-1.

Prerequisite: MUSI 1166.

Continuation of MUSI 1166.

MUSI 3166. Class Piano IV. 0-2-1.

Prerequisite: MUSI 3165.

Continuation of MUSI 3165.

MUSI 3302. Vocal Literature: Musical Theater. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1101 and permission of instructor.

Vocal literature, vocal techniques, and performance for the musical theater. This course will survey the musical repertory of standard major musical theater works. Students will prepare and perform songs, duets and group numbers from several musicals.

MUSI 3311. History of Music I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MUSI 2222 and MUSI 1107.

A survey of Western music history and literature from the Middle Ages to 1750.

MUSI 3312. History of Music II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MUSI 3311.

A survey of Western music history and literature from 1825 to the present.

MUSI 3315. Vocal Literature. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: MUSI 2222.

Solo vocal literature from 1600 to the present.

MUSI 3317. Introduction to Opera. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: All developmental studies courses if required.

Dramatic literature from the Florentine Camerata to the present with emphasis on the standard repertory.

MUSI 3318. Introduction to Symphonic Music. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: All developmental studies courses if required.

Orchestral literature from preclassic to present including symphony, concert overture, incidental music, program symphony and tone poem. Emphasis on standard literature.

MUSI 3319. Introduction to Jazz. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: All developmental studies courses if required.

Jazz schools, styles and personalities in historical perspectives.

MUSI 3320. Form and Analysis. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: MUSI 2222.

Techniques of structural analysis of musical compositions in a variety of styles and periods with emphasis on harmony and form. The analysis of contrapuntal form is included.

MUSI 3321. Advanced Ear Training. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: MUSI 2222 and MUSI 2112.

Extended training in harmonic dictation, sight singing, aural analysis and rhythm.

MUSI 3324. Instrumentation/Arranging. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: MUSI 2222.

A study of the characteristics of orchestral instruments, including scoring principals and techniques. In addition the course includes the arranging of musical works for a variety of large and small vocal and instrumental ensembles.

MUSI 3326. Composition. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: MUSI 2222 and MUSI 2100.

For music majors. The development of music composition skill by an exploration of basic techniques necessary for coherent creative expression using pitch, rhythm, melody, timbre and harmony. Students write original compositions for various specified instruments, voices or combinations. 20th century styles and techniques are utilized. MUSI 3326 develops skill in music improvisation.

MUSI 3331. Choral Conducting. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: MUSI 2221.

Fundamental elements of conducting including baton technique, score reading, cueing, expression, interpretation and rehearsal skills with an emphasis on applying these techniques in practical conducting experiences involving vocal and instrumental ensembles.

MUSI 3332. Instrumental Conducting. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: MUSI 2221.

Fundamental elements of conducting including baton technique, score reading, cueing, expression, interpretation and rehearsal skills with an emphasis on applying these techniques in practical conducting experiences involving vocal and instrumental ensembles.

MUSI 3333. Accompanying. 1-0-1.

Prerequisite: Permission of instructor.

May be repeated for upper-division credit.

For music majors. The practical application of accompaniment techniques.

MUSI 3334. Italian and English Diction. 0-2-1.

Prerequisite: All developmental studies courses, if required.

Designed for the vocal music major. The study of the pronunciation, enunciation, and expression of the Italian and English language in singing.

MUSI 3335. German and French Diction. 0-2-1.

Prerequisite: All developmental studies courses, if required and MUSI 3334.

Designed for the vocal music majors. An applied performance laboratory for the study of the pronunciation, enunciation, and expression of the German and French language in singing.

MUSI 3344. University Philharmonic Orchestra. 0-3-1.

Prerequisite: Membership is open to all students with previous experience playing an instrument.

May be repeated for upper-division credit.

Study, rehearsal and concert performance of literature for orchestra. No audition is required and non-music majors with previous orchestral experience are encouraged to play in the group.

MUSI 3345. Concert Band. 0-3-1.

Prerequisite: Membership is open to all students with previous experience playing an instrument.

May be repeated for upper-division credit.

Study, rehearsal and concert performance of literature for concert band. No audition is required and non-music majors with previous band experience are encouraged to play in the group.

MUSI 3346. Chamber Singers. 0-4-1.

Prerequisite: Audition.

May be repeated for upper-division credit.

Study, rehearsal and concert performance of choral literature. Membership in Chamber Singers is by audition only.

MUSI 3347. Wind Ensemble. 0-6-1.

Prerequisite: Audition.

May be repeated for upper-division credit.

Study, rehearsal and concert performance of literature for wind ensemble. Membership in Wind Ensemble is by audition only.

MUSI 3348. Orchestra. 0-6-1.

Prerequisite: Audition.

May be repeated for upper-division credit. Study, rehearsal and concert performance of literature for orchestra. Membership in the Orchestra is by audition only.

MUSI 3349. Chorale. 0-3-1.

Prerequisite: None.

May be repeated for upper-division credit. Study, rehearsal and concert performance of literature for choir.

MUSI 3350. Advanced Choral Conducting/Literature. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: MUSI 2222, MUSI 2112, MUSI 3331.

Advanced elements of conducting including baton technique, score reading, cueing, expression, interpretation and rehearsal skills with an emphasis on applying these techniques through choral literature in practical conducting experiences involving choral ensembles. Required laboratory component.

MUSI 3351. Advanced Instrumental Conducting/Literature. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: MUSI 2222, MUSI 2112, MUSI 3332.

Advanced elements of conducting including baton technique, score reading, cueing, expression, interpretation and rehearsal skills with an emphasis on applying these techniques through band and orchestra literature in practical conducting experiences involving instrumental ensembles. Required laboratory component.

MUSI 3352. Opera Theater. 0-6-1.

Prerequisite: Corequisite: Applied vocal study.

Techniques for the singing actor studied through the production of scenes from the dramatic repertory.

MUSI 3353. Jazz Improvisation. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: MUSI 1122.

The development of instrumental (and vocal) improvisation skills incorporating harmony, melody, rhythm and form. Musical styles include traditional and contemporary jazz. May be taken up to three times for credit.

MUSI 3367. Vocal Skills I. 1-0-1.

Prerequisite: All developmental studies courses if required. Non-music majors require permission of instructor.

Vocal proficiency for music majors and non-majors. Emphasis on tone production, diction, performing skills and the physiology of the voice.

MUSI 3368. Vocal Skills II. 1-0-1.

Prerequisite: MUSI 3367.

Continuation of MUSI 3367.

MUSI 3371. Composition. 1 hour instruction - 2 hours credit.

Prerequisite: MUSI 2222 and permission of instructor.

Individually tailored instruction for the development of music composition skills by writing in traditional and 20th-century styles in both small and large forms and for a variety of media.

MUSI 3372. Composition. 1 hour instruction - 2 hours credit.

Prerequisite: MUSI 3371 and permission of instructor. Continuation of MUSI 3371.

MUSI 3380. Small Ensembles. 0-2-1.

Prerequisite: Permission of instructor. All developmental studies courses if required.

May be repeated for upper-division credit. Focus of the ensemble (jazz band, guitar ensemble, flute ensemble, percussion ensemble, trombone ensemble, brass ensemble, brass quintet, woodwind quintet, etc.) will be listed on student's transcript as part of course title.

MUSI 3396. Cooperative Study. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of coordinator of cooperative education/internship (Career Services).

A supervised work experience program for a minimum of two academic semesters at a site in business, industry or government. For sophomore-, junior-, or senior-level students who wish to obtain successive on-the-job experience in conjunction with their academic training.

MUSI 3398. Internship. 1-12 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of school director.

A supervised, credit-earning work experience of one academic semester with a previously approved business firm, private agency or government agency. Credit is allowed only in elective areas.

MUSI 3411. Survey of African-American Music. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

An examination of the development of African-American music from its roots in Africa to the present time in America. The course examines the various genres of African-American music created by Africans including: spirituals, work songs, blues, gospel, jazz, rhythm and blues, and art music. A study of selected world religions with primary concentration on the origin and major periods of the scriptural and doctrinal development of these religions.

PHIL 3325. Classical Chinese Philosophical Tradition. 3-0-3.Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

Survey of central thinkers and schools—starting in the classical Chinese tradition that investigates representative thinkers in the Chinese philosophical and cultural tradition. Sources include: Confucian, Daoist, Mohist, Legalist, Buddhist (especially Chan), Neo-Daoist, and Neo-Confucian.

PHIL 3326. Japanese Philosophy. 3-0-3.Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

A survey of Japanese philosophical thought from ancient times to the present, including its cultural, religious, ethical, and aesthetic dimensions. While providing a broad overview of the development of Shinto, Confucianism, and Buddhism in the Japanese context, the course also examines the contributions of contemporary Japanese thinkers to world thought.

PHIL 4400. Directed Study. 1-3 credit hours.Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair prior to registration.

Special topics of an advanced nature not in the regular course offerings.

PHIL 4415. Feminist Philosophy. 3-0-3.Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

A study of the main currents of contemporary U.S. feminist philosophy including liberal feminism, radical feminism, socialist feminism and post-modern feminism.

PHIL 4420. Existentialism. 3-0-3.Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

A study of Existentialism and Phenomenology including their historical roots in the nineteenth century, their major exponents of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, and their impact on philosophy, literature, and other academic disciplines.

PHIL 4425. The Asian Philosophical Traditions. 3-0-3.Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

The Asian Philosophical Traditions is an upper-division survey course that presents an in-depth exploration into the philosophies of India, China and Japan and engages an ongoing comparison of the various traditions with each other and with western traditions.

PHIL 4450. Major Figures in Philosophy. 3-0-3.Prerequisite: At least two upper division courses in philosophy or permission of instructor.

: An in-depth examination of a major figure in philosophy from the early pre-Socratics to contemporary figures such as Irigaray and including non-Western figures. Course may be repeated if the course content is different.

PHIL 4460. Major Themes in Philosophy. 3-0-3.Prerequisite: At least two upper division courses in philosophy or permission of instructor.

An in-depth examination of a major theme in the history of philosophy. Topics may include time, justice, love and friendship, beauty, materialism, aesthetics, epistemology, and metaphysics. Course may be repeated if the course content is different.

PHIL 4490. Special Topics in Philosophy. 1-3 credit hours.Prerequisite: ENGL 1102.

A study of selected topics within philosophy.

• PHYSICS (PHYS) •PHYS 1111. Introductory Physics I. 3-3-4.Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 1113 or MATH 1112.*

The introductory physics sequence (PHYS 1111 and PHYS 1112) is a survey of the primary fields of physics: mechanics, electromagnetism, optics, thermodynamics, and modern physics. Elementary algebra and trigonometry will be used in the course, with laboratory exercises supplementing the lecture material. The first course of the sequence will focus on the field of classical mechanics and its applications.

PHYS 1112. Introductory Physics II. 3-3-4.Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in PHYS 1111.

The introductory physics sequence (PHYS 1111 and PHYS 1112) is a survey of the primary fields of physics: mechanics, electromagnetism, optics, thermodynamics, and modern physics. Elementary algebra and trigonometry will be used in the course, with laboratory exercises supplementing the lecture material. The second course of the sequence will focus on the field of electromagnetism and its applications.

PHYS 2211. Principles of Physics I. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 1190. The Principles of Physics sequence (PHYS 2211 and PHYS 2212) is a survey of the primary fields of physics: mechanics, electromagnetism, optics, thermodynamics, and modern physics. Elementary calculus will be used in the course, with laboratory exercises supplementing the lecture material. The first course of the sequence will focus on the field of classical mechanics and its applications.

PHYS 2212. Principles of Physics II. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in PHYS 2211. The Principles of Physics sequence (PHYS 2211 and PHYS 2212) is a survey of the primary fields of physics: mechanics, electromagnetism, optics, thermodynamics, and modern physics. Elementary calculus will be used in the course, with laboratory exercises supplementing the lecture material. The second course of the sequence will focus on the field of electromagnetism and its applications.

PHYS 3100. Classical Mechanics and Applications. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in MATH 2202 and PHYS 2212 (or equivalent).

This course provides a modern coverage of topics in classical mechanics, including a deeper understanding of the dynamic laws and a focus on connections to other topics in physics and to real life applications of the topics. Topics include a review of Newton's laws of motion which is followed by an examination of conservation laws in physics, Newton's theory of gravitation, the two-body central force problem, the Lagrangian and Hamiltonian frameworks, and a study of simple harmonic motion and oscillations. Connections with other fields of physics and to applications are made when appropriate to broaden, deepen, and strengthen students' physical insights and understanding.

PHYS 3300. Analysis of Physical Systems. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 2202; PHYS 1112 or 2211.

An examination of the mathematical tools used across different fields of physics combined with their application to specific problems selected from areas such as classical mechanics and electromagnetism. Practical physics problems will illustrate the use of vectors, matrices, differential equations, complex variables, probability and error analysis.

PHYS 3305. Physics of the Micro World and the Cosmos. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in MATH 2202; PHYS 2212 or equivalent.

This course focuses on topics in non-classical physics. The students will be exposed to the main ideas of 20th and 21st century physics. Special relativity will be covered in some detail and the broad ideas of general relativity will be introduced. The framework of quantum mechanics will be presented and applications to the study of the atom and nucleus will be made. More recent advances in particle physics and cosmology will be described. Connections with other fields of physics and to applications to real life and technology are made when appropriate to broaden, deepen, and strengthen students' physical insights and understanding.

PHYS 3310. How and Why - The Physics in Everyday Life. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in any core lab science sequence.

This course focuses on fundamental physics concepts, including mechanics, optics, electricity and magnetism, and how we can use them to explain "how and why" everyday systems work. Students will build devices and conduct hands-on activities that illustrate these concepts and demonstrate how we can use these concepts to explain the operation of common technologies such as household appliances, communication systems, transportation systems, television, radio, computers and the electrical power system. Physics 3310 is taught at a level appropriate for the general audience. Students with credit in PHYS 1111 / 1112 or PHYS 2211 / 2212 should not take this course without permission of the instructor.

PHYS 3311. Concepts of Modern Physics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in any core lab science sequence.

A look at quantum mechanics (the physics of the very small) and relativity (the physics of high speeds and high energies) for the general audience. The puzzles of modern physics and some philosophical implications will be considered. Topics will include the wave-particle problem, the uncertainty principle, time dilation, and why the speed of light is the "speed limit" for the universe. The strong experimental evidence supporting these (seemingly) strange and paradoxical ideas will also be discussed.

PHYS 3312. Concepts of Optics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in any core lab science sequence.

A survey of optics and its applications for the general audience. Topics will include the nature of light, optical instruments and methods, color perception and depth perception. Techniques of color reproduction will be examined in areas such as photography, printing, art, color TV, and computer graphics. The course will include the fundamentals of optical systems such as holography, photography, microscopy and fiber optics. Emphasis will be on the applications of optical principles.

PHYS 3340. Electronics. 3-2-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in PHYS 1112 or 2212.

The primary objective of this course is to present the fundamental principles of analog and digital electronic circuitry and their application to modern technology. The course will begin with basic DC and AC circuits with resistors, inductors and capacitors. Next the p-n junction will be discussed and its use in diodes and transistors, with a particular emphasis on applications for signal processing. The course will finish with the development of logic gates and flip-flops and their use in digital electronics. This course will serve the student in the understanding of basic workings of instruments as well as everyday electronic devices. The lab involves hands-on work with both analog and digital electronic components.

PHYS 3400. Electricity & Magnetism with Applications. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in MATH 2202 and PHYS 2212 (or equivalent).

The primary objective of this course is to present the experimental and theoretical basis of the principles of electricity & magnetism and their application in everyday phenomena and devices. The course will begin with the concept of an electric field and will develop the idea of electric potential energy differences. Application to conductor, capacitors and simple electric circuits will be discussed. Lastly unification of electricity and magnetism will be established through the Theory of Special Relativity and will culminate in the derivation of the electromagnetic waves equation from Maxwell's Equations. To underscore all of the conceptual developments of the course electromagnetic phenomenon will be further explored in the natural world in both terrestrial and astrophysical contexts.

PHYS 4400. Directed Study. 1-4.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor, major area committee and Biology/Physics Department Chair prior to registration.

Special topics of an advanced nature that are not in the regular course offerings.

PHYS 4490. Special Topics in Physics. 1-4.

Prerequisite: Varies as to topic.

Selected special topics of general interest to the faculty and students.

• POLITICAL SCIENCE & INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS (POLS) •

POLS 1101. American Government in a Global Perspective. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099 and READ 0099, if required.

Examination of the institutions and processes of American government and Georgia State government. Global comparisons are made between the governments of the U.S. and other modern nation-states.

POLS 2212. State and Local Government. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101 .

A general survey of state and local government; recent and current trends.

POLS 2240. Introduction to Comparative Politics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

An introduction to the comparative approaches for the study of politics, focusing on patterns of development and change in contemporary political systems.

POLS 2250. Introduction to International Relations. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

This course provides an introduction to the study of international relations. Sources of international order, conflict and war, determinants of foreign policy, global actors and the dynamics of political interaction between nation-states are examined.

POLS 2260. Current Political Issues. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

This course exposes students to critical contemporary political and government-related issues and provides some context and background. It ties the various issues to subfields of political science. Domestic-international linkage is emphasized.

POLS 2270. Political Ideologies. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

Emphasizes the political development and application of contemporary ideologies such as nationalism, capitalism, socialism, democracy, marxism, conservatism, liberalism, feminism, communitarianism, facism, liberation movements, and others.

POLS 2280. Research Methods. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101; MATH 0099 if required.

An introduction to the empirical methods in social science research. It provides the student with a working knowledge of the design, implementation and evaluation of social science research.

POLS 3300. U.S. Constitution and Courts. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

POLS 3300 provides an overview of American law. The course covers the basic design and structures of the United States court system, trial and appellate legal process, and Constitutional law basics.

POLS 3313. Public Policy Analysis. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

Introduction to public policy analysis using data and methodological approaches as well as political and social inputs into the policy process. Analysis of policy outcomes.

POLS 3315. American Constitutional Law: Federalism. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101 and POLS 3300.

The constitutional powers and limitations of national legislative, executive and judicial branches are examined. The course includes analyses of the constitutional relationship of these political institutions to each other and to the states.

POLS 3320. Legal Research. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

An introduction to legal resources for law-related courses and to problems that demonstrate the effective utilization of legal research and reference tools in a manner designed to meet the needs of the student in both law and non-law fields. An understanding of legal rules is necessary for scientists, archaeologists and other professionals.

POLS 3343. Principles of Public Administration. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

The methods and procedures of governmental administration and the control of public bureaucracies in democratic societies.

POLS 3350. American Foreign Policy. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

This course explores the conduct, substantive policy issues and problems associated with American foreign policy. The contemporary aspects and problems evolving out of and confronted by America's foreign policy are emphasized.

POLS 3360. The United States Congress. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

Presents an in-depth treatment of the origins, development, operation of the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives.

POLS 3370. The United States Presidency. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

Examines the historical development of the presidency, the constitutional powers, the personalities, the roles and the relationship with other governmental entities.

POLS 3380. Mass Media and Politics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

Examines the role of the mass media in society. Emphasis is placed on the media's role in the social, legal and political processes in the United States, as well as other democratic and nondemocratic countries.

POLS 3385. Campaigns and Elections. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

An in-depth look at the process of selecting governmental leaders in the United States. Includes a segment on foreign elections.

POLS 3388. Lobbying and Interest Groups. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

This course familiarizes students with public sector lobbying and the role of interest groups in a democratic society. The processes, procedures, and techniques of lobbying government entities will be examined in depth, as well as the issue concerns and persuasion strategies of interest groups. The course will focus on applied learning, and will help prepare students for employment in professional political environments.

POLS 3390. Political Research On-Line. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

This course will help students become familiar with and adept at using on-line resources to perform political and governmental research. Students will be coached on using Internet tools and processes to improve their ability to find and use political and governmental information. Students will be assessed on their proficiency in on-line political research.

POLS 3394. Public Polling and Survey Techniques. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

This course introduces students to the techniques and uses of polls and surveys in political science and public policy. Students will learn the art of questionnaire design, questionnaire construction, sampling, data collection, coding, and analysis. Students will learn the basics of telephone survey techniques and focus group moderation for the purposes of collecting information. Class projects may include the construction and implementation of a survey, reading and critiquing existing surveys and questionnaires. Quantitative and qualitative approaches will be examined.

POLS 3396. Cooperative Study. 1 - 3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101; approval of Department Chair and Coordinator of Cooperative Education/Internship - Career Services.

A supervised work experience program in business, industry or government. For sophomore, junior or senior level students who wish to obtain successive on-the-job experience in conjunction with their academic training.

POLS 3398. Internship. 1 - 12 credit hours.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101; approval of Department Chair and Department Internship Coordinator.

A supervised, credit-earning work experience with a previously approved business firm, private agency or government agency. Students must make application with the Internship Coordinator before the end of the semester prior to the semester in which the internship is planned.

POLS 4000. Practicum in Political Science and International Affairs. 1-9 credit hours.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101; 60 hours and permission of instructor and department chair/program director.

A pre-approved service and/or experiential activity that occurs domestically or internationally and links meaningful community service or cultural immersion with academic learning, personal growth, and civic or global responsibility. The activity may be part of a pre-existing volunteer program, NGO project, or international exchange or it may be individually designed with the instructor and approved by the chair. Students will be expected to keep a reflective journal and prepare a presentation that demonstrates learning objectives.

POLS 4400. Directed Study. 1 - 3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101; approval of Instructor, Advisor and Department Chair prior to registration. Covers special topics and seminars external to regular course offerings.

POLS 4402. Political Parties. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

Examines the nature, structure and functions of political parties in differing national cultural contexts with particular attention to the electoral activity of political parties in the United States.

POLS 4405. Comparative Legal Systems. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101 and POLS 3300.

An examination of the ways in which the courts and the law in different countries affect public policy. The source and methods utilized in different legal systems (both democratic and nondemocratic) as transforming agents of society and/or means for maintaining order within it are explored.

POLS 4410. American Legal System. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101 and POLS 3300.

POLS 4410 is designed to be a capstone to the political science legal studies concentration. Potential topics include the structure and function of the U.S. legal system, as well as criminal justice and alternative dispute resolution, judicial behavior, and the connection between law and society.

POLS 4411. Criminal Law. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101 and POLS 3300.

An examination of those areas in which the U.S. Constitution affects criminal justice. Emphasis on understanding the role of the Supreme Court of the United States in interpreting provisions of the Constitution that affect criminal justice. An attempt to understand the content of important decisions in this area as well as the reason given by the Court for decisions.

POLS 4412. Urban Affairs and Problems. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

Emphasis on the changing patterns of local and municipal governments and politics, impact of reapportionment and other problems generated by an urbanized society.

POLS 4415. Civil Liberties. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101 and POLS 3300.

An intensive study of the rights of Americans as guaranteed by the Constitution. The changing character of civil liberties problems in the United States will be stressed with attention given to the legal, historical and political context of the cases studied.

POLS 4416. Law and Gender. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101 and POLS 3300.

POLS 4416 examines the relationship between law and gender in the United States, from the New Deal Era to the present day. Topics include how gender impacts the legal regulation of employment, education, reproduction, family life, and constitutional rights. Additionally, the course examines how women participate in the legal system as attorneys, judges, and mediators.

POLS 4420. Judicial Process. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101 and POLS 3300.

Courts and judges as agents in the political system; focus is on the judicial decision-making process, with attention to psychological and other variables in that process. Relation of judicial process to legislative, administrative and electoral processes emphasized.

POLS 4423. Great Political Thinkers. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

A survey of classical, medieval, and modern political thinkers and their political thoughts. It discusses their impacts on the development of political processes and institutions.

POLS 4427. American Political Thought. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

This course explores the diverse spectrum of American political thinking from the pre-revolutionary period to the present. Beginning with colonial discourse, this comprehensive review captures the depth and distinctiveness of American thought as expressed by and through the writings and actions of philosophers, politicians, radicals, and revolutionaries.

POLS 4430. International Law and Organization. 3-0-3.

Prerequisites: POLS 2250.

This course examines the system of law governing relations between nation-states, and the roles and functions of international organizations. It explores the conventional international law in the areas of diplomacy, territorial questions and armed conflicts, as well as the developing regimes in trade and human rights. In addition, the course examines the structures and functions of some contemporary organizations in the security and economic areas and evaluates their performance and contribution.

POLS 4431. Politics of International Terrorism. 3-0-3.

Prerequisites: POLS 1101.

A study of the history and tactics of modern terrorism as well as efforts by modern government to counteract them.

POLS 4433. European Union Politics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisites: POLS 1101.

This course explores the politics and policy-making processes of the European Union (EU). It is divided into three parts. The first part addresses the history of European integration and the major theories utilized to explain its origins, evolution and operation. The second part of the course examines the structures and processes that constitute the machinery of EU policy-making. The third part of the course examines the politics of policy-making in an array of issue areas, including the single market, the Euro, & external trade policy. We also examine various non-economic policy areas such as foreign and security policy.

POLS 4435. Comparative Foreign Policy. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

A study of governmental formulation and conduct of foreign policy, focusing on major foreign policy issues that dominate the contemporary world.

POLS 4436. Politics of Developing Areas. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 2240 or POLS 2250.

This course confronts the patterns of development of governmental institutions and use of political processes in meeting the problems of the emerging nations of Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Middle East.

POLS 4437. Global Security. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 2250.

This course explores the primary threats to international security in the 21st century and examines the response of national governments, the United Nations, and regional international organizations in meeting the challenges posed by those threats.

POLS 4438. Politics of International Economic Relations. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 2250 and ECON 2200.

An exploration of the fundamental questions about government and policies, about market systems and about relations between the two.

POLS 4444. Administrative Practices and Organization. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

Problems of personnel, finance, administrative law, and the growth and significance of administrative legislation and adjudication.

POLS 4446. Governmental Budgeting. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

This course is designed to introduce undergraduate students to the role of budgeting in the governmental process. Budgetary actors, their motivations, their stakes and their behaviors are investigated. Students examine the legislative process of the budget and budgetary implementation. Students are introduced to cutback management, funding mandates and other current issues in governmental budgeting.

POLS 4451. Politics and Government in Post-Communist Europe. 3-0-3.Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

This course explains the collapse of communist rule in the former Soviet Union and in Eastern Europe. It introduces the contemporary political institutions and processes of Russia, Ukraine, Belarus, Poland, Hungary, the Czech Republic and other key countries of the region. The course uses a comparative approach and develops country profiles to assess the varied degrees of success in achieving stable multiparty democracy. It examines the widely divergent strategies for meeting the severe economic, environmental, social and political challenges confronting these countries during this difficult and volatile transitional era.

POLS 4452. Politics of the Pacific Rim. 3-0-3.Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

The course is designed to acquaint students with political institutions and processes of China, Japan and Korea. Particular emphasis will be placed on analysis of the relations of these countries with the United States on selected issues of contemporary relevance.

POLS 4453. Latin America: Democracy and Development. 3-0-3.Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

Examines contemporary socio-political and economic characteristics as well as political institutions needed to understand the countries of Latin America. Two important themes—(democracy building and development) will form the central focus of this course. Driving forces which facilitate and/or hinder the Latin American quest for political stability and economic development will also be examined. These include political parties, labor and peasant movements, economic elites, religious organizations and the military. The role and influence of the United States on Latin American politics will also be examined.

POLS 4454. Politics of the Middle East. 3-0-3.Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

This course examines contemporary socio-political and economic characteristics needed to understand the many countries of the Middle East/North Africa. The role of Islam, the Gulf war, the quest for development, the Palestine issue, and democracy versus authoritarianism are themes which will be covered in the course. In addition, a "country profile" approach will also be used. This course examines key countries and studies their political structures in detail.

POLS 4455. International Relations of Africa. 3-0-3.Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

This course examines the international relations of African states within a conceptual context, with particular reference to Africa's position in the global political economy. It covers both intra-African relations and African relations with the outside world. The main purpose is an attempt to understand African external politics in order to deal with them, by analyzing past practices and projecting new trends.

POLS 4456. International Environmental Policy. 3-0-3.Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

An examination of the basic elements of environmental policy making in the international arena. The course highlights current issues such as tropical rain forests, the "Global Commons" concept, bio-diversity and endangered species. Policy approaches will draw upon examples from specific countries as well as policy developed within international organizations such as the United Nations.

POLS 4465. Mock Trial. 1-0-1.Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

An examination of the American trial process. The overall purpose of the course is to enhance knowledge of the American adversarial process. Students who take the course may qualify for selection to teams for state, regional and national competition. Course may be taken three times for credit with permission of the instructor.

POLS 4466. Trial Procedure and Evidence. 3-0-3.Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

POLS 4466 enhances students' knowledge of the adversary process. Students learn and apply the basics of trial procedure and evidence through an in-depth trial simulation. Students who complete this course are eligible to compete on KSU's intercollegiate mock trial team.

POLS 4470. Alternative Dispute Resolution. 3-0-3.Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

A survey of the theory and methods of alternative dispute resolution and conflict management, with simulation in facilitation, mediation and negotiation. Basic skills will be taught.

POLS 4480. Practicum in Alternative Dispute Resolution. 2-2-3.Prerequisite: POLS 4470; permission of Program Coordinator.

A capstone course designed to meet the Alternative Dispute Resolution Certificate Program by integrating the students' prior training in alternative dispute resolution in on-site applied settings and in on-campus seminars. Students will be given applied experiences in selected public or private organizations in the community or in campus-related programs to make use of their ADR training.

POLS 4490. Special Topics in Political Science. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101; approval of Instructor and Department Chair.

Selected special topics of interest to faculty and students.

POLS 4499. Senior Seminar. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: POLS 1101, and the completion of at least 18 hours of the upper division major requirements for the political science major, or at least 15 hours of the upper division major requirements for the international affairs major. This capstone course is designed to complete the major by integrating the problems, research and theories from the divergent specialty areas of the Political Science curriculum. The course will focus on both the theoretical and empirical concerns, as well as the interconnectedness among the various Political Science specialty areas.

• PSYCHOLOGY (PSYC) •

PSYC 1101. General Psychology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099 and READ 0099, if required.

The scientific approach to the study of psychological phenomena, human development, learning and thinking, motivation and emotion, perception, testing and measurement, personality and behavior.

PSYC 2105. Social Issues: Perspectives in Psychology. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099 and READ 0099.

One of four disciplinary options (Anthropology 2105, Geography 2105, Psychology 2105, Sociology 2105) that can be taken to satisfy the Social Issues requirement in the general education curriculum. A common set of world social issues is critically examined from one of four social science perspectives. The discipline of psychology addresses social issues from the perspective of how these issues impact the individual and his or her relationship to the larger society. Emphasis will be placed on the use of scientific methodology in the investigation of these issues.

PSYC 2110. Interacting Effectively in a Diverse Society: Psychological Approaches. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: None.

Constructive interaction with people from multiple identity groups is a critical skill in our modern global society. However, most Americans have little background or training for productive multicultural interaction. This course will draw on the extensive work in social psychology and multicultural counseling to enhance student self-awareness and skill in interacting with those from a wide range of backgrounds. Coursework will involve readings from both psychology and literature, viewing of relevant films, and participation in experiential learning exercises and dialogues.

PSYC 2210. Careers in Psychology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PSYC 1101; declared psychology major.

This course focuses on career planning and development issues for psychology majors. Using a combination of lecture, readings, and exercises, students will be exposed to information designed to assist in the clarification, selection, and pursuit of a career in psychology or a related field. Topics will include an overview of the undergraduate major in psychology, career options in psychology and related fields, preparation for employment with a bachelors degree, preparing for and succeeding in graduate school, and applying for a job or to a graduate school.

PSYC 2258. Psychology of Adjustment. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099 and READ 0099, if required.

The dynamics of normal and maladaptive adjustment, including the study of appropriate and inappropriate reactions to frustration and stress; resolution of conflicts, fears and anxiety; building emotional stability and preventing mental illness.

PSYC 2300. Research Methods in Psychology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PSYC 1101; ENGL 1101; MATH 1101, 1111, 1112, or 1113. Corequisite PSYC 2300L.

This course is designed as an introduction to methods and statistics used in psychological research, emphasizing non-experimental methodologies including observation, correlational research, surveys, archival research, and quasi-experimental and ex post facto designs. Topics will include an introduction to the scientific method, an overview of experimental design, and an emphasis on measurement and error, experimental control, descriptive statistics, statistical inference, scientific writing, and ethical issues in non-experimental research.

PSYC 2300L. Research Methods in Psychology Laboratory. 0-2-1.

Prerequisite: PSYC 1101; ENGL 1101; & MATH 1101, 1111, 1112, or 1113. Corequisite PSYC 2300. Laboratory course designed to apply topics taught in PSYC 2300 (Research Methods in Psychology).

PSYC 2301. Experimental Psychology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Psychology majors - PSYC 2300 and PSYC 2300L. Non-psychology majors - See psychology department chair. Corequisite: PSYC 2301L.

This course will focus on experimental designs used in laboratory research in psychology. Topics will include hypothesis testing, independent-group and within-subjects designs, complex designs, and statistical analysis using t-tests and the Analysis of Variance. Emphasis will be on the selection of appropriate designs for different research questions, data collection, data analysis, the interpretation of results, and writing laboratory reports.

PSYC 2301L. Experimental Psychology Laboratory. 0-2-1.

Prerequisite: Psychology majors - PSYC 2300 and PSYC 2300L. Non-psychology majors - See psychology department chair. Corequisite: PSYC 2301. Laboratory course designed to apply topics taught in PSYC 2301 (Experimental Psychology).

PSYC 3305. Life-Span Developmental Psychology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PSYC 1101

Human development from conception to death, emphasizing biological, cognitive, emotional, social and personality development. Scientific approaches for studying developmental psychology will stress the importance of research methodology and research findings across the life-span. Theories of development and applications to real-world problems will provide a context for understanding how humans change during the life-cycle.

PSYC 3310. Psychopharmacology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PSYC 2300 and PSYC 2300L.

This course addresses how psychoactive drugs work in the central nervous system to affect behavior. Stimulants, depressants, hallucinogens, analgesics and psychotropic drugs will be discussed primarily in terms of their pharmacological action in the brain. Substance abuse and treatment disorders will be addressed from a biological perspective.

PSYC 3320. Leadership and Group Dynamics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PSYC 1101 or PSYC 2105.

Theory and application of psychological knowledge regarding group formation, group process, and leadership. Issues are examined in the context of ongoing intensive group discussion. Experiential activities will be included in the course to provide students with opportunities to apply and observe the group process.

PSYC 3325. Social Psychology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PSYC 1101.

A survey of the effects of the social environment upon the behavior of the individual. Interpersonal attraction, affiliation, aggression, prejudice, conformity, attitudes and attitude change are discussed. Experimental research findings are emphasized.

PSYC 3335. Theories of Personality. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: One psychology 3000-level course.

A survey of selected theories as well as research findings and possible therapeutic, educational and social applications. Major theoretical schools—e.g., psychodynamic, learning, humanistic, life-span, trait, cognitive—are covered.

PSYC 3340. The Psychology of Family Interaction: A Developmental Perspective. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PSYC 1101 or PSYC 2105.

An in-depth coverage of the psychological dynamics involved in parent/child relationships. A developmental approach will be employed to explore the changing needs and demands of the child and the parents as each progress in their own development. Current research and theory concerning parenting techniques, the psychological atmosphere of the home and the interaction of the child's temperament with the parents will be discussed. Contemporary family issues such as day-care, domestic violence, single parenting and children with special needs will be presented.

PSYC 3345. Learning and Behavior. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PSYC 2301 & PSYC 2301L.

An examination of behavior theory and the types of learning that help account for similarity and diversity in the behavior of human and nonhuman animals. Course focuses on the learning processes of habituation, classical conditioning, and operant conditioning.

PSYC 3355. Cross-Cultural Psychology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PSYC 1101 or PSYC 2105.

An overview of the study and application of psychological principles from a global cultural perspective, including Asian, African, European and North and South American cultures. Topics such as cognition, attitude structure and change, interpersonal communication, personality and mental health will be discussed in the contexts of different cultural orientations in the world, and both between and within-group differences and similarities will be discussed.

PSYC 3365. Human Sexuality. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PSYC 1101 or PSYC 2105.

An examination of the biological, personal, interpersonal and social aspects of human sexual behavior. Topics include: sexual values, sex and gender, sex and love, sexual behavior over the life span, reproduction, sex and health, sexual dysfunction and treatment, and social problems/ issues related to sexual behavior.

PSYC 3370. Industrial-Organizational Psychology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PSYC 1101 or PSYC 2105.

The application of research and psychological principles to human behavior in the workplace. Course topics will include the psychological aspects of employment selection and assessment, performance appraisal, employee and work team development, reorganization and down-sizing, work stress, employee violence, work/family conflict, and the changing nature of the workplace.

PSYC 3375. Psychology of Career Development. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PSYC 1101 or PSYC 2105.

The application of research and psychological principles with respect to how people formulate and make career decisions. The course explores career development across the life-span, focusing on theories of career decision-making, work adjustment, adult career crises and transitions, and career counseling interview and assessment techniques.

PSYC 3380. Principles of Psychological Testing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PSYC 2300 and PSYC 2300L.

Designed to introduce the principles that underlie the development, use and interpretation of psychological assessment tools. Topics include: test construction, survey development, scaling, norming, assessment interpretation issues and psychological assessment applications in industrial, vocational, clinical and research settings. Additionally, psychological assessment will be discussed in terms of social, legal and ethical concerns.

PSYC 3385. Ethnic Minority Psychology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PSYC 1101, PSYC 2105, SOCI 2105, ANTH 2105 or permission of instructor.

This course will provide an overview of the study and application of ethnic minority psychology. We will examine concepts and issues that pertain to ethnic minority groups in the United States, particularly the following four groups: African Americans, Asian Americans, Hispanic Americans, and Native Americans. Topics for discussions are: multicultural theory and research, history, cultural values, identity, developmental and family issues, mental health and other relevant issues that are pertinent to the experiences of the above-mentioned four ethnic minority groups in the United States. The course will be conducted with a combination of lectures, class discussion, guest speakers, group activities, student presentations, videos, etc.

PSYC 4400. Directed Study in Psychology. 1-3 Credit Hours.

Prerequisite: PSYC 2300 and PSYC 2300L, approval of instructor and department chair.

This course is offered to students interested in investigating special topics and seminars external to regular course offerings. May include original research projects. A maximum of 6 hours of PSYC 4400 may be used towards satisfying the upper division major requirements. A maximum of 9 hours of PSYC 4400 is permitted overall.

PSYC 4410. Physiological Psychology. 4-0-4.

Prerequisite: Psychology Majors - PSYC 2300 and PSYC 2300L. Non-psychology majors - see psychology department chair.

This course addresses the relationship between our underlying physiological systems and behavior. The topics investigated include neural communication, the anatomy of the nervous system, and the biological bases of sleep, reproductive behavior, stress, learning and memory, and mental disorders.

PSYC 4415. Perception. 4-0-4.

Prerequisite: Psychology Majors - PSYC 2300 and PSYC 2300L. Non-psychology majors - see psychology department chair.

A study of various theories and phenomena of perception. Course includes experimental investigations of the characteristics of sensory systems including vision, audition, kinesthesia, and the vestibular and skin senses.

PSYC 4420. Ethics and Professional Issues in Applied Psychology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: One psychology 3000-level course.

A critical analysis of professional issues and the ethical standards in the practice of psychology. Traditional and emerging practice areas will be discussed. Topics such as licensure, prescription drug privileges, managed-care, and treatment efficacy research will be explored. Ethical standards and decision-making will be studied in the context of professional practice.

PSYC 4425. Psychology of Gender. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: One psychology 3000-level course or GWST 3000.

An exploration of gender as a central organizing feature of human behavior. The course will consider gender as an intrapsychic, interpersonal and sociocultural phenomenon. Scientific research findings will be emphasized as well as multicultural and cross-cultural perspectives.

PSYC 4430. Abnormal Psychology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: One psychology 3000-level course.
A comprehensive study of the various forms of mental illness and maladjustment.

PSYC 4440. Clinical and Counseling Psychology: Science and Practice. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: One 3000 level psychology course.
The course provides an introduction to the science and practice of clinical and counseling psychology from integrated perspectives. History, major theories, and scientific underpinnings are covered, as well as current developments in practice and research. Major topics include research design, theoretical models, diagnostic and assessment methods, psychotherapeutic interventions, treatment effectiveness, specialization, and training. The course may emphasize clinical or counseling psychology at the discretion of the instructor.

PSYC 4445. History and Systems of Psychology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: One psychology 3000-level course.
An examination of the historical development of psychology, focusing on antecedents in philosophy and physiology, major early systems, major historical figures, and the historical/cultural context in which the field developed.

PSYC 4455. Cognitive Psychology. 4-0-4.

Prerequisite: Psychology Majors - PSYC 2301 and PSYC 2301L. Non-psychology majors - see psychology department chair.

An examination of the experimental investigation of complex cognitive processes, including the storage and retrieval of information, concept formation, reasoning, problem-solving and decision-making PSYC 4475. Psychology of Workplace Motivation and Leadership. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: One psychology 3000-level course.
This course examines topics of motivation and leadership in the workplace by addressing theoretical formulations, major research findings and real-world applications. Issues related to these topics will include gender, corporate culture, job attitudes, cross-cultural influences and organizational reward systems.

PSYC 4480. Field Practicum in Psychology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PSYC 2301 and PSYC 2301L, declared major in psychology, GPA at least 3.0 overall in psychology, completion of two placement related courses, submit an application before registration, and approval of department faculty and permission of instructor.

The psychology practicum offers the advanced psychology major an opportunity to combine appropriate supervised field experience with classroom discussion of site-specific and general issues related to the application of psychological theory. Course structure combines 100 hours of supervised on-site experience with weekly class sessions.

PSYC 4485. Research Practicum in Psychology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PSYC 2301 and PSYC 2301L, declared major in Psychology, GPA at least 2.5 overall and Psychology, submit an application before registration, and approval of department faculty and permission of instructor.

This course is for students seeking additional experience in applied research settings combining in-class instruction and individual placement either on or off campus. Students who seek employment in a research setting upon graduation or are interested in attending graduate school and wish to obtain additional experience in research techniques should select this course.

PSYC 4490. Special Topics in Psychology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: One psychology 3000-level course.
This course will address selected topics of special interest to faculty and students.

PSYC 4499. Senior Seminar in Psychology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PSYC 2301, PSYC 2301L and one course from each of the four Psychology course groupings (any one of the four Psychology course groupings can be done concurrently with PSYC 4499).

A capstone course designed to complete the major by integrating the student's prior academic experiences in psychology. Contemporary issues, problems, research, and theories from the different areas identified in the psychology curriculum will be examined. Discussion will focus on both substantive and methodological concerns, as well as interconnections among areas of study. A seminar format will be used throughout the course to encourage student participation and interaction with peers and with faculty.

• READING (READ) •

READ 0020. Principles of Reading for the Regents' Test. 3-0-0.

Prerequisite: None.

Instruction and review for the Regents' Test with emphasis on critical reading skills, vocabulary, and test-taking strategies. Required of students who have failed the reading portion of the test.

READ 0099. Reading for Academic Purposes. 3-0-0.

Prerequisite: Placement by COMPASS Examination, by the Admissions Office or by the Department of Learning Support Programs.

A Learning Support Programs course that prepares the student for credit courses that require sophisticated reading and study strategies. Emphasizes comprehension strategies, vocabulary development, textbook mastery, note taking and learning strategies.

• REAL ESTATE (RE) •

RE 3400. Principles of Real Estate. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and FIN 3100; Non-business Majors: 60 credit hours and FIN 3100.

Students are introduced to the principles of real estate analysis and utilization. Subjects include the nature of real property; the legal instruments involved in real property transactions; market analysis and the determinants of real estate values; the appraisal process; investment and financial analysis; and the public policy aspects of real estate planning and utilization.

RE 4500. Real Estate. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Business Majors: Sophomore GPA Requirement and FIN 3100; Non-business Majors: 60 credit hours and FIN 3100.

Examines the principles and procedures of real estate appraisal, the transfer process for property, and financing methods for residential and commercial real estate. Studies the income and cost of developing and managing real property and analyzes real estate as an investment.

• REGENTS SKILLS •

RGTV 0197. Regents' Reading & Writing Skills. 3-0-0.

Prerequisite: None.

The Regents' Reading & Writing Skills course is intended to ensure that all graduates of USG institutions possess certain minimum skills in reading & writing comprehension. Students work on improving their comprehension of material drawn from a variety of subject areas (social science, natural science and humanities) with various modes of discourse (exposition, narration and argumentation). Critical thinking and the following four major aspects of reading are emphasized: Vocabulary in context, inferential and literal comprehension, and analysis. Students will work on improving their own writing skills. This course is ONLY for those students who have never taken the Regents' Examination but are in violation of the Regents' guidelines, which require every student who has earned 45 semester hours and not passed the Regents' Exam to enroll in a remediation course.

RGTR 0198. Regents' Reading Skills. 3-0-0.

Prerequisite: None.

The Regents' Reading Skills course is intended to ensure that all graduates of USG institutions possess certain minimum skills in reading comprehension. Students work on improving their comprehension of material drawn from a variety of subject areas (social science, natural science and humanities) with various modes of discourse (exposition, narration and argumentation). Critical thinking and the following four major aspects of reading are emphasized: Vocabulary in context, inferential and literal comprehension, and analysis.

RGTE 0199. Regents' Writing Skills. 3-0-0.

Prerequisite: None.

The Regents' Writing Skills course is intended to ensure that all graduates of USG institutions possess certain minimum skills in writing. Students learn to evaluate their own writing strengths and weaknesses and work on improving their own writing skills so that they are able to write an essay meeting the Regents' criteria.

• RUSSIAN (RUSS) •

RUSS 1001. Introduction to Russian Language and Culture I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099 and READ 0099 if required.

Introduction to the Russian language and culture, stressing progressive acquisition of effective communications skills in both the written and spoken language and an understanding of the practices and products of the culture being studied. Not open to native speakers of Russian.

RUSS 1002. Introduction to Russian Language and Culture II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: RUSS 1001.

Introduction to Russian language and culture, part II, stressing continued, progressive acquisition of effective communication skills in both the written and spoken language and an understanding of the practices and products of Russian culture. Not open to native speakers of Russian.

RUSS 2001. Intermediate Russian Language and Culture I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: RUSS 1002.

Builds upon acquisition of communication skills begun in high school. The student will continue to develop proficiency in listening, speaking, reading and writing and learn to communicate in culturally appropriate ways. Not open to native speakers of Russian.

RUSS 2002. Intermediate Russian Language and Culture II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: RUSS 2001.

Students continue to increase linguistic and cultural proficiency through the use of a variety of materials and activities. Not open to native speakers of Russian.

• SCIENCE (SCI) •

For Integrated Science courses see (ISCI)

SCI 1101. Science, Society and the Environment I. 3-2-4.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099, READ 0099, MATH 0099, if required.

This course is the first in a two part sequence that fulfills the general education science requirement. Using the context of environmental issues, it introduces students to the basic nature of matter, energy, and living systems and to the nature of science. Emphasis is placed on making decisions about scientific issues. Science 1101 is not designed for science majors and is not a prerequisite for introductory courses in biology, chemistry, or physics.

SCI 1102. Science, Society and the Environment II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SCI 1101 or its equivalent.

This course is the second in a two part sequence that fulfills the general education science requirement. Using the context of environmental issues, it introduces students to the basic skills and scientific understandings needed by educated citizens to make informed decisions about scientific issues.

SCI 3360. Earth Science. 3-3-4.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in any core lab science sequence.

An introduction to basic earth science concepts and methodology (including geology, meteorology, and oceanography) will be covered. Special emphasis will be placed on dynamic Earth processes (plate tectonics, earthquakes, volcanism, climate, etc.) and their effects on the structure and composition of the landforms, oceans, atmosphere, and organisms. The lab component includes hands-on evaluation of a collection of Igneous, Metamorphic and Sedimentary rocks, topographic map analyses, spectral imaging and remote sensing, and modeling weather related phenomena.

SCI 3365. Earth Watch: Examining Global Environmental Issues. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: "C" or better grade in any core lab science sequence.

An examination of the integrative nature of environmental sciences; emphasis on human interactions with world environments. Discussions will focus on case studies, environmental problem-solving, and the development of a personal ecological ethic. Ecological principles of population, community, ecosystem and biosphere will be integrated in the case studies.

SCI 4700L. Applied Environmental Studies. 2-4-3.

Prerequisite: For Biology majors: GEOG 3700, "C" or better grade in BIOL 3370 and one other laboratory based course at the 3000/4000 level; for Chemistry majors: GEOG 3700 and "C" or better grade in CHEM 3700; for Geography majors: GEOG 3700 and any two of the following GEOG 3305, 3315, 4405, or 4410; for all other majors: SCI 1101, SCI 1102, "C" or better grade in SCI 3360; POLS 4456 and GEOG 3700.

An interdisciplinary, field-based, capstone course. Students will apply skills learned in previous courses in a team-based project. The experience will be documented in an environmental assessment report describing the land and aquatic systems in terms of use, conditions (chemical, biological, physical), economic impact, environmental policy and management.

• SCIENCE EDUCATION (SCED) •

SCED 4000. Service Learning in Science Education. 1-3.

Prerequisite: 60 hours and permission of instructor and department chair/program director.

A community activity which links learning to life by connecting meaningful community service activities with academic learning, personal growth, and civic responsibility. Activity will be designed with the instructor and approved by the chair/program director.

SCED 4416. Teaching Science (6-12). 6-0-6.

Prerequisite: EDUC 2130, 20 credit hours of upper division major requirements completed, admission to Teacher Education, and permission program coordinator.

An examination and application of learning theories, curricular issues, instructional design and assessment strategies for teaching middle and secondary school science in diverse classrooms. Candidates develop initial competencies for establishing a well-managed, productive learning environment, applying science content knowledge to the task of teaching adolescents, and promoting an understanding of the nature of science through inquiry-based instruction. Emphasizes practices supported by science education research and endorsed by the NSTA. Proof of professional liability insurance is required prior to receiving school placements in the co-requisite practicum.

SCED 4417. Teaching Science (6-12) Practicum. 0-9-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to SCED 4416.

Middle and secondary school field experience in teaching science with concurrent seminars. Proof of professional liability insurance is required prior to school placements.

SCED 4475. Student Teaching Science (6-12). 12 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Admission to Student Teaching.

Full-time teaching experience in science under the supervision of a secondary school cooperating teacher and a college science education supervisor. Includes regularly scheduled seminars.

SCED 4498. Internship in Teaching Science (6-12). 0-36-12.

Prerequisite: Provisional teaching license issued by State of Georgia; full-time employment teaching science, and permission of science education advisor.

Student Teaching experience in science for provisionally certified teachers. Supervision will be in collaboration with a mentor-teacher in the local school and a specialist in science education. This internship will automatically substitute for SCED 4475. Proof of professional liability insurance is required. Student is responsible for their own school placement.

• SECONDARY EDUCATION (SED) •

SED 2220. Internship. 3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of Director of Center for Education Placement and Partnerships and advisor.

A practicum in a classroom during which the student will be actively involved in the teaching-learning process under the guidance of a professional teacher.

SED 3398. Internship. 1-12 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Permission of Director of Center for Education Placement and Partnerships and advisor.

A supervised teaching experience for teachers seeking certification renewal credit.

SED 4400. Directed Study. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair prior to registration.

A concentrated investigation of a particular aspect of education as a topic within a teaching field concentration or degree major. The content of the directed study will be determined jointly by the instructor and the student.

SED 4490. Special Topics in Education. 1-3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair.

Selected special topics of interest to faculty and students.

• SOCIOLOGY (SOCI) •

SOCI 2000. Introduction to Gender Studies. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1101 (with "C" or better).

This course examines the ways that women's and men's gender roles are shaped by social interaction. Using materials and learning approaches from multiple disciplines, students will explore questions about how individual and group expectations about gender behavior are created and sustained.

SOCI 2105. Social Issues: Perspectives in Sociology. 2-0-2.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099 and READ 0099.

This is one of four disciplinary options (Anthropology 2105, Sociology 2105, Geography 2105, Psychology 2105) that can be taken to satisfy the Social Issues requirement in the general education curriculum. A common set of world social issues is critically examined from one of four social science perspectives. The discipline of sociology focuses on how culture and social structure combine to shape the way human beings live their lives and define and solve their problems.

SOCI 2201. Principles of Sociology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: READ 0099 if required.

An overview of sociology which emphasizes the social nature of human behavior, including an introduction to culture, social structure, socialization, deviance, stratification, family, gender, religion, demography, and complex organization.

SOCI 2251. Social Problems. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201.

An overview of current social problems facing American society with attention to developing insights into the conceptual analysis of meaningful solutions.

SOCI 2301. Research Methods in Sociology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201.

This course provides an introduction to concepts and techniques of social science research. Students will (1) become familiar with levels of measurement, sampling techniques, research design, and research techniques, (2) apply these techniques to the study of specific research questions in sociology, (3) learn the basic use of Statistical Package for Social Sciences (SPSS) computer program for analyzing numerical data, (4) become familiar with both quantitative and qualitative research methodology, and (5) write a proposal for a research study.

SOCI 3300. Foundations of Social Theory. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2105 or 2201.

This course surveys the historical development of social theory. It emphasizes the major theories and theoreticians of sociology and their importance for understanding contemporary sociology.

SOCI 3304. Social Organization. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201.

An introduction to large scale social organizations, with an emphasis on bureaucracy. Examines both the formal and informal aspects of bureaucracy, including topics ranging from power and authority, to centralization and decentralization, red tape, and professionalism.

SOCI 3310. Introduction to Gerontology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201 or PSYC 1101.

Introduction to the multi-disciplinary field of gerontology which provides an overview of the sociology, psychology, and the physiology of aging. Students will consider research and theories of aging as well as participate in field trip experiences in gerontological settings. A key goal is to develop a more realistic perception of the aging process.

SOCI 3314. Race and Ethnicity. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201 or permission of instructor.

A survey of racial and ethnic relations, concentrating on the American experience. Stress is placed on the dynamics of prejudice and discrimination, and assimilation versus pluralism, including discussions of multi-culturalism, bilingualism, and affirmative action.

SOCI 3320. Exploring the Aging Network. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201 or PSYC 1101.

The class explores through field trips and speakers the range of services and programs that relate to aging in the Atlanta region and rural Georgia. The goal is to immerse students in the aging network so that they develop contacts, resources and knowledge for use in the family as well as work settings. The grade for the course will be based on attendance at field trips, online discussion and a paper related to the student's major, career path, and personal goals for the course.

SOCI 3324. Sex Roles in Modern Society. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201.

An examination of the implications of the changes in the kinship, economic, and political structures related to male/female relations and their impact on gender equality in contemporary society.

SOCI 3333. Technology and Society. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2105 or 2201 or ANTH 2105 or 2201.

This course will examine the interaction between scientific and technological development and social development, social structure and social issues.

SOCI 3334. Religion and Society. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201 or ANTH 2201.

Examination of religion as a social institution in historical, comparative, and contemporary terms. World religions and new religious movements are studied as sociocultural processes involving the need to know, to deal with problems and to adapt to change.

SOCI 3344. Biotechnology and Social Change. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2105 or SOCI 2201 or permission of instructor.

Modern biotechnology, a revolutionary innovation in science, is having major transforming effects on society. It is impacting the dinner table, agriculture, health and medicine, industrial processes, reproduction and has far-reaching implications for other areas of social life. This course is designed to examine the multiple manifestations of biotechnology and their social change implications. The course begins by locating the biotechnology "revolution" in the broader socio-historical context within which it is emerging, and explores its links to the new knowledge-based economy. The course then focuses on the examination of the ways in which the development and application of biotechnology in its various manifestations are transforming the cultural and institutional character of modern societies.

This will include an examination of social, ethical/moral and legal/legislative issues and their impact on policy.

SOCI 3354. Social Class and Mobility. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201.

Examination of social class and hierarchy in America. Issues in empowerment, equality, styles of life, and the nature of poverty and social mobility will be highlighted.

SOCI 3360. Sociology of Violence. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: CRJU 1101 and SOCI 2105 or SOCI 2201.

This course examines the root causes and consequences of violent behavior exhibited by individuals in our society. Topics covered include the social and cultural contexts that breed violence, society's influence on specific crimes, and human social behavior.

SOCI 3364. Sociology of the Family. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201.

Presents the institution of the family in historical and cross-cultural perspective, including an analysis of the American family system, its social structure and alteration, and its relation to other social institutions.

SOCI 3374. Sociology of Occupations. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201.

An analysis of the contemporary occupations, with emphasis on large-scale organizations, the structure of occupations and the nature of work.

SOCI 3396. Cooperative Study. 1-3.

Prerequisite: Approval of coordinator of cooperative education (CAPS) and department chair.

A supervised work experience program for a minimum of two academic semesters at a previously approved site in business, industry, government or private agency. For sophomore, junior or senior level students who wish to obtain successive on-the-job experience in conjunction with their academic training.

SOCI 3398. Internship. 1-12.

Prerequisite: 90 hours and SOCI 3304.

A structured off-campus experience in a supervised setting which is related to the student's major and career interests. Practical experience is combined with scholarly research in the topical area of the internship, under the guidance of an interdisciplinary faculty committee. Sites must be approved in advance of the semester of the internship. A departmental internship orientation session is scheduled at least once a semester.

SOCI 4200. Drugs, Alcohol and Society. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201.

This course examines drug use and abuse, including alcohol. Specifically, it examines how different drugs affect the body, theories of drug use, the sociological context of drug use, the impact of drug use and abuse on society, drug treatment, drug use policies, drugs and the law, and the extent of drug use in our society and globally.

SOCI 4400. Directed Study in Sociology. 1-3.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair.

Covers special topics and seminars external to regular course offerings. May include original research projects and practicum experiences.

SOCI 4432. Criminology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: CRJU 1101 or SOCI 2201.

An overview of theory and practice, the nature and cause of crime, and the etiology of criminal offenses and offenders.

SOCI 4434. Emerging Social Issues in Africa. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201 or SOCI 2105 or permission of instructor.

As the twenty-first century unfolds Africa and its peoples are being engulfed by a series of social issues that are set to shape their collective futures. These interrelated social issues have important implications for Africa's social development and the attainment of enhanced quality of life for Africa and its peoples. Among the most relevant social issues are population growth, the state of health in the face of the AIDS epidemic, environmental change (e.g. desertification and loss of flora/fauna), food security/insecurity, political stability, public security, socio-cultural transformation resulting from globalization, and economic transitions. The central purpose of this sociological course is to examine the nature, patterns, sources and consequences of the identified social issues as well as potential remedies.

SOCI 4442. Deviance and Social Control. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201.

A survey of the nature, causes, and consequences of deviant behavior. Provides an analysis of the problems of definition, identification, explanation, and social reaction to violations of institutional expectations. Presents techniques of social control.

SOCI 4443. Medical Sociology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201.

Provides an analysis of (1) the social processes affecting conditions of health and illness and (2) the cluster of social relationships and organizations that comprise the social institution of health. Emphasizes the sociocultural factors that influence definitions of health and illness, causes, preventions and treatments, cross-cultural and interclass comparisons of stress, delivery of health care, mental illness, death and dying, and health care professionals.

SOCI 4444. Social Change and Modernization. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201.

The nature, types, and causes of social change; technological and sociocultural factors affecting processes of change. Innovation, diffusion, and the process of acceptance and rejection of change by social systems and social groups.

SOCI 4445. Sociology of Mental Illness. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201 or PSYC 1101 or permission of instructor.

This course examines the social aspects of mental illness. Mental illness is not just a psychological or biological affliction. Because it is also, in part, socially created and controlled, the course is designed to help students understand who gets labeled “sick” and why. Included are a review of the social history of mental illness and an examination of the institutions assigned to manage it. Among the topics considered will be how mental disorder is defined and diagnosed, and how it is treated. Also considered will be the social factors that influence its severity and course. One of the questions addressed will be whether all “mental disorders” are “diseases.” The applicability of a resocialization model to this issue will likewise be studied. Finally, the ethical aspects of all of these approaches will be considered.

SOCI 4464. Population. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2201.

An analysis of the size, growth, composition, distribution, and characteristics of the population with emphasis on application of demographic information to socioeconomic structure, and implications of population change.

SOCI 4490. Special Topics in Sociology. 1-3.

Prerequisite: Approval of instructor and department chair.

Selected topics of interest to faculty and students.

SOCI 4499. Senior Seminar in Sociology. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SOCI 2301, SOCI 3300.

This is the capstone course designed to help senior-level students integrate their learning from previous sociology courses and other courses in their concentration. Students will (1) carry out an individual research study or project; (2) present the results of that research in relation to the existing body of knowledge; (3) listen to the presentations of others and provide constructive criticism in a community of scholars; (4) cultivate the ability to reflect upon their experiences and synthesize the material from all of their sociology courses, including the central importance of the intersecting impact of race, class, and gender; (5) hone their skills at documenting their research in a final report.

• SPANISH (SPAN) •SPAN 1001. Introduction To Spanish Language and Culture I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099 or READ 0099 if required.

Introduction to Spanish language and culture, stressing progressive acquisition of effective communication skills in both the written and spoken language and an understanding of the practices and products of Hispanic cultures. Not open to native speakers of Spanish.

SPAN 1002. Introduction to Spanish Language and Culture II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: One year of high school Spanish or Spanish 1001 or the equivalent.

Introduction to Spanish language and culture, “Part II,” stressing continued, progressive acquisition of effective communication skills in both the written and spoken language and an understanding of the practices and products of Hispanic cultures. Not open to native speakers of Spanish.

SPAN 2001. Intermediate Spanish Language and Culture I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Two years of high school Spanish or SPAN 1002 or the equivalent.

The student will continue to develop proficiency in listening, speaking, reading, and writing, and learn to communicate in culturally appropriate ways. Not open to native speakers of Spanish.

SPAN 2002. Intermediate Spanish Language and Culture II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Three years of high school Spanish or SPAN 2001 or the equivalent.

Students continue to increase linguistic and cultural proficiency through the use of a variety of materials and activities. Course will serve as a transition between intermediate and upper-level courses in Spanish. Not open to native speakers of Spanish.

SPAN 2030. Spanish for Human Services. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: One year of high school Spanish or PAN 1001 or the equivalent.

This course focuses on Spanish language and culture appropriate for working in the fields of Public and Social Services with Hispanics. Not open to native speakers of Spanish.

SPAN 2032. Spanish for Health Professionals. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: None.

This course focuses on Spanish language and culture appropriate for working with Hispanics in the medical field.

SPAN 2034. Spanish for Criminal Justice. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: One year of high school Spanish or SPAN 1001 or the equivalent.

This course focuses on Spanish language and culture appropriate for working in the fields of Criminal Justice with Hispanics. Not open to native speakers of Spanish.

SPAN 2290. Special Topics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Permission of Department Chair.

Special topics of interest at the intermediate level. Used primarily for studies abroad.

SPAN 3200. Critical Reading and Applied Writing. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SPAN 2002 or the equivalent.

This course emphasizes skill development and refinement in the areas of critical reading and writing in Spanish. Designed to give students extensive experience in reading and writing in Spanish, the course focuses on the relationship between writing and reading, and on ways to improve one through the other.

SPAN 3302. Practical Conversation. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SPAN 2002.

Stresses expansion of effective listening comprehension and speaking skills through culturally and linguistically appropriate activities.

SPAN 3303. Grammar and Composition. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SPAN 2002.

General review of grammar through composition and other written activities, such as summaries, correspondence, descriptions, narration, literary analysis, and other rhetorical and culturally appropriate forms.

SPAN 3304. Literature and Culture I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SPAN 3200 and SPAN 3303.

An introduction to Hispanic literature and culture from the Middle Ages to 1850. Students examine literary and artistic movements as well as cultural issues of the period. Readings and discussion in Spanish.

SPAN 3305. Literature and Culture II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SPAN 3200 and SPAN 3303.

An introduction to Hispanic literature and culture from the 1850 to the present. Students examine literary and artistic movements as well as cultural issues of the period. Readings and discussion in Spanish.

SPAN 3398. Internship. 1-9 credit hours.

Prerequisite: SPAN 3302 AND SPAN 3303 OR Permission of Instructor.

Supervised, credit-earning work experience of one semester requiring use of Spanish in the work place. Prior approval by department coordinator and internship supervisor is required. No more than three semester hours may be applied toward the major.

SPAN 4400. Directed Study. 1-3.

Prerequisite: SPAN 3302 AND SPAN 3303 or Permission of Instructor.

Covers special topics and seminars external to course offerings that allow a student to work individually with an instructor. Requires prior approval by instructor and department chair.

SPAN 4402. Contemporary Culture. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SPAN 3304 or SPAN 3305.

An examination of the historical, social, and political contexts of the contemporary Hispanic experience through the analysis of different cultural representations such as film, media, plastic arts, music and literature. Readings and discussion in Spanish.

SPAN 4404. Commercial Spanish. 3-0-3.

An exploration of a period, movement or genre in literature, a topic in culture, or language-related issues. Topics are chosen for their significance and impact on Hispanic cultures. Course taught in Spanish.

SPAN 4456. Advanced Grammar and Linguistics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SPAN 3302 and SPAN 3303.

Advanced study of grammar from a linguistic perspective. Provides an overview of phonetics, phonology, morphology, and syntax. Exposes students to dialectical variations of the Spanish-speaking world. Stresses development of oral proficiency. Course taught in Spanish.

SPAN 4490. Special Topics in Spanish. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SPAN 3302 AND SPAN 3303 or permission of instructor.

Special topics relevant to the study of Spanish-speaking societies.

SPAN 4499. Senior Seminar. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: SPAN 3304 and SPAN 3305 and permission of instructor.

A capstone course designed to synthesize and connect the student's prior academic experiences in the major and related fields of study. Students will prepare a reflective essay and a research paper to present to the faculty. Papers and presentation in Spanish.

• STATISTICS (STAT) •

STAT 3010. Computer Applications of Statistics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: MATH 1107 or CSIS 2300 or ECON 2300.

Introduction to the use of computer-based statistical software packages and applications in the analysis and interpretation of the data. Topics include both descriptive statistics and inference methods. Software packages include SAS, JMP, SPSS, Minitab, and EXCEL.

STAT 3120. Statistical Methods I. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: STAT 3010.

This course is designed to provide students with a foundation in statistical methods, including confidence intervals for population parameters, correlation, linear regression and hypothesis testing (F and T-tests for regression, chi-square for independence, 2 group and paired sample T-tests). These concepts are taught with heavy emphasis on statistical computing software and real world datasets. Students are expected to have a working knowledge of SAS, SPSS, and Minitab (satisfied through the pre-requisite of STAT 3010).

STAT 3125. Biostatistics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: BIOL 2107 or or CHEM 1212 or permission of instructor.

In this course students use descriptive statistics and visual displays to describe data. They learn about some common population and sample distributions. They perform and analyze results of statistical inferences, including confidence intervals, correlation, linear regression, odds/risks ratios, and hypothesis testing (F and T-tests for regression, Chi-square for independence, 2 group and paired sample t-tests). Analyses are performed using MS-Excel. The student is required to select, analyze and interpret real life data for a project.

STAT 3130. Statistical Methods II. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: STAT 3120 or STAT 3125.

Students continue to build their foundation in statistical methods in this course beginning with review of t-tests. They will perform and analyze results of Wilcoxon Signed Rank and Rank Sum tests (Non-Parametric t-tests), ANOVA, Kruskal Wallis (Non-Parametric ANOVA), and Multiple Regression. These concepts are taught with heavy emphasis on statistical computing software and real world datasets. Students use at least two of the following statistical packages for analyses: SAS, Minitab, SPSS, JMP.

STAT 4120. Applied Experimental Design. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: STAT 3130.

Methods for constructing and analyzing designed experiments are the focus of this course. The concepts of experimental unit, randomization, blocking, replication, error reduction and treatment structure are introduced. The design and analysis of completely randomized, randomized complete block, incomplete block, Latin square, split-plot, repeated measures, factorial and fractional factorial designs will be covered. Statistical software, including SPSS, Minitab and SAS will be utilized.

STAT 4210. Applied Regression Analysis. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: STAT 3130.

Topics include simple linear regression, multiple regression models, generalized linear model, multicollinearity, qualitative predictor variables, model selection and validation, identifying outliers and influential observations, diagnostics for multicollinearity, and logistic regression and discriminant analysis.

STAT 4310. Statistical Data Mining. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: STAT 3130 or permission of instructor. Data Mining is an information extraction activity whose goal is to discover hidden facts contained in databases, perform prediction and forecasting, and generally improve their performance through interaction with data. The process includes data selection, cleaning, coding, using different statistical, pattern recognition and machine learning techniques, and reporting and visualization of the generated structures. The course will cover all these issues and will illustrate the whole process by examples of practical applications. The students will use recent SAS Enterprise Miner software.

STAT 4490. Special Topics in Statistics. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: STAT 3130. Special topics of interest to faculty and students.

• STUDY ABROAD (SA) •

KSU offers study abroad opportunities in a wide variety of countries and disciplines. All study abroad courses, whatever their discipline or level of study, are listed as SA courses for purposes of registration and administration. Full course titles appear on students' transcripts. Computer numbers necessary for registration in SA courses are communicated to students by letter after they have been accepted into a study abroad program and paid a deposit. For more information, contact the Institute for Global Initiatives, Humanities 201, (770) 423-6336.

SA 2290. Lower-division Study Abroad.

Prerequisite: Varies with discipline and subject. Lower division study abroad course denoting freshman, sophomore level work.

SA 4400. Study Abroad Directed Study.

Prerequisite: Approval of the instructor and department chair prior to registration. Available for all disciplines.

SA 4490. Upper-division Study Abroad.

Prerequisite: Varies with discipline and subject. Upper division study abroad course denoting junior, senior level work.

• THEATRE AND PERFORMANCE STUDIES (TPS) •

TPS 1107. Arts in Society: Theatre and Performance. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: ENGL 0099, READ 0099, if required. Through an examination of the role of arts in society, and an in-depth study of selected theatre and performance events, this interactive course provides an understanding of the creative process and develops skills in creativity and critical analysis. Heightened perceptual abilities will be developed through class experiences and field visits to a variety of arts events in dance, music, and visual arts, as well as in theatre and performance. (Attendance at some events requires paid admission.)

TPS 1500. Introduction to Theatre Studies. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: TPS interest, ENGL 099, READ 0099, if required.

An introduction to theatre as a field of study and as an art form.

TPS 1600. Introduction to Performance Studies. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: TPS interest, ENGL 0099, READ 0099, if required.

An introduction to performance as a field of study and as an art form.

TPS 1713. Stagecraft. 3-0-2.

Prerequisite: TPS interest.

Theoretical and practical work in theatre crafts including carpentry, properties, costumes, scene painting, stage lighting, and sound. Special attention will be given to safety precautions in each area.

Prerequisite: TPS interest, ENGL 0099, READ 0099, if required.

The theory and practice of the actor's craft.

TPS 2713. Theatre Production. 0-6-2.

Prerequisite: TPS interest.

A study of the creative process of theatrical production from concept to performance. This course features the analysis of selected scripts as well as individually-designed production and/or performance assignments. Theatre and Performance Studies majors must complete TPS 2713 two times for a total of four hours credit.

TPS 3000. Performing Literature. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: TPS Major, TPS 1600.

The study of a variety of literary texts through solo and group performance. Students engage course topics through critical reading, written analysis, and embodied performance.

TPS 3050. Applied Performance and Production. 0-4-1.

Prerequisite: TPS Major, TPS 2713.

This laboratory course focuses on the study, rehearsal, and performance or production for a Department of Theatre and Performance Studies production. This course may be repeated for upper-division credit and can be used for applied professional sequence (APS) credit.

TPS 3093. Performing Folktales and Fairy Tales. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: TPS Major, ENGL 2110.

The study of folktales and fairy tales from world oral traditions through storytelling performance.

TPS 3094. Performing Classical Myth. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: TPS Major, ENGL 2110.

The study of Greek and Roman mythology through storytelling performance.

TPS 3193. Performing World Myth. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: TPS Major, ENGL 2110.

The study of world mythology through storytelling performance.

TPS 3194. Performing Personal Narrative. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: TPS Major, ENGL 2110. Corequisites: TPS 3093 or TPS 3094 or TPS 3193.

The composition and storytelling performance of original personal narratives, emphasizing the study of narrative as an art form and as a way of constructing meaning.

TPS 3200. Voice and Articulation. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: TPS Major, TPS 2203 or instructor approval.

This course is designed to help performers develop a healthy, expressive and flexible vocal technique equal to the demands of dramatic performance. Students learn to free their natural voices through physical exercises and by mastering the vocabulary of vocal mechanics. Breathing, posture, relaxation, and articulation are examined as key elements of voice and speech production.

TPS 3213. Acting for the Camera. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: TPS Major, TPS 3223.

An intermediate acting course applying acting techniques to the special demands of film and television.

TPS 3223. Acting II: Intermediate Acting. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: TPS Major, TPS 3203.

An intermediate acting course applying and advancing the principles of Acting I to intermediate level stage challenges.

TPS 3243. Acting III: Acting Styles. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: TPS Major, TPS 3203, TPS 3223.

This course explores advanced topics in the art of stage acting. Emphasis is on nonrealistic period and genre styles. Theoretical studies will be combined with the performance of selected scenes and critical evaluations of peer and professional work.

*This course may be repeated more than once for credit provided that the course content differs entirely from the previous offering.

TPS 3398. Internship. 1-9 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Approval of department chair.

A supervised, credit-earning work experience of one academic semester with a previously approved business firm, private agency, or government agency.

TPS 3400. Performance Composition. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: TPS Major, TPS 1600 or permission of instructor.

Course will examine and apply various approaches for composing live performance events. Students will research and analyze a wide range of performance texts as inspiration for composing and mounting their own performances. Course will culminate in a final presentation of student works.

TPS 3403. Play Analysis for Production. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: TPS Major, TPS 1513.

Textual analysis of playscripts, with an emphasis on the perspective of the practitioner of theatre. A preparatory course for the history of theatre and drama sequence.

TPS 3493. Performance Art. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: TPS Major, ENGL 2110.

History, theories, and practice of performance art from futurism to the present. Emphasis is on the creation and performance of image, auteur approaches to literary, mythic, visual art, and personal sources, and the writing and staging of performance pieces.

TPS 3500. Dramaturgy. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: TPS Major, TPS 3403.

Close study of performance texts and source material, with an emphasis on dramaturgical praxis, including an overview of the history / theory of the dramaturg.

TPS 3600. Performing Culture. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: TPS Major, TPS 1600.

The study of the forms and functions of cultural performance practices. Students engage course topics through critical reading, written analysis, original fieldwork, and embodied performance.

TPS 3703. Broadway to Hollywood: Musical Theatre on Stage and Film. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: TPS Major, ENGL 1102.

This course is an introduction to musical theatre, which surveys the major shows in musical theatre literature, through the study of the plots, scores, characters, and songs of the shows. University System of Georgia

The University System of Georgia includes 35 state-operated institutions of higher education located throughout the state—four research universities, two regional universities, 13 state universities, eight state colleges, and eight two-year colleges.

The 18-member constitutional Board of Regents governs the system, which has been in operation since 1932. Appointments for seven-year terms of five board members from the state-at-large and one board member from each of the state's 13 congressional districts are made by the governor, subject to confirmation by the State Senate.

The chairperson, vice chairperson and other board officers are elected by members of the board. The chancellor, who is not a board member, is the board's chief executive officer and the chief administrative officer of the University System.

Overall, programs and services of the University System are offered through three major components—instruction, public service/continuing education and research.

INSTRUCTION encompasses programs of study leading toward degrees, ranging from the two-year associate level through the doctoral level, and certificates. Each institution determines requirements for admission of students to instructional programs, pursuant to policies of the Board of Regents. The board, which establishes minimum academic standards, leaves to each institution the prerogative of establishing higher standards. Applications for admission should be addressed in all cases to the institutions.

For students whose goal is a degree beyond the associate level, a Core Curriculum of study for the freshman and sophomore years is in effect at each institution. The Core Curriculum, which facilitates transfer of freshman and sophomore degree credits within the University System, requires 63 semester-credit-hours: 45 in general education and 18 in the student's chosen major.

PUBLIC SERVICE/CONTINUING EDUCATION encompasses, primarily, non-degree activities, including short courses, seminars, conferences, lectures, and consultative and advisory services. Some college-degree-credit courses of special types are also offered, typically through extension center programs and teacher education consortiums.

RESEARCH encompasses on-campus and off-campus investigations conducted primarily by the universities but also in moderate scope at some of the state universities and senior colleges, for discovery and application of knowledge. Research topics cover a large variety of matters related to the educational objectives of the institutions and to general needs of society.

The policies of the Board of Regents and the administrative actions of the chancellor provide for each institution autonomy of high degree in academic and administrative matters. The executive head of each institution is the president, whose election is recommended by the chancellor and approved by the board. State applications for the University System are registered by, made to and allocated by the Board of Regents. The largest share of state appropriations (52 percent) is allocated by the Board for Instruction.

Matriculation and nonresidential tuition fees for all institutions are set by the board. All resident students pay matriculation fees; out-of-state student pay nonresident tuition in addition to matriculation. Fees for student services and activities are established by each institution, subject to the board's approval.
